WALLACE RUN.

School children are having a vacation this week, on account of institute.

Wm. E. Lucas, in company with his Billy says the sausage was very good. Thomas Spicer's house, near Gum

Stump, was burned to the ground last Tuesday, the fire originated somewhere near the flue. John Croch spent a few days visiting at Altoona, last week. Joun says everything looks for a Happy Christmas up there.

Mrs. Sadie Poorman, of Jersey Shore, spent e few days visiting her father, Mr. James Lucas.

Toner Lucas, son of Sam'l Lucas, of Bellefonte, was seen in our midst visiting. Mr. Franklin Lucas and Fred Freeze spent Sunday at Coleville. Of course the boys had an object in view. Rev. C. C. Miller, of Bellefonte, was seen in our midst last week.

Miss Sadie Zeigler, sister of our teacher Mr. I. A. Zeigler, is spending a few days in our midst, visiting at Mr. Chas. Lucas.

Prof. C. S. Gramley was seen in our midst visiting schools. Mr. Zeigler says he would enjoy the Prof's visit once every week.

Quite a number of our pupils and friends are taking in the institute this week, they seem to enjoy a rich feast in the educational world.

Miss Eva Meyers, of Eagleville, is visiting at Mr. Israel Freezes this week. Some of our young people dislike the new almanacs of '97, for they say it is not on account of a change of some of the heavenly bodies; but the change will probably be earthly bodies; it is the change from a bis-sextile to a solar year.

Mr. Edward R. Hancock was spending Saturday out in the Alleghenies hunting ; it is reported that he saw two foxes in a two-acre field, and failed in even getting a Christmas gift, at William B. Miles one of them. Try again Ed, you will succeed at last. SINE DIE.
