PENROSE FOR SENATOR.

The Young Philadelphian Will Succeed J. Donald Cameron.

SELECTED ON THE FIRST BALLOT.

Penrose Received 133 Votes, While Ex-Postmaster General Wanamaker Received 75-Mr. Wanamaker Announces in Cumberland county, Pa. That the Fight Against Senator Quay Will Continue.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 6 .- The factional Republican contest for the succession to the seat in the United States senate occupied by J. Donald Cameron, which has kept the people of the state in a fever heat for many weeks, was finally settled last night in the joint party caucus of the Republican members of the legislature who chose State Senator Boles Penrose, of Philadelphia, as the man upon whom the honor shall be bestowed. Of the 215 Republicansin the legislature 211 were present and voting. Of these votes Penrose received 133; ex-Postmaster Geneaal John Wanamaker, 75; Senator Cameron, 1; Congressman John B. Robinson, 1; Superior Court Judge Charles E. Rice, of Wilkesbarre, 1. The legislature will ratify Mr. Penrose's selection on Jan. 19.

Senator John C. Grady, who afterwards cast the single vote received by Mr. Cameron, was the caucus chairman. He held the crowd in admirable check, and was quick to hammer any attempt to interrupt the proceedings. The Wanamaker men conceded their defeat early in the day, and the meeting was therefore robbed of much of its interest to followers of the former postmaster general. But the Penrose shouters were out in great force, and it was difficult for them to repress the joy they felt. The final announcement of Penrose's victory was greeted with a tremendous shout.

Boles Penrose is one of the youngest men ever chosen to represent Pennsylvania in the United States senate. He will be 37 years old in November. He has been a member of the Pennsylvania senate since 1888, his ability as an orator and parliamentarian having made him a leader of that body. Two years ago Mr. Penrose was Mr. Quay's choice for mayor senator in his contest for the nomination.

DR. GREENE'S CATHARTIC THE PERFECT PILL FOR CONSTIPATION, TORPID LIVER AND BILIOUSNESS. 5

sugar-coated, easy to take and pleasant to act. Made from the prescription of Dr. Gr who is the most successful specialist in curing all forms of chronic or lingering compl This pill has been perfected by the Doctor's long years of investigation, his enormous pre among the sick, and his vast experience in curing disease.

THE IDEAL PILL FOR THE LIVER AND BOWELS

This fight resulted in the rupture between Messrs. Martin and Quay, and the factional fight has since continued with increasing bitterness. Mr. Penrose graduated from Harvard with distinguished honors. He read law with the late Wayne MacVeagh, and has been a lawyer in Philadelphia since 1883.

While the caucus was deciding the senatorship Senator Quay remained at the Penrose headquarters in a hotel near the capitol, awaiting the news of victory, and Mr. Wanamaker, surrounded by a large gathering of Philadelphia business men, at a rival hotel calmly waited for the announcement of his defeat.

Even while the death knell of his senatorial aspirations was being sounded Mr. Wanamaker was planning to continue the fight against Senator Quay in the state. At a big mass meeting of his supporters Mr. Wanamaker made a speech, in which he declared his intention of carrying the fight against Senator Quay into every county, and to contest with him the right to name the party candidates for state treasurer and auditor general. Senator Quay's term expires in March, 1899, and, according to Mr. Wanamaker's friends, the business men will continue their organization with the object of defeating Mr. Quay should he be a candidate for reelection.

The opening of the legislature yesterday was of minor importance, all interest centering in the senatorial contest. Lieutenant Governor Lyon called the senate to order, and Senator McCarrell was chosen president pro tem. The retiring chief clerk, A. D. Fetterolf, called the house to order, and H. K. Boyer, of Philadelphia, was chosen speaker, receiving 169 votes, against 23 votes for M. J. Lennan, the Democratic nominee. Jere B. Rex, of Huntingdou, was elected chief clerk, and A. D. Fetterolf, of Montgomery, resident clerk. Both houses held two sessions, and after the regular order of business adjourned until today.

President McKinley's Cabinet.

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 6 .- President-elect McKinley and Marcus A. Hanna have at last got down to the serious work of constructing a cabinet for the new administration. There seems to be no possible doubt but that Cornelius N. Bliss, of New York, has been offered and accepted the secretaryship of the United States navy under the new administration. This is the first definite step towards the erection of the cabinet, which will be followed by a definite understanding with Senator Allison, whom Major McKinley will meet in Canton this afternoon. With the appointment of Mr. Bliss goes the assurance that Mr. Whitelaw Reid, of New York will be the next minister to the tourt of St. James.
