

HAPPENINGS IN BELLEFONTE.

Local Events Briefly Told in a Few Lines.

PERSONALS, SOCIAL EVENTS.

What has Transpired During the Past Week—Movements of our People—What the Local Scribe saw worthy of mention—A week's local news in a few words.

—John Harris, of Tyrone, spent Sunday at his home, in Bellefonte.

—The next event of the season will be the annual Easter ball to be given by the Undine Fire company.

—On Saturday afternoon we had the first thunder shower of the season. It is a reminder that winter is about over.

—Mr. N. T. Krebs, one of Pine Grove Mills' prominent young business men, attended to business in town on Saturday.

—W. W. Montgomery and family have moved into their home on Allegheny street, which they improved and repaired considerably.

—The fifth annual district convention of the firemen of Centre, Blair and Clearfield counties will be held at Houtzdale, August 17th and 18th.

—M. B. Garman claims to have one of the fastest horses in Bellefonte. It can strike a pace that will make other chaps hustle to keep in sight.

—Joseph Rightmire will continue the lively business and can be found at his former stand and can supply a good rig for all who come his way.

—The two fire departments responded in fine style on Friday evening. They were at the Bush House in about two minutes from the sounding of the alarm.

—A crowd of young people from Bellefonte expect to go to Lock Haven on Friday evening to witness the production of the "Drummer Boy of Shiloh" at that place.

—The prospects for a general boom in business does not seem to give much comfort to our people. Even republican politicians occasionally forget themselves and complain.

—Miss Lena Callahan, of Linden Hall, was married to John Raymond, of Lock Haven, on Tuesday evening 16th. The ceremony took place in the united Evangelical church.

—The Saturday shopping train on the Bellefonte Central, on Saturday, brought quite a number to town. It proves a popular scheme and brings considerable trade to our town.

—The United Brethren in Philipsburg have purchased a site for a church and parsonage. The lots are at the corner of Tenth and Pine streets and a neat church is to be begun the coming summer.

—On Friday evening some of our young sports attended a dance at Unionville and had a fine time. Coming home through the rain and mud did not detract from the pleasure of the occasion.

—The Penna. State College Mandolin Club will appear in Garman's Opera House, on next Wednesday evening, March 31st. They have an excellent programme prepared and promise a rare treat for all who come.

—William H. Dale, of Benner township, died on Wednesday evening, March 17, aged about 40 years. He was a son of John Dale, of Benner township, and a brother of Martin Dale, of Bellefonte. Funeral occurred on Saturday.

—On last Thursday evening Mr. Cal. Green, the colored tonsorial artist, had to haul Wm. Walker on a wheelbarrow from the depot to the court house and return on account of a bet on the big prize fight. Cal still thinks Corbett is the best man.

—Jas. B. Strohm returned on Saturday from Philadelphia where he made application before the civil service commission for a clerical appointment under the new administration. He underwent the regulation examination, with a crowd of about one hundred other applicants.

—C. A. Weaver, formerly deputy sheriff, has been engaged by Mr. Condo to assist him in his mercantile establishment at Millheim. Both the sheriff and deputy are old hands at this business and should be able to make things go at a swimming pace. Success to them.

—Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Buck has given up housekeeping for the present and will board for awhile. Mr. Buck has engaged as salesman in the coal business which will keep him away from home much of his time. Their former house on Howard street, will be occupied by Supt. F. H. Thomas.

—As a result of a bet on the Corbett-Fitzsimmons prize fight, Mr. John Lowry agreed to wheel Jerry Fasig from McGinleys cigar store to Milesburg and back. The affair took place last Saturday afternoon and a large crowd was on hand to see them start. Lowry was on hand to fulfil his contract and at about 3 P. M. the procession moved out Allegheny street. John not being bound down to any particular route soon struck a lively pace. The wheelbarrow went thump-thump over the ties and poor Fasig could scarcely stick on. He soon realized that he had the worst part of the job and begged to be let off before they had gone very far. Lowry lost the bet, but the joke was turned on Fasig.

—Jay Woodcock, a student at Princeton, is home for a short vacation.

—Treasurer Harrison Kline has been on the sick list during the past week.

—Sheriff Cronister has fourteen boarders in his charge, with room for more.

—Mrs. C. T. Alexander has been very ill for the past three weeks, at her home in this place.

—In one week the first of April will be here—the time for playing jokes and renewing notes.

—A large amount of rain has fallen during the past week and in consequence the streams are unusually high.

—Miss Amanda Eckley, of this place, is visiting friends in Youngstown, Ohio. She expects to remain several weeks.

—Dr. Geo. W. Atherton, is in Washington, D. C. The Dr. never goes there for fun—always some important move on deck.

—Miss Bessie Hayes arrived home on Saturday evening after an extended trip to Lewisburg, Philadelphia and other points.

—Deputy Treasurer William Thomas Royer sports a new bicycle, and is as proud of it as though it were a little red wagon.

—Don't imagine that Beck the barber has gone out of business since he pulled in his sign. He is just having it repainted.

—One of the large plate glass windows in the Racket store was broken on Sunday and a new one will have to be put in place.

—If you will move next week and change your post office address, be sure and notify us now, so that you do not miss your paper.

—On Sunday evening six young men, members of the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A., held a special meeting in the Lutheran church at Boalsburg.

—Earl Tuten was in Philadelphia the latter part of last week to try an examination under the civil service department for a clerical position.

—R. M. Magee, the insurance man, of Philadelphia, is spending a few days in this vicinity attending to business and greeting his many friends.

—The country roads at this season are the very worst of any time in the year and the result is that there is little traveling, except where necessary.

—A few Bellefonte chaps, in the habit of making tours to Milesburg, are in danger of being waylaid. War has been declared between the parties.

—Horses are selling at unusually low figures this spring—much lower than ever was known. It don't pay to raise them in this country at present prices.

—A live merchant who expects to catch spring trade should begin his advertising now. Early advertising always pays. Remember the circulation of the Centre Democrat is now over 1800 per week and keeps growing.

—Earl Tuten says the maidens in the City of Brotherly Love are not as formal as in some smaller towns. They do not hesitate to recognize a stranger or offer to show him around. That's quite true—no doubt the same girls.

—An investigation has been instituted during the past week for the purpose of gathering information about the recent attempt to burn the court house. Two detectives are here from Pittsburg and have been taking testimony this week. A thorough search will be made in the matter.

—Rev. George Zehner, pastor of the Evangelical church, at this place, for some years past, moved on Tuesday to Lewisburg, where he expects to make his future home and will retire from active ministerial labors. False Alarm.

On Friday evening there was a general scare by the cry of fire, that was sent out from the Bush House. All the departments responded quickly along with most of the inhabitants of the town. It was a false alarm. Some one had seen a cloud, of what was supposed to be smoke, rise from the roof and gave the alarm. The fact was steam was only escaping through the flue and there was no danger from a conflagration.

Grain Promising.

The grain fields about the county are looking exceedingly well at this season of the year. During the cold weather of the past winter the ground was generally well protected and the young sprouts did not suffer from frosts. The danger of late frosts still can do some harm. A good grain crop, at present prices, would certainly be appreciated by our farmers.

Spring Notice.

Strawbridge & Clothiers agent will spend Friday, March 26th, at Aiken's Store, Bellefonte, with a full line of their latest in capes, coats and suits. Special orders taken.

Editor Meek Sick.

On Saturday Hon. P. Gray Meek, who was in Philadelphia attending to official duties, was taken ill with pleurisy and telegraphed home for Mrs. Meek. At this writing Mr. Meek is much improved, and no fears were entertained at any time as to his condition.

Two More Kilns.

Two more lime kilns will probably be built at Salona to accommodate the increasing demand for lime.

—Fashe has something interesting to say about spring clothing in another column.

BEAVER HAS A CANDIDATE.

William P. Humes, of Bellefonte, Wants to be Commissioner of Railroads.

A dispatch from Washington, on Friday says: "Ex-Governor Beaver is interested in the political fortunes of William P. Humes, of Bellefonte, and came to Washington, and went to the White House with Senator Penrose to urge Hume's appointment to the position of Commissioner of Railroads. That position is now held by Ex-Senator Wade Hampton, of South Carolina. His commission will not expire for two weeks, but the octogenarian is in feeble health and nature is likely to revoke his commission. Wade Hampton has been one of the great men of this country, a great Confederate leader and a great man on the floor of the United States Senate, but he is nearing the close of his career." Mr. Hume's is one of Bellefonte's prominent citizens and no doubt would make an efficient man for that place. His many friends would be glad to hear of his appointment.

—Miss Helen and Christina Cedars left this week for South Pines, South Carolina, where they expect to remain until about the first of June. South Pines is a famous health resort.

—Mr. Irvin Winkleman, of Nittany, called on Wednesday. He expects to stop farming and will follow carpentering this summer as there will be a number of new buildings in that section this summer.

—A butcher's wagon with a calf in it was passing when she remarked to him. "Oh, look at the cute little cowlet." "It looks to me," he replied, "more like a bullet," and there was silence for the space of ten seconds.

—A large number who took part in the production of the "Drummer Boy of Shiloh" expect to go down to Lock Haven on Friday evening over the Central R. R. of Penna., to see how other people render the same piece.

—The Knights of the Golden Eagles, at this place, have had their hall, on the third floor of the Pruner building papered throughout in elegant fashion and repainted. They now have splendid rooms and can justly feel proud of the same.

—Last Thursday evening Miss Annie Kline, daughter of Treasurer Harrison Kline, entertained a number of young folks at her home near Nigh. The party was given in honor of Miss Maggie Wion, who left this week for Philadelphia where she will make her future home.

—This afternoon at 4 o'clock a mother's meeting will be held in the rooms of the Union, to which all ladies, especially mothers, are invited. On Friday afternoon, at the same hour and place, the Loyal Temperance Legion will meet. The young boys will find this meeting profitable.

—Arthur B. Kimport, the deputy prothonotary, gave his friends a surprise on Tuesday by having a marriage license issued. The young man went all the way to Selingsgrove, Pa., to have the nuptial knot tied. Where they went, when they will be back, and where they will reside are things we cannot answer.

Human Ingenuity.

Certainly, for the mechanic, human ingenuity has never produced a better liniment than Salvation Oil, which now stands unexcelled for curing his sprains and bruises caused by a fall; or cuts and wounds the result of an accident with his tool or saw. Salvation Oil always kills pain. "Recently, I fell about twenty feet and was very much bruised on my leg and side, but after bathing them with Salvation Oil the bruises soon disappeared. I think Salvation Oil is just the thing for sores and bruises." A. Jacob Rice, 520 Church St., Easton, Pa. Salvation Oil may be bought anywhere for 25 cents. Substitutes offered by dealers may cost less; hence, do less. Salvation Oil, however, never disappoints the user.

For sale by C. M. Parrish, druggist.
