

HAPPENINGS IN BELLEFONTE.

Local Events Briefly Told in a Few Lines.

PERSONALS, SOCIAL EVENTS.

What has Transpired During the Past Week—Movements of our People—What the Local Scribe saw worthy of mention—A week's local news in a few words.

—Milesburg has a new organization known as soup slingers.

—Millinery opening, at Mrs. Gilmour's store, April 14th and 15th.

—The Bellefonte club have moved into their new quarters. They now are elegantly located.

—A bright boy recently was welcomed in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. H. Hayes, this place.

—A bicycle will be given away by the Philad. Branch. Inquire at the store for more definite information.

—Eggs only 8 cents per dozen. That is the result McKinley's administration. The hens must be prospering.

—Louis Fabian of the Philad. Branch is in the Eastern cities this week making selections for the spring trade.

—"Breezy Time" at the opera house on Saturday evening. There will be lots of entertainment in this production.

—Leander Green was recently taken seriously ill from the effects of too much whitewashing. Strange story, but quite true.

—The sale of Benjamin Schrock property has been postponed until Thursday, April 22nd at two o'clock, at the court house.

—Mr. Wm. Humes has a force of workmen preparing the site, at the rear of his lot, for the erection of a fine brick stable.

—Wm. Thomas, now living in Jersey City, was summoned here by the serious illness of his father Mr. Isaac Thomas, at this place.

—The Clearfield Public Spirit came out last week in an industrial edition that was a very creditable issue in every particular.

—This evening the colored talent of Bellefonte will appear in the opera house. They promise an excellent entertainment.

—John M. Dale, Esq., and family are in Washington, D. C., as the guests of Col. Teller, proprietor of the famous Metropolitan hotel.

—Mr. Alexander Ford and family moved to Chattanooga, Tenn., last week. While here Mr. Ford was employed in the standard scale works.

—On Thursday afternoon, April 15th, at 2 o'clock, the seniors of the Bellefonte High school will deliver their orations. All are cordially invited to attend.

—Miss Grace I. Beck, who recently closed a successful term of school at Snyderstown this county, will attend the Central State Normal School. The spring term, begins next Monday.

—Col. W. Fred Reynolds is having some extensive improvements made upon his lawn, at his residence on Linn street. A professional landscape gardener from Philadelphia is superintending the work.

—Hon. John A. Woodward, of Howard, has about completed his winter's work in holding Farmers Institute over the state. He is one of the best informed men in this line and his services are always in demand.

—Prothonotary W. F. Smith is spending the week in Philadelphia. In his absence the business of that office is being ably dispatched by Arthur Kimport, the recently married man, who has settled down to business in fine style.

—One week from to-day the trout fishing season will open. The editor has a "W" to wager that he will have the pleasure of a genuine trout breakfast on that occasion and will capture his own fish. Do we hear any takers?

—"Breezy Time" gave an entertainment in Bellefonte some time ago and it was highly appreciated by those who were present. If you want your melancholy disposition cured and the blues dusted go and see the "Breezy Time"; lots of fun on the programme.

—H. M. Krebs, of Pine Grove Mills, was in town on Tuesday on a business trip. He recently purchased the carriage shop from W. J. Meyer of that place, and is now doing a good business. Mr. Krebs is a hustler and will do all in his power to accommodate the public.

—Wm. Plack has removed his barber shop to the corner in the Benner building on the diamond, in the room formerly occupied by Beezer & Bosch's butcher shop. This is a splendid location and Billy should capture lots of shekles, grow rich and become a bloated bondholder.

—Sergeant Major of the 1st Battalion, 5th Regiment, is the new military title that will adorn the illustrious cognomen of Boyd W. Musser, of this place. Big name; what it means, can't explain except the privilege of drinking out of the Col's. canteen during encampment and at other military gatherings. We congratulate Major Musser on his promotion. When he wears his military decorations we know he will be the pride of the ladies.

MILITARY BANQUET.

Last Friday the members of Company B enjoyed a splendid banquet in the Armory. Early in the evening the company came out and gave an exhibition drill on the diamond. For about an hour they went through all the military movements in a manner that was very creditable indeed. Upon their return to the Armory they found an elegant banquet awaiting them. A long table, with covers for over sixty tastefully decorated and adorned with potted plants, extended through the main room and caterer Achenbach was prepared to serve a bountiful repast in which oysters, roast turkey with side dishes, ice cream, cakes, coffee were the leading features concluding with smokers. This was the first annual banquet for company B, and was tendered them by Capt. H. S. Taylor.

Lieutenant Geo. W. Jackson presided at the head of the table as master of ceremonies with the dignity of an old timer and called upon members for brief toasts as follows: "A Soldier's Promotion," Lieut. Charles J. Taylor.

"Troubles of a First Sergeant," Sergt. P. J. Garbrick.

"Co. B in Camp," ex-Sergt. Claude Smith.

"The Raw Recruit," S. D. Gettig.

"Benefit of Military Discipline," Corporal A. Riest Rutt.

"Our Spring Inspection," Corporal W. F. Barnes.

"Our Officers Past and Present," Corporal M. N. Trone.

"The National Guard," Private Clarence Daley.

"My First Experience," Private Charles Kase.

"The G. A. R.," Private E. J. Williams.

"The Battle of Punxsutawney," Private Geo. A. Eberhart.

"From Navy to Infantry," Private Harry Jackson.

"Co. B, Past, Present and Future," Corporal Boyd A. Musser.

"Fighting Fifth," Sergt. Samuel Taylor.

Informal toasts were responded to by John Nighthart, Capt. Taylor, T. H. Harter and Chas. R. Kurtz.

It was 12 o'clock when all arose and gave three lusty cheers for Capt. Taylor and the success of company B, and one of the most enjoyable events of this organization were concluded.

The addresses delivered on this occasion deserve special praise and were far above those made at more pretentious gatherings.

Fire Near Bellefonte.

Early Friday morning fire destroyed the houses occupied by John Shawley and Charley Dan, on Halfmoon hill, near Bellefonte. Mr. Shawley lost all his house hold goods, except his bed, which he threw out of the window. He has been burned out three times during the last ten years, and each time had no insurance on his goods. Mr. Dan succeeded in getting his goods out. The houses were owned by Mr. Dan and were fully insured.

Shawley, who is an aged man, narrowly escaped with his life, being forced to jump from a high window. A woman who was in the house also had a narrow escape. She was taken from a second-story window.

Spring Requires.

That the impurities which have accumulated in your blood during the winter shall be promptly and thoroughly expelled if good health is expected. When the warmer weather comes these impurities are liable to manifest themselves in various ways and often lead to serious illness. Unless the blood is rich and pure that tired feeling will afflict you, your appetite will fail and you will find yourself "all run down." Hood's Sarsaparilla tones and strengthens the system, drives out all impurities and makes pure, rich, healthy blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the one true blood purifier and the best spring medicine. Be sure to get only Hood's.

Fine Bees.

Last week Philip Beezer, the Allegheny street butcher, brought six of the finest steers to town that have been seen here for a long time. The largest weighed 1775 pounds, while the six averaged 1415. They were purchased from Mr. John McDowell, of near Milroy, who takes special pride in such stock, and has more of the same kind in his stables. Mr. Beezer is always on the lookout to get the best in the market, for his customers.

There is a Class of People

Who are injured by the use of coffee. Recently there has been placed in all the grocery stores a new preparation called Grain-O, made of pure grains, that takes the place of coffee. The most delicate stomach receives it without distress, and but few can tell it from coffee. It does not cost over 1/4 as much. Children may drink it with great benefit. 15c. and 25c. per package. Try it. Ask for Grain-O.

Eggs For Hatching.

The prices given below are for a setting of thirteen eggs. Partridge Cochins.....75c. Buff Cochins.....75c. Barred Plymouth Rocks.....40c. M. B. GARMAN, Bellefonte.

—Do you send your printing out of town? Don't do it.

Sugar Valley Barn Burned.

The barn of Lewis Grape, in Sugar Valley, was burned a few days ago. A horse and two dogs perished in the burning building.

—A bicycle will be given away, at the Philadelphia Branch.

COUNCIL MEETING.

On Monday evening borough council was in session and transacted business as follows:

Requests were made for sidewalks from the Gordon property to Beaver street; also one on Ridge street from Curtin to Beaver street.

Street committee reported numerous repairs being made.

Mr. Shortidge recommended the repeal of the Hoy ordinance in regard to gutters; also recommended the repeal of the ordinance allowing people to sod the streets outside of the gutter.

Water committee reported pipes on Howard street from Clarks to Armstrongs; spring cleaned. Complaint was made of the condition of Cherry alley.

Wm. Walker was given line for building on South Potter street.

A motion to confer with the borough solicitor, to do away with gutters was carried.

The Fire and Police committee were instructed to inquire as to the amount of new hose which were needed by the respective fire departments and report at next meeting.

Capt. H. H. Montgomery and Col. Amos Mullen were elected as borough policemen for the ensuing year. Thomas Shaughnessy was re-elected street commissioner. Johnson received two votes and Mr. Shaughnessy six.

BOROUGH BUILDING.

The next important step was in regard to the erection of a new public building on Howard street to be used by the Log-an Fire company, and for council chamber, also be fitted up with a lockup. The plans submitted by Mr. Cole were accepted, with any revisions council might make in the future. Mr. Cole stated that the following bids had been received:

Joseph Fox bid, for Mill Hall brick, $4,184.00; for common brick, $3,881.00. D. Bartley, according to specifications, $4,636.65.

Ed. J. Garrett, according to specifications, $4,327.51.

W. L. Steele, Mill Hall brick, $4,182.00; home brick, $4,113.00.

Benjamin Bradley would take the old building off their hands and build according to specifications for $3,945.00.

Samuel Gault, $4,299.00; if allowed to use common plaster may take off $100.00 from bid.

Mr. Brachbill moved that Mr. Bradley's bid be accepted, providing that the Finance committee can find suitable means for obtaining the money.

Burgess Nagney made the following recommendations: Establish regular police headquarters and uniforming of police. He urged that bicycle riders be required to carry bells, and lamps at night; and not be allowed on our sidewalks. Bills amounting to $646.13 were approved.

A New Position.

It is announced that Mr. Hugh Beaver, son of Gen. James A. Beaver, of this place, has accepted a position as General Secretary of the Inter-Collegiate Y. M. C. A. in New York city and will begin his labors in that capacity about September 1st. For some time he very efficiently served as College Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., of Pennsylvania and his labors resulted in the extension of the association in many institutions of learning. Mr. Beaver is a young man who is energetic and active in this work and has accomplished much. In this larger field we expect to hear of him attaining much success.

Concert at Eageville.

The Bellefonte Mandolin and Guitar club of Bellefonte will give an entertainment in Kune's opera house, at Eagleville, on Friday evening, April 9th. The club is composed entirely of home talent and all are musicians who can handle their parts in a proficient manner. On numerous occasions they have appeared before Bellefonte audiences and always won the highest praise. They certainly will give a fine entertainment.

Good Work.

When J. W. Rue came to Bellefonte two years ago there were only three hundred communicants in the Methodist church and now there are five hundred communicants. The attendance at the pastor's class was but from ten to fifteen when he came here, but now it numbers over one hundred and it kept up an average of ninety during the summer months. That is a record of which he truly can be proud.

Easter Song Service.

On Sunday evening the 13th a special Easter song service will be held in the Presbyterian church, at this place. The choir has been preparing for this event for some time and will render some new music. Prof. Meyer always insures a rare treat on such occasions.

BULKY BOODLE.

Last Tuesday the Jackson, Crider & Hastings bank, of this place, shipped away by the American Express, a box of silver dollars as large as two men could handle, being the surplus of silver which accumulated in its vaults and which they could not use in the transaction of business. Only a certain amount of silver can be circulated in any community, the business people preferring paper money consequently our banks frequently have to exchange their surplus silver for paper money in order to accommodate the community.

Promoted.

Harry Taylor who has been in the employ of the Adams Express company at this place for some time past, has received a much deserved promotion. He has been appointed baggage master between Lock Haven and Tyrone. Mr. Taylor is a steady young man and will be able to fill the position in good style. Mr. John Dubbs takes Mr. Taylor's place with the express company.

Death of Mrs. John Reed.

Mrs. Mary M. Reed, wife of John Reed, of Coleville, died Friday morning at half-past four o'clock, of pneumonia. She had been ill but three days.

She was 55 years of age and the mother of five children, namely: Nancy, Elizabeth, Blanche, Benjamin and Grace. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon.

Easter Assembly.

The grand easter select assembly to be given by the Undine Fire Company, No. 2, of Bellefonte, will be held in the Bush Arcade Hall, on Monday evening, April 19th, 1897. Music by Undine orchestra. Band concert at 8:30, grand march at 9 o'clock.

An Angel of Mercy.

Truly, the miraculous cures of rheumatism made by Salvation Oil, justly earned for it the title: an angel of mercy; for many bed-confined rheumatics have experienced the great, curative properties of this modern liniment. "I used Salvation Oil for rheumatism and found it a sure cure. I used three bottles and am now perfectly well and I would feel myself a benefactor if I could induce every person afflicted with rheumatism to try Salvation Oil." James H. Bryant, Debrubis, N. C. Salvation Oil is sold everywhere for 25 cents, but some dealers may say, "we are out of it," hoping to sell a cheap substitute instead. Insist on getting Salvation Oil, or go to some other dealer who will sell it to you.
