HAPPENINGS IN CENTRE CO

What our Army of Alert Correspondents see and observe worthy of note—The local Happenings of every community will be gladly Published—Send the news, we will Publish it.

PINE GROVE MILLS.
Our Scribe Heard From—An Interesting Batch of News.

PAID HIS BET:—The election has passed, and the bets have all been paid. Among the strange bets was that of Samuel Dunlap with Chas. Smith, by which he was compelled to carry a large banner in the republican parade during their jollification, on which were inscribed the words "Hurrah for McKinley." Sam fulfilled his part of the contract, like the man that he is.

A SMALL AFFAIR:—The republicans jolified here on Friday evening the 13th, but owing to the cold state of the weather the parade did not come up to expectations, although it was noisy enough to suit the most enthusiastic. The special train from Bellefonte brought a very small delegation from that place, indeed if it had not been for the Scotia people the train would have been entirely empty, as only seven tickets were sold at Bellefonte. This is generally the case with the machine politicians when they want to make a demonstration at the county seat, they are all enthusiasm, but when they are called on to do something for other localities which requires a little time and expense, then their enthusiasm suddenly wanes and dies out.

J. H. Lytle made a business trip to Altoona and Bellwood during the latter part of last week.

John Campbell of Tyone was seen in our town on Tuesday.

OUT HUNTING:—The Krebs, Kepler and Corl hunting crowd are camping on the Tussey mountains this week, and are looking for the fleet footed tribe. If all other hunters fail to bring in any venison we are of the opinion that we shall not be disappointed in this one, as they are all experienced hunters.

ANOTHER PARTY:—A crowd of hunters from Millheim passed through here on Monday on their way to the head waters of Shafers Creek, Huntingdon county, where they expect to camp for about two weeks.

Frank Smith is jubilant over the arrival of a son, at his house. Frank says he is going to call him Wm. Jennings Bryan Smith.

MILESBERG.
Mrs. Grove had a number of sheep destroyed by dogs in Howard township recently.

Mrs. Wm. Reddy, of Lewistown, was a guest of Joseph Shirk and family.

Frank Adams and wife, of Bellefonte, were in the burg on Thursday, the 12th.

Mrs. E. P. Campbell and Mrs. John Zimmerman, of New York, were in the burg on the 12th.

The Kohlbecker hunting party left for their hunting camp since the election.

All the letters of the alphabet are contained in the following: "A quick brown fox jumps over the lazy dog."

Mrs. Mary M. Weaver was the guest of Mrs. Sarah Fredericks, of Union township, recently.

Howard Moore and wife, of Howard borough, were the guests of her uncle, Henry T. Ryman, on Saturday last.

Joseph Palmer lost eleven boys recently, cause of death being cholera.

Miss Jennie Crain met with an accident on Saturday night. She went with L. C. Ballock to see the parade. In getting off the vehicle she fell, knocking two teeth out and breaking two others, and was somewhat stunned.

On Saturday morning last, as Ira Pfundfoot was going to work about 4 o'clock, a man, who, it is thought, was trying to enter Wetzig & Beerly's store, shot at Ira. Ira then spoke to him, when the burglar fired two more shots. Ira was badly scared and ran home on double quick step, white as snow, and waited until day light, when he went to work for Frank Wallace in the brick yard.

William Coldwell and Frank Hiling are again at home from Pittsburg, on a vacation.

Harry Myers, of Bellwood, is a guest of his parents at preset writing.

John Orris, of Shelbyville, Illinois, is at present a guest of his uncle, Samuel Orris and family expect to remain for a month.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Kaup spent Sunday at the home of Wm. Kaup, his father, at Oak Hall.

Mr. Wm. Gross and wife, of Mill Hill, spent several days with his parents last week.

Misses Lily Brown and Anna Kaup visited friends in Bellefonte, on Sunday.

Quite a large number of Axemann people attended the jollification in Bellefonte on Saturday evening. The man and woman in the cart took first prize.

Messrs Alfred Rishel and Chas. Hazell, spent Sunday at the home of Noah Breon, at Hublersburg.

J. W. Ott and wife, of Bellefonte, went to house keeping in a house belonging to J. A. Hazel, at this place.

WALLACE RUN.

Indian summer is now at hand. Mrs. Irvin Bottorff, and daughter Edith, of Flemington, are visiting at Wm. Walkers at present.

Mrs. Jennie Hesse, of Bush Hollow, spent Saturday at Chas. Lucas.

Our fortune teller, James Withersite, is at present on the sick list. Hope he may soon recover.

Mrs. Gates, of near Port Matilda, mother of Mrs. J. F. Kelley, is spending a few weeks here visiting.

TIME CUT:—Everybody seems happy after seeing the pay train passing through here but the railroad men do not seem so happy after hearing that their time was cut one day each week.

WILD CAT:—Last Thursday night this community was set in commotion by a wild cat scare, every marksman was sure to remain at a safe place and not even ventured out to see if it was a hog, wild cat or bear.

GHOST STORIES:—Ghost stories, such as the most fertile mind can imagine, are at present reported through here and some of our young people are very much agitated by them, for they are out a good part of their time at night and some even stay till Sunday morning till almost at an hour when the sun makes its appearance over the eastern hills. This is a good theory boys; for in day light there is not so much danger as when the darkness of night over shadows you.

Michael Sennet's party on last Saturday was not so largely attended, on account of the cold day for the boys, thought it was most too frosty to be sitting on a roof nailing shingles.

STUDY MORE:—Some of our politicians do not seem to know that election is a thing of the past, for they are busy trying to discuss the silver platform and protection. We would advise some of them to do a little more intelligent reading before entering in such political arguments, for it might make it a little more interesting for those standing by, trying to get information from a source or to obtain from which floweth nothing but rash illiteracy.

SINE DIE.
MADISONBURG ITEMS.

People are commencing to butcher, at a lively rate. Ere long sausage will be plenty and cheap. McKinley's election starts all industries agoing.

The compulsory school law is working very well in this district. So far not a single pupil has violated the law. It would be well, probably, for the people to know that the law is going to be carried out in this district. The teachers are provided with blanks to report all pupils who violate the law.

The Reformed S. S. will have a Christmas entertainment, on Saturday evening, Dec 26. The Lutheran Sunday school will also have an entertainment.

BAD BOYS:—For sometime there has been a gang of boys, or rather young men in this town and vicinity, who have been in more or less mischief, almost continually. On Sunday evening there was choir practice in the Reformed church and soon the boys were on the outside. They were rather loud and boisterous and finally got hold of the iron fence upsetting two panels and breaking nine pickets. It is a costly fence and, of course, the boys will have to repair the fence or pay the damage. The boys have danced, but they didn't pay the fiddler yet.

AARONSBURG NOTES.
Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Wert spent a few days visiting friends in Lock Haven.

Mrs. Fry, of Lewisburg, tarried a few days at George Bright's, on Main street.

Irvin Barner and family, of Island, Pa., Sunday at the residence of Frank Deitwiler's.

W. H. Phillips sold his hotel property to Edward Zoner, who will take possession of the same in the spring.

Miss Minnie Kurtz, of Millisburg, has been the welcome guest of W. H. Stover's the past few days.

The Reformed Sunday school has decided to hold a Christmas entertainment, on Christmas eve.

Dr. D. K. Musser has taken a business trip to Bellefonte.

Miss Cordelia Acker could not teach school last week on account of her having a severe time with the mumps. At this writing she is getting along nicely.

Hon. J. G. Meyers and lady spent a few days very pleasantly with his sons, at Bellefonte.

Were Kind to the Preacher
The Kersey Herald says: A few days ago two highwaymen stopped a traveling preacher near Mahaffey, Clearfield county. He had no money, but offered them an old silver watch. They refused it and gave him $5. Later they were rounded up for a series of robberies and captured, one being shot in the leg.

He Hits Them Hard.

An exchange sizes up the mismatched marriages in this manner: Nine-tenths of the unhappy marriages are the result of green human calves being allowed to run at large in social pasture without any yoke on them. They marry and have children before they have mustaches, are proprietors of two pair of pants, and the little girls they marry are old women before they are 20 years old. Occasionally one of these gossling marriages turns out all right, but it is a case of clear luck. If there was a law against young galoos marrying before they have all their teeth, we suppose the young cusses would avoid it in some way.

Wedding at Jacksonville.

A very unique wedding occurred at the residence of W. H. Long, on the 11 inst. Miss Emma E. was united in marriage to Walter L. Cooke, of Howard. The Rev. Jones, pastor of the Presbyterian church officiated. Just as the clock chimed half-past five, Prof. R. C. Holmes escorted Miss Bertha Wilson into the handsomely decorated parlor to preside at the piano. As the rich strains of Mendelssohn march were rendered the bridal party, attended by Miss Maggie Long, the brides sister and William Mitchell of Howard, descended into the parlor. After the ceremony and the congratulations, the bridal party and guests withdrew to the dining room to partake of the rich viands. The table fairly groaned under the weight of good things which Mrs. Long so well knows how to prepare. The home talent of Jacksonville enlivened the occasion by furnishing an open air concert, accompanied with musical instruments such as campaign horns, tin pans, etc. The bride was dressed in cream lansdowne, and carried a handsome bouquet of cream roses and caranations, her maid being gowned in a handsome light blue cashmere, enlivened with pink roses. After spending a very pleasant hour with their guests, the bridal party were driven to Howard, from which place they started amidst a shower of rice on a tour to Philadelphia and other eastern cities. Upon their return they expect to occupy the Poulson mansion in Howard. The presents were useful and costly. The groom has been an agent in the P. R. R. station at Howard for the past fifteen years. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Cooke all join in wishing them a long and happy life.

and generally played out, when I commenced to use Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy," writes S. I. Young, of Hiram, Ohio. "For years I have suffered with inflammation and constant pain in the bladder and kidneys, and have gradually grown worse and expected at any time that passing urine by nature's effort would cease. Besides I have had rheumatic pain in every muscle and joint, and have suffered intensely, but I must say I have not in five years felt as well as I do now. Have improved daily since I began the use of

DR. DAVID KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY

About a week ago I gave a man afflicted with bladder trouble, some Favorite Remedy, and to-day he said: "That is a great medicine; I am better already," and he drove eight miles to get a bottle of it.
