Interesting Events and Happenings from About the county—Doings of our People Briefly Told

—Campaign ball, at the Armory, on Friday evening, Oct. 23rd, by the Coleville band.

—The scholarship contest will draw to a close with the first issue of December.

—A large temperance rally was held in the court house on Sunday afternoon.

—The cider press at axemann is doing a big business crushing juice out of apples.

—There was very little business of any importance transacted at council meeting on Monday.

—The foliage is rapidly dropping from the trees. It reminds us that winter will soon be at hand.

—Mr. W. S. Williams, a prosperous merchant of Martha, was in town on Monday and paid us a brief visit.

—The Racket store has been unpacking a large quantity of china ware for their new department, this week.

—This issue contains the full text of Justice Dean's opinion in the Supreme court, on the Howard church case.

—W. F. Barnes' news agency at the Bush House, can supply you with any of the popular publications. Prompt delivery guaranteed.

—Betting on the result of the election is becoming animated of late. A number of nice stakes were placed in Bellefonte the past few days.

—Last Saturday evening Company B. opened its Armory for roller skating. The floor is in excellent condition and good music will be furnished.

—Hugh S. Taylor, Esq., one of our foremost political orators, will speak in Court House, on Friday evening, Oct. 30th. He will be worth hearing.

—J. C. Meyer, Esq., L. A. Schaffer, and Hon. James A. Kerr, of Clearfield, held an enthusiastic silver meeting at Philipsburg, on Monday evening.

—Dr. Salm, the specialist, has his advertisement in this issue announcing his next visit here. The testimonials in the same are a strong endorsement.

—Mr. Samuel Campbell, the hustling furniture dealer from Millheim, spent several days of the past week in Bellefonte, as the guest of Editor Harter.

—Ralph Bingham, the renowned humorist, impersonator and violinist, will appear in the Methodist church at this place on Monday evening, October 26.

—Last Saturday afternoon 17, the Bellefonte Academy and Philipsburg High school had their game of foot ball in which Bellefonte came out victorious by a score of 20 to 0.

—Miss S. E. Conklin, the expert fitter of "Her Majesty's Corset" commences a three days' engagement at the Racket store, on Monday, Oct. 26, ending Wednesday, Oct. 28.

—It is rumored that a slice of Mark Hanna's boodle arrived in Centre county recently. The boys should make all applications direct to Chairman Gray. Don't be backward about it.

—Mrs. Shearer, of near Zion, this county, has harvested fifteen bushels of pumpkin seeds for which she will receive $1.25 per bushel from a N. Y. seed firm. "Despise not the day of small things."

—Owing to a large demand for space in this issue, and other matters that required attention, a complete account of the Presbyterian Synod at this place during the past week the same was omitted.

—Mr. James Runkle, of Middleburg, Pa., was in town last week attending to business. Mr. Runkle formerly was a resident of Potter township. He advertises some valuable real estate, in Gregg township, in this issue.

—The election proclamation of Sheriff Condo for this county, appears in this issue. There are a number of changes in the voting places, this year in State College boro., western precinct of College and in Marion township.

—There is some sentiment afloat at present to establish a union fair, between the counties of Centre and Clinton. Such a project with a good race track, under careful management, would prove quite a success. Hecla Park would be a most desirable location for such an enterprise.

—Tony Farrell, "broth of a boy" will appear at Garman's opera house Wednesday eve, Oct. 28th. As Garry Owen, the star is a good boy and bids fair for high honors. The prison scene and the escape of Garry Owen is unlike any other ever seen, inasmuch as the prisoner in order to escape, makes a harlequin leap through a window about seven feet high, catches a rope, on the other side as he goes through. When he goes through. When next you see him, he is coming down said rope to the roof of a ruined abbey, and thus effects his escape, making one of the most heroic and daring escapes ever witnessed. This is only one of the many exciting scenes in "Garry Owen."

OF INTEREST TO SOLDIERS.

HANNAH, PA.

Dear Sir:—I am doing all I can for you for Congress. I hope you will be elected. One of my old comrades said yesterday that you would oppose the old veterans, if you got into Congress. I told him you had done all for my pension that was done and that I knew you were a good friend of the old soldier. Now, Jack, write me a letter to show to my comrades and tell us what you will do for us, in case of your election to Congress. Very truly yours, VINTON BECKWITH.

BELLEFONTE, PA., Oct. 1, 1896.

My Dear Sir:—I am in receipt of your letter. I am very glad you wrote me. I have taken the liberty to use it in a public way, because it gives me an opportunity to define my position in relation to the pension question. I stand upon the plank of the Chicago platform which is as follows: "Recognizing the just claims of deserving Union soldiers, we heartily endorse the rule of Commissioner Murphy that no names shall be arbitrarily dropped from the pension roll, and the fact of enlistment and service should be deemed conclusive evidence against disease and disability before enlistment."

I endorse all that is contained therein. If elected, I shall at all times labor to correct those things which have tended to delay the granting of pensions and have caused untold injury to many a deserving veteran.

I would endeavor to secure the adoption of a rule by the Department, requiring copies of all communications sent to the Department in opposition to the granting of any application to be sent to the applicant at once, so that an opportunity could be given the applicant to refute and answer any false and unjust allegation. I have always believed that the law of 1890 was a bad law, enacted for the advantage of the pension agents, as well as for the purpose of barring many deserving soldiers, by limiting them to $12.00 a month, when by their record and the disabilities from which they were suffering they were entitled under the law to a higher rate, except for this law. I have talked with many soldiers who denounce this law for this reason. This wrong should be promptly corrected by legislation.

There are too many senseless limitations and technical requirements upon our statutes and in the rules of the Department and careful revision of both ought to be speedily made. Thirty years have passed by since the close of the war. The ranks of the veterans are rapidly being thinned by death and those who remain, who imperilled their lives in defence of the government and its flag, are not only entitled to our gratitude but should be cared for promptly, justly and liberally by a grateful people.

I shall not only regard it as a privilege but a duty to labor for the accomplishment of this, for all soldiers of whatever state; but especially to see that those from this congressional district and state shall have prompt recognition and a speedy disposition. I remain, Very respectfully yours, J. L. SPANGLER.

—The Bryan and Sewall club made another fine display in parade, on Wednesday evening. The fantastic horsemen at the head of the line was well gotten up. The boys marched nicely.

OFFERS $1.29 FOR WHEAT.

A Fredrick Grain Dealer Will Pay That if Bryan is Elected.

Much interest has been excited among the farmers by the proposition made at the democratic meeting held at Mount Pleasant, Fredrick county, Md., a few days ago, by James H. Gambrell, a wealthy grain dealer of Frederick City, who agreed to buy 500,000 bushels of wheat and guaranteed to pay $1.29 per bushel therefore in the event of Bryan's election and the passage of a free coinage bill.

He offered as good security as he gives to the banks with which he deals. Mr. Gambrell stated that he had made a deal with one of his Republican customers already to buy his last summer's crop at $1.29 a bushel. Mr. Gambrell is a brother of George T. Gambrell, the wealthy grain speculator of Baltimore.

J. W. ALEXANDER, ESQ.

A Prominent and Rising Young Lawyer of Bellefonte.

J. W. Alexander, who is at present district grand chief of the Knights of the Golden Eagle, was born Aug. 24, 1864, at Bellefonte, his parents being Hon. C. T. Alexander and Mrs. Margaret Alexander. His father was an able lawyer, and at one time represented this district in the state senate. The subject of this sketch received his education by passing through the common schools, the academy, and graduating at State College. He then read law with Hon. John G. Love, the present presiding judge of Centre county, and was admitted to the Centre county bar March 4, 1890, and is now one of Centre county's rising young attorneys. He is unmarried.—From Williamsport Grit, Oct. 17.

2nd. Annual Banquet.

On Tuesday evening the Undine band, of this place, together with the members of the fire company, celebrated their second annual banquet at their home house on Logan street. The banquet was in charge of William Flack, and was gotten up in most elaborate style. P. H. Gerrity, president of the Company, was master of ceremonies, and some spicy speeches were made. Mr. Joseph Wise, who was the delegate of the Undine company to the recent Firemen's State convention at Johnstown, gave an elaborate report of the convention. Mr. Wise is a fireman and engineer of much experience and took a prominent part in the convention. He was elected a member of the Association, and was an honor to our town in that body of firemen. The Undine band has been very prosperous in the two years of its existence. It does not number over a dozen members, but they all are musicians and make more music than many bands of twice its size. Hope they may see many more such occasions.

Where They Will Worship.

The United Evangelicals of Centre Hall, will now occupy the vacant Dinges store room for their place of worship. The shelves and counters have been removed, the walls are being papered, chairs will be supplied for seats, and all possible done to make the room inviting besides its being located in a convenient part of town. These same people by their sacrifices constructed the handsome church from which they were driven and it now remains closed.

Hog Cholera.

George C. Miller, an employe at Valentine's furnace, met with quite a serious loss last week. He had taken great pains during the summer in fattening six hogs, to furnish his family with pork during the coming winter. They average from 350 to 400 pounds and seemed to be thriving nicely, but they suddenly became ill with hog cholera and within three days they were dead. As Mr. Miller is a poor man the loss falls heavily upon him.

New Industry.

A company for the manufacture of fire brick has been organized at Karthouse, Clearfield county. The officers are president, E. I. Gilliland; vice president, F. L. Condit; secretary, J. A. Hecken-dorn; treasurer, J. S. Brier and superintendent, J. A. Black. As all are reputable business men in that locality it is likely that they will make a success of the proposed enterprise. It has a capital of $10,000.

Well Qualified.

The Philipsburg Journal says: W. M. Cronister, the Democratic candidate for sheriff, has been over this way for a few days looking up his interests. He says his prospects are growing brighter right along, and feels confident of success. Well, there is this much about it, if elected he will make an efficient officer. He is well qualified to fill the position to which he aspires.

Closing Meeting.

This Thursday (October 22nd) Rev. Leonard Weaver, and his assistants Messrs Weeden and Van Deventer will close their Lock Haven meetings. All day sessions are being held. This doubtless will be the last opportunity to hear these popular Christian workers.

The Reformed Church.

The new Reformed church at Centre Hall will be dedicated October the 25, services to begin at 10 o'clock a. m. A general invitation is extended to all to come and rejoice with the congregation in the completion of this work.

WORKINGMEN'S BRAINS.

The longer the workingmen digest the speech of Mr. Davenport at Schlosser's hall, Erie, Pa., Saturday night, when he said to the workingmen: "WHAT YOU WORKINGMEN WANT TO UNDERSTAND IS THAT YOUR EMPLOYERS ARE YOUR BRAINS," the more angry they become. No free American citizen can read such sentiment as that without feeling moved to the deepest indignation.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

—"Garry Owen," with Tony Farrell, the clever Irish singing comedian will appear at the Opera House Wednesday Oct. 28. Mr. Farrel has surrounded himself with a first class singing and acting company, carrying all his own scenery and mechanical effects. Mr. Farrel, having a pleasing tenor voice always arouses the enthusiasm of the audience. The comedy is pure and clean, it is an Irish homestead in which the tears tremble on the edge of the laughter, as lightly and brightly as the laughing dew on the edge of a rose.

—Dr. Coldfeil will preach the anniversary sermon, before the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. in the Presbyterian church, on Sunday evening.

—Andy Kusely, of Bellefonte, left last week for Tyrone where he will open a bakery in a room on Main street and supply the citizens of that town with bread. He thoroughly understands the art of baking bread and he is a deserving young man.

—Get the Democrat during the campaign for 5 cents a month.

—The contract for printing the official ballot for Centre county was awarded to the Centre Hall Reporter this year. It will be a large sheet almost the size of the average paper. It will require almost a ton of paper to complete this contract.

—Tony Farrel, the clever Irish singing comedian supported by a strong cast, will appear at Garman's Opera House on Wednesday evening, Oct. 28, in Murphy O'hea's realistic comedy drama, "Garry Owen." Mr. Farrel has made an instantaneous hit throughout the country, he being an accomplished Irish comedian, in fact far beyond the average. "Garry Owen" should fill the house at every performance.

Trial List.

For special week convening on Monday Nov. 16, 1896:

An exchange says men have various ways of carrying their money. Butchers, grocers and bakers carry it in a crumpled wad. Bankers in a nice clean bill laid out in full lengths in a morocco pocket book. Brokers always fold their bills twice. The young business man carries his money in his vest pocket, while the sporting man carries his in his trousers pocket. Farmers and drovers carry theirs in their inside pocket. Editors carry theirs in their other people's pockets.

Here is Anarchy.

Hon. Edward Lauterbach, a prominent New York Republican, in a speech to the Union Republican Club in New York City last Saturday night, said, "that in the event of Bryan's election we will not abide by that decision." Another New York Republican said: "I will shoulder a musket to keep Bryan out of the president's chair." Who are the anarchists and revolutionists?

Rev. Grant Has Been Moved.

Rev. H. A. Grant, who has been pastor of the A. M. E. church, in this place, for the past two years has been moved by the conference of his church, that just closed its session at Washington, Pa., and will be sent to Scranton. Rev. C. N. Woods has been appointed to come to Bellefonte.

"As a result of the war, corporations have been enthroned, and an era of corruption in high places will follow, and the money power of the country will endeavor to prolong its reign by working upon the prejudices of the people until all wealth is aggregated in a few hands and the republic is destroyed. I feel at this moment more anxiously for the safety of my country than ever before, even in the midst of war."—Abraham Lincoln.

Pleasant Callers. On Saturday a pleasant visit was paid our office by the following young ladies; Miss Jennie Markle and Miss Elizabeth Hastings of Gatesburg and Miss Margaret Eevrhart, of Bellefonte, all of whom were in charge of the gallant Samuel Markle, Jr., of Pleasant Gap. The young ladies are for Bryan except one, who has about concluded to marry a Bryan democrat. Hope the others will do likewise. Come again.

Ably Discussed. In the court house on Wednesday evening, at the silver meeting C. M. Bower, Esq., delivered the best exposition of the democracy's position in regard to the "Income Tax," "The Supreme Court" and "Government by Injunction" that has been delivered here during the campaign. It was a masterly position, sound and convincing.

Corner Stone Laying. Owing to the inclemency of the weather the laying of the corner stone of the United Evangelical Church at Nittany Hall was deferred until Sunday p. m., Oct. 25. Prof. A. E. Gobbie, President of Central Pennsylvania College is expected to officiate.

Rev. E. W. KOONTZ, Pastor.

An Election Bet. A couple up in Tioga county are reported to have made a wager that in case Bryan is elected president the young man is to marry the girl, and if McKinley is elected the girl is to marry the fellow. In order to have a "sure thing" this couple should add that they are to marry each other in case of the election of Palmer.

Shoot You First! is now heard where boys most do congregate, and when the youngsters begin the shooting the shoes begin to feel the first of a great many strains they will be called upon to bear before the school going season is over.

Before and after school hours and at recess the boys will be at marble shooting, leap frog and other games very popular among them. You ought to prepare for it. Fortify the boy with stout shoes that will not give way when he begins to play. Come in an see if we can't give you what you want—what the boy ought to have.

Nervous People wonder why their nerves are so weak; why they get tired so easily; why they do not sleep naturally; why they have frequent headaches, indigestion and Nervous Dyspepsia. The explanation is simple. It is found in that impure blood feeding the nerves on refuse instead of the elements of strength and vigor. Opium and nerve compounds simply deaden and do not cure. Hood's Sarsaparilla feeds the nerves pure, rich blood; gives natural sleep, perfect digestion, is the true remedy for all nervous troubles.
