 —James E. Solt, the shoemaker, on east Allegheny street, desires more of the public patronage. He is anxious to make a living at his trade.
 —Dr. S. E. Noll, of Philadelphia, is visiting friends at Pleasant Gap. For some time past he held an important position in a large hospital in that city.
 —Our Pleasant Gap correspondent sends us an unusually interesting letter this week. The scribe is of a poetical turn of mind and gets off a few nice things on the people in that vicinity.
 —Sheriff Condo, Register Rumberger and Prothonotary Wm. F. Smith, took in the excursion to Atlantic City last Thursday. They no doubt will have a big time and enjoy themselves immensely.
 —Mrs. James Scarlet, of Danville, Pa., is visiting her brother Wm. Lyon, at this place. On Sunday she sang in the Presbyterian church and it was much appreciated by all present.
 —Mrs. W. R. Daggett and children have decided to spend the summer season at State College where they will occupy a cottage. Mr. Daggett will remain in Bellefonte however and oversee the Bush House.
 —H. B. Sheffer, the photographer arrived in Bellefonte on Saturday. He has sold his establishment at Peckskill, N. Y. and expects to devote his entire attention to his gallery at this place. Sheffer recently cut off his mustache and now he sports a genuine Bill McKinley face.
 —Prof. Joseph H. Apple, President of the Woman's College, of Frederick City, Md., spent a few days in town last week softening pupils for the institution he represents. This college is under the auspices of the Reformed church, and is in a very flourishing condition. Prof. Apple, while in Bellefonte, was the guest of C. M. Bower, Esq.

MILITARY ENCAMPMENT.

A Visit to Camp Gibbon at Lewistown, Last Week.

Last week Centre county was well represented at Lewistown, to see the sights of the military encampment. It is an opportunity that many were anxious to embrace to see the entire soldiery of the state assembled and under military discipline. Camp opened on Saturday, the 18th, and continued for one week, until the 25th. They were located on a plot of ground along the Juniata river and close to the Lewistown Junction, on the Pennsylvania railroad.
 The principal day of the week was Thursday, when the entire guard would be out in grand review before Governor Hastings and his staff. It was a model day. The ground was in excellent condition and a cool breeze made it pleasant for all. It is estimated that no less than 15,000 visitors were on the ground for this event. From the adjoining counties they came by private conveyances, while the trains brought hundreds from all sections of the state.
 Camp Gibbon extended over a strip of meadow land at least two miles in length, while on the brow of a hill overlooking the entire field, which was spread out before them like a vast amphitheatre was the division headquarters. It was the opinion of all that this was the finest located camp ever established and may become a permanent thing.
 The writer attended camp on Thursday and was fortunate in witnessing the grand review at 5 p. m. It was a splendid sight. Over the vast field were about ten thousand troops, consisting of infantry, cavalry and artillery. Their movements over the field by companies, regiments and brigades, with regularity and precision, could not fail but interest and enthuse a civilian, and will not soon be forgotten. The dress parades in the evening was another attractive feature worth seeing.
 Our stay at camp was made quite pleasant by the consideration of some of Bellefonte's dignitaries. The Governor, Gen. Hastings, insisted upon us accepting the hospitality of division headquarters, and assured us that, although a bit crowded, there was "lots to eat on hand." Here the Governor and staff and Gen. Snowden and staff are comfortably quartered, and dine upon the delicacies of the season. Their cuisine is complete, and presided over by artists who can serve almost any dish you may wish and in the most toothsome manner. In addition to this the casino was not missed, another necessary department that puts the finishing touch on entertainment, so generously extended. To Col. Wilbur Reeder, Col. Austin Curtin and Sergeant R. F. Hunter we are also indebted for kindly attentions, much appreciated.
 On Friday morning a heavy rain set in and spoiled the program. A short visit was made to the 5th regiment where we soon located company B. Captain Quigley assured us that the boys had done very well this year, and expected a high rating. Lieutenants Taylor and Jackson were easily located and enjoying their outing.
 The rain spoiled the program of the day and the camp became very muddy. Saturday company B arrived home and all seemed pleased with the camp. It was the most successful, in their opinion, of any yet held.
 While at camp Captain H. C. Quigley handed his resignation to the company, to take effect at once. The position interfered with other duties. The most prominently mentioned as his successor is Hugh S. Taylor, the 2nd lieutenant. It is quite likely that he will be selected.
New Instrument.
 The Undine Fire Co., of this place, takes great pride in its band, which is made up entirely of members of the company. This week they purchased from Carl Fischer, of New York, one of the famous Besson Prototype Eb cornets, which are considered the best make of band instruments in the world. The Undines now have several genuine Besson instruments in their band, and it is their intention to get a full set in the near future. The band is getting ready to attend the firemen's convention at Clearfield, in August, and we predict they will take second place to none on that occasion. The entire company will attend the convention.
Fine Farm for Sale.
 The farm of David Sharer, dec'd., located about one and a half miles southwest of Zion, in Spring township, will be offered at public sale, on the premises, on Saturday, September 5th, 1896, at 1 o'clock p. m. The tract contains 136 acres of fine limestone land, has two orchards of choice fruit, running water that has never been known to fail, good buildings consisting of a large brick house, bank barn, etc. The farm is level and joins the Central Railroad of Pa. on the north. It is one of the finest homes in Nittany Valley.
Accidentally Cut His Throat.
 Fred Rouguex, one of the well known lumbermen at Frenchville, severely injured himself Thursday. While at work in the woods near that place he made a misstep which caused him to fall on his double bitted axe. His throat was badly gashed, the windpipe being nearly severed. His recovery is doubtful.
 —On Monday during the storm the Mechanical Arts building, State College, was struck by lightning and somewhat damaged.

A Quiet Wedding.
 On Tuesday evening a quiet wedding ceremony took place at the residence of Mr. Cyrus Strickland, on Bishop street, that united her daughter Miss Jennie and Mr. A. L. Sheffer in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Laurie, of the Presbyterian church, and was witnessed by only the immediate friends. An elegant wedding supper was served, after which they departed on the evening train for eastern points and will be gone about one week. Upon their return they will be at home, at the residence of the bride's mother, on Bishop street.
 The wedding was a surprise to our young people, as very few were aware of the event until the ceremony was over. To this young couple we extend our hearty congratulations.
Lighting Kills Two Horses.
 During the thunder storm last Sunday night lightning struck and killed two horses on the farm of Jacob Ricker in the East end of Nittany Valley. The horses were in a field of twenty-two acres. When found this morning they lay about forty feet apart; near the middle of the field, but where not under a tree. The hair was singed from the head of one of the horses, which was the only mark visible of the lightning's stroke. They were valuable animals, one being a dappled gray and the other a black, both of good stock.
And the Band Played.
 John Wetzel, of Howard, and Clarence Cook, of Bellefonte, had a disputed account for a number of years. Finally Cook sued Wetzel for a settlement before a justice of the peace. The settlement took place Monday and while the principals were inside the Howard band was outside playing. After all was satisfactorily arranged it leaked out that Wetzel had hired the band to come to the "squire's" office and play as long as they were inside.—Hornet.

Reduced Rates To The Seashore.
 The Pennsylvania Railroad Company, whose object always is to give its patrons the cheapest rates compatible with good service, has arranged for excursions to the seashore from Erie, Fasset, Dauphin, and intermediate stations (including stations on branch roads), August 6 and 20.
 For information in regard to rates, time of trains, &c., consult small bills or apply to nearest ticket agent.
Dashed Against a Pole.
 While driving over the mountain near Centre Hall a few days ago Mrs. Lizzie Murray and young daughter were thrown from the buggy by the horse taking fright, running wildly down the mountain side and dashing the vehicle against a telephone pole. Mrs. Murray's head was badly cut and her knee was severely sprained. The little girl escaped injury. The buggy was wrecked.
Runaway Accident.
 Sunday afternoon while Rev. A. B. Hoover, pastor of the M. E. church at Flemington, and Mr. Robert Packer were driving from Fairpoint church to Flemington they were thrown from their buggy and both were injured by coming in contact with a wire fence. Rev. Hoover was unable to hold services on account of his injuries.
Married at Lock Haven.
 On Wednesday the 22nd, Oliver H. P. Kester and Mrs. Johanna Parsons, of Pleasant Gap were married at the Christian church in Lock Haven.

DEAD BODY OF A MAN FOUND

Supposed to Have Been Murdered for his Money.

Saturday afternoon while Mrs. George Long was picking huckleberries on Warriaridge, near Limestone hollow, about 4 miles west of this place, she says she discovered the body of a man lying in the woods with nothing on but pantaloons and shirt. She approached the body and lifted his arm off his head to see if she could recognize him and found a large hole in his forehead. She found a cane alongside the body upon which were three initials. The body had evidently lain there for several days, judging from its appearance. It is supposed he had been murdered for his money, as nothing was found in his pockets.
 Mrs. Long came to her home on Mifflin street near 19th last evening and made known her ghastly discovery to some of her neighbors, and the affair came to the knowledge of Coroner G. Greenburg about 9 o'clock, too late to summon a jury and search for the body. He will investigate to-day. Mrs. Long says she tore off a piece of her apron and stuck it on the limb of a tree near where she found the body, to serve as a marker.
 —Yesterday's Huntingdon News,
Desperate Trick
 On Tuesday night some parties committed a vicious deed, at the home of Wm. Grove about three miles west of Bellefonte. All the harness in the barn, consisting of two sets of tug harness, driving harness, collars, bridles, flynets, etc., were completely ruined by being cut to pieces so that they cannot be used. In addition the buggy top and side curtains were cut in strips and the canvass on the binder was also cut up. Several chickens in the shed were found with heads off. An effort was also made to remove the burs from the wagon.
 Who the parties were that committed such a vicious deed Mr. Grove cannot imagine. If the perpetrators could be discovered we are sure our courts would severely punish them by a long trip to the Western Penitentiary.
 Mr. Grove's loss will be considerable as he must purchase an entire new outfit of harness.
State Sabbath School Convention.
 The Pennsylvania State Sabbath school association, of which Hon. John Wanamaker is president, will hold its thirty-second annual convention at Carlisle, October 13-15. Delegates to the convention are appointed by county Sabbath school conventions, or by their executive committees. Counties having more than 100,000 population are entitled to twenty delegates each; other counties to each. This gives 760 delegates for the entire state. Mr. Wanamaker will preside at the convention and give the annual address. Governor Hastings will speak on the evening of the 13th, and a number of the best Sabbath school workers of the country will take part in the exercises. The general secretary, Rev. C. J. Kephart of Anville, will send a copy of the program to all who apply; they will be ready to mail October 1.
Newton Hamilton Camp Meeting.
 The Juniata Valley Camp Meeting Association will hold its Twenty-fifth annual meeting at Newton Hamilton camp August 11-21. The grounds will be open for occupancy on August 1st for those who desire to tent during the two weeks' religious work. The religious exercises will be in charge of Rev. A. R. Lambert, of Harrisburg, and the revival services will be conducted by Rev. Leonard Weaver, the noted Canadian Evangelist. The revival services will be made a special feature of the camp meeting this year.
DO NOT FAIL TO READ THIS.
 The noted specialist, Dr. M. Salm, who has been so successful in the treatment of private diseases of both sexes, and all kinds of chronic diseases, may be consulted in Bellefonte, at the New Brockerhoff House, on Saturday, August 8th, and every four weeks thereafter on the same day. Consultation and examination free.
Bucknell University.
 Bucknell University, John Howard Harris, L. L. D., President. College with four courses of study leading to degrees; Academy for boys and young men; Ladies' Institute and School of Music; Thirty acre campus, ten buildings, including gymnasium, laboratory and observatory. For catalogue and other information address Wm. C. Gretzinger, Registrar, Lewisburg, Pa. Sept. 20.
Another Scare.
 The Harrisburg Patriot says: Hydrophobia has broken out among the dogs, cows, sheep and hogs in Poc valley, Centre county. Many animals have the rabies and it is feared the malady will become epidemic through the county unless it is promptly checked. State Veterinarian Pearson has gone to Spring Mills to see what can be done to prevent its spread.
Granger Picnic.
 The annual picnic of the grangers and farmers of Warrior's Mark valley, will be held at One Hundred Springs Park next Saturday, August 1st. Prominent speakers will be present and address the gathering.
