CORRESPONDENTS DEPARTMENT.

WALLACERUN.

Backweek thrashing is the principal occupation of the people at present.

Wm. Rodgers, of Tyrone, made a flying trip through here last week.

W. M. Cronister was seen in our midst, looking up his democratic friends.

Mr. C. T. Lucas was to Howard a few days last week delivering books, entitled "A Practical Book for Practical People."

William Kerns, from Ohio, was seen through here, on private business.

The home of Mr. William Shirk, of Chestnut Grove, was gladdened recently by the arrival of a little boy.

James Hoover, of Chestnut Grove, is overjoyed by the new arrival at his home recently. He says it is a twelve pound boy, count one for McKinley.

Mr. Chas. Caldwell and daughter, of Central City, Sundayed at Corney Freils.

Mr. Harry Kunes, of Bush Hollow, Sundayed at W. T. Kunes.

Jos. Rodgers and family, of Osceola, spent Saturday and Sunday at Henry Witherite's.

Wm. Lucas and his better half Annie Boob, of Wingate, spent Sunday at Snow Shoe.

I. A. Zeigler was at Marsh Creek on business last week and reports a very dull time in which to transact business.

Mr. Ed. Hancock was to Rebersburg a few days ago to help S. M. Weber to Marsh Creek, where the latter will be engaged in teaching a six month term of school.

Last Saturday evening Philip Resides lost two valuable cows in time of ten minutes. The cause of the loss can only be accounted by eating too much young clover and having access to too much water.

Miss Julia Lucas one of Altoona's fine young ladies, is at present visiting at Charles Lucas.

On Saturday last, about noon, one of our enterprising school teachers disappeared from his home and many, not knowing where the young man had gone during the afternoon however, he was seen in Milesburg, and still later in the day in Bellefonte. Many however seemed alarmed at the departure of the young teacher but as time moved on the young man made his appearance somewhere along Sunday evening when he remarked "No one needs worry about me, for I was in good company." Shirdy the company must have been good considering the time you stayed.

On Saturday a family of gypsies was seen passing through here, from Snow Shoe and camped near here over Sunday. Quite a number of people went to see them on Sunday for many thought it was McKinley going through on a slow train making stump speeches, and trying to get as many votes in November as possible. It was not McKinley but could not swear but that it was Mark Hanna.

SURPRISE PARTY:—On Saturday last a surprise party was held at the home of Henry Witherite, who always thought nothing of the kind could take place without him finding it out. The scheme was materialized by Mr. Daniel Poorman, who asked him to go along to town to transact some business concerning a line between the two parties, farms. While the men had gone to Bellefonte the people of the community gathered at Mr. Witherite's home and the Snow Shoe train came along boarded with invited friends raising the number of persons to seventy. A table was prepared with all the delicacies of the season. Everything was quiet and concealed till about twelve o'clock when Mr. Poorman drove to the gate and the surprised man, came in sight of the table and on entering the house found the many concealed friends. The secret of surprise was now made known and Mr. Witherite was marched into the parlor where he discovered a $18 desk and book-case besides the other presents. The party partook of prepared feast fully observing the rules of physiology—an hour devoted to a meal.

The afternoon was spent in singing, laughing and some of the ladies even began talking politics in which the men joined in the talk some of the ladies seemed to be on the fence about the matter, but when Milesburg's enterprising post master J. Martin opened his talk on free silver the ladies soon joined the side of the many—silvermen. Mr. Martin just knows how to thoughtfully entertain an opponent of silver. About 4 o'clock Rev. J. T. Kelley addressed the party after which the many friends returned to their quiet homes, still leaving Mr. Witherite in great surprise.

Mr. Johnson is at present very busy thrashing. He is wanted at two and three places at the same time.

Quite a number of our farmers are husking corn, others picking apples. Both crops are good this year.

Rev. A. Stapleton will hold communion services in the Evangelical church, in two weeks from next Sabbath.

Mrs. Julia Showers is busy having her house erected, which will be finished before cold weather sets in.

Reports are that Mrs. Struble will also erect a house, near the station.

Quite a number from this vicinity have taken in the excursion to Canton, Ohio.

The latest in hats, at Zion, is a black felt hat with a very wide rim and no trimming. O, where did you get that hat?

Wm. Grenoble has purchased a property, at Pleasant Gap, and expects to occupy the same, some time this fall.

Herbert Showers has also invested in a property at Pleasant Gap.

J. C. Showers, of Williamsport, has purchased the property, formerly owned by Wm. Grenoble, and will take possession, when Mr. Grenoble vacates.

We are told that some of our young men are misbehaving quite a good bit, while in Christian Endeavor a few weeks ago. We would give a word of advice—please do not repeat the misbehavior but be dealt with according to law, and that is very severe for an offence of that kind.

The Republicans of Curtin Twp., together with other men of prominence, held a mass meeting at Mann's school house last Friday evening. They anticipated a grand time, having several competent speakers in attendance. Hon. Jno. A. Daley was the first speaker. Mr. Daley set fire to the meeting and Col. Wilbur F. Reeder did the blowing. Free silver was obliterated from the face of the earth. The Curtin Brass band was there to keep the people awake. By a careful summary we found nothing to change our opinions on the money question.

Mrs. Maggie Robb is at present visiting in Pittsburg.

Friend R. C. Daley made a flying trip to Howard on Sunday. Clarence there is no use in going to Howard when you can have a pleasant time so near home.

Miss Bugarden, of Blanchard, is at present visiting her grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. David McCloskey at this place.

Mr. Harmon Prince, of Summit Hill, died last Sunday of cancer, at the home of his daughter in Lock Haven. Interment was made in the Reformed cemetery at this place, on Tuesday. Deceased was about 82 years old.

While working in the bark woods last summer, Wm. Thiel had the misfortune to receive a severe cut on the limb. It was not healing and he is now receiving medical treatment at the Williamsport hospital.

Mrs. Ida Zeigler, formerly of Romola, is at this writing lying very ill. We hope for her recovery.

J. C. Laurie is bidding his friends good by. He is going to his home in Bainbridge, Pa., where he will attend school this winter.
