WOLF'S STORE.

To THE PUBLIC: - Our undertaker, Mr. Henry Brumgart, of Rebersburg, Pa., has returned home from his eastern trip, where he has taken a course in school embalming. Mr. Brumgart pledges himself to the public of Rebersburg and entire community that he can give better satisfaction in his profession in the future than he has in the past, because(1)he can take better care of a corpse and knows of the Gregg sisters at present writing. how to treat all cases, and present them for burial and (2) the disease will always tell which artery to use to secure the best result, and he feels qualified on this point. Mr. Brumgart had no trouble to be at the head of the class with the in-structions he had while he was employed by Murphy & Co. He also claims Mr. out of a wagon, hurting his foot. Murphy is one of the finest undertakers in the state, at least he was one of the chosen ones to be called to Johnstown in May 1889 to help procure the dead. Mr. Brumgart feels like thanking the com-munity for their hospitality in the past, solicits their patronage in the future. While at school Mr. Brumgart obtained a funeral card which truly shows that he is now well qualified to give the best
