

HAPPENINGS. IN BELLEFONTE.

Local Events Briefly Told in a Few Lines.

PERSONALS, SOCIAL EVENTS.

What has Transpired During the Past Week—Movements of our People—What the Local Scribe saw worthy of mention—A week's local news in a few words.

—Mr. Al. Newbauer, of the Broker-house, is off on a trip to Erie, Pa. —Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Brew, of Grantsville, Md., are spending Easter in town. —Miss May Crider, who is attending school at Bryn Mawr, came home to spend Easter. —Mr. Frank Crosthwaite and family will move into the Kurtz property, on Thomas street. —The Benjamin Schrock property will be offered for sale again this afternoon at the court house. —Arthur Kimport has gone to house-keeping on East Bishop street, and has been royally serenaded. —Court will be in session next week. Thus far we have heard of no startling cases in the quarter sessions. —Mrs. Barbara Rankin and daughter Belle spent Easter at the guests of the Gov's family, at Harrisburg. —Mrs. Carrie Openheimer, of Baltimore, Md., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Samuel Lewin, on Linn street. —Ira. C. Mitchell, Esq., has moved his law office from the Crider Exchange, to his residence on Spring street. —Miss Edith Holtz, who is attending the Notre Dame College, Baltimore, spent Easter at her home, this place. —"The Breezy Time" company left on Monday, after a week's stay in Bellefonte, where some of them had a fine time. —The electric light plant will be under roof by the end of this week. Workmen are pushing repairs along as rapidly as possible. —J. A. Feidler, formerly editor of the Bellefonte Gazette, has accepted a position on the editorial staff of the Harrisburg News. —Mr. C. J. Finkle, of Spring Mills, agent for the De Laval Creamery Separator called on Monday to leave a handsome calendar with us. —Mr. J. P. Sebring has completed his work as Mercantile Appraiser. He found some tough traveling in making a canvass of the county. —John Ardell and family moved in with Rev. Crittenden, on Linn street. The Crittenden residence was recently remodeled for their benefit. —John Grove, one of Gregg township's leading citizens, transacted business in town on Monday. Mr. Grove is enjoying good health and lively as ever. —Mr. J. K. Johnston, Esq., who had been teaching school at Moshannon, the past winter, has moved to Bellefonte and expects to locate here permanently. —A dead infant was found in a bucket near Valentine's furnace last week by some boys. It is thought to be a case of infanticide, and will be up in April term of court. —Last week Ed. Hughes, son of Rev. James P. Hughes, left Bellefonte for Chicago, where he expects to enter a machine shop and learn the trade. We wish him success. —Mr. John Bower student of Franklin & Marshall, Lancaster, arrived home on his Easter vacation in time for the opening of the trout season and landed in fine ones the first day. —On Saturday the Lock Haven State Normal ball team played at Penna. State College and won by a score of 9 to 4. The result of the game was considerable of a surprise to the home team. —But one appeal was taken to the Supreme court, this year, from Centre county; it being Meyer et al vs Downing. The court convenes on Monday, in Philadelphia, and this case will be argued by Hon. A. O. Furst and Chas. P. Hewes. —H. B. Shaeffer's photograph gallery has been entirely repapered and refurnished throughout with accessories that will enable him to better accommodate the public in the future. Parties desiring carbon portraits can get them now at greatly reduced rates. —The first band of gipsies for the season passed through Bellefonte on Sunday morning. The ladies of the party wore their new spring bonnets and were as proud of their head gear as those who paraded our streets in all their fiery and expensive gowns. —It is quite a disappointment to the members of Company B. that they will not get to New York to attend the dedication of Grant's tomb on the 29th. They anxiously looked forward to this event for some time. We are sorry for the boys, but such is life. —The Cheerful Liar, in the opera house, on Monday evening disappointed a fair sized audience. The company is composed chiefly of Altoona amateurs who are stage struck. They will not be able to travel very far on their production. We have better amateur talent and more successful liars here. So don't impose upon us again.

—Rev. Wright is out of town this week. —Col. Geo. A. Bayard is on the sick list. —C. M. Parrish, the druggist, spent Easter visiting his parents at Ebensburg, Pa. —James Corman, one of Rebersburg's best citizens attended to business in Bellefonte on Tuesday. —Lyon & Co. announce some special bargains for spring. See the supplement enclosed in this issue. —Thomas Brumgart and daughter, of Wolf's Store, where in Bellefonte on Tuesday attending to business. —Miss Nan Schofield, who has been sojourning in New York city for several weeks, arrived home Tuesday. —The song service, at the Presbyterian church, on Sunday evening was much appreciated by a large audience. —A number of peach trees about town are bearing early blossoms. The late frosts are liable to destroy their usefulness. —No more attractions are booked for the opera house this season, unless some company should come along to fill up a date. —A complete account of the stabbing affray, at Milesburg, last Saturday, will be found in the Milesburg items, on page 7. —Jackson's flouring mill had an accident on Wednesday, by a cog-gearing breaking that will suspend operations for about a week. —Ellis L. Orvis, Esq., attended the session of Supreme Court, in Philadelphia this week, where he is interested in proceedings. —A young lad by the name of Meese pulled a 1 1/2 inch trout out of the creek, opposite the Bush House, on Tuesday. It was a beauty. —On Monday Wm. Woods was kicked by a mule, while working at Nigh Ore Bank. He sustained a broken rib and the fracture of another. —On Tuesday evening a large number of young people attended Minnie Brew's dancing school. It was the first dance since the Lenten season. —Dr. Humphreys says, as "77" is to Grip, so is No. 10 to Dyspepsia. The first dose relieves—its persistent use cures; 25c.—at all druggists. —Mr. and Mrs. James Williams, of Port Matilda, were pleasant callers on Tuesday. They have been constant readers of this paper for some time. —Mr. G. W. Mapledoram, in the Phillipsburg, was in town on Monday. He should make a success of that popular hotel. —Mr. and Mrs. Hamil-Boal have moved to town from the farm near Lemont and are now occupying the house vacated by Howard Tipton on Willow Bank street. —Wilbur Bickle, Esq., has given up farming in Boggs township and has opened a grocery store in Milesburg. He made the change because his health was not good enough to follow farming. —Mr. G. H. Leyman, of Roland, was in town on Wednesday, for the first time for several months. He had been quite ill from rheumatism and has not fully recovered but is able to be out again. —Schreyer & Schaffer have another attraction in their store window this week. A pair of quite young foxes interest almost everybody who passes that way. The little chaps are cunning and cute. —C. M. Bower, Esq., went to Lancaster on Monday morning to attend the meeting of the Missionary Board, of the Reformed church. Mr. Bower is one of the active members and takes an interest in that line of work. —On Tuesday morning we had a heavy frost that may injure the early fruit. Ice over an inch thick formed in many places and the ground was frozen hard enough to prevent plowing. Mr. James Carson, of Spring township, vouches for this fact. —This week Philip Beezer purchased six more fine steers from John McDowell of Milroy. Their combined weight was 9115, or an average of 1524. The largest weighed 1685. If any Centre county farmer can beat that let him speak up. Mr. Beezer is always anxious to secure the best for his customers. —Postmaster Kennedy, of State College, called on Wednesday to renew subscription. Mr. Kennedy has the reputation of being one of the best postmasters that place ever had and many people are anxious to have him retained for that reason. There are quite a number anxious to succeed Mr. Kennedy. —The Undine's Annual Easter Ball, in the Bush Arcade, on Monday evening, was a pleasant affair. The attendance was large and the best of order prevailed. The grand march was led by Mr. Joseph McMahon and sister Celia. The affair was in charge of the following committee: John Beezer, chairman, Frank Waltz, Harry Lose, Wm. Flack and Joseph Lose. —The State College base ball team departed Tuesday evening on a trip east, playing Wednesday the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia; Thursday, Fordham at New York; Friday, Lafayette at Easton, and Saturday, Princeton at Princeton. The team is not as strong as it had been the past three or four seasons. —Everybody is talking about the handsome shirts and beautiful neckwear at the Philadelphia Branch.

Try Grain-O! Try Grain-O!
Ask your grocer to-day to show you a package of Grain-O, the new food drink that takes the place of coffee. The children may drink it without injury as well as the adult. All who try it, like it. Grain-O has that rich seal brown of Mocha or Java, but it is made from pure grains, and the most delicate stomach receives it without distress. 1/2 the price of coffee. 15c. and 25cts. per package. Sold by all grocers.
Be Sure to See Them.
The great reduction Mr. Shaeffer has made on his Fine Carbon Portrait work, from $6 to $3 per dozen, has created quite a sensation, and from the way business has started in at the Shaeffer studio one would imagine every person in Centre county intends having their picture taken during these cut rates.
Arm Broken.
On Wednesday noon Harry Bentley, while riding a bicycle on the diamond, had a severe fall from making a short turn. The result was that his right forearm was broken. Dr. Harris attended to the lad's injuries. The boy is a grandson of Landlord Henry Yerger, of the Brant House.
Ran Away.
Boy 13 1/2 years old; when last seen he wore blue overalls, blue jacket, small cap and torn shoes, answers to the name of Edgar Reffner. Any information will be thankfully received by Mrs. H. L. Kurtz, President C. A. S., or by Mr. P. J. Weltz, Bellefonte.
A Big Catch.
On Monday Judge Love and Tom Harter, while out trout fishing, caught three dozen honey chubbs in the Hecla Park dam. That is what they call dam poot fishing, in the new game preserve. The Judge got the fish.
Eggs For Hatching.
The prices given below are for a setting of thirteen eggs.
Partridge Cochins.....75c
Barr Cochins.....75c
Barred Plymouth Rocks.....40c.
M. B. GARMAN,
Bellefonte, Pa.
—The suit that we sell for $7.50, our competitors cannot sell at less than $12. S. LEWIN.

VENERABLE CITIZENS.
These are some of the persons that can be met on our streets almost daily and their ages except Mr. James Hamilton, who has not been able to go out of his house much this winter. Most of the others are in business: James Hamilton, aged 95 years; John Wagner, 90; John Curtin, 86; Franklin Steel, 85; William McCafferty, 79; Daniel Garman, 77; William Jones, 77; Harvey McClure, 77; William S. Tripplie, 77; Benjamin House, 75; Joseph Garbrick, 74; Thomas Myers, 77; Charles Miller, 74; Joseph Twitmir, 74; Alexander McCafferty, 73; Senickson Smith, 73; Molton Harris, 73; John O'Leary, 72; Thomas Pennington, 72; John H. Sands, 72; Simon Haupt, 71; J. P. Gephart, 70; M. S. Graham, 70; Robert Valentine 70.
A Political Fracas.
On Tuesday evening James McClure and Al. Dale, Esq., two prominent republicans of this place were discussing politics in Mr. McClure's store. They had quite a difference in regard to the merits of one of Bellefonte's noted politicians and soon began to exchange strong comments. Dale could not restrain himself and plunked his fist into McClure's eye in a vigorous manner. James resented this with a hammer that was successfully ward off. Next he hurled a whetstone at the barrister, but that missed its mark and banged through the front store window instead. Mr. Dale concluded that it was his time for disappearing and took up street with a volley of stones after him.
Mr. McClure has a badly bruised face, and had Mr. Dale bound over for court these two men have been friends for years; frequently hunted together. Since then they have realized the folly of becoming abusive in talking politics, and regret that the affair occurred.
Reduced Rates to New York.
For the dedication of the Grant Monumental Tomb, April 27, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to New York to the general public on April 26, at rate of single fare for the round trip (no less rate than $1.00), good to return until April 29, inclusive. Tickets for military and other organizations in uniform, at a further reduction. For specific rates apply to ticket agents.
The parade on this occasion will be the grandest military demonstration since the war. Thousands of veterans, United States regulars, and State militiaman will be in line.
Another Robbery.
On Monday night some parties gained an entrance to Edward Rhoad's coal office, near the depot, by forcing a window. The entire apartment was ransacked and as a reward for their trouble secured $1.30 in small change from a drawer in the desk. An effort also was evidently made to force the safe open, which was unsuccessful. The hinges and lock were considerably battered. Nothing else was taken from the office although some good clothing was in the room. This is supposed to have been the work of some amateurs.
Who is It?
Last week's Gazette says: "It is rumored, and possibly it is true, that a certain witless newspaper man in Bellefonte has rented one part of Schad's new double house on Thomas street. Now look out for a grand wedding and a feast of good things. Be careful and don't make your usual mistake and guess the wrong one."
Almost every newspaper in the town has a subject fit for a matrimonial alliance.
A Fine Easter.
Sunday was an ideal Easter day and the finest of the season. The air was balmy and cheerful, just warm enough to allow the ladies to appear in their new spring wraps and handsome bonnets. The men likewise took advantage for displaying something new in dress.
The attendance at service in the morning was larger than usual as most places there was special music. Sunday was indeed a fine spring day.
Cronister Buys a Farm.
Sheriff Cronister has purchased the M. H. Stuart farm near Martha and will put his good hard cash into it, so that he will have something laid up for a rainy day. This is a wise move for any officer.
Baby's Smooth, Fair Skin
Is Due to Hood's Sarsaparilla—It Cured Him of Dreadful Scrofulous Sores—Now in Good Health.
"At the age of two months, my baby began to have sores break out on his right cheek. We used all the local external applications that we could think of or hear of, to no avail. The sores spread all over one side of his face. We consulted a physician and tried his medicine, and in a week the sores were gone. But to my surprise in two weeks more another scrofulous looking sore made its appearance on his arm. It grew worse and worse, and when he was three months old, I began giving him Hood's Sarsaparilla. I also took Hood's Sarsaparilla, and before the first bottle was finished, the sores were well and have never returned. He is now four years old, but he has never had any sign of those scrofulous sores since he was cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, for which I feel very grateful. My boy owes his good health and smooth, fair skin to this great medicine." Mrs. S. S. WORTZ, Farmington, Delaware.
Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold by all druggists. $1, six for $5. Be sure to get Hood's.

SOCIABLE AT WALKER.
The Christian Aid Society of Walker will hold an "apron sociable" in the basement of the Reformed church at that place on Saturday evening, April 24th, the proceeds to be for the benefit of the church. Refreshments will be served during the evening. The Hoy Bros. will be present and render music on the organ, violin and guitar. The ladies of the society will hold a "United States apron sociable" and expect an apron from every state in the Union which will be sold at auction during the evening. The society consist of about thirty members and is still growing. The names of the officers are: President, Mrs. Fred Shank, Howard; secretary, Miss Mable Yearick, Walker; treasurer, Mrs. G. D. Glossner, Walker. All are invited to attend.
Out of Their Sphere.
The saddest sight in the world are a bachelor holding a baby, a woman stoning the chickens and a one-armed man riding on an evening with a pretty girl.
Oh, How They Hurt.
Neuralgia pains are often so acute, that the poor sufferer becomes, almost, frenzied with the intensity of the pain. Salvation Oil will instantly relieve and effectually cure neuralgia, so there is no reason why a moment's pain should be endured. Mr. Jacob Klein, 1036 Main St., Evansville, Ind., writes: "My wife suffered from neuralgia for seven years and since she used Salvation Oil, she has not had a spell. I think it is the best liniment I have ever tried, and I would not be without a bottle of it in the house. I had the rheumatism for five years and had tried a great many liniments, and must say that Salvation Oil did me more good than any other remedy." Salvation Oil is sold everywhere for 25 cents.

NORRIS & HYDE
TRANSPOSING PIANOS.
Instantly transpose any song to suit any voice. Are THE ONLY PIANOS which transpose a full chromatic octave. With them any player can just as easily play any piece in all the other keys as in the original key, and any singer can sing any song in exactly that key in which the voice sounds best. This adds great value to these instruments, which in all other respects are unsurpassed by any. They suit the most exacting critic, and are indorsed by prominent musicians everywhere. Any child can operate the movable keyboard, and it cannot be gotten out of order. Voice Teachers, Singers, Churches, Schools, and Theatres find them an indispensable convenience. Send for catalogue, or ask to see them at
