CORRESPONDENTS DEPARTMENT

The News Gathered From Various Sections

HAPPENINGS IN CENTRE CO

What our Army of Alert Correspondents see

MILESBURG ITEMS.

Mrs. Catherine Martin.

James Walker and family, of Johnstown, are at home on a visit to his par-Col. James F. Weaver gained his suit against the fire insurance company; verdict: $1,517.41 in his favor, with interest amounting to $1,704.76.

James Keith and wife, of Osceola, were the guests of his half brother, Daniel day of last week.

On Friday last John Johnson and Perry Aikens came home with three wild tur- ed by such fallacies as these?

Prof. Sager, teacher of the grammar M. E. Sunday school, and Miss Ida Orris is the organist. Their playing together adds greatly to the vocal music of the Miss Annie Slifer, of Irvonia, is a guest of Miss Rosa Haupt.

We are pleased to hear that our friend Frank Charles is fast becoming one of our lumber kings of Pennsylvania, as he has taken one hundred acres of paper wood to cut and will employ about eighty nen, as rumor has it.

After spending the season on Buffalo Run we noticed Edward Neyhart on our streets again, but looks somewhat downhearted, the cause being rejection.

Frank Wallace, sr., killed the largest porkers of the season, two of which tipped the scales at 1013 lbs.

before services.

A. S. Smith spent Sunday in Altoona, as the guest of his son William. The children of Lewis Wallace, who have been sick, are non convalescent. Hunting and skating is all the go in the burg at present. Skaters of both sex are putting in a good time at it.

SPRING MILLS.

Howard Rossman youngest son, Ray fell offa rocking chair and broke his col-

W. L. Baker's youngest daughter died last Saturday of diphtheria; age 18 months. Some of the rest of the family are in a critical condition with this dreadful disease.

C. P. Long, one of our energetic merchants, spent a week in Shennadoah and someofour other eastern cities to purchase his Xmas stock which he says will be the finest ever brought to this town. Call and see for yousrelf. Peter Smith, from Centre Hall, was vited; go and help a good cause. here trying to sell some porkers. He thinks pork is entirely too cheap, at four cents. So is corn. The young people took advantage of the cold snap. The creamery dam was frozen over and all that had skates were out enjoying themselves. Wm. Pealer will have a trout pond on his farm, below town. Do not forget your friends? Have them come and help you fish.

Daniel Kenley may be a crack shot in the woods, but he can't shoot hogs. After he shot one three times, they had to throw it down.

W. H. Smith and wife are visiting his mother, at Pine Grove Mills.

Roland Decker made his last trip with his meat wagon for this season.

Charley Cummings has returned from a couple weeks trip. He is an agent for a boot and shoe house. Reports to have met with good success.

James McCool came near loosing one of his best horses. It got down, with its head under the manger, and its legs through the partition.

Jacob McCool is up head, for a big porker, 448½, who is the next?

REBERSBURG.

Geo. Bair is home 'visiting his parents and many friends, in this community.

The result of the sale on Saturday was as follows: C. C. Loose bought the farm for $4600. Wm. Walker the house and lot in town for $1420. John Smull's property and land was not sold. Mr. Hilbish, of Freeburg, made his regular visit to Emanuel Harters over Sun-

The reservoir is being placed in its position, which will then complete the water works.

By all appearance, there will be no convention in this town this year.

Ellis Shaffer and wife, Sallie Shaffer and Al. Nestlerode were guests of Chas. Smull and Jake Kerstetter, on Sunday. J. P. Frank's black horse was badly kicked last week.

A LIVERY:-- It is rumored that Wm. Bierly, Jr., is going to start a livery. That is business, then the people will not be troubled with borrowing horses.

For fine Sweet Potatoes, Cran-

PINE GROVE MILLS.

BIG PORKERS:-Butchering has been the chief occupation in our town for some time, and the weight of porkers the principal topic of conversation. John Musser carries the belt so far for large hogs, he having recently killed two which dressed respectfully 468 and 448 lbs. James Decker is a close second with one which tipped the balance at 444 and Samuel Marts the shoemaker one which weighed, when dressed 433 lbs. Can and observe worthy of note-The local any town boast of four hogs that weighed when dressed, more than 1803 lbs. Happenings of every community will be led when dressed, more than 1503 los. If there is, let us hear from the correspondents of the Centre Democrat.

HUNTING:-Chas. Shafer and another gentleman from Mifflinburg, are at present camped near the "Pine Swamp" where they invite the fleet footed tribe to Miss Martin was a guest of her aunt, come either singly or in droves, and they promise to give them a royal reception. They are accompanied by some experienced hunters from here, and woe be to the deer that is unfortunate to go within range of their userring marksmanship.

HOODWINKED :- Mr. Chas Smith and family, of Altoona, were last week visiting friends and relatives in town. While here Mr. Smith took advantage of his furlough to do a little hunting with the usual success of hunters. During his stay here he received word of the dis-The Presbyterian church will be dedicated, Sunday morning, Dec. 13th, the Rev. John S. Macintosh, is expected to happening as it does fully a month after happening as it does fully a month after Harry Broom, son of William Broom,
Jr., is the second victim to diphtheria.
His sister Bessie was burried on Wednesday of last week.

Harry Broom, son of William Broom, 'advance agent of prosperity' when the laborers and mechanics were promised an abundance of work at good manifely a month after the election by a great majority of the 'advance agent of prosperity' when the laborers and mechanics were promised an abundance of work at good manifely a month after the election by a great majority of the 'advance agent of prosperity' when the will the people continue to be hoodwinkkeys. Johnson had one, Aikens two; ANOTHER PARTY:—A crowd of hnn they shot them in the ridges back of the ters calling themselves the 'deer slayers' ANOTHER PARTY :- A crowd of huncomposed of Messrs Reed, Kepler, Krebs, Marts and Goss are this week Prof. Sager, teacher of the grammar school, of Central City, is the cornetist of Roaring Run. Whether they are deserving the title which they have assumed, remains to be demonstrated.

John W. Fry has been seriously ill at the home of D. W. Miller, but we are glad to state that at this writing he is considerably better.

R. R. OPERATIONS:-Despite the cold weather of last week, the work on the extension of the Bellefonte Central R. R. continues to progress rapidly. One week more of good weather and the road will be completed to Pine Grove, where it will stop for the present.

NEW CEMETRY:-Last week sexton W. D. Port was busily engaged removing the remains of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Musser from the old cemetery in town to the new one which has recently been chartered and opened as a burial place Frank, for goodness sake, and benefit of church, discard that strong pipe, as it is too strong for a sexton to smoke just those who are so unfortunate as to be compelled to seek a burial place for de-Bruce Wallace anticipates spending the winter season in Altoona where he will be employed in brick laying; a good slope to the centre. It is laid out in walks and drives and surrounded by a good substantial iron fence, making it one of the most desirable and sightly location in the whole valley.

PLEASANT GAP.

Oh, my! How it grabs you these cold mornings.

The boy who wants to see how close he can skate to the hole in the ice, has turned up.

Butchering will soon be a thing of the Altoona this week.

Mr. A. J. Shreffler, of Mill Hall, is renewing old acquaintances in this neigh-

Miss Nellie Harrison, of State College, is visiting friends in this place. Harry Garbrick and sister, Miss Ester, journeyed up Buffalo Run lately.

Don't forget the lecture in the Methodist church, Dec. 10. Everybody is in-

A party of nimrods are searching the Gay is hard to se y. Seven mountains for the fleet footed Pleasant Gap can boast of a painting establishment; the best work for the least money. Logan Grange will be represented by C. S. Hazel at the State Grange, which pleasant to hear.

convened at Altoona this week. evening? We don't know, but prospects Creek on Saturday evening.

Mr. J. Clyde Jodon was a visitor in our town, one evening this week. Mr. Cronoble is visiting friends in this Clayton Kaufman and Roy Garbrick/ of Zion, attended the Christian Endeavor on Sunday evening.

One more week and the teachers will all journey to Bellefonte, to have a roaring time we suppose.

Miss Johnson, of Bellefonte, visited friends here over Sunday. Clara Gentzel Sundayed with her friend Emma Tressler.

likewise Christian Endeavor in the Lutheran church.

TRILBY.

WOLFS STORE.

Last Sunday was a beautiful day. LATEST ARRIVAL :- A little black-

Our farmers have not done any plowing the past week. The butchering season is about over, and everybody is ready for Christmas. SERENADE:-Young America was out 'in full bloom on Saturday evening and gave Mr. Overdorf and wife and H. Noll and wife a serenade.

Mr. Cyrus Brumgart, the popular butcher from Millheim, was over here last Saturday buying fattened hogs. Most of our porkers have died. Effects of two much lead.

Wm. Minnig has up to this writing already killed 12 rabits. Good, News is very scarce down here, since the election, as well as work.

We have the finest assortment of berries, Mince Meat (our own make), canned goods, evaporated fruits Branch, were visiting at C. J. Stamm's on fine Cheese, fresh Crackers, and Bis- and fine groceries ever offered to Sunday.

Philadelphia Branch...BELLEFONTE, PENNA.

Fall Clothing FOR MEN.

NEWNESS! That word covers the en tire field-newness in style, newms in shape and newness in fibrics. There is only one thing old about our Clothing, and that is the same old, reliable and sub-tantial manner in which it is made

Stylish Fall Clothes FOR BOYS.

TEMPLE COURT,

A most the rough and ascinating line of Boys' and Children's Dress Clothing is on exhibition this season. All the new, artistic creation in boys' novelties These are trimmed and nad in the pe fect manner that has made our Boys' Dress Suits so

The stock is at its autumn be t; not a weak spot anywhere in the long line, and the whole family of kindred weaves are in grand assortment. No shoddy or short-wool stuffs, but clean, well scoured fibre that keeps fresh almost under any stress.

Make special mention of Overcoats, Winter Underwear, Hats, Caps, Neckwear, Trunks Valises, Umbrellas, Working Shirts, Linen Shirts, All-Wool Shirts, Etc. Fine Worsted Suits $8.50. Fire Cheviot Suits $5. Overcoats from $5.50 up All-Wool Children's Suits from $2 up. Fine assortment of Shoes from $1 up.

Saml. Lewin, Manager.

WALLACE RUN.

Richard Packer, who had been living | A gent delivered a short address to a in Mr. Martin Daley's tenant house, is certain crowd on Monday evening. It week in James Mackey's house. Dicky, your dog bite? we are sorry to see you go.

Samuel Furl killed the champion porker on the run last week, weighing 418 lbs, after being killed.

Rumor has it that some one reported Michael Gay, to the overseer of the poor, to be on the sick list and on Saturday of last week James Kreps came to see about his official business and found Mr. Gay away from home. What cured Mr.

One night of last week Samuel Furl discovered a thief, at his smoke house; he was not able to learn who the thief was but he says it was well for him to leave the place the time he did or he might have learned something not so

Quite a number of our young people Did Frank H. catch anything Saturday attended protracted meeting at Marsh

Corney Frell who is working at Cherry Run, spent Saturday and Sunday at Jacob Lucas and wife Sundayed at Bush Hollow with the lady's parents. Michael Witherite and wife spent a few weeks at Scotia, on private business.

James S. Lucas and best friend May Freeze, and Mr. Charles Lucas and daughter Mary, and Myrtle Freil spent Sunday at Pleasant Gap.

Michael Sennet left on last Monday for Munson Clearfield Co., on a visit and pleasure trip, from what we can learn the pleasure is to be in the observation Epworth League was largely attended of fine scenery, for he took a straight in the Methodist church Sunday evening; course through the mountains and hills. The "Centre Democrat" correspondent at Wolf's Store, we are glad to see, Our friend, the Gazette scribe, attend-ed Christian Endeavor Sunday evening. the public, through the columns of this paper, almost as often as the ground hog in the blast of winter; if he is not dead he must have had an old Rip Van Winkle sleep on for his appearance was very irregular of late. The scribe of this place has fully recovered over the election, though he be dead in "beat," yet he is not dead in the cause of free silver. SINE DIE

OAK HALL.

Mr. John Rupp lost a valuable cow last week.

W. T. Sellers, of Linden Hall, spent a few days at William Seller's last week. Barney made a trip to Bellefonte last The ice is about four inches thick, which affords excellent skating. Harry Evey and Fred Stamm, Shilob, were visiting at A. W. Dales' last Miss Bessie Searson, of Linden Hall, was a visitor at E. B. Peters' on Sunday. Mr. Wm. Dougherty and wife, of the cuits, pure Cider Vinegar, sweet boiled Cider, Bradford Co. white boiled Cider, Bradford Co. white Packwheat Flour. Seehler & Co. reasonable in price. Seehler & Co. ceeded far. Parents, look after your children and send them to the right place-the Sunday school.

The Misses Keichlines, two pleasant young ladies of Penn'a Furnace, were visiting at A. W. Dale's last Sunday. Call again ladies. Two yound ladies, of Boalsburg, were making use of the ice Saturday. They expected to find George on the ice, but were badly disappointed. Shorty, of Lemont, made a trip to town on Sunday night. Mary was the attrac-

HUBLERSBURG.

Wm. Carner killed two porkers weighing respectively 415 and 419 pounds. Perry Wilson killed one weighing 404

Mr. Miller moved out of Mrs. Willougher's house, north of town, to Nigh. He is working in the mine bank.

Mr. and Mrs. George Snyder, of Bellevue, Ohio, are visiting at Wm. Loshes'.

Ed. Markle went to Pitcairn on last Friday, and Pierce Miller went to Du-Bois, where they secured work. We are sorry to lose them from our midst, but wish them success.

Mrs. Samuel Hoy is on the sick list. Hope she may soon be able to be around Rev. J. M. Runkle, of the Reformed church, is having services every night this week. He will hold communion services on Sunday forenoon. Quite a number of our town people have given their shade trees a pruning.

Clerical Orders.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company announces that for 1897 it will issue clerical orders to regularly ordained clergymen in charge of churches located on or near its lines east of Pittsburg and Erie. To secure the orders clergymen should make application to the nearest ticket agent as soon as possible, as it is desired that all applications reach the General Office by December 15.

A UDITORS' NOTICE—In the Orphan's Court of Centre county. In the matter of the estate of Jacob Gepnart, late of Millhelm Borough, deceased.

The undersigned auditor appointed by said court to report liens against the fund arising from the disposition of the decedents estate in partition, and to report a schedule of distribution, will attend to the duties of his appointment at his office, room No. 10. Criders Exchange, in the Borough of Bellefonte, on Saturday, January 2nd, 1867, at 10 o,clock in the forenoon, where and when all persons interested may attend if they see proper, and all claimants are required to present their claims or be debarred from coming in on the fund.

Dec. 7.

Auditor.

Fine pure sugar Table Syrups, new crop New Orleans Syrup, Maple Syrup and Maple Sugar made JAMES W. ALEXANDER, attorney from pure sap, finest Coffees, Teas and pure Spices. Sechler & Co.

This store is right into the Holiday business-is going about it with an earnestness that will attract your attention and we know win your confidence.

In the Fancy Goods lines we put on sale larger and finer assortments than ever of Art Potteries and Bric-a-Brac in Royal Bonn, Royal Vienna, Sevres, Doulton, Adderly, Teplitz, Cloissonne, Italian Faiennce, Bisque Figures, Bronzes etc. Then there are numberless articles in Fancy Leather and in Celluloid-Comb and Brush Sets, Work Boxes, Shaving Sets, Glove and Handkerchief Boxes, Necktie Boxes and Collar and Cuff Boxes.

Then the range of Cut Glass and Fine China-Silver and Silver-plated Novelties, Lamps, Shades, Globes, Tables, Onyx Cabinets, Hard Wood Tabourettes, India Seats, Fancy Chairs and Tables all at our well known small profit prices.

Books, Toys, Dolls and Games

-and then you've but a mere mention of the Holiday Display this store has prepared for your holiday buying-a newspaper description can't be definite -better come and see and we'll warrant you'll find the prices so much in your favor as will pay for the coming. We'll be glad to send Catalogue to those who will write for it-costs younothing and will save you many dollars 19 pages mostly illustrated, devoted to Holiday Goods, exclusive of the Jewelry and other departments which contain so many good gift articles. The time is short-come or write for the book without delay.

BOGGS & BUHL ALLEGHENY, PA.

WANTED—SEVERAL FAITHFUL MEN or women to travel for responsible estab-ished house in Pennsylvania. Salary $780, payable $15 weekly and expenses. Position permanent. Reference. Enclose self-address-at-law-office, High street, near Court House. Practices in all the

Mantello Carbons

Latest Production, The

Something entirely new and exceedingly artistic. Call and see them and you will be delighted with the beautiful results obtained by this new process.

In order to introduce this work we intend to give with each dozen of our regular $3.00 Cabinets, one of the above

Absolutely - Free

This offer is good until January 1. 1897. Regular price of Mantello Carbon, $2.00. If you have not selected your Xmas present vet you cannot do better than give us your order at once. Remember you get $5.00 worth of Photos for $3.00.

SHAEFFER'S ART STUDIO,

ALLEGHENY STREET, BELLEFONTE; - - - PA

Wedding Invitations.

The proper thing in this line is a plain sheet of elegant note paper printed in fine script type. We carry in stock different grades of such paper, with outer and inner envelopes to match. When opes to match. When printed with a fine script type, an imitation of engraving, you have the correct thing. We can furnish this kind of work on short notice Prices will always be found very reasonable. The highest grade of work guaranteed. Send your orders to the Centre Democrat,...

BELLEFONTE, PA.

WANTED-SEVERAL FAITHFUL MEN or women to travel for responsible established house in Pennsylvania. Salary $780, payable $15 weekly and expenses. Position permanent. Reference. Enclose self-addressed stamped envelope. The National, Star Building, Chicago.

IRVIN HOUSE,—
S. Woods Caldwell, Proprietor,
LOCK HANEN, PA.
Terms reasonable. Good symple rooms on first

