

HAPPENINGS IN BELLEFONTE.

Local Events Briefly Told in a Few Lines.

PERSONALS, SOCIAL EVENTS.

What has Transpired During the Past Week—Movements of our People—What the Local Scribe saw worthy of mention—A week's local news in a few words.

—Ed. Woods, mail carrier, is on the sick list with erysipelas. —Mr. Irvin Musser, of Bucyrus, Ohio, is visiting friends in this section.

—The meeting of the board of trade was not largely attended on last Thursday evening.

—Miss Jennie Witter, of Tyrone, has been visiting Miss Emma Aikens during the past week.

—Constables elected at the spring elections will not receive their commissions until about the 1st of May.

—Alfred Neubauer, of the Brockerhoff house, has been on the invalid list for the past week, due to an attack of rheumatism.

—Mr. Abe Baum occasionally comes down town and circulates among his friends. He had a severe rheumatic spell and is slowly recovering.

—Miss Fannie Bloom, of Sunbury, spent several days visiting Mr. and Mrs. Reamer. She left on Tuesday morning after a pleasant stay in our town.

—Joseph T. Barton, who is looked upon as the coming postmaster at Fleming, was in town on Saturday and found time to call and discuss matters generally.

—Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Crider are now at Tampa, Fla., where they will stay about three weeks. This is one of the most delightful winter resorts in the South.

—W. T. Meyer and family expect to leave Bellefonte about the first of May. The family will be at Aaronsburg this summer. Mr. Meyer has not yet decided on a new business location.

—Mr. A. S. Garman arrived home on Saturday evening from his trip to Mexico. He was gone over three weeks and had a fine journey. See his letter in another part of this paper.

—On Friday evening Miss Minnie Brew's dancing class will hold a fancy dress ball for the children. It will be up to date and in keeping with the former dress affair that proved so enjoyable.

—Mrs. John L. Kurtz attended the State Children's Aid Society, at Pittsburgh. Mrs. Kurtz takes much interest in this kind of work and has found comfortable homes for four children in this section.

—T. R. Williams, editor of the Driftwood Gazette, and wife, spent Sunday visiting his mother on East Logan street, who has been very sick for some time with the grip. He returned home Monday afternoon.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. Baum have sent out invitations for the wedding of their daughter Rosa and Jacob D. Hassel, of New York, which is to take place at their home, on east Bishop street, on March the 16th.

—The colored Odd Fellows society, of Bellefonte, received sixteen handsome outfits the past week. They are fine regalia which they expect to wear in public when the annual sermon will be delivered before the order.

—Mr. J. B. Hartman, the prominent implement manufacturer of Millheim, was in town on Monday. For years they have produced the "Camel Back" and "Wet's Improved" plows, land rollers and other farm implements.

—The Philadelphia Branch has a nice bicycle display in their window. The wheelman is on his machine and treading for hours but never gets any farther. It is a novel display and attracts attention. This wheel will be given away later.

—On Wednesday Mr. D. M. Butts, accompanied by his son Lawrence, left for Philadelphia, where he will remain for some time. Mr. Butts had been in very poor health for some time, but is rapidly improving. The change may prove beneficial.

—Mr. W. R. From, who during the past year has been holding a position in Jackson & Co's mill, has purchased a home at Millburg, and will move there in April. He formerly was a citizen of Allison's mill.

—Mr. Joseph Hutton, a staunch democrat, of Fleming, who is in his seventy-third year, called on Monday to renew his subscription. He believes the democratic party always stood for the poor man's cause and does not think he has any reason to ever vote differently. That is the result of his observation these many years and we agree with him.

—A Harrisburg dispatch says Insurance Commissioner Lambert finds that under the act of 1895 providing for a return of two per cent. of the tax on gross premiums of foreign insurance companies doing business in this state to cities and boroughs the amount available for the disabled firemen's fund would be about $75,000. There is nothing in the law to compel municipal authorities to establish a firemen's beneficial fund.

Family Reunion.

On Saturday a very pleasant family reunion occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Miller, at Madisonburg. It was a grand surprise prepared by their children and friends. On Saturday morning Mr. and Mrs. Miller were induced to pay a visit at the house of Dr. Geo. L. Lee, and in their absence their house was taken in charge by others who brought numerous presents and delicacies and at noon, a sumptuous repast was prepared fit for the Mikako's to partake. Then Mr. and Mrs. Miller were summoned home accompanied by Dr. Lee and wife, their surprise was unimaginable in finding their children and a host of friends to greet them.

The dinner was truly an enjoyable event, especially to have the family assembled, on such a pleasant occasion. The afternoon was very pleasantly spent with music and various amusements. Among those present were the following: Mrs. Mary Goodhart, of Centre Hall, who is a sister of Mr. Miller; Mr. Clark Gramley and family; Charles Small and wife, of Rebersburg; Mrs. Geo. E. Miller and family, of Centre Mills; C. E. Zeigler and wife, of Penn Hall; Aaron Small and wife, of Rockville; Dr. G. L. Lee and wife; Mrs. J. B. Hazel, of Madisonburg.

Fine Chinaware.

The famous Wilkenson China Emporium will be better prepared than ever this season to supply the public with fine chinaware. Mr. Samuel Taylor returned recently from a trip to New York city where he secured some of the very latest importations and novelties. In fine dinner sets, elegant cut glass, bric-a-brac can certainly please the most fastidious taste. Remember Wilkenson's is the only exclusive china store in this part of the state.

Played With Powder.

On Tuesday evening, Ralph a ten-year old son of Mr. John Trafford, of this place got hold of a shot gun cartridge, about home. He took out the shot and then, with some other boys, built a fire and put the cartridge in it. Of course an explosion followed and the lad being close his entire face was badly burned and now is blistered. Fortunately his eye sight was not injured. His injuries are quite painful and will keep him under treatment for some time.

Change of Address.

All subscribers who will change their post office address during April should notify us at once. Be sure and give the name exactly as printed on the label of paper and present address, and your new post office address after April. Observe these directions carefully and you will get your paper without fail. This is important and avoids confusion with us and delay to you.

Death at Centre Hall.

On Saturday morning Mrs. Smith, widow of Dr. Peter Smith, of Centre Hall, died at the home of her son S. W. Smith, near that place, from pneumonia. She was ill for a short time only. Interment occurred on Monday afternoon.

Married.

At Snydertown, March 4th, Mr. John C. Pravel and Miss Laura Ellen Lee were united in marriage, by Rev. W. K. Diehl.

New Landlord.

Mr. Edwin Rhule, who for several years past has been in the hotel business at Centre Hall, will be succeeded by Mr. Wm. Runkle, of that place.
