WALLACE RUN.

Snow storms and blizzards. Mr. Israel Preece is, at this writing, nursing a very sore hand.

Prof. Charles Smith, of Brattleboro, Vermont, is at present in our midst cleaning organs and pianos. Prof. Smith not only knows how to clean an instrument but also knows how to use them when they are cleaned. The songs and music he has given were very much appreciated by our young folks.

Miss Minnie Walker, daughter of Mrs. John Walker, is at this writing, reported on the sick list.

Mr. I. A. Zeigler and his friend, Miss Sallie B. Hancock, spent Sunday at Marsh Creek, visiting at Mr. S. M. Weber's.

The singing class organized a few weeks ago, is in a very prosperous condition. The class has made a choice selection in purchasing a new book, and all are looking forth for a rich feast of music. The class is under the instruction of Mr. Elias Hancock who is a very enthusiastic instructor.

PAID HIS BET.—The election has passed, and the bets have all been paid. Among the strange bets was that of C. S. Lucas with his brother William E. Lucas, by which the former was compelled to wheel him a distance of two miles, to see his best girl. The bet was paid, in which C. S. performed his promise in first class style. The bet was that if McKinley was elected he was to wheel his brother to see his girl a distance of about two miles and eat half a pie and then kiss his girl; if Bryan was elected his brother was to wheel him to his school room a distance of two and one-fourth miles. On Wednesday of last week C. S. procured the wheelbarrow, and as the republican campaign orators certified that all free silverites were insulting the stars and stripes, they put two good sized flags on his wheelbarrow and William was sitting between them and blowing a trumpet, in such a manner that before they came near the house William's girl thought it was Gabriel coming with his trumpet. They were followed through the village by a number of young people, giving cheers for Bryan. At the store they stopped and got cigars to keep up courage on their way. The boys gave the "Prof. in shafts" three cheers, when they again started on their journey. The only accident occurring along the way was the overturning of the wheelbarrow, in which no one was seriously injured but William had his upper jaw at the shop (dentist) to have it fixed. They arrived at their destination in good time, covering the distance in forty minutes. When they arrived, William took C. S. by the hand, congratulating him on his good luck, saying he would make a better mule to work in shafts than a pedagogue. They entered the house, where the pie was awaiting them which was only a small job for our friend C. S. for he has a good face on him for pie at most any time; he ate the pie, drank several glasses of cider, kissed the girl and took the wheelbarrow and started for home in the best of humor. As the evening was a mild one, C. S. did not need a coat; but rolled up his sleeves, wore a large sunshade straw hat, with a bandana kerchief around his neck. He said he tried to give honest argument to those with whom he tried to discuss the issue during the campaign. C. S. seems determined to continue this bet every campaign till he will see Bryan elected and free silver carry the day.

SINE DIE.

LINDEN HALL.

Jas. Page attended court last week as a traverse juror.

Wm. Stover has taken the contract from Hal Ross for cutting his paper wood on timber land, at Fairbrook.

Dan'l T. Wieland who has been on the sick list for several weeks, is not improving.

The protracted meeting held by Rev. Erdman of the Evangelical church, is largely attended. May there be much good accomplished.

Communion services will be held by the United Evangelical church, on Sunday, November 29, at 3 o'clock p. m. Rev. Stapleton, the presiding elder, will be present.

DIED:—G. W. Campbell, a highly respected citizen of this place, died on Sunday morning, aged 77 years. Mr. Campbell had been in ill health for some time, being a sufferer from asthma, but was taken seriously ill with heart trouble a few days before his death. The funeral took place on Wednesday 5th. Interment was made in the Branch cemetery.

STATE COLLEGE.

Our staunch democratic friend, J. Calvin Sauer, has gone to Coalport to visit friends for a few days.

SOLD OUT.—Mr. M. D. Snyder has sold out his meat market to Chas. Stamm who will hereafter conduct the business at the old stand.

The Hon. R. M. Foster and wife are absent in Philadelphia, for a week, which leaves our soldier friend Thompson Snyder sole manager of the "New Cash store."

Our butcher friend, A. F. Markle, has gone to Lewisburg to buy cattle, and left our jolly friend Joe, as chief manager.

60 YEARS OLD

and generally played out, when I commenced to use Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy," writes S. I. Young, of Hiram, Ohio. "For years I have suffered with inflammation and constant pain in the bladder and kidneys, and have gradually grown weaker and expected at any time that passing urine by nature's effort would cease. Besides I have had rheumatic pain in every muscle and joint and have suffered intensely, but I can say I have not in five years felt as well as I do now. Have improved daily since I began the use of

DR. DAVID KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY

About a week ago I gave a man afflicted with bladder trouble, some Favorite Remedy, and to-day he said: "That is a great medicine; I am better already," and he drove eight miles to get a bottle of it.

PLEASANT GAP NOTES.

Well! As my items did not reach the waste basket, I concluded to weary the many readers of this paper again.

Of course it will be news to the readers to know that that charming girl wasn't in our town last week, but where she was you all know. However, she is still a charming young lady, and still belongs to me, so when she returns I'll be sure to see her and let you all know.

Samuel Wasson is convalescent from a protracted spell of sickness.

Election sore heads are getting better. Albert Gill recently had some improvements to his home which adds much to its general appearance.

Among those who wore a silver hat, and thought them just the thing: Some have concluded to burn them. But others have changed the string.

Now there was Steve, you see, thought he was on the right track: Has laid off the silver string and placed on one of black.

THANKSGIVING MENU.

For our defeated politicians: Beets, soup, salt river water. For our gay sports: Caper sauce. For our gossips: Pickled tongue, peppers, vinegar. For our dudes: Veal, head of cabbage, calves brain. For our sweet girls: Tenderloin, roast duck, baked hearts, angel food. For our pugilist: Pound cake, jam and mashed potatoes. For our old maids: Devil'd crabs, sour kraut. For our thin people: Wind pudding, spare ribs.

Many members of the Sioux Falls, South Dakota, building and loan association have sent in their resignation of membership.

Our latest acquisition in the way of new neighbors, is Wm. Grenoble, of near Zion. Mr. Grenoble has purchased the property that had formerly been in the possession of the Dearment heirs; he will make some elaborate improvements about his new home.

Calvin Lonce has come home to spend the winter.

Through the efforts of our school director, J. C. Mulniger, and others who generously subscribed, we are at last able to realize that a bell adorns our handsome school building.

Will Noll is at present engaged in buying up poultry. He is very careful in his selections and invests in none that are over three or four generations old, or in other words, from ten to twenty years.

Mat. Riddle inspects all stock; we did not learn whether inside or outside the coop.

Chas. Mackey, of near this place, claims a thief was trying to steal his chickens the other night.

An infant of Harvey Baird's died here last week. Interment was made in the Methodist cemetery.

James Kerstetter has purchased the Swann property at the upper end of town, and in the spring will make such improvements that he may boast of having a home second to none in town.

The hour for Sunday evening services have changed from 7 to 6:30 o'clock.

The inclement weather greatly interfered with carrying out the Epworth League program Saturday evening.

Among the largest porkers we have seen killed this year were those of Wm. Johnston; we did not ascertain the exact weight. Mr. Johnston says they would have been much larger had he received his corn at the proper time. Barney Bilger has a couple of fine ones, which he claims will be the largest killed in this vicinity for a number of years.

From the general outlook houses will command a premium at this place ere long.

Many of our citizens were attending court last week; likewise this week.

Gettig Bros. have finished sawing their contract of timber near Coleville, but have not yet definitely settled where they may locate in the future. They are negotiating for several contracts.

Rolly Miller, of Philadelphia, was renewing old acquaintances, in town this week.

It is said a new band will be organized here, to consist of some of the best talent about the town.

H. N. Twitmyer purchased a lot, from M. F. Riddle, the earlier part of the week, on which he expects to erect a house, at once.

Mr. Gerthie Iddings, of Millinburg, was visiting friends in this vicinity lately.

Dr. Samuel Noll, of Bellefonte, was a pleasant visitor in our burg lately.

Mr. Fred Smith, of Bellefonte, was seen in town last week.

Did Mertie enjoy her visit which she took a couple weeks ago? Well.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Koch, of near this place, are visiting friends in Snyder and Millin counties.

Edna, did you enjoy your ride to Axemann.

Misses Minnie and Carrie Hoy attended church in this place last Sunday.

This week will be very bad for the turkeys.

Mr. Bortoff, of Lemont, attended church in this place Sunday.

Pleasant Gap was well represented in the republican parade, recently held in Bellefonte.

The Lutherans, of this place will hold a sociable and literary entertainment, in the church Thanksgiving evening.

Miss Cora Brooks is recovering from a recent illness.

Woman is a delusion, and every man is prone to hug it.

Miss Philadelphia. This popular attraction recently appeared in Harrisburg. The Patriot makes the following comment upon it: "Miss Philadelphia" was one of the most amusing and enjoyable shows recently presented in this city, even though its production was handicapped by the size of the stage, and it had one of the biggest houses of the season at the biggest admission prices. Which is at least a partial refutation of the charge that "Harrisburgers won't patronize good shows."

ASK YOUR NEIGHBOR Where he buys his clothing and nine times out of ten he will answer at Faibles. Ask him why, and he will tell you, ist, because the assortment is larger, more complete and consists of goods different entirely from the common ready made goods found in other stores. 2nd, that all goods are just as represented; they must be satisfactory or your money refunded, and the price is the lowest. The fact is we give you better goods for less money, and the reasons' sufficient. Try it once.
