AARONSBURG.

Mrs. Victoria Cassler and her two little girls, of Holsopp, are the guests of Mrs. Rev. Stambach.

The United Evangelicals are having protracted meeting. Thus far they have had no penitents.

Mr. and Mrs. Curt Carner, of Hublersburg, Sundayed with Mrs. Geo. Charles.

Noah Corman and wife, of Rebersburg, spent a day with some of their friends in town.

Quite a good many of our people are down with sore throat.

The Reformed Christmas entertainment will be on Christmas evening instead of eve as had been announced before.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mowery have gone to Cammel, to pay their daughter a visit.

Miss Annie Waite has come home and expects to go to school the remaining part of the winter.

A party of young people of our town spent a very pleasant evening with Miss Sallie Shaffer at Madisonburg.

COBURN.

The Lutheran Sunday school, of this place, is making preparations for their entertainment, which will be held on next Saturday evening. The little Santa Claus' reception, no doubt will be a success. All are cordially invited to attend.

Reuben Braucht and wife took a drive out in the country on Sunday.

A. J. Campbell, of Shamokin, is home visiting his family and to spend Christmas.

Jacob Kerstetter, John Braucht and John Dinges, made a business trip to Bellefonte on Saturday.

Ed. Royer, of Altoona, was here, attending Mrs. Harter's funeral on Saturday.

Dr. Harter, of Maytown, Lancaster county, attended Mrs. Harter's, funeral on Saturday.

Nora and Bertha Huey, of Millheim, made a visit in our town on Monday.

A party of minnows was searching our town on Tuesday for one of the fleet footed tribe, but it had left for the Seven mountains.

A SAD DEATH:—The sad intelligence came to our hearing, last Thursday morning, that another of our dear friends had passed away. It was the death of Mrs. A. J. Harter, of Altoona, Pa. Mrs. Harter, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shirk, of Pottery Mills. (Particulars of this death appear elsewhere in this issue.) Sallie was a devoted christian woman, and she was very much devoted to her husband and her little children and it seems hard to realize that she has been separated from earth and earthly ties, but it is a blessing to know that she is in Heaven, where there is no sorrow, but where all is joy and gladness. The funeral was attended by a large concourse of friends and relatives. The remains were laid to their last rest in the Fairview cemetery of Millheim, on Saturday morning. Rev. Wolf, of the Lutheran church, officiated and paid glowing tributes to the deceased sister. In speaking of her worth, there are few who can fill her place.

NITTANY NOTES.

The chicken and waffle supper of the United Evangelical church was a grand success on Saturday evening. The Nittany cornet band furnished music for the occasion.

W. B. Rossman, of Howard, and J. M. Rossman, of Clintondale, spent Sunday with their brother, H. S. Rossman, of Nittany.

Eva Emrick, of Lock Haven, spent Sunday with her parents.

Mrs. Mary Reese, who has been sick for sometime is getting better under the care of Dr. Huff, of Lamar.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Hoy, of Madisonburg, visited her father, Jacob Lose, of Shingletown.

Prof. I. D. Gresh, of Milton, paid us a short visit.

Jacob Lose had a handsome monument erected in the Snydertown cemetery, by A. M. Mott, of Bellefonte.

Mrs. Daniel Dorman, and children, of Huston, spent Sunday, with her sister, Mrs. Alice Netzel, of Abdera.

Our squire, Solomon Peck, is at present away on business, to Clinton and Clearfield counties.

Mrs. George McCaslin returned home from the hospital, much improved in health.

Dedication.

The newly erected church at Nittany, Pa., on Nittany Valley Circuit, will be dedicated Dec. 27th, 1896. W. M. Standford will officiate. Let all the friends of the United Evangelicals, far and near, rally around this small class and help them out. All are invited.

Merit

Made and Merit Maintains the confidence of the people in Hood's Sarsaparilla. It a medicine cures you when sick; it makes wonderful cures everywhere, then beyond all question that medicine possesses merit.

Made

That is just the truth about Hood's Sarsaparilla. We know it possesses merit because it cures, not once or twice or a hundred times, but in thousands and thousands of cases. We know it cures, absolutely, permanently, when all others fail to do any good whatever. We repeat

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is the best—in fact the One True Blood Purifier. Hood's Pills cure nausea, indigestion, biliousness, 25 cents.
