

MARK HANNA'S FUTURE

He May Yet be a Member of President McKinley's Cabinet.

WOULD PREFER TO BE A SENATOR.

If John Sherman Will Accept the Premiership Mr. Hanna Will Try for the Senatorship—Otherwise He Will Accept the Treasury Portfolio.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 24.—A close friend of Chairman Hanna today explained under what circumstances Mr. Hanna would accept a place in the cabinet.

"Mr. Hanna," he said, "will either go into the cabinet or he will be the next Republican United States senator from Ohio. Mr. Hanna's course must be decided by Senator John Sherman. Both the chairman and Mr. McKinley understand that, and they are waiting to learn what position Mr. Sherman will take."

"Mr. McKinley wants Mr. Hanna to accept the treasury portfolio, but Mr. Hanna has other aspirations. He believes it would be a greater honor to be senator from Ohio. But Senator Sherman stands in the way of that. Mr. McKinley will offer Senator Sherman the position of secretary of state, and if he declines to go into the cabinet then Mr. Hanna will accept the position of secretary of the treasury. Should Mr. Sherman decide, however, to become one of President McKinley's advisers, thus vacating his seat in the senate, Mr. Hanna will become his successor. Mr. McKinley will not decide on his course until he learns exactly what position Senator Sherman will take."

This same friend of Mr. Hanna said that it had practically been decided that Congressman Bontelle, of Maine, would be the secretary of the navy. Despite the fact that both General Miles and Colonel Fred Grant held a conference with Mr. McKinley, neither of them, says this gentleman, will get the portfolio of war.

Major McKinley's Campaign Souvenirs.

CANTON, O., Nov. 24.—The postman and the expressman are still carrying large burdens of mail and packages. Some one sent a live lamb from Missouri. Major McKinley has received since his election three eagles, four coons, two roosters, one black rabbit and a lamb. A force of men is at work replacing the fences, which were destroyed by the delegations and carried away for souvenirs. The front yard will be ploughed up in a few days and planted with grass seed.

President McKinley's Escort.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 24.—It is officially announced that Troop A, Ohio National Guard, of this city, will act as the military escort of President-elect McKinley at the inauguration in Washington.

An Extra Session Sure.

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—The Mail and Express says: There is going to be an extra session of congress called within twenty days after the inauguration of President-elect McKinley. This information comes from Canton in a most positive and direct way. Its reliability cannot be questioned. It is the opinion of the president-elect that no revenue legislation can be accomplished this winter, and though newspaper dispatches disagree regarding his attitude toward the present agitation for the Dingley bill, there is substantial authority for the statement that Major McKinley is averse to raising expectations as to its enactment which, in his judgment, cannot be realized.

Palmer Carried a "Township."

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 22.—Consolation will come to General John M. Palmer and General Simon Bolivar Buckner out of Kansas, for at this late day it is discovered that the National Democracy has scored a victory. The candidates of the National Democracy swept Dudley township, Haskell county, Kansas, and they are to be officially notified of the fact. Today Secretary of State Edwards forwarded to General Palmer and Buckner a certified copy of the returns, which show the vote to have been as follows: Palmer and Buckner, 3; McKinley and Hobart, 2; Bryan and Sewall, 1.

Killed by a Constable.

SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 24.—John Kerych, of Piceburg, was shot and killed yesterday by Max Koehler, a constable. The latter, accompanied by another constable and two citizens, went to Kerych's house to serve a warrant on him for assault. Kerych refused to come out, whereupon Koehler forced open a window where Kerych was standing, and firing a revolver against Kerych's abdomen fired. The wounded man died three hours later. Koehler was locked up.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 24.—At Delmont, Pa., near here, John Tarr, aged 35 years, shot and killed his wife and then committed suicide. A year ago Tarr eloped with the daughter of a farmer named Long. They went to Cumberland, where they were married, but upon their return home the girl's father refused to allow his daughter to live with her husband. During the absence of the rest of the family Tarr visited the house of his father-in-law and committed the deed.

The election will take place Dec. 16.

Kaiser was committed to prison, and Dec. 7 has been fixed for his trial.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 23.—John Dorinski, a Pittsburgh policeman, went to McKees Rocks borough to visit relatives. On the way back he found two men fighting in front of a pool room while, it is alleged, a borough officer stood by calmly watching the contest. The burgess said: "I don't see any witness here to substantiate the yarn you have told to this court, and as you had no business to interfere between these two men I fine you $10 and costs."

ASHLAND, Pa., Nov. 23.—The order of the mine officials to discharge all foreigners holding responsible positions about the mines is hailed with delight by the American miners in this section of the coal fields. Almost nine-tenths of the mine accidents that have occurred the past few years have been caused, it is alleged, by the carelessness of the Polish and Hungarian laborers. The hospitals are crowded with this class of workmen, and it is believed that the number of mine accidents can be reduced considerably by employing none but American laborers.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Nov. 23.—Joseph Champaiga, a resident of Cedar Run, a little village on the Fall Brook railroad, fifty miles north of this city, met with a horrible death at the hands of his 9-year-old son. Young Champaiga and two companions were rolling stones down the steep hillside, near the village, into a small stream that flows into Pine creek. Champaiga had succeeded in starting a larger stone than any of his companions, and it swept down the steep incline with a terrible velocity. Mr. Champaiga was passing along the road at the bottom of the hill, and the stone crushed in his skull.

SHARON, Pa., Nov. 23.—James Sutton, a wealthy farmer, living near Henderson, Mercer county, was early in the morning husking corn in his barn when three men entered. He was struck to the floor insensible. The robbers rifled his pockets, but all they succeeded in getting was a few dollars. They then carried his body into a corn crib, and after tying him securely turned their attention to getting into the house. Mrs. Sutton was locked in a closet with a gag in her mouth. The house was searched, but very little taken. The robbers then departed. Mrs. Sutton is now in a serious condition with nervous prostration.

LEBANON, Pa., Nov. 23.—Harry M. Kline, formerly of Manheim, Lancaster county, who was arrested here Thursday evening, was arraigned Saturday before Alderman Robert L. Miller, charged with having made false entries in his accounts and with having embezzled $5,000 from the Farmers' National bank, of Lebanon, of which he was one of the tellers for four years past. ANOTHER LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR

Advices Use of Dr. Greene's Nervura Because He Knows It Will Cure.

Lieut.-Governor Fletcher Bids the Weak, Nervous and Discouraged to Hope, for the Wonderful Dr. Greene's Nervura Will Surely Cure Them.

The world believes its great men. Their word is accepted as truth, their example followed, their advice taken.

Knowing this fact, the illustrious Lieut.-Governor of Vermont, Hon. Henry A. Fletcher, of Proctorsville, Vt., who is the descendant of a long line of Statesmen and Rulers, tells the people if they wish to get well, if they desire to get back their health and strength, to use Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy because he knows from personal experience, from its use in his own family and among his friends, and from having observed time and time again its wonderful curative powers, that it will surely and certainly cure, that it will give strength to the weak, strong nerves to the nervous, natural refreshing sleep to the sleepless, perfect digestion to the dyspeptic, rich, red blood to the feeble, freedom from pain to the rheumatic, in fact, sound and vigorous health to all who use it.

Lieut.-Governor Fletcher's family have been leaders and advisers of the people and publicly identified with the people and the history of the United States for more than a hundred years. His father was both Lieut.-Governor and Governor of Vermont and his grandfather was one of the framers of the Constitution of Massachusetts.

Certainly no higher testimonial, no greater proof of a medicine's wonderful power to cure can possibly be given than is here bestowed upon Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy by this most distinguished statesman and head of the government of the state. Surely no one who is ill, worn-out, run-down, weak, nervous, discouraged and disheartened by repeated failures to be cured can require any greater proof, any stronger testimony that Dr. Greene's Nervura will cure, that it will certainly restore health and strength to the weak and nervous sufferer, than Lieut.-Governor Fletcher's powerful words wherein he states that he has personally used it in his family with greatest benefit, knows it to be a most wonderful curer of disease, and earnestly recommends its use by all who are out of health and need medicine.

The great Statesman says: "I have long heard of the good effects of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy and have used it in my family. I have heard cases among my neighbors who have derived great benefit from its use and can truly say, that as far as my experience and information go, the results are highly satisfactory. This letter can be published for others' good."

If you are a sufferer from weakness or disease, do not hesitate to take Dr. Greene's Nervura and get well after such a testimonial from so illustrious and distinguished a Statesman.

Do you think so eminent a man of such high official position would lend his name and give his emphatic advice to use Dr. Greene's Nervura unless he knew positively its great value, its wondrous power to cure? He knows that his words will be heeded and his advice to use this grand remedy followed because of his high standing and he unhesitatingly tells the people, speaking the welcome truth to the sick with the voice and dignity of official authority, that Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy will cure the weak and suffering, will give health and strength, renewed life, restored energies and the zest and happiness of living.

Remember also that this is no so-called patent medicine, but the prescribed and discovery of Dr. Greene of 35 W. 14th Street, New York, the successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, who can be consulted without charge, personally or by letter.
