MILESBERG MENTION.

Wilson Charles, of Tyrone, visited his parents on the 26th. Geo. Shirk, of Philipsburg, Sundayed with his aunt Mrs. Lucy Johnson. Miss Lottie White, of Bellefonte, is a guest of Mrs. Maggie Miller. Miss Mary Hall, of Houtzdale, is visiting her aunt Mrs. Wm. Shawley. Ira Leathers, of Jacksonville, spent a portion of Monday, the 24th, in our quiet burg.

Clayton Poorman and Roland Carter, of Tyrone, were in the burg on Wednesday the 26th.

Miss Maggie Gray, of Tyrone, was a guest of her aunt, Mrs. Lucy Johnson recently.

Decorations is now numbered with the past. With it came and went a host of strangers.

Miss Margery Thomas, of Tyrone, Sundayed with Miss Blanch Campbell. Milford Watson, of Osceola, spent Saturday in our burg taking in the decoration.

A portion of Jacob Shirk's family, of Philipsburg, came in to witness the decoration and Sundayed with their aunt Mrs. Lucy Johnson.

Bessie Gill, of Snow Shoe, at present writing, is visiting our young friend Miss Lizzie Martin.

Mrs. Elijah Kellerman arrived home on Friday from the Methodist hospital, at Philadelphia, where she was receiving treatment and is much improved.

Austin Eckley and wife, of Snow Shoe, and Bone Shope and daughter of Cato, spent decoration day with Edward Bullock and wife.

Mrs. Minnie Gardner and grandson, of Tyrone, Mrs. Carolina Kyler, of Saxon, Sundayed with their sister Mrs. Lucy Johnson.

Clyde C. Boggs, who tarried a week of his vacation or 30 days furlough with us, returned to Greenwood furnace, his place of business.

Prof. C. L. Gramley held his Annual Teacher's examination in the burg on Wednesday the 26th. Ten entered the class in the morning. The examination did not sum up as smoothly as others have. Some of the contestants began to show that the path of knowledge was not a smooth one, toward noon, began to show signs of discouragement. Some left the boat, because of its leakage others hung to it, and by so doing, carried them safely through and gained the prize, that they were drifting after.

DECORATION EXERCISES.—

The decoration, at this place and vicinity, was a grand success in every respect. The citizens cornet band taking the lead, at four o'clock sharp, the Geo. L. Potter post No. 261 formed into line, marched up Mill street to the O. W. A. M. Hall. The P. O. S. of A., of Howard, and the American Mechanics joined in line of march, proceeded up Pike street to the M. E. church. The M. E. S. School added more than two hundred to the procession. It proceeded down Pike street to the Presbyterian church. A large number there filed into ranks—when all in readiness proceeded down market street to the old cemetery. The Post taking up the line of march followed by the different orders and Sunday schools to their respective position of line of duty. Prof. L. T. Eddy furnished the music, assisted by his choir and organist. A platform was erected for that purpose and the speaker of the day, after the ceremonies of decorating was gone through with, commander of the post Stanley K. Watson then introduced Rev. Stevens, of Bellefonte, who in his short discourse, on account of cold weather, gave some good and practical points of truth showing the deception or the different fears of business men, that have not the backbone, to stand for the right. For fear of hurting someone's feelings, by so doing, losing their patronage. Did not refer to any particular line of business, but in a general way of doing business.

The decoration at the new cemetery, everyone present seemed to take a deep interest in the work. After the ceremonies, our townsman Prof. Roy B. Mattern gave a historical talk, that did honor to himself and community. He is, to speak mildly, hard to beat, on the occasion for so young an orator. Milesburg will not step aside for talent of this kind. It can produce as good speakers as any of her sister towns.

The decoration at the Messiah cemetery was well attended. After the ceremonies Charles H. Elze, our druggist, made a rousing good talk. He did his talking from actual experience. That is he entered the army at the age of 17 years, a mere boy. He spoke from actual service rendered in the army of the Potomac; not from reading history, or hearing others talk. He is in a general sense a superb talker, at anytime and place. You cannot call on him amiss; he is ready and willing to perform his duty as a comrade of the late war.

BE KIND TO THE LIVING.—Do we remember the old soldier as we should? One day in the year we do him honor, but how about the rest? True he has his pension and perhaps he lives in one of the national homes prepared for him. But what of that, when he has faced death in a hundred forms and perhaps drags about a mutilated body. He gave years of his young life to the purchase of freedom rather than to the accumulating of worldly goods. Is this much to give him in return? Lex us not, then, wait until he has died in obscure poverty to place his name on monument or scroll, but show him, now the love and gratitude which will make bright his declining years. They are fewer, these old soldiers, than they were a year ago; their heads are whiter, shoulders are more bent and foot-steps are slower than they were; and yet to each other they are always "boys." The old jests make them smile; the old nicknames are in use; the old stories are retold, until the present fades away and only the brave past remains. To the watchers they may seem bowed with years, but they know it not; to them, in fancy, their youth comes back. It is not old men who stifferly march out to pay a tribute of respect to fallen comrades. It is "the boys of '61." The lesson of patriotism. Teach the children patriotism; let them learn the names of heroes who died that a nation might live. Let Decoration day mean to them no mere jumble of flowers, music and addresses, but a living tribute to the glorious dead. These children are the future custodians of a country's honor; the men and women of to-day who may be called upon in their turn to defend us. Let them learn early their sacred lesson of patriotism, that it may be stamped indelibly upon their hearts, never to fade away. A nation may be judged by its holidays, and to no nation can come a grander day than the one we celebrate now. A day chosen when nature is at its loveliest, when flowers unfurl the colors of the flag, and blue skies bend lovingly over the last camping places of those who wore the blue. 'Not a day of mourning this, but a solemn rejoicing. Rejoicing for the men who knew not selfishness nor fear, and so obeyed their country's call. Men who lie to-day perhaps in alien graves, their only personal monument a numbered headstone, but men who live immortal in Fame's unforgotten roll as the saviors of the union, the teachers of patriotism!

Mr. Duff and family, of Spruce Creek, spent several days at A. Rupp's.

"Time and tide wait on no man," neither does the train, so a certain count-down out much to their disappointment, but as there happened to be a dollar laid around, they were quickly driven to State College, where they took the train for Bellefonte. While Eddie was chucking over his pay, he found it was 50 cts. Of course Ed. didn't cave a bit, but thought it a real mean trick.

Dora Gramley, who has been spending the summer in Bellefonte, Sundayed with parents.

Sam'l Knopp recently purchased a bicycle and of course, was the guest of Joseph Stone Sunday.

Jno. Weaver, of Walnut Grove, spent Sunday among friends of this place.

Mr. W. H. Close has in his possession a clock which formerly was the property of General Benner. It is in perfect running order and has just been re-modeled. It was in Mr. Benner's possession for over a hundred years and was the gift of his father, one of the first settlers and founders of Rock Forge Furnace. He has also a gold watch, a gift of his father on his return from the Revolutionary war.

DECORATION DAY NOTES.

Decorations and how it was observed in other parts of the country. As it did not dawn bright and clear many people did not attend, on account of the threatening weather. At Houserville, in the morning services were conducted in the usual manner; failed to learn who made the address.

In the afternoon at the Branch, services were conducted by Rev. Coffelt, who made an excellent address. The State College band also was present and as usual rendered some very fine music. Several secret orders were also present.

In the evening, at Boalsburg, Rev. Leister spoke to a large crowd, after which their was music by the band.

WOLFS STORE ITEMS.

DIED.—It again becomes our duty to chronicle the death of a respected lady and neighbor, Mrs. Amanda Sheatz, wife of Mr. Jonathan Sheatz, which occurred very suddenly on last Saturday forenoon the 29 inst. Deceased had been suffering for the last few years from cancer, although her sudden death was due to hemorrhage. Her age at the time of her death was 51 years, 11 months and 2 days. She was the last of a family of fourteen children, all of whom are now dead. She was the mother of ten children of whom seven are living, three having died in infancy. The living are Emma, Miranda, Anna, Lena, Keuben, Cephas and Frank. Mrs. Sheatz was a member of the Lutheran church, for a number of years, and was a lady who always did what she could to lend a helping hand. Especially was she kind to little children. Her funeral took place last Tuesday forenoon. Her remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at Brumgart's church. Rev. Mumma officiating. She leaves to mourn her departure a sorrowing husband and seven children, as already mentioned, who have the warmest sympathy of the community in this their hour of bereavement.

"Farewell! That word has broken hearts And blinded eyes with tears. Farewell! One stays and one departs. Behind them they are left behind."

"Goodbye! That word makes faces pale And fills the soul with fears. Goodbye! Two words that sting a wall. Which flutters down the years. Adieu! Such is the word for us. 'Tis more than word—'tis prayer. They do not part who do part thus For God is every where."

THE NEW CHURCH.—The corner stone of the new United Evangelical church, at this place, will be laid on Sunday June 20, 1897, at 10 o'clock a. m. A hearty welcome and invitation is extended to all to be present at these services.

FOR WOMEN ONLY...

The bargain counter has attractions for women—it is different with the men. The women prefer the largest assortment to select from, hence they go to the stores to buy—they come to our store because we have everything they want in our line—churns, creamers and other dairy fixtures, including the best house in the market, Sewing Machines, Washing Machines, etc., in great variety.

REFRIGERATORS

Some men prefer to buy goods delivered and patronize the traveling fakir, by whom they are often taken in.

Who ever heard of a woman taken in by a fakir? The men who do not read advertisements monopolize this privilege.

The women read the advertisements and are always on the lookout for the BEST BARGAINS.

The best thing for men to do, those who do not read advertisements, is to authorize their wives and daughters to purchase all the needful articles and they will save money.

When the mothers and daughters want anything in our line, they come to us to buy, for the reason, that they always know where they can purchase the best bargains. We have a free exhibition every working day in the week of everything for the Farm and Garden to which everybody is cordially invited, at our store on High street, Bellefonte, Pa.
