

HAPPENINGS IN BELLEFONTE.

Local Events Briefly Told in a Few Lines.

PERSONALS, SOCIAL EVENTS.

What has Transpired During the Past Week—Movements of our People—What the Local Scribe saw worthy of mention—A week's local news in a few words.

—“A Happy New Year.”—Dan Sully, at the opera house, next Tuesday evening.

—The Bellefonte merchants generally had a satisfactory holiday trade.

—Daniel Sulley will be the next attraction at the opera house, Jan. 12.

—Dr. Joseph Brockerhoff, of Pittsburg, spent the holiday season at his former home, this place.

—Samuel Gault, republican, will be a candidate for overseer of poor in Bellefonte, this Spring.

—Public installation of officers of Gregg Post will take place in their rooms, on this Saturday evening.

—Will Furst, Esq., of Philadelphia, and John Furst, of Williamsport, came home for a brief holiday visit.

—Mr. Jessie Rowe, brother of our furniture dealer E. C. Rowe, died at his home, York, Pa., recently.

—Daniel Garman left on Wednesday for a trip of several weeks to Philadelphia, Atlantic City and other points.

—The public schools opened Monday morning with all the instructors at their places. Many of them spent their vacation out of town.

—Mr. and Mrs. Clevan Dinges, of Williamsport, spent their holiday vacation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Potts Green, of this place.

—Charles Rapp left Tuesday for Philadelphia, where he has accepted a position in the custom house under P. Gray Meek, Surveyor of the Port.

—On Saturday quite a number came to town to hear the proceedings in the sheriff's contest. There was very little done to interest the audience.

—Dr. H. K. Hoy who is prospering in his new location, at Altoona, Pa., visited his many friends here last week. He is looking hale and hearty.

—Samuel Buck and son William left on Tuesday for North Carolina where they have secured positions in a large mercantile establishment.

—Jack Fielding, of Woodbury, N. J., has taken the position as master teaser at the glass works. He is considered an expert in that branch of business.

—Wm. McClure and Dan. O'Leary will occupy the lower room in Crider's Exchange. They will have a shoe shop and harness store. May they prosper.

—The Rose M'Carthy property was sold on Monday. F. W. Crider purchased the residence on Logan street for 755 and James Sticker the Bishop street property for $835.

—The Logan dress ball, on New Year's eve, was largely attended and proved an enjoyable affair in every respect. Christy Smith's Keystone Orchestra rendered choice music for the occasion.

—It would be an excellent move for our county commissioners to expend a reasonable amount to put the court house clock in perfect order once. The thing has been a nuisance for some time.

—Roland Curtin, an officer in the Brooklyn navy yard, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John I. Curtin, of this place, during the holiday season. He recently graduated from the Annapolis Naval Academy.

—John Koontz, who conducted a book-bindership here in '88 and '89, now in the same business for himself at Huntingdon, visited friends here over Sunday. He noticed many improvements about our town in that time.

—Misses Annie, Kate and Biddy Pearl accompanied by Miss Rosie Doll left for West Chester last Wednesday Dec. 30th to witness the ceremonies attending the taking of the black veil, by Miss Ellie Pearl. Minnie McNally and Mary Clark will take the veil at the same time.

—George M. Reed, who several years ago successfully captained Bellefonte's crack ball team, is now in Houston Texas, where he recently was selected manager of the famous club at that place. It is a good position. He has been advancing right along in the profession, since he left Bellefonte.

—The doll which was given away by Mr. Katz of the “Globe” to the child who wrote the best letter to Santa Claus, was given to May Sechler. The mail which was very voluminous was examined by a committee of ladies who awarded the prize as above. We are safe in saying little May was one of the happiest children in town on Christmas morning.

—Mr. Al Garman, of the Garman House, who always has an idea, got his wits to working recently and the result is an improved steam trap that promises to be a valuable invention. It is simple, automatic and will cost about one-fourth the price of contrivances now in use. An application will be made at once for a patent. Mr. Garman expects to wear diamonds later and distribute some among his near friends.

RECENT DEATHS.

Mr. Isaac Hampton died at the residence of his daughter last Tuesday morning, December 29, aged over 95 years. He was born in Half Moon valley, but had been a resident of this place for many years. His death was due to old age. For many years he had followed the trade of a collier. The following children survive him: Mrs. Sarah Jane Haines, of Holidayburg; Mrs. Elmer Bisoler, of Patton; David Hampton, of Gum Stump; Mrs. Maria Bows, and Mrs. Emeline Burdell, of Bellefonte. Interment the following Friday.

Wm. Knapp died suddenly on Monday afternoon December, 27th, about two o'clock, at his home on High street. Death was caused from heart disease. He has been a resident of Bellefonte for the past 15 years, and was employed at Crider's planing mill and was a pattern maker by trade. He was 37 years old and leaves a wife and four children to mourn his loss.

William the three year old child of Sidney and Rebecca Barlet, died at the residence of David Barlet, on Thomas street, Monday evening December 24th, of diphtheria. The child had been ill but two days.

The little two year old son of Wm. Kelley, who resides near Valentine's works, died Thursday, December 31st, of membranous croup. The funeral took place Saturday morning from the house.

The four year old daughter of Daniel Cowher, a fireman at the steam heat works died of diphtheria Saturday afternoon, December 26th, at four o'clock.

On Tuesday of last week, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Heaton, of Marsh Creek, drove to Bellefonte with their infant child, which had been ill for several months to consult medical advice in this place. The child was taken to Dr. Dorworth, who prescribed for it, but pronounced it too ill to be taken home. The little one was too far gone to rally and it passed away the following day. The little one was made ready for burial and removed from Mrs. Daily's residence on Lamb street, on Friday afternoon, and taken to Marsh Creek for interment.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

—A protracted meeting is in progress in the Methodist church at present.

—A model of the Gov. Curtin statue is now in town and on exhibition in the post office window.

—Dan'l Sully's impersonation of humor and pathos as “O'Brien,” the contractor” is one of his best efforts, and a real dramatic gem. At the opera house next Tuesday, Jan. 12th.

Lincoln's Simple Book-keeping.

In his earlier life Lincoln had a primitive method of keeping books. At the time his law partner, Hon. John T. Stuart, represented the Springfield district in congress, Lincoln was forced, much against his will to keep an account of some kind. The plan he adopted was somewhat remarkable. When he received a fee he divided it in halves. Stuart's portion he put in an envelope, and labeling it “Stuart's half,” threw it into a drawer until Stuart's return from Washington.

Announcement.

Communion services will be held at Linden Hall, Saturday evening, the 9, inst. And in the Spring Mills Evangelical church, Sunday evening the 10 inst. Rev. Dr. G. L. Saylor, of Bethlehem Pa., is expected to be with us. Everybody cordially invited.

J. H. ERDMAN, Pastor.

Undine Band Concert.

The Undine band will give a concert and variety show in Garman's opera house January 26th. They are now corresponding with the Saxophone Quartette of Williamsport, and a band of 14 members from Tyrone to assist them. Several well known vocalists from town has consented to take part.

The program will contain some choice features sure to please and entertain all.

Railroad Building.

All lovers of realism should not fail to see Dan'l Sully as “O'Brien, the Contractor” (The Millionaire). The railroad building scene in which loads of dirt and rock and hundreds of rails are used is one of the most realistic scenes ever placed upon the stage. At the opera house next Tuesday evening, Jan. 12th.

RHEUMATISM.

Victims of this most painful disease will be glad to learn that there is a positive cure for it. Fred Graff, of Greenville, N. Y., writes: “I suffered awfully with rheumatism for five years, and could find no relief from the various medicines I took until James Elison recommended which I used, and after taking five bottles it cured me. It is a great medicine and works as sure as coal does in a locomotive. This medicine has done much for me.”

It is a never failing specific in diseases of the skin, liver, kidneys and blood, and cures where all other treatments fail.
