LEMONT LOCALS.

What Has Transpired—Another Wedding Near Here Last Week.

As the regular correspondent is not able to report this week, I will send in a few items.

Every person was wondering what had become of the reporter last week. We are sorry to note his illness, and hope he may soon be able to be around again.

The farmers, in this vicinity, were taking advantage of the snow, and the advance in grain, and hauled their grain to market.

Every man that has an ice house was busy during that intense cold spell, last week, storing away ice for the coming summer.

Mr. George Martz lost a fine cow, last week; she died of milk fever.

It was something unusual to see two engines attached to one train, but last Wednesday morning, they were compelled to do it on account of the drifting.

BLACKSMITHING.—Any person wanting any blacksmithing done should go to Samuel Wasson's shop, it is close to the R. R. Station. He can do all kinds of work. Persons wanting any repairing done, call on Sam.

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS.—The democrats met in the usual voting place and nominated the following persons for the different township officers: judge of election, Tibbins; inspector, Charles Stamm; justice of peace, William Close; supervisors, Nathan Grove, and Emanuel Musser; tax collector, Calvin Meyer; treasurer, John Rupp; overseers of poor, Charles Kuhn and A. J. Tate; auditors, Hall Bottorf, and John Murray; township clerk, I. J. Dreese.

WEDDING.—Quite a pretty wedding took place at the home of Alpheus Johnstonbaugh, near Houserville, Wednesday evening, Jan. 27. Eighty-two persons were eagerly watching the clock. When the hour of five came Maud Condo began the wedding march. Rev. D. E. Hepler, followed by the groomsmen and bridesmaid and the bride and groom marched in, and took their positions. The Rev. began and tied the knot that bound the hearts of Mr. John A. Williams, and Miss Henriette Johnstonbaugh together. Mr. Edward Williams acted as groomsmen and Miss Mary Johnstonbaugh as bridesmaid. The bride was dressed in white and looked very pretty. The groom was dressed in black and also was admired by some of the young ladies. After the congratulations, which were impressive, all sat down to a table which was loaded with everything that a person could wish for. They received quite a number of presents which were pretty and useful. Among the guest present was the reporter for the Gazette. He was hustling around among the young ladies. He was heard to make the expression that he wished it was himself instead of John Williams, that was getting married. We tried to induce him to pick out a nice young lady and have the words said, but he said he didn't have the sand to ask them.

The following persons are on the sick list this week. Mrs. Wm. Grove, Mrs. Benjamin Brisbin, Hall Bartoff. All are a little better at this writing.

OAK HALL NOTES.

Miss Kate Gilliland is visiting among friends, in Tyrone, at present.

The Oak Hall school visited the Lemont school, last Wednesday. They report a pleasant trip.

FIRE.—There was quite an excitement in town last week over a fire, which burned a shanty near Linden Hall.

Mr. Samuel Wagner, of Tusseyville, and Miss Cora Durst, of Walnut Grove, spent Sunday evening at C. Y. Stamm's.

Mr. John From and family, of Walnut Grove, were pleasant visitors at C. B. Peter's, Monday eve.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorb, of State College, were visiting at Chas. Stamm, Sunday.

What is the attraction for Frank S., at Lemont. Belle can you tell us.

Our friend, Kilty of Boalsburg, was strictly in it over here on Sunday. Kilty was not there very long till a young lady called, which he seemed to greatly admire. Just ask him about Bess, we don't mean the huckster.

Mr. A. W. Dale and wife were visiting at the home of Geo. Dale, of Shiloh, last Wednesday.

Mr. J. H. Orwig, of Hartleton, stopped in town Monday, while on his way to his saw mill near Pine Grove.

A certain crowd of young ladies and gents started for Pleasant Gap, to attend service Thursday evening, but did not however reach that place. When near Mr. Geo. Dales they were so earnestly engaged in conversation that the horses strayed off the road, upsetting and badly demolishing the sled. Stella and Clem mounted the fence where they finished the conversation. Jennie Stamm was injured but not seriously; at this writing is able to be about again.

Mr. Geiss, Sr., of Centre Hall, transacted business in this place Monday.

Mr. Keller Mothersbaugh, of Boalsburg, was visiting at the home of A. W. Dale, Sunday.

Mr. Thos. Gramley's parrot died on Sunday. Poor pol.

One of our married women was bad off for a sled ride. She got several small boys to haul her through town, don't know whether she was on exhibition or not. Better ask the District Attorney of this place—perhaps he can tell you.

GREEN BURR PA.

MUSICAL.—The convention opened on Monday evening of last week, as previously announced, with Prof. J. M. Kahl, on the floor as conductor and Prof. C. E. Zeigler from Penn Hall as organist. The convention moved pleasantly along all week, the class numbering over a hundred singers, all enjoying themselves to their heart's content. On Saturday evening the house was crowded to its utmost capacity. The program was well arranged and very ably executed. The following are a few of the selections that were ably rendered at the concert: Quartette, The O-P-R-A, by Prof. Joseph Herb, Prof. J. M. Kahl, Eva Kahl and Mary Dowe. Quartette "Beacon of Light" by Thomas Weaver, M. Stover, Mrs. C. E. Zeigler and Mary Adams. Chorus "A Home on the Mountain Side" by A. A. Miller, T. Adams, Mary Dowe, Bertha Miller. Duet and chorus "Be Thou my strong Habitation," A. A. Miller, John Shade, Mary Morris, Bessie Shreckengast. Duet, "Two Forest Nymphs," Stella Stover and Dora Sage. "Trio Serenade" Bertha Miller, Mrs. C. Zeigler, Eva Kahl. "Duet voices of the Flowers," Bertha Miller and Eva Bierly. Male Quartette "Don't count your chickens before they are hatched" Prof Herb, H. Sheats, C. Lamey and T. Adams. Duet and Quartette, "Not ashamed of Jesus," by Adam Kale, Lillie Smith, J. Kale and Mary Adams. Quartette "Barnyard Conference," J. M. Kahl, Adam Kahl, Mary Dowe, Eva Khal.

Mr. A. A. Miller, from Lock Haven, entertained the audience every now and then with some of his comic songs. He is an expert and knows how to entertain an audience. The following is a list of a few of the many from abroad that were in attendance during the week: Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Zeigler, Penn Hall; Messrs. Thos. Weaver, Harry Kreamer, Miss Ida Kahl, and Wesley Wyle Aaronsburg; Misses Mary Dowe, Mary Morrison, Ella Heckman, Lillie Smith, Messrs Thomas Parker, W. P. Heller, I. J. Greninger, Loganton; Misses Mary Kreider, Anna Walker, Wolf's Store; Miss Bertha Miller, A. Miller and A. Maurer, Lock Haven; Miss Regina Bierly, Eva Bierly and John Bierly, Cedar Springs; Irena Sager, Dora Sager and John Sager Salona; Mr. Newton Kling, Jacksonville; M. Stover, Mary Adams, Thos. Adams, Livonia; Maggie Shreckengast, Clara Walzer, Boyd Miller, Clayton Glantz, Mary Bliz; Tylersville. In whole the convention proved to be the most successful convention ever held in this valley, which is due to Prof. J. M. Kahl, who has had many many years of experience in convention work, and is without, a doubt one of the ablest conductors in the state. The committee performed their parts nobly by making proper arrangements to entertain those who had come from a distance and in every other respect there was nothing lacking on their part.

WALLACE RUN.

Mr. John Furl and Boyd J. Kunes spent Sunday visiting at Bush Hollow.

The protracted meeting, in progress for over four weeks, is at this writing still going on.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Poorman spent Sunday visiting the gentlemen's brother, at Holts Hollow.

Quite a number of our people attended the funeral of Mr. James Wilson, at Bush Hollow, on Sunday.

Messrs C. S. Lucas and I. A. Zeigler attended local institute, held by district no. 4, at Howard, on Friday and Saturday last.

Rumor has it that a wedding is to come off in the near future. Everybody is looking after the mail with the intention of receiving a card.

Miss Nora Erhard, of Plum Grove, has for a few days, been visiting at Mr. Joseph Iddings.

Miss Emma Curtin, of this place, who has for a few weeks been making her home at Mr. Garmans, in Bellefonte, has returned home where she will stay for the time being.

Everybody seems to be taking advantage of the ice harvest, and preparing for cream in the hot summer days.

HUBLERSBURG ITEMS.

A number of farmers, about town, are hauling ice.

There will be a Bible class on Thursday evening, at seven o'clock in the Reformed church.

Seven persons were baptized by Rev. Koontz; there have been 48 conversions, twenty-six have joined the church and more will join at the close of the meeting.

Seventeen of the scholars of our school were to Clintonville, visiting the school taught by Mr. Fletcher.

E. L. Bergstresser and son Jacob, are visiting Mrs. Geo. Bright, of Philipsburg.

A party of small children were over to Mr. Ben. Vonada's, of Jacksonville. All had a pleasant time.

Thos. Miller accompanied by his sister Ethel, visited friends at Mt. Bethel on Sunday.

Noah Snavely visited friends at this place on Sunday.

Mr. Wallace preached in the Evangelical church, Saturday evening, in the absence of Rev. Koontz.

Wm. Whitman and his wife, were to Coburn, visiting their friends on Saturday last.

D. M. Whitman went to Bellefonte, to attend court this week and does not expect to return before next Tuesday.

Arthur Kessinger and Wilbur Rumbarger were out sleighing on Sunday and had a very enjoyable time. Did they upset? Oh no!

A sled a load of people was up to church, from Nittany Hall, on Saturday last.

Mr. Essex Kline, of Lees Gap, is very ill at present, with dropsy.

WOLF'S STORE GATHERINGS.

The ice on D. B. Weavers dam is now 14 inches thick. Second crop being 9 inches.

Lizzie Weaver, who has been visiting in this valley for a week past, returned to her home at Mill Hall, last Saturday.

Wm. Moyer and wife, were to Logan, last Saturday on business.

Master John Brumgart, son of H. C. Brumgard, was on the sick list last week. At this writing, he is up and around again.

Chas. and Earl Moyer, from Millheim, were home on a visit last Sunday.

Geo. Kreamer and wife, from Creamersville, were visitors at Fred Hartman's last Sunday.

Mr. N. P. Kreider was to Phila., last week on what business we have not learned.

Very few of our people were to the Green Burr concert, last Saturday evening.

Wm. Breon spent last Sunday at Madisonburg.

J. C. Auman sold the vacant Schwints house, to Elmer Miller of Creamersville. Mr. Miller tore down the same last week, and hauled the timber down to Creamersville where he will build a house for himself.

SPRING MILLS.

DEATH.—Mrs. Harvey Hagan, of Farmers Mills, died January 29th, and was buried at the Union church age 28 years. To them was born one son, about one-year old.

As sleighing is good, every one that can find away to have a ride, was out enjoying themselves.

The ice crop was big, and all the ice that was needed was stored away.

J. O. Beaty is home, visiting his family. He is employed by the Keystone Art Co., of Tyrone.

Several sled loads took advantage of the snow and went to John Harters, at Rebersburg. A good time was reported, and the table was loaded down with the good things to eat. One Se youst Mich aw fronked beda.

Rev. Faus had communion last Sunday evening. The church was crowded. Seventeen joined the church.

Howard Rossman and family spent Sunday with his parents, in Brushvalley.

Calvin Kenley left a few days ago for Washington D. C., to take out a patent on a gate. What will be the result?

Boy.

MARSH CREEK ITEMS.

We are sorry to state that Mr. Irvin Butler is not very well at this writing.

Mrs. Wm. Yarnell is slowly improving. Mrs. John Packer and Mrs. Poor returned from Clearfield, last Wednesday, and report having had a pleasant time.

Mollie Poorman, went to Bellefonte, where she has found employment.

Mrs. Wensyl was visiting her sister Mrs. Packer on Monday.

Mr. Jacob Yarnell started for Snow Shoe, on Sunday, but was unable to get through on account of snow drift.

John Watson passed through here on Sunday.

The Marsh Creek school will have a spelling "B" on Friday evening.

Quite a number of our people still attend the revival meetings, at Wallace Run, which are reported quite a success.

One of our merchants, Mr. Uhl sent Charles — for a sled on last Saturday. He went on horse back and came on foot; if you do not comprehend, I suppose he will explain.

Since this is the month of February we are inclined to wonder whether two certain young men in this neighborhood still correspond with Miss Xmas and Miss New Year.

"Do not mourn for faded roses. Roses that have bloomed and died, Satisfy yourself with others. Pluck the one there by your side."

"Do not weep and sigh for chances, Chances that have passed away. Opportunities neglected, Grasp the chance you have to-day."

—Look at the label on this paper, and you can see whether you owe "the poor printer" anything.

Tours to California.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company, recognizing the need of a more comfortable and pleasant way of crossing the continent, inaugurated a series of annual tours to California, running a through train of Pullman palace cars from New York to the Pacific Coast, and stopping at the principal points of interest en route. The great popularity of these tours demonstrates the wisdom of the movement.

For the season of 1897 three tours have arranged to leave New York, Philadelphia, and Pittsburg, January 27, February 24, and March 27.

The first tour will run direct to San Diego via St. Louis and the Santa Fe Route, and return from San Francisco via Salt Lake City, Denver, and Chicago, allowing five weeks in California.

The second tour will run via the Mammoth Cave and New Orleans to Santa Diego, stopping at the "Crescent City" during the Mardi Gras Carnival. This tour will return via Salt Lake City, Denver, Omaha, and Chicago, allowing four weeks in California.

The third tour will run via Chicago Denver, and Salt Lake City, allowing passengers to return by regular trains via different routes within nine months. All of these tours, either going or returning, will pass through the famous Colorado region, Glenwood Springs, Leadville, and the Garden of Gods.

Rates from all points on the Pennsylvania Railroad system east of Pittsburg: First tour, $310; second tour, $350; third tour, $210; around trip, and $150 one way.

For detail itineraries and other information apply at ticket agencies special booking offices, or address George W. Boyd, Assistant General Passenger Agent Broad Street Station, Philadelphia.

A Big REDUCTION SALE.

INTERESTING.

We have inaugurated our reduction sale of

WINTER STOCK.

It is a mark down sale of everything in our store.

Save Money

This is a rare opportunity to make money—we mean Save Money. A dollar saved is always as good as a dollar made.

Big Reductions

Throughout our entire store Big Reductions have been made on all Winter Goods. Space will not permit us to enumerate Goods and Prices. The reduction is from 30 to 50 per cent.

Must Make Room

There is a cause for everything. Goods are not given away for glory—we are not in business for fun or for our health. But we are selling most all of our Winter Goods below cost for the following reasons: The season was late and too much stock was left over. It is better to convert this into cash and purchase new spring stock, than carry same over another year. In short, Winter Goods must go, to make room for Spring Stock.
