

HAPPENINGS IN BELLEFONTE.

Local Events Briefly Told in a Few Lines.

PERSONALS, SOCIAL EVENTS.

What has Transpired During the Past Week—Movements of our People—What the Local Scribe saw worthy of mention—A week's local news in a few words.

—Hamlet, on Saturday evening. —Skating has been very good at Hecla Park the past week. —Only two more issues of the Centre Democrat in this year. —Wm. Sholl, is erecting a new double house on East Bishop street. —The Valentine Iron company paid their men in gold last Saturday. —Mantell photos are the popular thing. Shaeffer can furnish them. —Editor Harter is out on a hunting trip to the Green Woods, this week. —Mrs. A. S. Garman and son Ira left on Tuesday morning for Philadelphia. —All the newly elected officials have filed their bonds and same have been approved. —The Logan Fire company is making preparations for its annual New Year masquerade ball. —John Uzzle, of Snow Shoe, who enjoys a good play, came in on Monday to see Miss Philadelphia. —Col. Spangler and wife are in Philadelphia at present and will not be home until after the holidays. —The boro stone crusher must be doing good work from the amount of repairs being made on our streets. —Jacob Gross, the tailor, is still holding forth in his former room on Bishop street. The fire did not quite reach him. —Charles M. Robb, of Blanchard, and Grace E. Quay, of Lewistown, were married at the latter place on November 28. —At Millheim a few nights ago Paul, the young son of A. C. Musser fell out of bed while asleep and fractured his collar bone. —The pike from Bellefonte to Milesburg is in bad shape. The average person would prefer to pay toll and have better roads. —Miss Bessie Muffy and her sister Lillian departed Tuesday morning for Philadelphia where they will make their future home. —It has just been decided that the next reunion of the Matters family shall take place at Warriorsmark on the 10th of next June. —Louis Dolls Sons are moving their shoe shop into the store room vacated recently by McKee's hardware, on Allegheny street. —Albert Warren, of Philadelphia, sales manager for Lever Brothers, Limited, manufactures of Sunlight Soap, was a pleasant caller at this office Monday. —It is said that there are only sixteen applicants for the Milesburg postmaster-ship under the coming administration but many others are still in the woods. —Wash Loneberger, long a respected resident of Nittany mountain, is not improving from his paralytic stroke from which he has suffered for several days. —Joseph Garbrick returned from Philadelphia, last week. He was there having a cancerous growth cut out of his ear. The operation was successful and the wound is healing up nicely. —James Young, at the opera house on Saturday evening next. It is not necessary to recommend him to our people. His appearance here last season in Hamlet left a very favorable impression. —James Young, who made such a splendid hit here last season, in the production of Hamlet, will play again on Saturday night. He is supported by a first class company. Secure your seats early, at Parishes' drug store. —The North American Review, containing W. J. Bryan's article on the result of the election, can be had at Wm. Barnes, news stand in the Bush House. The article is a good one and is attracting much attention and comment. —Many of our business men thus far have failed to notice any material change in business since the election. Confidence don't do everything. The "Advance Agent of Prosperity" has not delivered any goods thus far. —On Saturday the Gentzel hunting party started for the Greenwoods and will be gone until the close of the deer season, Dec 15. They are confident of bringing something home this time and there won't be any Sunday hunting either. —Mr. N. T. Krebs, one of Pine Grove Mills bustling young merchants, came to town on Monday on business and attended the attraction at the opera house. Mr. Krebs reports the railroad extension rapidly nearing that town, which will prove a great convenience. —The new Presbyterian church at Milesburg will be dedicated on Sunday, December 12, at 10:30 a. m. Rev. Dr. McPherson, of Philadelphia, will assist the pastor of the congregation, Rev. W. O. Wright, on this interesting occasion, and deliver the dedicatory sermon.

Snow Shoe Mining company to Bald Eagle Valley railroad company, tract of land in Snow Shoe twp. for $1. Death of Simon Loeb. On Saturday morning a telegram was received, at this place, announcing the death of Simon Loeb, at his home, in Philadelphia, from brights disease. For a number of years Mr. Loeb had been in declining health, but his death was rather unexpected by his friends in this place where he was well known. Simon Loeb was born in Germany 53 years ago and came to this country when he was but twelve years old. For many years he was engaged in the mercantile business in this place. He was associated with his late brother Adolph Loeb in the firm of Loeb, May & Loeb. Afterward they continued the business as S. & A. Loeb. After the dissolution of this firm Mr. Loeb opened a clothing store for several years in the Brockerhoff building. Several years ago that was discontinued and he moved to Philadelphia. He was married to Miss Lena Frank who now survives him. He also leaves three sisters, namely: Mrs. M. Fauble and Mrs. Mollie Newman of this place and Mrs. Fredrick Bloom, of Huntingdon. The funeral took place in Philadelphia, on Tuesday. James Young, Tragedian. James Young the popular young tragedian, who has a whole host of friends in Bellefonte, will be the attraction at the Garman opera house on Saturday evening 12th, in his fine scenic production of Hamlet. For the past two years he has been winning renown in the South and West. In personal appearance he is tall and rather slender, with a face and head of considerable physical beauty, of a delicate type and singularly sympathetic. He has a pleasing voice, and his actions are easy and graceful, combining in his work the subtlety of Booth with the eloquence of Barrett and the passion of Salvini. He brings with him a good company, including Miss Rida Louise Johnson, a talented young Baltimore lady, who holds a high social position in her native city. Rotten Egged. For some time past a certain colored revivalist, of Lock Haven, was making frequent visits to Howard, Pa. His real object was to pay attention to a married lady, rather than to preach the Gospel. The good people of that community gave both offending parties notice to stop, but they continued. This promiscuous mingling of the races became the talk of the community and active steps were taken to put a stop to the affair. On Tuesday evening of last week, as the offender was about to board the train he received a volley of rotten eggs. He will not likely come back. Noll—Borman. On Thursday, 3rd, at noon James O. Noll, of Milesburg, and Miss Mary E. Borman, of Tyrone, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The wedding occurred at the home of the bride in Tyrone. Rev. Horace Lincoln Jacobs performed the ceremony which made this happy couple one. Fine Raisins, Prunes, Peaches, Apricots, Figs, Dates, Orange, Lemon peel and Citron, fine Confectionery, Clear Toys, and a full line of holiday supplies. Sechler & Co.

Bruce Hughes, pastor of the Methodist church, at Pleasant Gap, has arranged for an instructive and entertaining lecture to be given in his church, at that place Thursday evening, Dec. 10th, at 7:30 o'clock, by Rev. Geo Stevens, of Williamsport, on a "ramble through Egypt and the Holy Land." Proposed Railroad Extension. The Bellefonte Central Railroad Co. has in preparation plans for the extension of their line to Huntingdon. Such extension would shorten the distance between Bellefonte and the east by about 75 miles, and would undoubtedly increase the value of the Bellefonte Central road. Fine Attraction. On Monday evening the opera house, at this place, was filled with a representative audience to hear the production "Miss Philadelphia." It was a rare treat and met the expectations of all. The play was one of the finest and best seen in our town for a long time. Everybody went away highly pleased. New Years Ball. The Logan Steam Fire Engine Company will hold their annual New Year eve masquerade ball, in the Armory. The Keystone orchestra of Bellefonte will furnish the music for this occasion. Large posters will soon be issued. Take Notice. Electric Seal Capes for $20, dollars at Aiken's cloak store. Come and see them.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

—Something new in photos—see Shaeffer's ad. —The Racket is filled full of Christmas goods and more are coming daily. —Everybody was well pleased with the result of the scholarship contest in both being awarded a prize. —If you are going to have sale this year make it a point to call; see our work and get the prices. We can please you. —Don't fail to glance over the variety of holiday advertisements in this issue. It will inform you where to make your purchases. —Messrs Joseph K. Hoy and John D. Decker, jury commissioners, are preparing to select the new names for the place of those drawn during the past year. —WANTED:—Good homes for two boys, aged 6 and 8 years. Also twins—boy and girl, aged 11 years. Apply to Mrs. H. T. Kurtz, president of Childrens Aid Society, Bellefonte, Pa.; —Some of the bachelor members of the Bellefonte bar are much concerned in regard to the conduct of their friend, S. D. Gettig, Esq. It is reported that he may join the benedicts later. —The deer hunting season will close on Tuesday, December 15th, 1896. Quite a number of parties from this vicinity are out in the mountains and will remain until the close of the season. —W. Harrison Walker, Esq., one of our prominent young attorneys spent Sunday visiting his parents at Salona, and other friends in Lock Haven. The young gentleman seems to be extending his practice in adjoining counties. —Miss Annie Kline, daughter of Treasurer-elect Harrison Kline, is attending State Grange at Altoona, this week. She went in company with Mr. Irvin Wise, of Zion, who is representing the local grange of that place. —People who insist upon sending away to make their holiday purchases are not useful citizens in any community. Our merchants have exceptionally fine lines and choice assortments and they deserve first consideration. Don't be mean and selfish and send away for your purchases. Home merchants deserve your trade even if they send out of town to have their stationery printed. —The Gospel Temperance meeting which is held in the rooms of the W. C. T. U. on every Sunday afternoon, seems to be growing in interest. There was a larger attendance than usual last Sunday and next Sunday the music will be a special feature. Miss Twitmeier will sing a solo and the quartette will sing. The subject will be "Moral Enthusiasm." Everybody cordially invited.
