—The First Wheel. W. H. Denlinger is riding a fine new wheel, the first one, we are told, turned out by the Weliver Manufacturing company. Let the scoffers at our bicycle factory sing dumb, now that they can see for themselves a finished wheel in use. Mr. Denlinger is the right man to ride the first Phillipsburg wheel, and if he only could mount a few of the moss-backs in similar style we might have improvements galore. The new wheel has been christened the "Weliver Special" and it is pronounced an exceptionally fine article.—Philipsburg Ledger.

In addition to the beautiful marches, waltzes, serenades and characteristic selections for which the boys are famous, there will also be several additional features entirely new and "up-to-date." Mr. Wm. B. Reeve, organist and choir-master of St. James Episcopal church, this city, will be heard to advantage in one of his popular love-songs or ballads which have gained him distinction, and Mr. W. P. Young, violinist will favor the audience with an interpretation of one of the old Masters. Altogether the affair promises to be a rare treat. The exercises will begin on Tuesday evening opened by Rev. E. E. Hoshour. The address of welcome will be made by W. P. Kuhn to be responded to by Rev. Chas. T. Aikens. Morning, afternoon and evening exercises will be held on Wednesday. A complete programme has been prepared and will embrace the discussion of important topics relative to the order, by prominent members in the district. The various sessions will be public and all are invited to attend.

Jolly Bad Coon. Chas. Powell, alias "Brack the Crook" who played a game of poker with "Brownie" for a white girl and got his scalp laid open and then was sent to jail for costs, is a free man again. The County Commissioners could not see the use in boarding "Brack" for costs they could not get. Upon signing an agreement to skip the town for a period of five years he was released. Last heard of him he was freighting it towards Pittsburg. He was a jolly, bad coon.

Stereoptican Views. A stereoptican entertainment will be given in the Court House, Monday evening, May 17th. About one hundred large clear views are thrown by two 750 candle-power exhydrogen calcium lights upon a broad, high screen, supported by a popular and brass frame 18 feet square, and illustrating the "Slums of New York by Flashlight."

It will be under the direction of the Y. M. C. A. Admission free. Don't fail to attend.

N. G. P. Encampment. It has been determined that the second brigade, National Guard of Pennsylvania, will encamp at Conneaut Lake this year. The time is from the 17th to the 24th of July. The second brigade has encamped at Conneaut Lake several times. It is a beautiful place for an encampment. This year the camp will be located on the west side of the lake. Formerly the camp was on the east side.

Double Price. When you can buy high grade, ready made clothing, like ours, it is a mistake to give your order to the tailor, where you must pay double price. Our spring line contains some very pretty patterns, finest we have shown for years. PHILADELPHIA BRANCH.

REV. DR. MITCHELL DEAD. Rev. Dr. Thompson Mitchell, of Williamsport, one of the oldest ministers in Pennsylvania, died at his home Sunday, aged 80 years. His death was caused by the general breaking down of his health. Dr. Mitchell was born in Mifflin county March 22, 1817, his parents being pioneers of that section. He was educated for the ministry, and entered the Baltimore Methodist Conference in 1839, remaining in the active ministry until 1884, a period of forty-five years. He has preached at Birmingham, Hollidaysburg, Bellefonte, Danville, Staunton and Baltimore. In 1860 he was elected president of the Williamsport Dickinson Seminary, and filled that position until 1869.

Hydrophobia Case. During the past week there has been a genuine scare in this community from the fear of being attacked by mad dogs. If all is true that we hear, at least a dozen dogs in this community have developed symptoms of this dangerous disease and quite a number of them have been shot. As the story goes, several weeks ago a dog belonging to John Caldwell showed signs of going mad and the canine was immediately shot, but it was too late, as the dog had already inoculated a number of other dogs and cats.

Within the past few days a number of dogs displayed evidence of the disease and were at once put to death. One of these belonged to Charles Levy, two to Sam'l Guisewhite and one to Joshua Polk. A number of other canines are known to have been bitten and will be shot as soon as found.

Bellefonte anyhow has more dogs than are useful or ornamental and it would be a good thing if hydrophobia would give the excuse for a wholesome extermination. The police officers are on the lookout for several curs that have been bitten by others supposed to be mad and will exterminate them on short order.
