

HAPPENINGS IN BELLEFONTE.

Local Events Briefly Told in a Few Lines.

PERSONALS, SOCIAL EVENTS.

What has Transpired During the Past Week—Movements of our People—What the Local Scribe saw worthy of mention—A week's local news in a few words.

—The Bellefonte Academy closed last week.

—Mrs. Wm. Dawson is visiting friends in Philadelphia.

—James Knofsinger, of Pleasant Gap, paid us a call on Monday.

—J. Tressler and E. C. Ripka, of Linden Hall spent Saturday in Bellefonte.

—Mrs. Anna Mayes, of Shippensburg, is visiting at the home of Wm. B. Rankin.

—Mr. Chas. Noll, and son Frederick, of Clearfield, visited Mr. Noll's parents this week.

—Alfred Baum will furnish fifteen horses for 5th Regiment, during encampment in August.

—Mr. Rosenberg, of Philadelphia, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Lewin, several days of this week.

—Jay Woodcock is home from Princeton college and expects to spend his summer vacation in Bellefonte.

—Miss Nannie Schofield and brother Edward left on Saturday morning for a trip to Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

—Miss Rosa Fox and Miss Millie Smith departed on Tuesday for a week's trip to Niagara Falls and other points of interest.

—Mr. John H. Rishel, Jr., of Benner township, was seen on our streets on Thursday and Friday, of last week, after a long illness.

—Mr. Evan Goodfellow, who has been in South America during the past year as a missionary, returned last week, and is looking quite well.

—Mrs. Joseph Leichten and children, from Philadelphia, have come to Bellefonte to spend several months at the home of Mrs. Estella Lyons, her mother.

—Mr. and Mrs. Wm K. Marshall and children, of Brockwayville, Pa., are at present in Bellefonte, called here by the serious illness of Mrs. Marshall's mother.

—Mr. F. D. Sower, of Norristown, a brother of Mrs. James Coburn, visited friends here last week. He is a pleasant gentleman and paid us a short call while here.

—Mr. Joe Cushing, one of the C. R. R. of Pa's, most efficient trainmen was married at Corning, New York on 24th Joe Loose, of this place, was the groom's best man, at the ceremony.

—Prof. A. Reist Rutt left on Saturday morning for a trip to Gettysburg, Hanover, and other points. He expects to make the trip on his bicycle, if the roads are good. He will be gone for several weeks.

—Mrs. J. G. Kurtz, of Washington, D. C., spent Sunday in Bellefonte, as the guest of the Misses Benner. Some years ago the family resided in Bellefonte, and occupied the Frank B. Stover home on High street.

—Mr. John Meyer, of Centre Hall, one of the recent graduates of Franklin & Marshall college, paid us a short call on Friday. He has not made any definite arrangements as to becoming a law student, in town, as previously stated.

—Prof. James Hughes, Sr., of the Bellefonte Academy, accompanied by his daughter Miss Otalie, left on Saturday for a summer's vacation. After a brief visit at Baltimore with his son Charles, he will be located at Cape May during the summer season.

—Mrs. Wistar Morris, accompanied by her grand children, Marguerite and Morris Wood, and her niece, Miss Mary Blanchard, arrived in Bellefonte on Thursday evening in Mrs. Morris' private car. Mrs. Morris will now occupy her summer home on North Allegheny street.

—Mr. John Rupp, the jolly miller from Oak Hall, was in our town on Saturday. He says the students of the Boalsburg Academy would likely hold a reunion at that place later in the summer. The move has been started and definite action will soon be taken for that purpose.

—Our townsman D. F. Fortney, Esq., delivered a very interesting and able address at the Pine Grove Academy Reunion last week. Thinking that many would like to see the same in print we give it entire. When Mr. Fortney takes an interest in anything you can depend upon it being well done.

—On Thursday, of last week, Miss Mamie, daughter of landlord Keller had a startling experience. She mixed gasoline and warm water for the purpose of cleaning clothes. This was placed on the stove, at some one's suggestion. The result was that it quickly ignited and the young lady was badly burned about the hands and wrist.

—Mr. H. E. Noll, formerly of Millheim, now living at Lancaster, Pa., transacted business in Bellefonte on Monday. Mr. Noll was employed for some time as traveling salesman for The Safety Buggy Company of that city. He recently was promoted to the position of superintendent of their extensive plant, which is a very important place.

—Sparks Brothers' circus to-day.

—Mr. Chas. Callaway is visiting relatives in Philadelphia.

—Bessie Musser left for Altoona on Wednesday where she will visit relatives.

—Mrs. D. H. Hastings and daughter Helen, arrived in town on Wednesday.

—Don't forget the Undine picnic and jubilee, at Hecla Park on Saturday, July 3rd.

—We had an unusually heavy rain storm on Saturday. No damage was done to vegetation.

—Miss Lulu, daughter of Dr. H. K. Hoy, of Altoona, is visiting her friend Miss May Taylor.

—Miss Jennie Crittendon has gone to Waterbury, Conn., where she will remain until after Christmas.

—Mrs. Jack McClelland and son, of Sharpsburg, are the guests at the home of Col. J. L. Spangler.

—Mrs. Claude Jones and sister Miss Grace Armor left on Tuesday for Mrs. Jones' home, in Tyrone.

—During the past week many farmers commenced cutting their first crop of hay. The yield this year will be large.

—Ex-sheriff Condo and his former deputy, C. A. Weaver, of Aaronburg, transacted business in Bellefonte on Tuesday.

—Dr. Band and wife, of Baltimore, are spending a few weeks in Bellefonte as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Valentine.

—Mr. Howard Moore, who is the compounder of the famous Ryman's remedies, at Howard, transacted business in Bellefonte, on Tuesday.

—Supt. C. S. Gramley went to the State Normal school at East Stroudsburg, to examine there in geography, higher algebra and physics.

—This Thursday evening at eight o'clock, Mr. James Morrison and Miss Mary Kane will be united in marriage at the home of Rev. D. L. Jones, on Spring street.

—We hear that Rev. Illingsworth of Warriorsburg, Pa., is contemplating taking up the practice of law. Some time ago he successfully passed the required examination.

—Ex-sheriff John Spangler was in town on Tuesday. He seems a stranger in this place. Mr. Spangler is looking well and appears to be enjoying good health.

—Miss Edith Holtz is home from the Notre Dame Seminary, Baltimore Md., to spend her summer vacation. The Misses Offenheimer, of Baltimore accompanied her.

—Rev. G. W. Fortney, pastor of the Lutheran church at Turbotville, Pa., attended the reunion at Pine Grove Mills and spent several days visiting his brother D. F. Fortney, Esq., at this place.

—Mr. Wm. Parks, while working with some part of the machinery at the Ore mines, Wednesday morning, was hurt very badly, his hand caught near the middle and being cut open to the fingers.

—Shaeffer, the photographer, has made another cut in the price of photos. In his advertisement, in another column, it will be noticed that until August '97 work will be turned out at greatly reduced rates.

—On Tuesday Forney Winner, Lock Haven's crack bicycle rider, had his eye teeth cut at Hecla Park. Johnny Teats, a boy from Bellefonte, did it in elegant style. He beat Winner in several races and the crowd howled.

—The School board has organized as required by law and elected D. F. Fortney President; W. B. Rankin Secty; and John P. Harris, Treasurer; and fixed on Tuesday evening June 29th, as the time for the election of teachers.

—A very pretty musical was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Lewin on Linn street Monday evening, in honor of the Misses Oppenheimer, who are visiting at the Lewin home. Miss Emma Oppenheimer who possesses a fine voice, rendered several choice selections.

—Mr. Paul Gearhart has accepted a position in the Mercersburg academy as instructor in music. He expects to leave in September to begin his duties. Mr. Gearhart is a young man active and energetic and this position will suit him admirably as he possessed rare musical ability.

—Mr. Haag has concluded to add another story to his hotel on Bishop street and operations have commenced already. Landlord Keller frequently is unable to find room enough for all his guests. The new story will be of brick. Mr. Keller, the landlord, seems to be doing a big business. May prosperity smile on him.

—On Tuesday seventeen coaches were filled with Williamsport Methodists who picniced at Hecla Park. In the afternoon about five hundred of them inspected our town. They smiled at our pretty girls, drank soda water and other foaming liquids, paraded the streets and all went away apparently pleased with their visit.

—On Monday evening June 14th Mr. Gottlieb Haag, one of Bellefonte's best citizens was taken by surprise. His numerous friends learned that it was his 68th birthday event and they gathered at his home to properly celebrate the event. The Undine band came later and helped to liven up the event. Mr. Haag highly appreciated the compliment of his friends and was the jolliest one of the party. The gathering was royally entertained.

—Lutheran sociable will be held at Longer Wian's home this Thursday evening.

—Mr. Morris Trome is at Easton, Pa., where he will be an important guest at a fashionable wedding.

—Mrs. Gearhart, wife of Rev. Gearhart, recently under-went a delicate operation in a hospital.

—Joseph, son of Jacob Runkle has started a grocery store in the Aiken's block, on Allegheny street.

—On Tuesday evening the children in the Catholic convent, at this place, gave a musical that is deserving of high praise.

—Rev. Illingsworth, the eloquent Methodist pastor of Warriorsburg, was in Bellefonte on Tuesday. He is a young man of more than average ability.

—Parties desiring extra copies of this issue, containing interesting matter about the recent Pine Grove Mills academy reunion can secure them at 3 cents per copy.

IN THE COURT HOUSE

Legal Intelligence Gathered from Various Offices.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

{ Robt. K. Haddock, - - - Snow Shoe
{ Mary Barr, - - - - - " "

{ John Koonsman, - - - - - Poe Mills
{ Nelson Viola Keen, - - - - - Aaronburg
{ Daniel Bradford, - - - - - Haines Twp.
{ Sarah Bowers, - - - - - " "

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

Isaac M. Orndorf et ux to Henry W. Stover, June 22, 1897; for tract of land in Haines Twp.

John B. Shank et ux to Charles R. Graham, June 8, 1897; for tract of land in Snow Shoe Twp.; for $125.

Adam Hoy's Exrs. to L. E. Jodon, April 13, 1897; for tract of land in Spring Twp.; for $2160.

S. C. Bathgate et ux to Ephraim K. Keller, April 1, 1897; for tract of land in Spring Twp.; for $900.

Joseph Fearer et ux et al to John E. Charles, June 1, 1897; for tract of land in Harris Twp.; for $75.

John M. Weaver et ux to L. H. Stover et al, April 1, 1897; for lot of ground in Penn Twp.; for $175.

Henry F. Spotts et ux et al to John Spotts, April 1, 1871; for tract of land in Union Twp.; for $1900.

Wm. T. Mauck's adm'r's to Sarah Orndorf, May 17, 1897; for house and lot in Millheim boro; for $811.

Mrs. A. G. Hale et al to Robt. Williamson, April 10, 1896; for lot of ground in South Phillipsburg Boro; for $100.

LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION.

To Elias E. Smith upon the estate of Elizabeth Bartges, dec'd, late of Gregg Twp.

Sailed for Europe.

On Tuesday morning a large party was assembled at the Penna., station and their was more than the usual demonstration in the parting of friends. The reason was that a number of Bellefonte ladies were making their departure for a trip abroad. They were: Mrs. Isaac Mitchell, and the Misses Mary Thomas, Caroline Orvis, Blanche Hayes, and Mary Hendrixson all of Bellefonte. According to schedule they sailed on Wednesday, from New York aboard the "Friesland" of the famous Red Star Line and are due at Antwerp on July 3rd.

Their trip will be an interesting one taking in the following points: Brussels, Waterloo, The Hague, Paris, Geneva, Switzerland and the Alps, Mila, Pisa, Rome, Naples, Florence, Venice, Austria, Dresden a trip on the river Rhine, London and leading points in England. They expect to leave the continent from Southampton, on the "Paris" one of the famous greyhound steamers September 5th. The party will consist of twenty-six American tourists. They will certainly have a pleasant tour and their many friends in Bellefonte will anxiously await their return.

Reduced Rates to San Francisco.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company announces that, for the Christian Endeavor Convention to be held in San Francisco July 7 to 12, it will sell special tickets from all points on its system at greatly reduced rates. These tickets will be sold June 27 to July 2, and will permit of stop over at Denver and points West. Returning passengers must reach original starting point not later than August 17, 1897.

For specific rates, conditions, and full information apply to nearest ticket agent.

—Sparks Brothers' circus will show on the island near P. R. R. station.

Basket Picnic.

On Saturday July 3rd, a basket picnic will be held at Scotia park in which everybody is cordially invited. Among the speakers will be Rev. Ralph Illingsworth and Rev. R. W. Runyon. Other speakers have been invited and in all probability will be present. It will be under the auspices of the Scotia Band.

At Hecla Park.

The Undine band will make things lively at Hecla Park on Saturday July 3rd. They are preparing for a large turnout from Bellefonte and Lock Haven. A splendid programme of amusements will soon be issued. Races of all kinds will interest the crowd.

—Don't fail to attend the circuit-to-day.

CORRESPONDENTS DEPARTMENT

The News Gathered From Various Sections

HAPPENINGS IN CENTRE CO

What our Army of Alert Correspondents see and observe worthy of note—The local Happenings of every community will be gladly Published—Send the news we will Publish it.

REBERSBURG.

Mrs. H. H. Miller is very sick. There is a ghost at the iron bridge, near John Wolf's.

The next grange meeting will be on the coming Saturday p. m.

Rev. and Mrs. Mumma has gone on a visit to see their old friends.

Mr. Steward M. Weber will teach the Woodward school next winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Sholl, of Williamsport, are the guests of Mr. Geo. Musser.

John Moyer says that the new pike, through Rebersburg, disturbs him considerably.

Supt. C. L. Gramley went to the State Normal school, at East Stroudsburg, Pa., to examine there in geography, algebra, and physics. He has been feeling badly for the last week.

ANNIVERSARY: Mrs. Henry Brumgart's 50th birthday anniversary was nothing slow at all in its get up and management. Mr. Brumgart allowed to go on a visit to his brother Newton and so took Mrs. along for a ride. About dinner time they returned home, and behold right at the door Mrs. Brumgart met her daughter Mrs. Woods with her little grand-daughter Margaret and grand-son, which made the tears of the older mother roll in great profusion.

But after Mrs. Brumgart had gone through the hall and saw a whole host of her friends she took to a very hearty laughter, and was then greatly astonished to see her table loaded down with everything good to eat, ice cream, cake, strawberries, and a grand dinner it was. Mrs. Brumgart received as presents, a dining room set, a dozen engraved tumblers, very fine linens, etc. Among those present were the following: Mr. Jacob Sholl, Mrs. Wm. Baird, Mrs. L. C. Gramley, Mrs. Calvin Crouse, Mrs. George Harris, Mrs. Luther Frank, Mrs. James Frank, Mrs. Reuben Bieri, Mrs. James Brumgart, Mrs. Noah Corman, Mrs. Harry Corman, Mrs. Woodling, Mrs. Saylor Miller, Messrs. Glen and Paul Leitzell, of Millifield, Grace Miller, and Mame Corman. All this was one week ago and a pleasant and happy time it was for all, especially so for Mr. and Mrs. Brumgart.

PENN HALL ITEMS.

Well, here we are again, after a silence of nearly six weeks.

We all wonder what the attraction is at Mr. Moyer's paint shop. Perry won't tell us.

Most of the farmers in our vicinity have commenced making hay. The crop, in general, promises to be a good one.

Mr. H. N. Meyer and Miss Jennie C. Bitter attended the commencement at State College last week and report having a very pleasant time.

Prof. J. F. Meyer passed through here on Tuesday on his bicycle on his way home from Lancaster, where he was engaged in teaching in the F. and M. Academy at that place.

Mr. F. K. Frank, who was working in the photograph gallery of H. A. Grippe in Tyrone is home for a while. He expects to go out again in the fall. He reports business very dull.

FISHING PARTY:—The young men of this place were out fishing the other night. They report lots of fish. They must have had something in their hat. One fell in and another couldn't sleep. Harry says "Uncle Cal" caught a snake in his hat.

Some of our young ladies have recently struck a bright idea. They take a boy to raise, so that when he matures, they are sure to have him. Ward says, "everything has been going very nicely with the exception of once, when they got too loud and father "Jim" had to take a hand in it.

Miss Mame Keller, of Bellefonte, was visiting friends and relatives at this place, last week. Mame is a girl who enjoys having a good time, and by all appearance she enjoyed herself while here. We are always glad to have such young people visit us, as it helps to liven up our town. Clarence Musser, from Spring Mills, says, he "especially enjoyed her visit." Call again Mame.

SOBER ITEMS.

L. P. Smith is doing a big business on his lumber job.

Mr. C. K. Sober, of Lewisburg, was at this place on Saturday last.

Ben Confer went home on Monday and intends to resume his job on Wednesday.

Mr. Gilbert, of Lewisburg, was here last week and framed a carload of props for Mr. Smith.

Mrs. Lewis Rote went to Coburn on Saturday evening to visit friends and take in the festival. Lewis was keeping batchlors hall till Monday morning, when his wife came home again.

On last Tuesday, while William the son of James Immel, was working corn with a young horse, the horse in some means took fright and got unmanageable for the boy. The horse then kicked itself loose and ran towards the barn. Near the barn was a post fence which she tried to jump and broke her neck. It is supposed to be one of his best horses.

PA. FURNACE.

Sunday night a heavy shower passed over this valley.

People who drive their cattle to these pasturing lands had better see to them, as some are hard on fences and will get in trouble if they don't watch.

Miss Mary Seeger, from New York, is visiting at D. H. Kustenbender for the benefit of her health. She has chosen this country thinking it may be a benefit to her. We hope it may.

Rev. M. Goehs, minister from India, who returned a year ago, we see has returned home from a trip to the West and intends to spend the balance of the summer at the old home, with his aged father and sisters.

The Star Ointment company met on the 14th, and have decided to put in new and improved machinery. The trade demands this increase of capacity. This plant is growing rapidly. Star ointment cures all sores.

OAK HALL HAPPENINGS.

Anthony Knoff has erected a new summer house.

Charles Klinger made a short visit here last week.

Jas. Gilliland transacted business in Bellefonte last week.

A number of our people picniced at Pine Grove last week.

The stone crusher is at work in this section of the country.

A number of our farmers have made some hay; always ahead.

Mrs. Wm. Sellers spent last week among friends, at Fillmore.

Jas. Irvin and family, of Snow Shoe, spent Sunday at Anthony Knoff's.

I. C. Gingrich, of Altoona, made a business trip to this place, Monday.

Mrs. Wm. Smithgall, who has been seriously ill for some time is about again.

Mr. J. H. Close sports a new fence in front of his residence, which looks quite gay.

Miss Ida Knoff and Miss Cora Huff, of State College, spent Sunday in this place.

Thos. Gramley is mourning the loss of a pug dog which took his departure last Wednesday. Poor pug.

A number of our people attended the memorial sermon of the late Thomas Williams, of Lemont, last Sunday.

Mrs. Dan'l Weaver was so unfortunate as to fall and break her collar bone. At this writing is slowly improving.

C. J. S., sports a team of mules. We don't know whether or not its safe to tickle their heels or not. Some one try it.

Dan. Lowder is erecting a lime pit on his farm at present, since locating here, this makes the 4th stack for Mr. Lowder who has had considerable experience in this line.

STATE COLLEGE.

Prof. Gill is in Williamsport, on a business trip.

Insurance Agent Lawrence, of Bellefonte, was about town on Tuesday.

Postmaster Thos. Kennedy transacted business in Bellefonte, on Saturday.

Mr. Jos. Thompson has obtained a position with the Baker Forge Co., of Ellwood, Pa.

The College is putting down a new pipe line, to the reservoir, for an emergency, in case of fire.

J. O. Glover, after spending a very pleasant commencement week, has returned to Buffalo Roads.

The commencement company, that remained over in town, seemed to be quite pleased with the village.

What Do the Children Drink?

Don't give them tea or coffee. Have you tried the new food drink called Grain-O? It is delicious and nourishing and takes the place of coffee. The more Grain-O you give the children the more health you distribute through their systems. Grain-O is made of pure grains, and when properly prepared tastes like the choice grades of coffee but costs about 1/4 as much. All grocers sell it, 15c. and 25c.

To do Business, look like it. Dress like a man who has business to do and does it. Only tailor-made clothes have a business appearance, and our made-to-order suits and overcoats are recognized as models of correctness in attire. Our fits are always perfect. With an assortment of woollens embracing everything desirable for this season, our patrons enjoy advantages in the choice of fabrics not offered elsewhere in town. Although we rank first, our prices are moderate.

Jacob Gross, The Fashionable Tailor, High Street, BELLEFONTE, PENNA.

LEGAL NOTICE

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE—Letters testamentary on the estate of Elizabeth Bartges, dec'd late of Gregg Twp., were granted to the undersigned, all persons having claims against said estate are requested to present the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are requested to make payment without delay.

E. E. SMITH, Executor.

Penn Hall, Pa.

AUDITOR'S NOTICE.

In the Orphans' Court of Centre county Pa., in the matter of the estate of Z. T. Williams, late of Walker township, deceased.

The undersigned, an auditor appointed by said Court, to distribute the funds in the hands of Sarah Jane Williams, Executrix, of etc., of said decedent, as appears by her final account, to all among those legally entitled thereto, will sit for the purposes and duties of his appointment on Tuesday the 29th day of June, A. D. 1897, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, at the law offices of Fortney & Walker, Bellefonte, Pa., when and where all parties interested are required to present and prove their claims before the undersigned, or be forever barred from coming in upon the said fund.

W. HARRISON WALKER, Auditor.

June 23, 97.

Bellefonte Markets. Table listing prices for various commodities like Apples, Beans, Butter, etc.

Coburn Markets. Table listing prices for Grain and Produce like Wheat, Rye, Oats, etc.

CENTRE COUNTY BANKING COMPANY. Corner of High and Spring Streets. Receive Deposits; Discount Notes.

NORRIS & HYDE TRANSPOSING PIANOS. Instantly transpose any song to suit any voice. THE ONLY PIANOS which transpose a full chromatic octave.

BICYCLERS SHOULD ALWAYS.... Be prepared for accidents. In such cases, some good COURT PLASTER....

ELECTRIC LINIMENT "gets there" always—it costs only 25 cents. Manufactured only at GREEN'S PHARMACY, BUSH HOUSE BLOCK, BELLEFONTE, PA.

A GOOD FIT as easy, exact, and perfect as possible with a shoe made to order. MINGLE'S SHOE STORE, Bellefonte, Penn'a.