Harry Austin is at home from the lumber camp in Potter county.

Mrs. Jerry Shearer of Bellefonte was a guest of Mrs. James McCloskey Sunday last.

A TEMBLE—On Friday last Gilbert Beaver and his bike came flying down Pike street. When opposite the new church, and not paying any attention ahead, watching the men working on the building, he collided with little Ray Baird, who was playing with a toy parachute. When the collision occurred the bike and rider flew to one side of the street and the boy and parachute to the other side. Gilbert picked himself up as gracefully as possible and then went to the assistance of the little boy, whom he found badly scared but unharmed. The boy had a sleeve torn from his waist, and his mother, upon finding the extent of his injuries, took a hearty laugh over the affair.

FESTIVAL—The Baptist Sunday School held their festival in the basement of the church Friday and Saturday evenings and had a grand time. The school returns thanks to their friends who so liberally gave material; also to those who assisted them in soliciting, waiting on the tables, etc. Receipts $35.41, expenses $3.30.

PEACE AT WAR—Friday evening one of our justices of the peace and an ex-justice disagreed in their conversation on some point. The ex-justice for some reason raised his hand and his opponent fell to the ground—presumably to avoid punishment. The controversy, at present writing, is a candidate for settlement in Bellefonte.

Wilbur Hall of Tyrone was visible on our streets Saturday.

Miss Lizzie Weaver left Saturday morning for Jersey Shore where she will be the guest of Miss L. Jones.

Wm. Smith and family of Altoona are visiting Alfred Smith and wife on Pike street.

Samuel Swann is all smiles now—a son came to take possession of his home Thursday last.

Miss Phinetta Jones is visiting in Unionville.

Clayton Poorman of Tyrone was a guest of his mother Friday last.

FAST DRIVING—Wednesday evening, 19th, George Beezer and Mart Garman of Bellefonte had a hearing before J. Miles Green, Esq., for fast driving through the borough. P. H. Haupt was the prosecutor and the affair caused some excitement for a time. The office and pavement were crowded with spectators anxious to learn the verdict. A number of witnesses were called and examined pro and con. Finally a decision was reached, a fine of $8 each being imposed, which was promptly paid.

George Parson of Pittsburg was here recently transacting business with a number of our citizens.

Miss Grace Proudfoot of Williamsport is the guest of her mother, Mrs. J. B. Proudfoot, on Market street.

Henry Thomas, wife and two children spent Friday evening in Milesburg at the residence of W. B. Grassmyer. Mr. Myers is postmaster and merchant at Axemann. His wife is a sister of Mrs. Grassmyer.

SURPRISE PARTY—A surprise party was held at the home of William Grassmyer on the evening of the 18th, it being his 52nd birthday anniversary. He was most completely and agreeably surprised upon arriving home about 9 o'clock and finding the house crowded with neighbors and friends and the tables all in readiness for the partaking of the good things with which they were groaning. The prime mover in the occasion was his good wife, who is ever ready to make people happy.

REBERSBURG RUMBLINGS.

OAK HALL.

Homan Bros. have purchased a threshing outfit. So bring on your weeds.

The Lutheran and Reformed Sunday schools, of Boalsburg, held a basket picnic at Shingletown last Saturday, during which a missionary from Africa made an excellent address. He also delivered an address Wednesday evening, which was very interesting, in the Lutheran church at Boalsburg. Some about 4 feet long at killed a black snake about a game of the reservoir. After dinner a game of base ball was played between picked nines. Lonberger did the whirling for one side, while Dudey pitched for the other. The star play was a home run made by "Sorley" on three strikes. At the end of the third inning, with the score 3 and 4 in favor of Dudey, the game was called. The umpire also made some very rank decisions, which of course had to be taken, as Eddie is right on to the biz. After the game of ball there was a game of croquet, of which we were unable to learn the score. "Picket" started to play ball, but when a certain Miss came on the ground he threw up the sponge; at this writing he is improving slowly.

Autumn Dress Woolens

They've been coming in, case after case, since the first of the month, but we said nothing about them; did not put any on sale till we had accumulated a comprehensive line—now we invite you to inspect a collection that will exemplify one of the seasons for this store's success—large assortments of choice goods less priced.

We were at considerable pains, covering a period of several months, getting together these wondrous things—exquisite weaves, rich color effects—magnificent ensemble—but the end justified the effort—you'll be pleased with them—you'll be glad, in your own interest, to send this store your order—we will be repaid and you will profit thereby.

First thing to do is to send for samples—add some slight hint as to your preference, if you like. The time to get choice things is now.

HAVE your name and address on our catalogue list? New one will be ready in a few weeks. BOGGS & BUHL ALLEGHENY, PA.

SPEEDY RELIEF IS WHAT IS WANTED.

Thousands upon thousands of children and other dear members of families, die annually from Diphtheria. This can all be avoided by the prompt use, according to directions, of

THOMPSON'S DIPHTHERIA CURE

Manufactured by the Thompson Diphtheria Cure Co., Williamsport, Pa., and sold by Drug-gists everywhere for the small sum of fifty cents per bottle. What is fifty cents when it avoids the suffering and saves the life of a dear one? You say: "Nothing, but will it do what is claimed?" It has done so in every instance on record—not a single case where it failed. This is the best and surest guarantee for its medicinal qualities.

Thompson's Diphtheria Cure also speedily relieves and cures Croup, Quinsy or any other throat affection.

Those who have tried it will never do without this medicine in their house, and their unsolicited testimonials prove this assertion.
