

THE CAMPAIGNERS.

McKinley Visited by Another Crowd of Pennsylvanians.

BRYAN'S TOUR IN MINNESOTA.

The Veteran Campaigners, Palmer and Buckner, Compelled by a Railroad Wreck to Disappoint an Audience Assembled to Meet them at Nashville.

DULUTH, Minn., Oct. 14.—William Jennings Bryan and his party arrived in this city shortly after 6 o'clock last evening, and the candidate made two speeches here. The day's campaigning tour had covered the route from Minneapolis to Duluth, and at every station of worthy size along the line Mr. Bryan spoke to good crowds. Upon his arrival in this city he was met by a reception committee, and, with Mrs. Bryan, was escorted to the St. Louis hotel for dinner. He was then driven to the Lyceum theater, where he addressed an enthusiastic meeting of women. There he proceeded to the car barn, which was packed to the utmost with the laboring men of Duluth. Here Mr. Bryan was presented with the last utensil necessary for the signing of a silver bill when it should reach him, providing he should be elected—an elegant silver ink bottle, filled with the fluid necessary for the purpose. Charles A. Towne was chairman of both meetings, and at each of them he presented the nominee in a neat speech.

More Pennsylvanians Visit McKinley. CANTON, O., Oct. 14.—A special train of six coaches arrived yesterday, after being on the road since 5 o'clock Monday evening. They were miners, mechanics and other citizens of the Lehigh Valley of Pennsylvania. The inclement weather still continued, and the visitors were taken to the Tabernacle, where Major McKinley went to receive their greetings. They gave him a most enthusiastic reception and applauded his address to the echo. The visitors were introduced by ex-Congressman Charles N. Brumm.

Campaigners Delayed by a Wreck. NASHVILLE, Oct. 14.—John M. Palmer and S. B. Buckner, who were to have spoken in this city last night, did not reach here until midnight, the delay being caused by a wreck on the Louisville and Nashville railroad. A large audience had assembled at the Opera House and was addressed by Dr. William Everett, of Massachusetts, who spoke for the National Democratic ticket and platform.

Archbishop of Canterbury Dead. LONDON, Oct. 13.—The archbishop of Canterbury was seized with apoplexy after the service commenced at Hawarden church yesterday morning. He was carried to the Hawarden rectory, where he died at 11:30 o'clock. The archbishop arrived at Hawarden on Saturday evening on his return from a visit in the north of Ireland. He appeared then to be in robust health, and expressed to Mrs. Gladstone his great gratification over his Irish tour. He arose early on Sunday and attended the early communion with his wife and others, occupying the Gladstone pew. He was stricken while kneeling in prayer, and died in being carried to the church library. He was 67 years old.

Merchant Crawford Recants. ST. LOUIS, Oct. 14.—Dougald Crawford, the big dry goods merchant who discharged thirteen of his men last Saturday because they announced their intention to vote for Bryan and Sewall, has repented his action, and over his own signature, in a public letter, says he will take the men back. In part he says: "I have invited all of the men to occupy their former positions without loss of salary since they left my employ. A man in anger often makes mistakes, but I do not believe he loses any of his manhood by admitting his error. I desire every man in my employ to vote as he pleases, but I believe that every man who carefully studies existing conditions should vote for McKinley."

Union Veteran Legion Encampment. WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—The Union Veteran Legion began its eleventh annual encampment in this city yesterday. A very attractive program has been arranged. This morning a business meeting was held, and in the afternoon a monster parade, to be reviewed by President Cleveland, will take place. Quite a contest has developed over the election of national officers. There are three candidates to succeed National Commander George C. James of Cincinnati. They are Thomas J. McKinley of Philadelphia, J. J. Callahan of Buffalo and John T. Donahue of Wilmington, Del.

The Dauntless Not Yet Off. NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—The Spanish daily, Novedades, of this city, publishes a denial of the reported landing of a new filibustering expedition in Cuba. Novedades says: "The Dauntless not only has failed to reach Cuba, but thus far has not embarked the expedition, which she is trying to do, and for which purpose she is coasting along the southern border of Florida. What has been announced is what the filibusters intend to do if they can. The program is difficult to execute."

Sharpshooters for Cuba. NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—The World says: George Bartlett, formerly a United States government scout at Wounded Knee, S. D., and one of the best sharpshooters in the country, has been engaged by the Cubans in this city to take a band of fifty sharpshooters to Cuba to aid the insurgents. The sharpshooters are in hiding in different parts of the city, where they will remain until they receive instructions from their leader to be ready to sail from a port a short distance from New York.

Murder Ends the Honeymoon. CLYDE, Ga., Oct. 14.—A horrible homicide took place three miles from this town. Three months ago Lomnie Long married Roxie Tillman, from Chatham county. He brought his wife to live at his father's. The honeymoon was short, for Sunday afternoon she killed him, splitting his head open with an ax. She confessed that she killed her husband, but that it was in self defense. There were no eye witnesses to the tragedy.

Mombesho Lake's Floating Island. MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Oct. 14.—After a year's anchorage on one side of Mombesho lake a floating island, containing about two acres, became released and is now floating in Wind Lake, situated eighteen miles from this city, near Monroe. Hunters are having fine sport with the foxes and racoons thus imprisoned.

NON-CATHOLIC MARRIAGES.

Peru's Chamber of Deputies Refuses to Legalize Them.

LIMA, Oct. 14.—The chamber of deputies yesterday rejected the senate's project to provide for the registration of and thus to legalize non-Catholic marriages.

In Peru, Ecuador and Bolivia Protestants cannot be legally married without becoming Roman Catholics. The project referred to in the above dispatch was designed to correct this abuse as regards Peru. The Chicago Methodist ministers called the attention of President Cleveland to the peculiarity of the marriage law in those countries.

A subsequent report gave a specific case of a Mr. Hazeltine and a Miss Wood, Protestants and American citizens, who were married according to their faith in Callao, all possible means being taken to comply with the laws of civil registration. A decree issued by Senor Bantín, the Peruvian secretary of state, refuses civil registration to Mr. Hazeltine's marriage with Miss Wood, specifically on the ground that it was not celebrated according to the rites established by the council of Trent. This case was made the subject of representation by the state department to the government of Peru.

Novel Verdict in New York. NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—A novel verdict was rendered before Justice Smythe in the criminal branch of the supreme court yesterday afternoon. It was in the case of George Jones, who was on trial for manslaughter. Jones was second in a prize fight on July 3 last in a stable. The fighters were John S. Hogner, 16 years old, and Henry Rodriguez, 20 years old. The latter died from injuries received in the fight. The jury deliberated for nearly three hours over the evidence, and convicted Jones of manslaughter in the second degree. The novelty of the verdict is that they recommended extreme clemency, and that sentence be suspended. William Keenan, 18 years old, was placed on trial for manslaughter for having participated in the same prize fight.

Accused Murderer Escapes from Jail. LA PLATA, Md., Oct. 14.—George A. Matthews, accused of killing James Irwin at Allen's Fresh, St. Charles county, on Aug. 2, and awaiting trial for murder in the first degree, escaped from jail yesterday, and is still at large. It is charged that the jailer carelessly left the jail door open while serving breakfast to the prisoners. Irwin was shot through the head from a window while asleep in his own house, and his wife is accused of having been an accessory to the murder, which it is thought resulted from an improper intimacy between her and Matthews. The woman was not indicted, but is being held as a witness.

Three Killed by a Falling Rock. WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 13.—Three men were instantly killed yesterday by a fall of rock in the Laffin mine. They are: Thomas Mitchell, of Mill Creek, aged 40, married and several children; George Puchski, of Laffin, aged 34, unmarried, and John Patrose, of Mill Creek, aged 25, unmarried. The men were opening the gangway at the foot of the shaft, and, after firing a blast, had gone back and found a large piece of rock loose, but still hanging to the roof. While trying to force it from such a dangerous position the rock suddenly fell and crushed them beneath it. Their bodies were badly crushed.

Secretary Morton's Warning. WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—Secretary Morton has just returned to Washington and resumed his official duties, after an extended vacation in the west. He announced that he would take no part in the election, but added that if he were to vote he would cast his ballot for Palmer and Buckner, whose platform he regarded as satisfactory. "I personally hope for McKinley's election as between McKinley and Bryan," he said, "but I don't think any one of the candidates can rest on their oars with assurance. The Republican party is making a great mistake now in bragging of strength and not doing more work."

Women as Receivers. NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—For the first time in the history of New York state courts women were appointed receivers in supplementary proceedings in insolvency yesterday. The appointments were made by Justice MacLean, in the supreme court of the county, and are three in number, being Miss Rosalie Low, Mrs. E. S. Werner and Mrs. Anita Hagerty, all members of the New York bar. The amounts involved in the proceedings are small, and the bonds of the fair receivers were fixed by the court at $100 each.

Hold in $100,000 Bail. LONDON, Oct. 14.—At Marlborough street police court yesterday Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Castle, of San Francisco, who were arrested at the Hotel Cecil on Tuesday last week, charged with stealing a quantity of furs, etc., from various dealers in this city, were arraigned on remand, and after a short hearing, were again remanded for a week, bail being allowed in the sum of $100,000, which was promptly furnished.

Seven Wrecked Sailors Landed. NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—Two of the steamers of the Ocean Steamship company, the Necochoe and Gate City, arrived from Savannah last night, after a terrible experience of five days of gales and hurricanes. The Gate City brought the captain and crew of the schooner Lelia Smith, seven in all, who were rescued from the sinking schooner yesterday morning, forty miles south of Winter Quarter shoal.

The Niagara Falls Suicide. NIAGARA FALLS, Oct. 14.—It now seems almost certain that the mysterious suicide who ended his life so tragically on Monday by jumping over the parapet at Prospect Point into the water was A. J. Barton, of Oil City, Pa. A letter has been shown the chief of police which was written by Barton, and indicates that he had been made crazy by the rejection of his advances to a young girl of this city.

Notion on a Spanish Warship. MADRID, Oct. 14.—A dispatch from Ferrol says that a mutiny has occurred on board the Spanish warship Alfonso XIII, lying at that port. Forty gunners rebelled and attempted to seize the boats and go ashore. A fight between the mutineers and the marines and others on board the ship ensued, with the result that the revolt was suppressed and the mutineers put in irons.

An Appointment for General Dragg. WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—The attorney general has appointed General Edward S. Dragg an assistant United States attorney for the Eastern district of Wisconsin, to assist in prosecuting the land case of the government against the Manufacturers' investment company of Wisconsin.

WHY GEN. CROOK QUIT

Geronimo Surrounded Him, and He Made Terms to Save His Men.

When Crook started after Geronimo in the seventies, he took only a small force of soldiers but a large force of Indian scouts. When he got down to Sonora, Mexico, to where Geronimo had retreated, these scouts turned out to be traitors.

They threw away the provisions, filled up all the water holes they came across, and in other ways heightened the hardships of the campaign. On account of all this, when the men finally overtook Geronimo they were half starved and nearly famished. Crook saw this and so did Geronimo, for the scouts had told him.

It's all right to curse Geronimo, but no man who knows anything about him will deny that he was a shrewd, clever scoundrel. He was quick to take in the situation, and, after surrounding Crook's small force, told the General he would have to make terms or be annihilated. Crook, under those circumstances decided to make terms, and, according to the dictation of Geronimo, promised, as a United States soldier and a gentleman, not to make war upon the Indians any more. Crook, thinking of his men, and not of himself, for Crook was not a man to think of himself very much, made the promise, and was allowed to escape.

When he came back he was retired at his own request, and General Nelson A. Miles succeeded him.—Phoenix Gazette.

FOR HOUSEWIVES.

Three Things Which They Should Read and Remember.

For cleaning tinware there is nothing better than dry flour applied with a newspaper. First wash the tin in hot soapuds, wipe thoroughly dry, and then scour with flour and well crumpled newspaper.

Transparent paper for copying drawings or needlework designs may easily be made by placing a sheet of paper over the drawing and rubbing it lightly with pure benzine. The tracing can then be made, and the benzine evaporating leaves the paper opaque as before.

There is scarcely any ache to which children are subject so hard to bear as a headache. Almost instantaneous relief may be obtained by making a funnel of writing paper, saturating a small piece of cotton batting in chloroform, and dropping it in the funnel. Put the small end of the funnel into the ear, and, placing the mouth close to the other end, blow into it. The fumes of the chloroform will quickly relieve the pain, and if the head is kept covered the patient will soon be at ease.

Sung Into Parliament.

Twice the Hon. George Arthur Brand has been sung into Parliament by the voice of his wife. In 1891 the Tory majority of 1,100 of Cambridgeshire was swung to a Liberal majority of 260 by the songs of his wife. Thus at least says a great dark blue leather book inscribed with 2,000 names, which explains itself thus:

"Presented to the Hon. Mrs. George Arthur Brand in recognition of the great and valuable services rendered to the Liberal cause of the Northern Wisbech division of Cambridgeshire, and in her triumphant return of the Hon. George Arthur Brand as member of Parliament."

This gratitude was further expressed in a diamond tiara and a piece of plate. Mrs. Brand is a pleasantly feminine sort of woman, who says she took no interest in politics until she married. She is now president of the Liberal Association of her district. Her interest in the elections, however, is personal and direct. She has taught herself to play on the lute for political purposes. With her husband she goes campaigning with her husband, and her singing has been the effective work of the campaign. The most popular songs she sings are "Wear of the Green," "Off to Philadelphia," "When Johnnie Comes Marching Home" and "Daisy Bell." Of course she has words politically significant, and Mrs. Brand sings them with such enthusiasm and conviction that they go straight home than speechmaking.

Pike County's Tree-ener.

The largest walnut tree ever hewn in Pike County, Pa., was cut down a few days ago near Milford, Pa., by William Eagle, of Washington, N. J., for gunstocks for the United States Government. The first sixteen feet will make about 2,000 feet of lumber and will furnish enough gunstocks to supply a regiment. It was Pike County which first showed the tallest pine tree along the Delaware River for the mainmast of the great Constitution many years ago. It is, however, in hunting stories that Pike County is greatest. Some of the water's yarns published in the New York papers beat the world.

The Monroe Doctrine.

"Josiah," said Mrs. Cortness, as her husband came in from feeding the pigs, "what is the Monroe Doctrine?" "The Monroe Doctrine, Mandy," he replied after a moment's thought, "is a principle which lays down that 'jes' because we don't put both feet in the trough ourselves is no sign that we're goin' to encourage others to do it.'"—Washington Star.

A Soft Answer.

"Susan, just look here! I can write my name in the dust on the top of this table!" "Lor', mum, so you can! Now I never had no edgercation myself!"—Punch.

A Correct Reply.

"Take a 'vay woman," shouted the orator, "and what would follow?" "We would," said a man at the back of the audience promptly.—Tit-Bits.

Yes, It is Arkansas.

The pronunciation of Arkahn-saw for Arkansas was given by an act of the Arkansas Legislature.

AN INFAMOUS BARGAIN.

Bryan Denounces the Rothschild-Morgan Gold Syndicate Contract.

I shall appeal for your support on higher grounds than party regularity. I expressly release, so far as I am concerned, from the support of the Chicago ticket every Democrat who believes that the success of that ticket would imperil our country.

I shall not ask any man to violate his conscience or be deaf to the voice of his judgment. I shall ask no false loyalty to party above love for country. I would not do it myself. I will ask nobody to do what I would not do.

I believe, my friends, that the Chicago platform presents the policies which will be best for the people of this country. I believe that those policies put into law will bring blessings to the American people, and I call your attention to the fact that in this campaign the lines are drawn between plutocracy and democracy. And in a fight between plutocracy and democracy there is no middle ground.

Our platform declares against the issue of bonds in time of peace and against trafficking with the syndicates which have been saving our country at so much per save for the last few years.

The Democratic party denounces those syndicates, and I thank God that the Democratic party has driven out of its ranks the representatives of those syndicates.

We denounce the stock exchanges, and I rejoice that the stock exchanges are against us today in the fight that we are making, because it is a certificate that we are doing our duty to our country.

I denounce the Rothschild-Morgan contract entered into by the present administration as the most infamous contract ever entered into by the United States with private individuals. I say that it is infamous. Why? Not so much for the amount of money that the syndicate has made. I call it infamous because the government in that contract bought the good will of these two banking firms.

Has it come to this, that 70,000,000 of people must purchase their right to exist from two combinations of money grabbers—grabbers in this country and in Europe?

My friends, whenever this government hires any syndicates to protect its treasury it admits that those syndicates would not protect the treasury except for pay, and it also admits that unless it bought their aid it might have their opposition. I am not an old man, nor am I acquainted with financing as it is taught in the east, but I have an idea that I am free to express, and it is this—that instead of hiring those syndicates to let the United States alone I would say to them if they did not quit conspiring against the credit of the United States they would be treated like the smaller criminals and punished.

My friends, I speak the words of truth and soberness when I tell you that we cross the danger line whenever we admit that the existence of this nation depends upon the good will of any banking concern, domestic or foreign.

It is a curse to have an "honest" dollar so dear that you cannot earn it. The more there are who cannot earn it the less likely are the rest to be able to go on earning it. Unemployed labor brings down wages.

AN EDITOR WANTED.

The Venerable New York Sun Has Lost Its Head.

Of the many toils of the money power in New York the Sun is the most malignant and servilely unscrupulous. But the editor evidently does not always read the proofs of its news columns. For illustration, here is the closing paragraph in one of its editorials the other day:

"What does all this presage? It seems to indicate that the Bryanite campaign will go to pieces so unmistakably during the coming month that little of it will remain to withstand the assault of the rising popular delirium. In its whole course of two months nothing has tended to provoke respect. Nothing in the arguments of the Bryanite advocates, in the character of the men and the newspapers supporting the movement which started off so confidently, or in the tone, spirit and methods in which it is conducted has produced any conviction among serious, intelligent and common sense men that it has in it even the semblance of enduring vitality. It cannot grow, for it has no fruiting germ of life. It is dead at the roots."

And here is something taken from another column giving an account of a goldbug rally in Minneapolis:

In the course of his speech General Buckner mentioned the name of the Popocratic presidential nominee, and no sooner had the word "Bryan" left his mouth than the house was the scene of a demonstration. The cheering continued until the chairman of the meeting was compelled to ask the audience to give the general a respectful hearing. But it was several minutes before the audience quieted down enough for the general to remark with considerable feeling that he would not speak unless the people desired to hear him.

And here is something else from its news columns, likewise taken from the same issue as the editorial quoted above:

"I want to say to you frankly that Illinois is a doubtful state. The idea that the latte there is won for sound money is a false and a very dangerous one. We can carry the state for McKinley, but it can only be done by the most faithful work. False prophets have been among you here. In other words, somebody has been doing a lot of lying about Illinois and other states in that section. There is danger there—a great danger." This opinion comes from Judge A. A. Goodrich of Chicago, at present stopping at the Holland House, where he expressed his views to a Sun reporter.

Now, really, Mr. Dana, do these bits culled from your news columns look as if the "Bryan campaign will go to pieces?" Do they not look rather as if you were so badly frightened that you have lost your head? Otherwise you surely would not make an absurd claim in one column of your paper and give the lie to it in the other columns of the same issue.

McKinley stands with J. Pierpont Morgan, Perry Belmont, the Rothschilds and other members of the gold standard bond syndicate in insisting that it is "repudiation" not to keep $100,000,000 of idle gold cornered in the treasury.

One Minute Late

It makes no difference whether you were one minute or one hour late, if you missed the train. Better get there on time, even if you have to wait. One hour early is better than one minute late. Delay costs thousands of lives each year. "Neglected colds" is the beginning of the story; and consumption is the end. Few remedies, and but little of them, cure in the beginning. Later, many remedies long continued, and tedious journeys, too frequently end in disappointment.

Scott's Emulsion

of Cod-liver Oil with the Hypophosphites soothes the cough, heals the inflamed membranes, and restores the parts to a healthy condition. This it does promptly and permanently, if taken in time.
