HAPPENINGS IN CENTRE CO

What our Army of Alert Correspondents see and observe worthy of note—The local Happenings of every community will be gladly Published—Send the news, we will Publish it.

SPRING MILLS.

The election is over and all bets are paid. Wm. Allison received a silver hat. You had better persevere it till four years from now, then you will have more silver in your platform and not so much gold.

Miss May Smith, of Pine Grove Mills, is here visiting her father.

Mrs. Philip Meyer and son, of Boalsburg, are visiting her father, Elias Feteroff.

J. D. Long is kept quite busy delivering coal to his neighbors. Mr. Long is an old veteran and one of our industrious men.

And the next day it rained and some went to hunt.

Mrs. John Runkle left this week for Altoona, to join her husband in that place, where he secured employment as clerk in D. C. Gingerich's store.

Calvin Finkle was presented on election day with a bouncing big boy. That will be a namesake for Bryan.

Ben Kenley, while out gunning blew the tube out of his gun, and injured his eye. The rabbit season is here and the cotton tails are plenty.

RATHER EARLY:—Now comes the tug of war for the post office. There are only nine applicants for it, but there is only one that can have it. Give it to an old soldier.

J. O. McCormick returned to his work in Sunbury.

Howard Rossman was on the sick list for a couple of days; his absence from the store was greatly missed.

Since Jacob Wingart left our party, he will be well cared for this winter, or was it only a promise.

The band fair and festival fell through. What was the matter boys? Give an account of yourselves.

Frank Snyder and Jacob McCool left with their teams for Indiana county, where they have accepted a job to stock a saw mill.

Wm. Ream is kept very busy in his shop doing cobbling work.

It will not be very long anymore until we will get the weight of the big porkers. I think that Daniel Heckman will take the lead. Boy.

REBERSBURG RUMBLINGS.

HOPEFUL:—Well, we must again take a back seat and be content with our lot, but it has not fallen along pleasant lines, by any means. We still rejoice that we are not so badly beaten as was at first reported. We suppose if the gold people can manage to survive under a bankrupt president, we the silver people can, also, at least we will try our best. We hope the president can manage the affairs of the government better than he can his own affairs.

SOLID WORK:—As politics has again more or less died out, the people can settle down to solid work.

SERVICES:—The Reformed people are having preaching during the course of this week, preparatory to communion on Sunday.

The Lutheran church is nearing completion which will present a striking appearance.

Our cream wagons did not gather team on Thursday, owing to rainy weather.

EARLY BIRDS:—Several of our republican friends are busy in getting spirits for the post office.

Mrs. Susan Winters died on Wednesday morning, was buried on Friday, Rev. Mumma officiating.

William Bierly moved into part of Evans' house, on election day.

Miss Langacre, of Bellefonte, is visiting Sallie Harter.

Everybody is busy getting in their pipes and hydrants.

FIRE:—Everybody was alarmed on election evening, by the cry of fire, but the fear soon subsided when they learned that it was only Amnon Walkers shanty.

Geo. Corman went to house-keeping in Aronsburg; we are sorry to lose you George.

Geo. Greninger, Chas. Doebler and Harry Musser were home to cast their votes for Bryan.

Our news boy, Ed. Zeigler, says "I wish we would have a presidential campaign every year."

Mr. Sam'l Loose died at his home on Friday night, interment on Tuesday.

Chas. Meyer and wife were in town on Sunday visiting relatives.

MILESBURG.

Mrs. Catherine Walker, of Huntingdon, at present writing is the guest of Col. Jas. F. Weaver and family.

Robinson Haupt left on the 4th for West Virginia, to work on a saw mill as the rumor has it.

The election is now one of the past, and Jonathan P. Bullock is the happiest man over the result of the election in the burg.

Charles Richard is now at home from the lumber camp in Potter county.

The Methodists, on Thursday the 5th, made a donation to Mrs. Elizabeth Keiler; many of the necessities of life which were thankfully received.

W. R. Campbell buried his 4 year old daughter on the 4th. Cause of death, hip disease.

Harry Shirk arrived home from Pittsburg recently.

Mrs. Brotherland, of Hollidaysburg, is a guest of the Kline sisters.

Philip Barnhart, of Roland, better known as "Squire," died on Wednesday and was buried on Saturday, of last week, in the Roland cemetery, aged 84 years.

Boyd Stonerode, of Bradford, is at home with his family for a few days.

W. R. Campbell stepped into Wm. Shawley's grocery on Saturday afternoon with a head of cabbage laid it on the counter scales and had it weighed. It tipped the scales 24 pounds, saying if he had thought he would have brought a larger head, of his own growth.

Wesley Crain lost a cow, the morning train from Bellefonte, on Thursday 5th, struck her breaking her back, causing her to be killed.

Miss Ada Baird, on Friday night last gave a taffy party to 12 of her school-mates young ladies, had a pleasant time together.

Frank B. Leff and wife, of Tyrone, visited W. T. Fulton and family recently.

WOLF'S STORE ITEMS.

The change did not pay. An exchange tells of a man who chewed 20 cents worth of tobacco a week, concluded to try the tobacco cure. In two weeks he ate $1.50 worth of the cure and for the next two weeks he used 10 cents worth of candy, 5 cents worth of chewing gum, 5 cents worth of peanuts and 5 cents worth of cough drops per day. During these two weeks he also consumed 2 large rubber erasers, ate the rubber tips from 14 lead pencils, chewed up a dozen pen holders and broused off his moustache as high as he could reach. He is now chewing tobacco again in the interest of economy.

Rev. Mumma administered the Lord's supper, at the Brumgart church, last Sunday morning.

Mr. J. E. Ziegler and family and Wm. D. Breen and wife, spent last week visiting at Williamsport.

Mr. J. R. Wolf will soon move to Bellefonte. We are sorry to see Joseph leave us.

Mr. John Rossman and wife, of Penns Cave, were visiting acquaintances in our village a few days last week.

Mr. Peter Breen and wife, of Rebersburg, were guests of John Breen, last Sunday.

Mr. D. B. Weaver has purchased a new water-wheel, to be put in his roller mill, instead of the old one now in use.

Mr. J. T. Corman and wife, Sunday at H. C. Brumgart's last Sunday.

Some of our people will soon butcher and feast on sausage, pon-hoss and liver-wurst.

Mr. J. S. Emeric, who was on the sick list for the last few weeks, we are glad to say, is again able to be up and around.

Our farmers are busily engaged in plowing sod.

A rumor is afloat that we will soon have a wedding in our little village.

OAK HALL.

Four years more of good times. Boats to hire—apply at republican headquarters.

A number of our gents attended the jollification at Lemont Thursday evening, which closed by a lively set-to between two locals. No serious damage.

Chas. Stamm made a business trip to Altoona last week.

John Weaver, of Walnut Grove, was a pleasant visitor in our town Sunday.

Jno. Stamm and wife, of Boalsburg, were visiting at Chas. Stamm's Sunday.

Mr. Frye and Miss Osman, of State College, were visiting at the home of Miss Anna Dale Sunday.

Mrs. E. B. Peters and son were visiting at the home of Harry Wagner on Sunday.

Samuel Zettle and Miss Johnsonbaugh of Philipsburg, visited at the home of E. B. Peters Sunday.

Jas. Peters expects to begin farming at Shingletown, on the Leech farm, in the spring. Success to you, James. A wife then.

What is the attraction at Axeman for some of the young gentlemen of this place? Charley, can you tell us? Rote or Scanlon?

Several of our people are preparing to go up salt river. Some have their faces dressed.

Butchering has begun. Now for the fat.

Miss Cora Sellers and sister Sue were visiting friends at Bellefonte and Fillmore last Saturday and Sunday.

Luther Dale and sister Ella, made a flying trip to Bellefonte.

COBURN NOTES.

Frang Bartges and wife made a visit to Sugar valley.

John Wagner and family visited friends in town, on Sunday.

James Vonada and J. L. Kreamer, of Woodward, made a business trip to Coburn the other day.

Miss Ida Boob, who had been spending the summer in our town, expects to leave for Bellefonte this week. We are sorry to see you go Ida.

Mr. Marks and wife of Spring Mills, visited friends at this place on Sunday.

G. R. Stover went to Sugar valley on a hunting expedition.

Ed Campbell, of Shamokin, is home for a few weeks. He is the same old boy and still has a hankering after fishing, but what to him is far better, the girls. He is looking well and has many warm friends here are glad to see him.

We are sorry to note the sickness of Mrs. Thos. Kaler. The wish of her many friends is that she will soon be restored to her former good health.

The Companion Calendar

It is said that the expense of making the Companion Art Calendar for 1897 was so great that had it been published in the usual quantity it could not be sold for less than one dollar. Four beautiful female figures are reproduced on four folding pages. Each figure is lithographed in twelve colors, being a true reproduction of the original water-color painting, which was selected because of its excellence of design and charm of color and tone. The size of each of the four folding pages is 10 1/2 by 6 inches.

It is by far the best piece of color work in the country and on the west, by the artist Conrad Singer, deceased, containing one hundred and fifty acres, whereof partition yet remains to be made to and among the heirs of said decedent. JOHN P. CONDO, Sheriff's office, Bellefonte, Oct. 22, '96.

COURT PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS the Hon. John G. Love, President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of the 4th Judicial district, consisting of the county of Centre, and the Hon. G. A. Faulkner, Associate Judge, having issued their precept bearing date the 1st day of Oct., 1896, to me directed for holding a Court of Common Pleas and Orphan's Court, Court of Oyer and Terminer and general Jail Delivery and Quarter Sessions of the Peace in Bellefonte, for the county of Centre, and commencing on the 4th Monday of November the 23rd day of Nov., 1896, and to continue one week. Notice is hereby given to the Coroner, Justices of the Peace, Aldermen and Constables of said county of Centre, that they be then and there in the proper persons, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, with their records, inquisitions, examinations, and their own remembrances, to do those things which their office appertains to be done, and those who are apprehended as shall be just, to prosecute against the prisoners that are or shall be in the jail of Centre county, be then and there to prosecute against them as shall be just.

Notice is also hereby given and by virtue of the precept of the Judges aforesaid, issued as aforesaid, there will be held a special court of Common Pleas, for the trial of civil cases, beginning on Monday, November 10th, 1896, at 10 o'clock, upon which time all persons summoned as jurors are required to attend.

Given under my hand, at Bellefonte the 1st day of Oct., in the year of our Lord, 1896 and the one hundred and twentieth year of the Independence of the United States.

JNO. P. CONDO, Sheriff.

A Hustler

That is the kind of a man who succeeds in business in these days of close profits and strong competition. The hustler gets a move on, lets the public know what he is doing. He pushes his business instead of his unpaid bills and bad accounts pushing him. The hustler lets the public know what he has in market; he invites trade. He does it to the best advantage by an intelligent and judicious use of space in a newspaper. It costs money to advertise. Yes indeed, but that attracts attention, brings new customers and increases your trade ultimately. The success in advertising consists in keeping "everlastingly at it."

Printers ink made John Wanamaker a millionaire, and he does more and more advertising each year. He seems to understand the business. Do you grasp the idea?

1500 copies of the Centre Democrat are printed each week. These reach at least 4000 readers in Centre county every week. It goes right to the homes—yes a family paper. Don't you think you could increase your business by an advertisement in its columns. Argument is useless.

Get a hustle on, increase your business, advertise in the Centre Democrat.
