HAWAIIAN ANNEXATION.

An Unexpected Delay in the Signing of the Treaty.

SENATE ACTION ONLY NECESSARY

After the Document Has Been Formally Signed-The House Can Only Refuse an Appropriation to Pay the Debt of the Islands.

Washington, June 16.-It was the expectation that the Hawaiian annexation treaty would yesterday afternoon receive the formal signatures of the negotiators, Secretary Sherman for the United States government, and either Minister Hatch or Lorin Thurston, as a special commissioner for the Hawalian government. The document itself had been prepared and everything was in readiness, when it was taken again to the White House for the president's final inspection and review. Secretary Sherman remained at the department later than is his custom in order to receive the Hawaiians but finally, at 4 o'clock, the attempt to secure the signature of the treaty yesterday was abandoned. This may prevent the submission of the treaty to the senate today, as was the intention of the cabinet, but the delay in any case will not be material.

At the cabinet meeting, in the course of the discussion of the treaty, it was decided that its pendency in the senate would not necessarily cause any considerable obstruction to the progress of the tariff bill, and while there is every disposition on the part of the president to avoid any interference with the rights of the senate in the matter, it can be stated that the treaty will not go in with any idea that it is not the wish of the executive that it should be acted on promptly.

While the treaty is in the senate, either in the hands of the committee on foreign relations or on the calendar of executive business, it is the expectation that the people of the United States will have an opportunity, through the press and other mediums, to declare their sentiments upon the matter, and if, as is expected, there is an overwhelming declaration for annexation, it is believed the senate will be quick to respond to the demand. In this case the treaty, it is believed, can be taken up and ratified in the course of one or two executive sessions, while the regular tariff debates are in prog-

The manner in which the Hawaiian treaty will come before the house is in the paragraph which provides that the United States shall assume the present debt of Hawaii. This will not in any way affect the treaty or interfere in its adoption. Irrespective and before any action will be submitted to the house will come the ratification of the treaty by the senate. If the treaty is ratified no action by the house can change the condition. The failure of the house to appropriate to pay the debt or the interest on it may become a future complication, but the ratification of the treaty by the senate will

The treaty which made Alaska a places on sugar not above No. an appropriation of several million dol-There was a most bitter contention in the house about making the appropriation, but the senate had by treaty ratified the agreement. Of course, if congress had finally refused to make the appropriation then Russia would have held possession of Alaska. The case of the refusal of the house to appropriate for the interest of or the debt of Hawaii will not, it is said, prevent annexation, but the payment of the debt or the interest would be a subject for future consideration and a question between the province, colony or territory of Hawaii and the holders of the debt if congress should not pay it. Shipping Alcohol to Japan.

San Francisco, June 16.-Alcohol is now being shipped to Japan under circumstances which promise that the American article will be able to come into profitable competition with the German product. The latter has almost a monopoly of the trade, as with the advantages of an export bounty it has been laid down at rates that could not be met by the makers of American corn spirits. Recently, however, reduced transportation rates have been obtained, making it possible to ship alcohol to Yokohama from Peoria at a profit. It is expected the trade will amount to millions annually. Four carloads have already been sent.

Fancullif's Dismissal Recommended. Washington, June 16.-The court martial which recently tried Professor Fanciulli, leader of the Marine band. on charges growing out of his refusal to play certain marches ordered to be played on decoration Day by Lieutenant Draper, of the Marine corps, has found him guilty of disobedience of orders, and has recommended his dismissal from the service. Colonel Haywood, commandant of the corps, has approved the recommendation, and it has been forwarded to the navy department.

Illinois' Anti-Butterine Bill. Springfield, Ills., June 16 .- The antibutterine bill, which prohibits the coloring of butterine or oleomargarine for the purposes of the market, has been signed by the governor. The bill was fought through the legislature by the Elgin dairymen, and was bitterly opposed by butterine makers all over the country. As a result of the signing of the bill, the manufacture of butterine in Illinois will practically cease July 1.

For over two months the working average has been but two or three days per week. It is believed here that the activity will continue until the latter part of September.

The Netherlands Elections, Amsterdam, June 16 .- The results of the election to the second chamber of the states general of the Netherlands are, so far as known, the return of 20 Catholics, 22 Liberals and 13 Orthodox Protestants. At least 45 second ballotings will be necessary.

COWARDLY DYNAMITER

Endeavors to Assassinate President Faure, of France.

Paris, June 14.--An attempt was made yesterday to assassinate Felix Faure, president of the French republic, while he was en route to Long Champs to witness the Grand Prix. While M. Faure's carriage was passing a thicket near La Cascade restaurant, in the Bois de Bolougne, a bomb which subsequently proved to be a piece of tubing about six inches long and two inches in diameter, with thickness of half an inch, charged with powder and swan shot, exploded.

No one was injured by the explo-

M. FAURE, PRESIDENT OF FRANCE. as the prime mover, was arrested. He gave his name as Gallet, and made only the briefest replies to questions put to him by the police. Gallet said that he had no occupation, but resided at Levallois-Perret. The police are making a thorough search of his lodg-ings. He is believed to be insane, for he shouted as the carriage passed along so loudly as to attract general attention in the crowd. The police have also made another arrest, in this case a youth, but it is thought probable that the actual culprit escaped in the thicket The horses attached to M. Faure's carriage reared wildly at the explosion, but were whipped on by Montjarret's vigorous arm. Rousteaux, the detective who is always with the president, rushed forward and grappled with a man, but was immediately set upon by a half dozen persons in the crowd probably accomplices of the would-be assassin. The crowd mistook the detective for an anarchist, and were about to lynch him. He was beaten, kicked, spat upon and not rescued by the police until bleeding and unconscious from a terrible beating.

SUGAR SCHEDULE COMPLETED

Anti-Trust Amendment Defeated and Three Others Presented. Washington, June 16.-The senate made a great stride forward yesterday by completing the consideration of the sugar schedule of the tariff bill, except the provision relating to Hawaii, which went over. This schedule has been the storm center of the entire bill, and with it disposed of there is better prospect for speedy action on the bill as a whole. As agreed to, the schedule Outch standard, I cent per pound and .03 of a cent. for every degree above and on sugars above No. 16 Dutch standard 1.95 cents per pound. But on sugar testing below 78 degrees by the syrup, candy, etc. Only one yea and nay vote was taken during the day, on the amendment of Mr. Lindsay, of Kentucky, to make the rate 1.8 cent per pound on sugar above No. 16 Dutch standard. The amendment was defeated, 32 to 35. The Pettigrew amendment relating to trusts was then taken up and discussed at length. It developed considerable divergences of view on both sides of the chamber, the two Alabama senators, Messrs. Morgan and Pettus, joining Mr. Hoar in opposition. Mr. Allison finally tested the sense of the senate by moving to table the amendment, which motion prevailed by a vote of 35 to 32, two Democrats. Morgan and McEnery, voting with the Republicans to table, and thus turning the scale against the amendment.

Three other anti-trust amendments were immediately presented by Senators Pettigrew, Chilton and Pasco, Substitute Postal Clerks Recognized. Washington, June 16 .- A mooted question in postoffices throughout the country has been settled by a decision of Acting Postmaster General Heath, giving official recognition of the department to substitute postoffice clerks. Postmasters at first-class offices may select from their eligible list a sufficient number of clerks to perform the work of the regular clerks temporarily absent from duty, such substitutes to be appointed to the first regular vacancy in the clerical force occurring thereafter. All sums paid to a substitute clerk must be receipted for by the regular clerk. Substitutes must receive the regular salary of the one for whom they have performed service.

The Elusive Dauntless. Tampa, Fla., June 16 .- A vessel supposed to be the Dauntless came into Hillsborough bay Monday night and took on a cargo of arms and ammunition from a schooner lying at anchor off the mouth of the Alafia river and then sailed away. A report was sent out Monday that the Dauntless had sailed for Key West with an expedition. It was circulated by those interested to throw the officers off their guard, and the Dauntless came in at night and got her cargo. The two boats were tied up until about 11 Scranton, Pa., June 16 .- An order o'clock, and in the moonlight could be > Coal Miners on Strike. Pittsburg, June 16 .- The miners employed by the Ella Coal company and the Webster Coal company, at Webster, on the Pittsburg, McKeesport & Youghiogheny railroad, are on strike The diggers had been receiving 60 cents a ton until two weeks ago, when the rate was cut to 51 cents. They accepted and worked at that rate until the convention of miners, when they made a demand for 60 cents. They were all paid in full and discharged, but were told they could have work at any time at the 51 cent rate. The miners at Fayette City are also or strike against wage reduction.

DIAMOND KING SUICIDES.

Barney Barnato Leaps From a Steamer and Is Drowned.

THE SUICIDE'S BODY RECOVERED.

His Remarkable Rise to Fabulous Wealth in the Development of South Africa-A Fortune of $500,000,000 Amassed by a Poor Showman. London, June 15 .- A special dispatch from Funchal, Island of Madeira, off the west coast of Morocco, says that on the arrival there yesterday of the British steamship Scott, which left

Table bay (Cape Town) on June 2 for Southampton, it was announced that Barney Barnato, the South African "Diamond King," who was among the passengers, committed suicide by leaping overboard. His body was recovered The late Barney Barnato was in many respects the most remarkable speculator of the century. Of all the Englishmen who have taken part in the devlopment of South Africa two only have secured a worldwide reputation. These have been Cecil Rhodes and Barnett Isaacs, more often and less respectfully styled Barney. Barnato was an assumed name, a sort of stage name, for he began his life in South Africa by exhibiting a trick don-key some 25 years ago. He was then about 20 years of age. Barnato was an English Jew, and illustrated in an extraordinary way the financial genius of his race. Up to the point where his fortunes began to decline he made money by leaps and bounds, and in 1895, when his good

THE LATE BARNEY BARNATO. fortune was at its zenith, it was esti mated that he controlled interests worth in the neighborhood of £100, 000,000. It was the fashion to call him the richest man in the world. At that time he was virtually the king of the London money market.

In the autumn of 1895, when the boom in "Kaffirs," the shares of the comparatively new gold mines of the Transvaal, South Africa, was at its height, every man, woman and child in London with money to invest invested it in "Kaffirs." The craze was the last of those financial fevers which periodically attack conservative England, the "South sea bubble" being the first For months it was the controlling passion in London, and it was scarcely less rampant in Paris and Berlin. The shares went to unheard of figures, and fortunes were made in a

The Kimberly diamond mines were just beginning to be productive. With the little capital he could spare he began dealing in diamonds in a small way. He was clever and pushing. Everything he touched he made successful. In five years he had earned nough in the retail sale of diamonds to purchase shares in the mines from which his merchandise had come. Before another five years had elapsed his holdings at Kimberly had become very fields were discovered he had profits to invest in them.

In 1886 Barnato was a definite money power in South Africa, and began to be unlike in personal ambition, the two men started in to be hot opponents. LOCK HANDS spoken of as the rival of Cecil Rhodes. but in 1888 they reached the conclusion simultaneously that their respective interests could be best promoted by combining forces, and the De Beers onsolidated mines were the result, one of the most valuable pieces of property of the kind in the world. Although Barnato represented Kimberley twice in the Cape legislature, he had little time to give to politics and little interest in that field of activity. Cecil Rhodes uses wealth only as a means to political control. Barnato aspired only to such control of men as comes from being fabulously rich. His record in the Cape legisla-ture was quite devoid of incident, When the tremendous increase in his mining interests called for the establishment of a London branch, it took the form of the Barnato bank. From that date he spent most of his time in London, living at first in Earl Spencer's town residence, but moving finally into a magnificent mansion overlooking Hyde Park.

Will Celebrate by Charlty. Chicago, June 16 .- The semi-centennial of the Independent order of Sons of Israel will occur next year, and instead of celebrations by orations and feasting, the order decided at yesterday's meeting to celebrate the event by raising a fund to endow some charitable purpose. A resolution to this effect was adopted without dissent. Whether it will take the form of an asylum for widows, orphans or aged members, or all combined, is to be deeided at the end of the year.
