-Mr. George Noll, the dairyman, has $120. sold out his business to Mr. Barrous, of W. M. Scholl et al, to Howard Sholl; in the spring.

-On next Monday evening Company B., will be inspected at the Armory. After this exercise is over, it is likely that | for $55. an impromptu dance will follow.

-Mr. John A. Woomer, of Millheim boro., has accepted a position with Mc-Calmont & Co. at this place and will make Bellefoute his future home.

-Mr. B. Bradley, Sr., of Bellefonte, was awarded a patent this week for a metal railway-tie. Persons who have examined the contrivance pronounce it a good

-Mr. W. T. Achenbach closed up his store at this place, on Monday and is packing up for his departure to Glenn Falls, New York state, where he will engage in the same line of business. -Mr. James Shorter, the handsome colored gentleman who has charge of Crider's Exchange, had his portrait in the Grit last week. He is a dandy when lady's man. -Mr. Arthur Lee, of Tusseyville, called on Saturday to inform us that everything was lovely in that section. Mr. ands little work at this season owing to Howard twp. the small crop last season.

-Mrs. R. L. Dartt has moved from the McQuistion house, on Hight street, to Milesburg, where she has many friends. She will make her home there for a few years at least and has rented a comfortable house opposite the Baptist church.

-Mr. J. C. Sheaffer, of Zion, one of the prominent young school teachers of business, at Martha after April 1st. He has completed arrangements for the purchase of W. S. Williams' store at that -Mr. J. A. Reesman, of Centre Hall, was in town on Saturday and paid us a short call. He will be one of the foremost candidates for the post office at that place, when the prosperity man gets to running things. Mr. Reesman would be a first class man for that position.

-Col. W. Fred Reynolds has been making some valuable additions to his stable of late. New horses, harness, several fine turnouts, new coachman, in fact a complete change. Mr. Reynolds admires a fine horse and turnout and there ner present. is no reason why he should not have them.

-The Adelphi assembly at State Col- ed except the following : by the following from this place: W. Mrs. Emma Leister, Boyd Musser, W. H. Walker, Misses Jho. A. The driver was thrown out and the ansmal became detached from the vehicle Is one which does not wrench the system and ran quite a distance before being caught. It was not injured but the buggy was badly broken.

-Mrs. Walker, of this place, has organized a class of young people who are studying stenography and typewriting. A regular school of that kind in our community might be a good thing. There are plenty of young people in this place who could spend their time to good advantage in this manner.

-On Tuesday Ex-commissioner George Goodhart paid his first visit to Bellefonte since he took his official departure two months ago. He is now living on his farm near Centre Hill and has one of the finest houses in that valley where he well may be content. He is looking quite well and apparently enjoying good Dan McCarthy Coming.

Dan McCarthy, the popular Irish Comedian, with his new songs, graceful dances, pretty children and an entirely new play, will appear at the opera house on next Tuesday evening. The name of the play is "The Dear Irish Home," and it is said to be by far the best piece this valley, will engage in the mercantile Mr. McCarthy has ever produced. The play is a charming stage study of Irish peasant life, full of sparkling comedy and strong dramatic situations. It is generously interspersed with specialties, among them being, jig, clog, buck and wing dancing, bagpipe playing, new songs, etc. The play is elaborately produced, new scenery having been built and new costumes made for the production. The company supporting Mr. Mc- entitled "My Matilda Jane." Carthy is far superior to any he has heretofore had.

or leave it weak and exhausted. A perfect cathartic is found in Hood's Pills. They are praised everywhere, and after once being tried they soon permanently take the place of the old fashioned drastic pills, such as "our grandfathers used." Hood's Pills are the only pills to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla and they greatly aid that medicine in its cleansing and purifying work.

Short Horn Cattle.

Mr. Jacob Meyer and Christ Alexander went to Ohio to purchase a carload of thorough-bred short horn cattle, which will be offered at public sale, at Millheim. Watch for bills.

TEACHERS' LOCAL INSTITUTE.

Held in Milesburg-Many Persons besides Teachers Participated, Prot. Gramley Being One.

The second session of the Teachers' Local Institute, of District No. 4, conven-Philipsburg ed in the Presbyterian church, at Miles. Andy Geiser, Madisonburg... burg, Friday evening, Feb. 26th, 1897. Institute opened with devotional exercises which were conducted by Rev.

Wright. The Bierley brothers assisted by Mr. W. Mattern, were present and furnished some fine instrumental music for the various sessions.

Prof. R. B. Mattern gave the teachers a hearty welcome, and in his sincere remarks, briefly stated that these meetings are for the benefit of all interested in the cause of education, and not for teachers

Mr. J. Frank Holter, of the Howard schools, interested us for a time, his subject being "Great Achievements in Modern Science." Mr. Holter contrasted the scientific age of five centuries ago with that of the present century. He dwelt on Catherine Haupt, to Jared Harper; the opinions of many ancient scientists, March 2 1897; lot of ground in Bellefonte their knowledge of the shape, size and general geological structure of the earth C. M. Bower et ux, to Joseph Gross- and its distance and relation to the other 'The Rainy Day."

> Mr. Gregg offered a brief apology for the absence of Prof E. J. Wolf, of Centre Hall, who was to have delivered an address on "Bismark."

SATURDAY A. M. SESSION.

Rev. King, of the M. E. church, conminutes of Friday evening's sessious were read and approved.

Mr. I. A. Zeigler read a paper, his subject being the "Interrogative State."

Prof. Gramley gave an interesting talk on "Child Study." He spoke further on "Vertical Writing,"-telling of its merits and demerits, and stated that it is no new John Bright, to Edwin Deshler; Apr. thing, and to prove his statement, mentioned that many old manuscripts were written in that style of writing. Mr. M. L. Rishel adm., to F. H. Van- Zeigler added some remarks, stating that for business men, as it is easier written John Wosener to Mary Wosener, Jan. than slant writing, and he also said that 26, 1897; for tract of land in Gregg twp., much space can be saved in its use. Several others assisted in the discussion.

> Miss Delaney opened the "Language and Composition" subject. Mr. C. S. Lucas then read a paper on the same subject. Miss. Orris added some brief statements, referring to reproduction work in her experience, saying that she found it very beneficial. Prof.Gramley and others | Pittsburg.

SATURDAY P. M. SESSION.

Mr. Ed. Hancock gave an interesting the inauguration exercises. Since he was talk on "Importance of Literary Work." The subject was thoroughly discussed by ey, we do not think he has any other asthe Institute.

Miss Carrie DeLong rendered a recitation, entitled "A Sisterly Scheme."

Miss Alice Neff gave a talk on "Uniform Examinations." Messrs Haneock, Woomer, Gregg, and Harpster added ome remarks.

Miss. Bessie Stroop interested us for a time on "Busy Work." Miss Stroop gave | Moshannon commandery, at Philipsburg her experience in teaching it to her on last Friday evening. Among the young pupils, and spoke of the good results obtained in her schools.

Prof. Bierley, of Rebersburg, gave an instructive talk on "Child Study."

Mr. E. J. Williams favored the audi-

W. G. Woomer, then recited"Hunting a Mouse." Mr. Woomer's recitation was followed by one from Mr. Harpster.

All where thanked who had rendered any assistance in the work of the Institute. The choir then sang "Chime On Sweet Bells," after which Institute ad journed, and all went away feeling that it was a benefical, as well as an interest-C. V. DeLong, Sec. ing meeting.

Purchased a House.

The Philipsburg Ledger says: Mr. Frank Lukenbach, formerly of Bellefonte, has purchased the N. N. Davis residence on North Front street and will occupy it before long.

At Work Again.

A few applications of Salvation Oil will readily cure sprains and bruises, market, and should be, ready for use, in every home in the land. Mr. Frank Stubenhaver 1337 Elm St., Dubuque, Iowa, states: "I used Salvation Oil on a sprained elbow, which threatened to prevent me from working, and after several thorough rubbings, I awoke the very next morning much relieved and able to go to work. Had I not used Salvation Oil I certainly would have lost a week's work, which would have amounted to many times the cost of a bottle of Oil. Everybody should keep Salvation Oil in the house." It is sold everywhere for only 25 cents.

For sale by C. M. Parrish, druggist.
