—Thanksgiving services will be held in the Methodist church, this Thursday morning, at 10.30.

—"Road to Wealth" will be the next attraction at the Garman Opera House, Tuesday evening, December 1st.

—Schadd Bros. double dwelling, on Thomas street, will be another handsome building when completed.

—The list of school teachers and directors in this county will be found on page 7, of this issue.

—Miles Osmer departed on Monday, for Lincoln, Nebraska, where he will assist his brother in the restaurant business.

—The new Trinity Reformed church, at Centre Hall, will be dedicated on Sunday, December the 29. It is the finest edifice in that valley.

—This is the last issue to contain the scholarship coupon. No coupons will be received after Wednesday December 2nd, 6 p. m. Send your coupons in early.

—The Gentzel hunting party passed through town on Friday evening, from the Green woods. Their luck consisted of a fine large buck that had five points.

—Judge Furst's residence, on Linn street has been greatly improved by the addition of a porch. He now has one of the most attractive homes on that street.

—Prof. P. H. Meyer attended court on Tuesday. The result of the election has not effected his politics in the least and will be found in line, as ever, for democracy straight.

—Coms. Dan. Heckman called on Tuesday. He says he will be ready for business on January 1st and will endeavor to give the public his very best service.

—Messrs Jeremiah Brungart, W. B. Haines and Jasper Stover, all of that democratic stronghold, Miles township, who are attending court, called on Monday, to advance their subscriptions.

—Leonard Stephens, who was injured in the wreck near Unionville, Thursday of last week, is getting along nicely at the Altoona hospital. The surgeons think that they can save his mangled leg.

—Edward Hill, son of Mrs. Margaret Hill, left Tuesday night for Philadelphia, where he will become a student on board the school ship Saratoga. Ed was a student of the Bellefonte High school.

—Lyon, the butcher, has a fine black bear hanging in his meat market, on Allegheny street. It was sent in from Snow Shoe, by Col. W. F. Reynolds. Whether he killed it or not, we cannot say.

—Mr. Frank Arney, one of Centre Hall's active young democrats called on Tuesday to see us and inspect the improved machinery in our press rooms. Before leaving he entered his name on our list.

—Dr. W. U. Irvin, of Julian, prim and happy called on Tuesday to renew subscription. He is not worried in the least over the result of the election, and thinks that in the future democracy will make a stronger showing.

—Samuel Gettig, Esq., made a flying trip to Harrisburg, on Tuesday to attend legal business of an important nature. Samuel is rapidly building up his practice and is one of our most reliable young attorneys.

—Mr. J. K. Johnston, of Moshannon, was a pleasant caller at our office on Monday. Mr. Johnston was admitted to practice law in Centre county this week. He is an energetic young man who has the necessary pluck to succeed in that profession.

—The fires in the Glass works were started on Tuesday evening. Quite a number were present. Al Garman was given the privilege of applying the match and feels proud of it too because he thinks they are a sure success this time.

—The regular meeting of the Gregg Post, next Saturday evening will be the time for nominating officers for the ensuing year. During the evening refreshments will be served to the members of the Post and visiting members of other Posts.

—"The Road to Wealth," is the name of a new American comedy drama, by that eminent young journalist, Wm. Talbot Burke, he has for the chief feature a novel and exciting mechanical device, introducing a grand bicycle race at a meet of the L. A. W. at famous Asbury Park. Champion Joe Harrison will ride in this scene. At Garman's Opera House Tuesday, December 1st.

The Fifth Regiment Military Band.

It has always been the custom of each regiment in the National Guard of Pennsylvania to have a drum corps to furnish music while on parade and at their annual encampments. This is being done away with and military bands are taking the place of the drum corps. At the encampment at Lewistown last summer, each regiment in the Second Brigade, except the Fifth, had a band. Colonel Burchfield, of Altoona, has also decided to dismiss the drum corps and organize the Fifth Regiment Military band.

In looking about for suitable material and a good location, Col. Burchfield has almost decided to locate it at Bellefonte, and for some time has been corresponding with Mr. Philip Garbrick, of Coleville, who is First Sergeant of Co. B, with reference to the matter. His intention is to enlist 20 or 24 of the best musicians in the community, not all from one band, but the several bands in and about Bellefonte. The regulation military uniform will be worn, with two white stripes on the pantaloons. Mr. Garbrick would make a splendid Major, as he is a good musician and at handling the baton he has few equals. Should Col. Burchfield decide to locate the band at Bellefonte, and we believe he will, he would have no trouble in securing good musicians, such as would make the best band in the brigade. If placed at Bellefonte it would be located almost in the centre of the companies composing the Fifth regiment, and the large armory would be an excellent place for rehearsals. Let the band be organized at Bellefonte.

One Deer.

The Harper, Cronister, Miles, Right-nor hunting party returned from their trip to the Alleghenies with four nice deer. That means that they had exactly one, according to latest returns. Hunting stories are little like McKinley's majority, they shrink considerably as the correct returns come in.

Got Done Up.

On Saturday the State College foot ball team was badly beaten at Harrisburg in a game of foot ball with the Carlisle Indian school team. The score was 24 to 0. State did not expect to win when they left home, as the Indians are one of the strongest teams in the country.

SILVER WEDDING.

25th Anniversary of the Wedding of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Malin

A large number of invited guests assembled on Monday evening, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur L. Malin, on Howard street. The occasion was the celebration of their 25 wedding anniversary. Their spacious house was adorned with choice cut flowers tropical plants and evergreens. The verandas were enclosed with large canvass coverings and the interior was brilliantly illuminated, so that on this occasion their house, with the elegantly attired ladies and gentlemen truly was a scene of festive beauty.

Gov. D. H. Hastings and wife assisted in receiving the guests, many of whom were from a distance.

25 years ago Mr. and Mrs. Malin were married in the parlor of Gov. Curtin's mansion, then occupied by Gen. James A. Beaver. Rev. W. T. Wylie, then pastor of the Presbyterian church of this place, but now of Sparta, Ill., performed the ceremony. The family circle now consists of two charming daughters: Miss Sara and Miss Helen, and Ogden Bailey, a bright and interesting 5 year old son.

The guests who were present from a distance were Gov. and Mrs. Hastings, Mrs. J. L. Mitchell, of Tyrone, Wilbur Harris, of Harrisburg, Mrs. Samuel O. Malin, of Radford, Va., Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Bailey, of Williamsport. Mr. Bailey is president of the Central Pennsylvania Telephone Co. Mr. and Mrs. Malin were the recipients of a number of handsome presents.

A Teacher's Painful Accident.

Edwin Kerlin, whose parents live in Centre Hall, but who teaches school at Lemont, met with a painful accident at that place last Thursday evening about six o'clock. It was just growing dusk and Mr. Kerlin was on his way from school to his boarding place. Alongside the boardwalk over which he had to pass was a gutter in which a drain pipe was being laid. Kerlin accidentally fell into the ditch. Aid was summoned and he was taken to his boarding place and a doctor sent for. He suffered most intensely and it was discovered that his thigh was broken. It will probably be many weeks before Mr. Kerlin will be able to attend to his duties as a teacher again.—News.

Lost Watch Recovered.

A few days ago while Surveyor of the Port, P. Gray Meek was riding on the Pennsylvania railroad from Bellefonte to Philadelphia, he arose from his seat to enter the smoking car. As he stepped from one car to the other his valuable gold watch in some manner became detached from the chain and slipped down between the bumpers onto the track. Upon his arrival at Philadelphia Mr. Meek reported his loss to the railroad authorities. The employees along the track were notified, and a few days after a track walker found the time piece lying above the stones, above Wayne station. He at once sent the watch to Philadelphia and it was given to the rightful owner.

Increased Pension.

David Behers, of Scotia, formerly of Co. C, 148th Regt., Pa. Vols., has been granted an increase of pension from $17 to $30 per month, through the agency of W. H. Musser. Mr. Behers is a worthy old soldier. He is now 70 years of age and contracted disease in the army. He also lost the sight of one eye and the hearing of one ear. At one time in a battle in Virginia he was taken prisoner, but after being under guard about ten minutes he knocked his captor down with the butt of his rifle, then took the rebel's rifle and escaped safely to our lines.

Barred Friday Evening.

The remains of Theodore Baney, the young Bellefonte man who was killed in the railroad wreck last Friday morning, was buried that evening. It was impossible to take the remains home, owing to the sickly condition of his mother, so Rev. Rue held a brief service at Naginey's undertaking rooms, at five o'clock and the body was interred immediately afterwards.

Kept Busy.

Hon. John A. Woodward, of Howard, was in town on Wednesday, for the first time since the election. Mr. Woodward is busily engaged in agricultural work. He has charge of holding Farmer's Institutes in the twenty-five northern counties, of the state and it keeps him on the move. The institutes for Centre county will be held at Milesburg and Stormstown, Pa., the first week in March.

—The Bellefonte Academy foot ball team will play the Phillipsburg High School team at the Driving Park in Phillipsburg Thanksgiving afternoon.

—Butcher Lyon recently purchased sixteen capons that averaged over seven pounds each. They were exceedingly fine. In addition he can give you a cut of bear meat, a slice of venison or a juicy beef steak.

—Major R. H. Fetter, of Harrisburg, is attending court this week. Mr. Foster was the founder of The Centre Democrat in 1878, and conducted the paper for several years. For some years past he has held an important position in one of the departments at the State Capitol. He is looking quite well and appears to be enjoying good health.

$1000 PER NIGHT.

Mr. Bryan is about to enter upon an elaborate lecturing tour, as is authentically announced in the New York Journal, which is accepted as Mr. Bryan's organ in the East.

Mr. Bryan has been engaged by a syndicate to give five lectures a week, for which he is to be paid $1,000 per night, and it is understood that the length of the engagement is indefinite.

Considering that Mr. Bryan was able to command only $100 per night as a lecturer prior to his candidacy for the Presidency, the value of his nomination and of his campaign is shown by his ability to command $1,000 per night now. Even a defeat for the Presidency seems to have some substantial compensations.

James C. Irvin.

James C. Irvin died at his home in Barree, Huntingdon county, on Friday evening last after suffering from chronic diarrhoea about three years. He was confined to bed about two weeks.

The deceased was 65 years, 1 month and five days old at death. He was a charcoal maker by trade and from boyhood engaged in that work until a few years ago, at Pennsylvania Furnace, Coalrain Forges, Bald Eagle, Barree, etc. He was a member of the Odd Fellows lodge at Pine Grove. His wife died about 15 years ago.

The following children survive: Wilber, of Nebraska; Mrs. John Markle, of State College; Mrs. R. C. Brooks, of Ennisville, Huntingdon county; Theodore B., of Tyrone; Mrs. Wm. Lytle and Mrs. Harry Gearhart, of Altoona; Landis, of Barree. Four brothers also survive, viz.: Jerry, of Houtdale; Henry, of Altoona; Abram, of Frugality, Cambria county; Andrew, of Belleville.

Gibb-Hoy Wedding.

We take the following from the Altoona Times:

Rev. William Gibb, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Arvona, Clearfield county, was married Wednesday evening the 18th, to Miss Minnie Elizabeth Hoy, sister of Dr. H. K. Hoy, of Altoona, formerly of Bellefonte, at whose home the wedding took place. The wedding was a quiet one, and the plainest Presbyterian ceremony was solemnized. The thirty guests comprised only relatives and near friends. The nuptial knot was tied at 6 o'clock, the bridal party entering the parlor to the sweet strains of "Lohengrin," rendered on the piano by Prof. W. T. Meyer, of Bellefonte, a cousin of the bride. Dr. Hoy gave the bride away. An elaborate lunch followed the wedding.

Joseph Thompson's Condition.

The condition of Joseph Thompson, the lad who was severely injured last week by jumping on a moving car, is one of uncertainty. The physicians first called in, after a careful examination of his injuries, decided that amputation above the knee would be advisable. The family objected to this. Dr. Fisher, of Zion, was called later and has expressed the belief that there is a chance of recovery without such means. The limb is badly crushed and the bone injured. The great danger is from gangrene. The lad is getting along nicely at present.

Thanksgiving Ball.

The Thanksgiving Assembly of the Senior class of the Pennsylvania State College will be given in the Armory, at that institution, on Friday evening, November 27th.

The patronesses will be Mrs. H. R. Curtin, Mrs. H. H. Stock, Mrs. W. F. Reeder, Mrs. Cyrus Gordon, Mrs. P. E. Womelsdorf, Mrs. H. F. Fernald, Mrs. J. P. Jackson, Mrs. S. H. Becht, Mrs. C. W. Mason, Mrs. J. Y. Dale, Mrs. Louis E. Reber, Mrs. D. C. Pearson, Mrs. R. M. Foster, Mrs. W. H. Patterson, Mrs. W. A. Buckout and Mrs. J. L. Spangler.

Big Profit.

A traveling troupe of four people gave a show at Logantown in Clinton county, the other evening. They paid 25 cents to have their trunks hauled from the depot and 15 cents for cheese and crackers. The receipts for the show amounted to 48 cents. Net profit 8 cents. It isn't stated whether they walked out of town or pawned their effects.

Dedicatory Services.

We are authorized to announce the following for the dedicatory services of the Centre Hall Reformed church for Sunday, Nov. 22: Services at 10 a. m.; Sunday school at 2:30 p. m., and union services at 7 p. m., in the evening. All are invited.

Farm Sold.

The farm belonging to the David Sharer heirs and located near Zion, in Nittany Valley, was sold last Saturday to Jacob M. Garbrick, of Zion, for $6142.00.

—If you want to see the difference in clothing—finish and prices—go to Srm'l Lewin, Mgr. See how much you can save.

—A reception was given at Rev. Dr. Laurie's home on Tuesday evening, November 24. It was in honor of the fact that it was twenty years since he commenced preaching in the Presbyterian church of this place. His ministry has been exceedingly successful. Dr. Laurie is one of the foremost pastors in the Presbytery.

Shoot You First!

is now heard where boys most do congregate, and when the youngsters begin the shooting the shoes begin to feel the first of a great many strains they will be called upon to bear before the school going season is over.

Before and after school hours and at recess the boys will be at marble shooting, leap frog and other games very popular among them. You ought to prepare for it. Fortify the boy with stout shoes that will not give way when he begins to play. Come in an see if we can't give you what you want — what the boy ought to have.
