

SHERMAN AND CUBA.

The New Premier Will Oppose Radical Action.

THINKS CUBA SHOULD ACQUIESCE

In the Sweeping Reforms Promised by the Spanish Government, Which Agree to Give to the Island Almost Independent Government.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 16.—The Dispatch says: "The Cuban policy of the McKinley administration will differ very little from that which has been laid down by President Cleveland and his secretary of state. This statement is based on remarks made to a reporter by the man who will be premier of the next administration, Senator John Sherman, at the Union depot last evening."

"The veteran statesman was on his way back to Washington from Canton, where he had a conference with Mr. McKinley."

JOHN SHERMAN.

He had accepted the portfolio of state in his cabinet, after stating that his position in the next cabinet had been determined. Senator Sherman said, in answer to a question: "I think the United States government should not interfere with the Cuban war, either to aid in its settlement or do anything which would make a peaceful government of the island a charge on this country. I understand on high authority that Prime Minister Canovas has outlined a program of governmental reforms which will be applied both in Spain and in Cuba. These reforms will give the Cubans practical autonomy and will, I hope, settle the question."

"Senator Sherman refused to discuss the result in the Ohio senatorial field following his entry into the cabinet. He claimed he does not know who will succeed him. He also claimed ignorance of any other definite assignments in President-elect McKinley's cabinet."

"Senator Burrows, of Michigan, who had accompanied Mr. Sherman to Canton, said he had urged Mr. McKinley to appoint Russell A. Alger, of his state, secretary of war."

"Both the statesman said a tariff bill will be the first thing on the program after the special session of congress has been called. Sherman thinks the bill can be pushed through the senate."

NEW YORK AND THE CABINET.

Mr. Lauterbach Thinks the State Will Get the Navy Portfolio.

CANTON, O., Jan. 20.—Mr. Edward Lauterbach was seen yesterday after his conference of an hour and a half with the president-elect. He said the conference was very pleasant, cordial and satisfactory. He said he was here representing the organization in New York. He said the entire situation in New York had been gone over in the conversation, and that many names had been mentioned in its course.

He was asked as to the place New York would probably be assigned in the final makeup of the cabinet. He replied that in his opinion New York, being a seaport, the navy would be most appropriate. However, he did not wish it understood that he was speaking definitely, as nothing conclusive had been reached. As to Mr. Platt's possibility for the cabinet, Mr. Lauterbach said Mr. Platt was satisfied with his prospects of representing the Empire state in the senate. He said the names of Benjamin F. Tracy, who was secretary of the navy during President Harrison's administration, J. Sloat Fesset, ex-Governor Stewart L. Woodford, Sylvanus Payne and many others, together with General Horace Porter, were mentioned. Ex-Governor Morton, he said, was hardly considered as a cabinet possibility, but may be the representative to London.

General Harrison at Washington.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Ex-President Harrison arrived in the city yesterday afternoon rather unexpectedly, direct from his home at Indianapolis. He is staying at the Arlington hotel, where he met Hon. W. H. Miller, attorney general in his cabinet. The ex-president and his former law partner are here for the purpose of making arguments in the supreme court in an Indiana case in which both are interested. General Harrison's attention was called to the published statements that his name had been mentioned in connection with the ambassadorship to the court of St. James, and he very promptly said that he had not been offered the position.

Fassett Awaiting the Verdict.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—The Press says: J. Sloat Fassett was at the Fifth Avenue hotel last night awaiting news from Edward Lauterbach, who presented his name for postmaster general, or secretary of the navy, to Major McKinley yesterday. He was in good humor and admitted that he would be glad to be in the cabinet, if he could get there. Mr. Lauterbach is expected here today, and Fassett is living on home.

Deadly Earthquake on a Persian Island.

LONDON, Jan. 20.—A Times dispatch from Teheran, Persia, says that an earthquake occurred on the island of Kishin, in the Persian gulf, on Jan. 11, attended by enormous loss of life. Kishin is near the entrance to the Persian gulf, and is the largest island in that body of water, being surrounded by many smaller islands. Its length is seventy miles, and its average breadth twelve miles. The population is estimated at 5,000, chiefly Arabs.

Countess Castellane's Baby Boy.

PARIS, Jan. 19.—The Countess de Castellane, formerly Miss Anna Gould, presented her husband with a son yesterday. Mother and child are doing well. Miss Gould was married to Count de Castellane on March 4, 1862.

MANY PENSIONS GRANTED.

General's Widows Get Liberal Sums and Men Who Fought a Peace.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—The old soldiers had a field day in the house yesterday. Under a special order adopted on Monday the whole day was devoted to the consideration of private pension bills. Of the 600 on the calendar fifty-two were disposed of during the five hours' session. Among those favorably acted upon were bills to grant pensions to Major General Julius H. Stahl at the rate of $100 per month; the widow of Major General Erasmus B. Tyler at $75; Hannah E. Rodgers, the daughter of a revolutionary soldier, at $12, and the widow of the late General Matthew M. Trumbull, of Iowa, at $100 a month. Most of the pensions granted were at the $12 rate.

The session of the senate yesterday was without incident. Senator Turpie spoke against the Nicaragua canal bill and the reading of the legislative appropriation sections making provision for the congressional library, which were passed over temporarily in the absence of senators interested in the subject.

Senate Passes the Free Homestead Bill.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—The senate yesterday passed the measure known as the free homestead bill, which has been under discussion since the holiday recess. It is a measure of far reaching importance, particularly to the west, and the interest in it was shown by the fact that a plank concerning it was a feature of the several national platforms. The effect of the bill is to open to settlement all public lands acquired from Indians free of any payment to the government beyond the minor office fees, and to release from payment those who have heretofore settled on these lands. The number of acres involved, according to an estimation made by the commissioner of the general land office, is $3,323,541. The honor passed the bill subjecting oleomargarine to the laws of the state into which it is taken.

To Unite Lakes and Ocean.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—The president yesterday sent to the house the report of the deep water ways commission, consisting of President Angel, of the University of Michigan; John E. Russell and Lyman E. Cooley, which was appointed in 1895 under a resolution introduced by Senator Vilas, of Wisconsin, for a preliminary inquiry as to the practicability of water ways between the ocean and the great lakes. The commissioners declare that the plan is perfectly feasible, and that the work can be accomplished at a comparatively small cost.

Secretary Francis Confirmed.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Secretary Francis' nomination was confirmed by the senate in executive session yesterday. No opposition to the confirmation was made, and no vote was taken. Senator Vest stated that he could add nothing to what he had already said, and that he had no object in further delaying action upon the nomination.

Convict Revolt at Cavite.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 20.—A convict outbreak at Cavite, Philippine islands, on Dec. 5, was the occasion of more actual fighting at the rebel stronghold than has been participated in by the entire operations of the Spanish troops. On that date 147 prisoners in the house jail suddenly rose in open revolt, killed the guards and effected their escape. The runaways then divided themselves into two groups. The whole of Cavite seemed to have a hand at the destruction of the unfortunates or their recapture, so that the result up to Dec. 27 was eighty killed and some eighteen or twenty captured.

The North Carolina Senatorship.

RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 20.—The first day's ballot yesterday for United States senator resulted in no election and a joint ballot will be taken accordingly today. In the house Pritchard (Rep.), received 62 votes; Doughton (Dem.), 27; Thompson (Pop.), 24. In the senate Pritchard received 24 votes; Thompson, 18; Doughton, 7. Sixteen populists voted for Pritchard, ten in the house and six in the senate. Senator Butler's friends seem to hope that they may be able in joint session to scatter the Republicans, but it is the prevailing opinion that Pritchard will be elected.

Exploding Boiler Killed Seventeen.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 20.—One of the boilers of the French steamer Saghalien exploded while the vessel was off the Chinese coast on Dec. 2, bound from Singapore for Hong Kong. Eleven of the stokers and one of the engineers were killed by the explosion or by the escaping steam. The chief stoker was so badly injured that he died a few hours afterward, and four other firemen died the next day, as a result of their burns. The vessel was crowded with passengers, and for a time there was the wildest scene of confusion on board.

Fayerweather Will Case Ended.

ALBANY, Jan. 20.—The court of appeals yesterday decided the Fayerweather will contest, involving the distribution of $3,000,000 among twenty educational institutions all over the country. The court's decision in the case, which was entitled "Amherst college and others, respondents, versus the executors of the will, appellants," is: "Judgment affirmed with costs to all parties appearing by separate attorneys, payable out of the estate."

Matthews to Die March 14.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 20.—Governor Lloyd Lowndes has fixed Friday, March 12, as the day of execution for George Matthews, who is under sentence of death for the murder of James Irwin, of Allen's Fresh, Charles county, on Aug. 2, 1895. Irwin, the murdered man, was the husband of the woman who was on Monday acquitted of the charge of being an accessory with Matthews in the planning of the crime.

Lexow's Trust Investigation.

ALBANY, Jan. 20.—The Lexow resolution calling for an investigation of trusts and combinations was passed by the senate today. An amendment was adopted providing that the investigation shall proceed with a view of suggesting legislation on the question and an amendment was incorporated in the bill fixing March 1 as the date when the committee shall report the result of its deliberations to the legislature.

His Millions Cannot Save Him.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Jan. 20.—The supreme court yesterday handed down a decision affirming the decree of the lower court in the case of Arthur Duestrow, the St. Louis millionaire, who killed his wife and child. Judge Hinsel, of the Franklin county court, in which Duestrow was convicted, will resentence the prisoner to a child. The decision sets the date of Duestrow's execution for Feb. 16 next.

FORTUNE AWAITS HER.

Detectives Searching for an Heiress to a Vast Estate.

DESERTED HER HOME FOR HER LOVE

The Daughter of Ashbrook, the Millionaire "Sheep King" of Australia, Wedded the Man of Her Choice and Was Disowned, but the Father Relented.

CHICAGO, Jan. 20.—Alfred Ashbrook, a millionaire sheep owner of Melbourne, Australia, died in 1895 and left his estranged daughter Edith one-third of his vast estate. The heiress is supposed to be in Chicago or its vicinity and detectives are trying to find her. The estate of the sheep king, as Ashbrook was known, is estimated to be worth at least $2,500,000. Two daughters beside the missing Edith are the beneficiaries.

The story of Miss Edith's leaving home and her estrangement from her family is romantic. In spite of parental objection she married the man she loved and received a father's curses and promise of disinheritance. But the latter promise was, as now develops, never fulfilled.

In 1880 Edith Ashbrook, then 18 years old, met and loved Edward Townsend, an American civil engineer, at a ball in Melbourne. After a few months' courtship Townsend proposed and was accepted by the girl, but the parents would not sanction the union. The girl, however, married Townsend. The following year Townsend and his bride left Melbourne, going to San Francisco, where for a while he was employed on one of the morning papers. In 1886 the couple went to Port Townsend, Wash., and later to Seattle. Later they drifted to Victoria, B. C., where Townsend is said to have died of pneumonia. Mrs. Townsend has moved from one place to another, supporting herself and her one child as best she could. Two years ago, advised from Melbourne state, she was employed as a clerk in one of the big department stores in Chicago. That was the last heard of her.

Governor Bushnell's Ambition.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Jan. 18.—A close relative of Governor Bushnell, whose name cannot be used for obvious reasons, makes the statement, the authenticity of which there can be no doubt, that Governor Bushnell in so many words stated to him that he would not appoint Marcus A. Hanna to the vacancy in the United States senate. The governor and the relative mentioned had quite a talk on the subject, and the governor gave him to understand that Hanna's name could not be considered for the place at all. The relative further stated to a local newspaper man that there was no doubt whatever of Governor Bushnell's desire to go to the senate himself.

Mysterious Disappearance of a Bag of Coin.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—A bag containing $5,000 was stolen yesterday from in front of the Metropolitan Traction company, and had been sent to the bank in the charge of two men. Several bags of coin had been carried from the wagon into the bank when one of the men, according to the story told to the police, set this sack, the most valuable one of all, upon the sidewalk to be ready for the messenger when he should emerge from the bank. The man at the wagon turned to lift out another bag, and when he looked for the sack on the sidewalk it had disappeared. The police are investigating.

England to Annex the Benin Kingdom.

LONDON, Jan. 16.—A dispatch received here from Brass, coast of Guinea, dated Jan. 14, announces that Captain Boisragon and Consul Officer Locke, two of the party, headed by Consul Phillips, which was almost annihilated by the natives while on a peaceful mission to Benin City, the capital of the district, have been saved after wandering in the bush for a week. Both men were wounded. There is no hope of further rescue. Twenty of the native carriers have returned. The Chronicle says it is authorized to announce that it has been determined to annex the Benin kingdom and to depose the king, on account of the massacre.

Confessed the Cahaba Bridge Horror.

ATLANTA, Jan. 19.—Sam Palatka, a Hungarian tramp, cross eyed, a fiend in expression and revolting in countenance, has confessed to having perpetrated the great Cahaba bridge disaster, which occurred three weeks ago in Alabama. He admits that single handed he sent thirty-five persons to a horrible death and wounded and maimed a score more. Palatka was arrested in Eatonton, Putnam county, in middle Georgia. His first captors believed him half witted. Those in charge of him on his way to Alabama say he is entirely without human feelings. He spoke of the fearful wreck with no sign of emotion.

More Trouble for Uruguay.

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay, Jan. 20.—The situation here is critical. The leading papers openly demand that the government shall resign or shall radically reform its policy and annul the recent fraudulent elections. The government defies public opinion and persists in making improper appointments. It is feared that the deadlock will result in financial disaster or revolution. Business is painfully depressed, and there is a wholesale emigration to Argentina.

Many Homes Wrecked by Explosion.

MOBILE, Ala., Jan. 20.—Fire last evening destroyed the planing mill of the Dixie Lumber company's extensive establishment at Magazine Point, six miles north of the city. The flames communicated to a powder magazine containing 200 kegs of powder and six cases of dynamite, which exploded with a terrific report, wrecking every house within a radius of a quarter of a mile. No one was killed, but one of two men hurt by flying debris may die.

The Delaware Election Muddle Again.

DOVER, Jan. 20.—The judges of the superior court yesterday decided to call a special session of that body to meet in this town on Friday morning to hear an application for mandamus in the West Dover election cases. This is the case in which the Democratic board of canvass threw out the votes of several districts because of alleged bribery and corruption.

A Maniac's Awful Crime.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—At Manass Neck, Westchester county, last night Arthur Palmer during a fit of insanity shot his brother, Leonard Palmer, killing him almost instantly, and fatally wounded his mother and sister, both of whom have since died. The murderer escaped to the woods, and no trace of him can be found.

"ALL WORKED OUT." An Instructive Lesson in the Death Roll of Our Great Men.

Dr. Greene's Nervura a Protection Against Premature Death. Value of Vigorous Nerves and Pure Blood.

In the death of great and gifted men and women, who have filled the public mind and who are held in tender and tearful remembrances, how many have gone because they were "worked out?"

It is a lengthy and a sad list. We can easily recall many whom we have personally known, who have seemed to wear their precious lives out all too soon because their deaths were premature. The world feels their loss keenly for its sudden ending.

They were not worked out; they were tired out, exhausted. They stopped because they could go to no greater physical lengths. Why? Their vitality was vitiated and lost. Long years ago, Dr. Greene, studying this deep problem, discovered its prime cause and at once set about its correction. He found the seat of health to be strength and vigor of nerve and pure blood, and determined to discover a remedy that would re-energize the nerves and purify and enrich the blood when both become weakened, and to prevent, if taken in time, such relapse of physical force. He succeeded to such an extent that Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy has gained a world-wide reputation through its wonderful cures and the benefits it has conferred on the thousands who have used it. In his study of this subject he has also become the leading authority on blood and nervous ailments, and so is sought as physician by people everywhere. He charges no fee for his opinion, and can consequently be consulted, free of charge, by letter or in person.

If you are "worked out," if weak, nervous, run down or you feel "out of sorts," or if you want to avoid the ills, weakness and exhaustion, so sure to come, don't delay. Get this grand restorer of health and strength, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, at once, and it will make you well.

Dr. Greene's Cathartic Pills act in perfect harmony with the Nervura, producing regular, natural and healthy action of the liver and bowels. Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th st., New York City, who is our most successful specialist in curing all forms of nervous and chronic diseases, can be consulted without charge in regard to any case, personally or by letter.
