HAPPENINGS IN CENTRE CO

What our Army of Alert Correspondents see and observe worthy of note—The local Happenings of every community will be gladly Published—Send the news, we will Publish it.

OAK HALL.

Thos. Riley killed a wild turkey on the mountain last Thursday.

PORKERS:—Jasper Rishel killed the champion hog in this vicinity, last week, which tipped the scales at 330 lbs. Wm. Sellers killed two last week which weighed 286, and 287.

The young ladies that were visiting last Saturday and Sunday should have taken a gent along to drive, as from the looks of the ones face she must have been trying to bump the train off the track.

The Modoc hunting party left for the mountains last week; venison will be plenty in a few weeks.

SOLD OUT:—We were informed that one of our strong silver men sold his vote for a small portion of Mark Hanna's surplus. We are sorry to learn that we have such men in the town, but such is the case, and yet they pretend to be loyal American citizens, which in our estimation they are lacking.

THREE DEER:—The Bucktail hunting party came home last Friday with three deer. They looked sick over the election. Are you boys?

POOR GIRLS:—A crowd of certain young ladies went to Boalsburg Friday evening (as they said) "To catch a bear" but the boys over there did not catch. Very well and so the girls wandered home by themselves—poor girls.

C. J. Stamm expects to begin butchering at State College this week. Charley, we are sorry to lose you, as we will be quite lonesome without "our family mule."

Mr. Bible, of Centre Hall, is filling the position as agent at the R. R. depot, for a few days.

Mrs. Nellis Kline is ill with neuralgia. Annie Kline has been on the sick list for sometime.

Wesley Tressler was the recipient of a bouncing boy on Monday. Wesley is up with the times. Mother and child are getting along fine. Next.

POSTMASTERS:—There are several persons after the post office already. It is not well to be so choicy, but gents that are engaged with Mark Hanna, are not suitable for postmasters.

Mrs. J. J. Tressler and son made a trip to Bellefonte Monday.

Our friend Clem made a flying trip to Centre Furnace after service, Sunday eve. Wm. Smithgall is on the sick list at present.

DEATH:—It is with regret that we note the death of Mr. Campbell, of near Linden Hall. He had been sick for some time past, but the angel of death came quite unexpected Sunday night and took him to the land from whence no traveler returns. Interment was made at the Branch cemetery, on Wednesday morning.

Our friend Ed, of Lemont, is thinking of engaging in the huckster business. It is a good thing—push it along.

COBURN NOTES.

Our farmers will soon be busily engaged in butchering.

G. R. Stover and wife left Saturday evening for Millburg, where they expect to visit acquaintances.

James Harter and wife made a visit at Woodward; was the guest of John Hosterman.

Mr. John Heller and wife, of Williamsport, arrived at this place Monday evening; they expect to visit in this section for a week or so.

William Hosterman came home from Shenandoah, Saturday evening, to see his better half.

Mrs. P. H. Stover and Master Stanley Burd, made a visit in Brushvalley on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Maggie Garthoff left for Rebersburg, Monday morning, to lay up a stock of sausage, pon-hoss and liverwurst.

Mr. Scot Burd, of Bellwood, arrived near Saturday evening to visit his sick father, Mr. John Burd.

John Burnes, of Shamokin, is circulating among his friends at this place.

Mr. Kreider Stover is one of the most progressive young men we have in Coburn. He will always take an interest in all our enterprises and is at present interested in a foot ball team, at Lancaster, Pa.

POST OFFICE:—Last week we had the tug of war for the post office in our town. There are two applicants for it, but there is only one that can have it. Give it to an old soldier. We have two veterans in our town that are industrious and are fit for the office. Do not sign an ex-postmaster's petition, as we claim they have had their share.

WEDDING AT COBURN:—Thursday evening a pretty wedding took place at the house of John Neuchrist, in Frogtown. The contracting parties were J. W. Glasgow and Sarah Stitzer, of Coburn. James you can't go up salt river now. Sell your boat and stay with Sally.

JACKSONVILLE.

Died Saturday, November 14 at 11:40 o'clock, of pneumonia, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Spayd, of this place. She was aged 7 weeks and 2 days. Funeral Tuesday at 10 o'clock, interment in the Reformed cemetery; we extend our sympathy to the parents in their bereavement.

Married Wednesday, November 11 at 5:30 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's parents of this place, W. L. Cook, of Howard, and Emma E. Long.

The best corn crop raised here this year was raised on the farm owned by John Holmes, Sr., east of Jacksonville. He had thirty acres which yielded four thousand and fifty bushels.

B. P. Vonada and family have moved into their new house, east of Jacksonville.

Mrs. Lillie Butler, of Flemington, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wasson.

Harry Yearick and wife spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Yearick's father, I. C. Johnson, of Howard.

Mrs. Stewart, of Bellefonte, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Kate Beck, of this place.

Mrs. Lizzie Womeladorf, of Mill Hall, is visiting at the home of her father, I. S. Frain, of Aldera.

Mrs. Tillie Peck, of Nittany Hall, is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Yearick.

John Butler and Jacob Orndorf took a drive through Bald Eagle valley Sunday, to see the country, but as John is a widower we think he went to see the ladies.

Quite a snow storm visited this place on Friday last, in the morning.

SPRING MILLS.

C. A. Moyer, one of our merchants, is not going to leave our town; he is now in Philadelphia to purchase a full line of goods.

Miss Susan Crawford died November 9th and was buried on the 12th at the Cross church, in Georges Valley. Rev. Isenberg preached the funeral sermon; aged 70 years.

Earl Bartley has returned from Johnstown where he was looking for a job and failed to get one. Since the election of McKinley and the way the republican papers blow how all the manufacturers have started up, it would be an easy matter for one to find employment. Give us more reality and not so much taffy on a stick.

The bridge, near the Grange hall, is in bad shape. Jacob, you had better fix it up before some horse gets his leg broken.

Frank Long has been to Potters Mills for the last week, attending to his brother's store, while he made a trip westward. Whether it was a business trip we have not learned.

Mr. Wolf, from State College, is visiting Mr. Beatty.

E. P. Shook and Charley Grimm are still buying up winter apples. They have shipped several car loads and have on hand several thousand bushels.

Squire Grenoble sent one of his patients last week to Bellefonte to board with Sheriff Condo.

R. G. Kenley, so far, has the belt on killing pheasants. He has killed 25 so far. You may go again.

Michael Smith and family, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday with his brother, Mr. Smith reports that the R. A. M. hunting party are going to camp for the week near the old Underwood saw mill, and they expect to hang some of the fleet footed animals. How nice it would be to send a mess of sirloin steak this way. Success to the party.

Squire Houseman, of Tusseyville, was looking up some legal business in this place.

John Shook will move into his new house on Pine street, this week, which is one of the finest. Boy.

MOSHANNON MENTION.

VALUABLE FIND:—Mr. Pat, and Hugh Ward have found several nice veins of coal on their property, ranging from 3 1/2 to 6 feet in thickness. Also a 7 foot vein of canal coal. We understand a company from Phillipsburg, are going to operate it. We hope they will, and soon make Mosshannon boom.

William Kerin has been laid up with a severe attack of inflammation of the bladder, for the past two weeks. He is getting better however and we hope to see him around soon.

Moshannon lost one of its best citizens last Saturday in the person of Mr. Fred Hapter, who for the past two years has been running an engine on the Beech Creek Road here, he being transferred to Clearfield Pa. Mr. John Gilbert of Jersey Shore will fill the vacancy here.

We are informed, by good authority, that Prof. Fox, of Washington, D. C., but now here for his health, is on the verge of changing his politics again.

Chas. Fleming, who has been laid up with a broken arm for the past three weeks, is around again and now in Huntingdon county, on a hunting expedition.

H. S. Buck who for the past four years has been firing on the road here, has been removed to Jersey Shore. Thos. Peterson, of that place, will fill the vacancy here, we have lost another good citizen.

Misses Ella Rankin, Agnes Vail and Mrs. Boston Vieldorfer were visiting friends in Phillipsburg last week.

UNCLE JOHN.

PLEASANT GAP NOTES.

As I am a reader of your paper and have not seen any news from this place, thought I would write some items which I hope you may print.

Next in order is butchering.

The first snow was seen on Friday.

Miss Emma Harrison, a charming young lady of State College, is visiting her sister Mrs. Will Rimmer.

Mr. W. Lundy, of State College, was seen on our streets lately.

The farmers in this section are all done husking corn, the yield was very large.

Mr. Ammon Kerstetter has broken ground for a new house in Harrisonville; likewise Mr. Harry Hile.

Walter, is making giant strides in the music line.

It is said there are light fingers in the neighborhood. Certain parties had better take warning or they may get a warm reception.

The Pleasant Gap band, with a number of friends betook themselves to commissioner-elect Matthew Riddle's, on Monday evening where they had a very enjoyable time. The band rendered some very choice music, (even if the dog ran away.)
