

CORRESPONDENTS DEPARTMENT

The News Gathered From Various Sections

HAPPENINGS IN CENTRE CO

What our Army of Alert Correspondents see and observe worthy of note—The local Happenings of every community will be gladly published—Send the news we will publish it.

MINGOVILLE SCRAPS.

Wm. Harnish, Jr., and Chas. Workman, have purchased new bicycles.

Mrs. Barnhart and family, of Roland, were the guests of Mrs. McMillen on Sunday.

Wm. Robinson and Shuman Zimmerman made a business trip to their former farms in Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. Joel Kline, of Jacksonville, dined at J. T. Dunkles on Sunday. They also took in the children service.

The farmers are busy making hay and there have an abundance of it. There will be very little grain cut in this vicinity before the fourth.

Miss Annie and John Love, of Hubersburg, were calling on friends in this vicinity, on Sunday, also Miss Maggie Struble, of Axemann.

Children services, on Sunday, were largely attended and had an excellent programme, and was principally carried out by the small scholars.

The next big day at the Park is on Saturday the third, held by the Undine Fire company, of Bellefonte. It will likely be one of the largest of the season.

Miss Mattie Dunkle returned home last Friday, on a few days vacation. She holds a position in the book bindery, at Huntingdon, and gets home every six months.

The picnics during the week were largely attended. The ball game on Thursday afternoon did not amount to much, on account of the rain. There are several booked for this week.

The sick in this section are Mrs. Claude Johnson, pneumonia; Mr. Josiah Johnson, sunstroke; Mrs. M. Zong, lagrippe; Mrs. Miller, severe cold; but at this writing are all getting better under the treatment of Dr. McCormick.

Mrs. Wm. Harnish surprised her husband very much on Saturday evening by inviting a number of neighbors in and having a grand supper ready for him to sit down to when he returned home from his week's work, as it was his birthday. He received some very valuable presents.

Educate Your Bowels with Cascarets. Cascarets Candy Cathartic, cures constipation forever. 10c, 25c. If C. C. C. fail, druggists refund money.

PENN HALL.

J. S. Meyer has bought a new Mason & Hamlin piano from M. C. Gephart.

I. W. Bartges transacted business at Rebersburg, last Wednesday.

Everybody is going to celebrate the 4th at Hecla Park on Saturday.

The United Evangelicals contemplate building a new church, after harvest.

W. C. Meyer is building an annex to his house, which makes quite an improvement.

W. A. Brown, of Spring Mills, was chosen to teach our winter term of school.

Jerry Gramley bought a new thrasher engine, and is now ready to wait on the farmers.

Mr. Clark Gramley and wife, of Rebersburg, were visiting in our section last Saturday.

Our farmers have commenced making hay. The hay and grain crop throughout this valley promises to be a good one.

One of our old batchelors contemplates taking a girl to raise. 16 from 45 leaves 29. How is that Charlie? Why not relieve some old maid.

A. E. Zeigler, from Linden Hall, accompanied by his lady friend Miss Martha Goodhart, of Centre Hall, spent Sunday in our midst.

Everybody here is looking and waiting for the advance agent. This advance agent is by no means a bold man, as he shrinks from responsibilities.

To Cure Constipation Forever. Take Cascarets Candy Cathartic. 10c or 25c. If C. C. C. fail to cure, druggists refund money.

WOLFS STORE ITEMS.

Huckleberry pie.

Jeremiah Brumgart bought a new mower.

Cherries are beginning to ripen. There will be many.

John Breon, and son Wm., were to Penn Hall last week on business.

Mr. William Rosser, from Mill Hall, was a guest at D. B. Weaver's over Sunday.

About everybody is engaged in making hay, at this place, this week. The crop is a heavy one.

Mr. I. A. Zeigler contemplates going to Bellefonte and Miesburg in the near future. Wonder why?

Parties desiring to have painting or papering done should give Mr. A. E. Strayer a trial and be convinced.

Wonder why one of our young men came across the mountain from Pennsylvania so early on Sunday morning.

Messrs Herbert and Edwin Brumgart came home from Selingsgrove to spend their vacation and assist in making hay.

Sluttenbeck Bros. will again buy huckleberries to dispose of them at Williamsport market. Parties who desire to sell their berries to them can do so on the mountain, as they will tent and thus save the pickers the hard labor of carrying them down. We have not yet heard their prices.

AARONSBURG.

Miss Theo. Acker has gone to Centre Hall to stay some time.

Thos. Weaver has gone to State College, to work at his trade.

Allen Bower and family spent a few days with friends in Sugarvalley.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence, of Philadelphia, are the guests of D. H. Rote's.

Mrs. Lewis Mensch and son Harry,

Sundayed with friends at Harrisburg.

John Guisevite, of Loganton, Sundayed with his mother of North 2nd street.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Rote, of Coburn, were seen in the burg one day last week.

Harvey Corman and wife, of Rebersburg, spent a day in town as the guests of Mrs. M. J. Deshler.

Quite a number of our people were to Millheim on Sunday evening, to take in the M. E. Childrens service.

Mrs. Mary Condo and Mrs. Maud Overman, of Alexandria, Ind., tarried a few days at the residence of William Condo.

Prof. C. E. Edmunds' school held a picnic on Saturday, the students and many others report of having spent a very pleasant day in the woods.

MILESBURG NOTES.

Miss Phinnetta Jones is visiting Miss Clara Smith, of Unionville.

Charles McLaughlin, of Snow Shoe, was a guest of his mother, last week.

Miss Grace Graffmyre, of Williamsport, arrived home on her wheel, for a visit to her parents.

Mrs. William Haverack is lying in a critical condition. It is said, two inward strokes is the cause of her sickness.

The farmers are busy gathering in their hay crops. Many tons of good hay have been barned during the week.

Mr. Ed Borst, of Freeport, is visiting Wesley Crain and family. An attraction of gravitation. Can you explain, Jennie?

Mr. Eddie Cullen, of Portage, made a visit to this place; something very attractive called him here. How is it, Nannie?

A daughter of David Wyland, Miss Mary, is lying very low with typhoid fever. Dr. H. S. Braught is the attending physician.

Reuben Shaffer, wife and niece, Miss Beula Steele, of Hawk-Eye, Iowa, were guests of Col. James F. Weaver and family recently.

John Grubb and W. C. Kreamer were on the mountain, above the lime kiln, noticed a wild turkey hen with 15 young turkeys. Caught two of the young turkeys. The old hen made a fuss, the young hid among the brush and leaves, and could not find them anywhere.

Patrick Martin, Jr., is visiting his Uncle John Croft and family, of Marsh Creek. He is a home boy, one to stay at home very close. At last he thought he would get a little country air. It is now a year or more since he was from his parental roof. Enjoy yourself Pat.

The M. E. Sunday school are now arranging to have another entertainment in the near future, for the benefit of the school. They purpose raising funds, for seats in the new Sunday school room. Due notice will be given of the time and place of holding the same.

BASE BALL.—On Wednesday, of last week, the Chain-makers and the Junior base ball clubs crossed bats; made things lively for a time. It was a close game to the 7th inning. The Junior's with a will and determination, lead off in good shape. It became so hot that the chewing of the rag came in for its share, and ended in a two-to-one knock-down. That is two brothers pitched into one "small man." The little chaps came out victorious. Score 13 to 8, in favor of Juniors. The fight terminated in favor of the Juniors.

—Photos for less than half-price, for a short time only, at Shaeffer's studio.

LEMONT CULLINGS.

Mr. Haul Bottrof and John Shuey, both have smiles on their faces since the arrival of their daughters.

We are sorry to note the illness of Mr. Henry Eiters, who has been sick for two weeks, but at this writing is improving slowly.

Miss Mary Peters, of Unionville, was visiting over in this town last week and she enjoyed herself. How about Rob, and Ed, did you enjoy her stay?

The grain looks promising and the farmers may rejoice as the crop for years past failures and they could scarcely pay their taxes and expenses.

The farmers are busy with their hay which is an exceedingly large crop this year. John C. Miller expects about seven hundred tons from seven of Col. Reynolds farms.

The Fourth of July is almost here, but a person passing through town would think they were celebrating the Fourth every evening, by the way they are shooting the firecrackers.

Our people, in our quiet little town, were somewhat excited when they learned that those escaped jailbirds were on the mountain. Some were eager to make the hundred dollars reward.

Boys come and join the B. H. C. Meeting, held every Tuesday evening, initiatory degree conferred at the barber shop, fee fifteen cents. Every young man invited to join, that has a good moral character.

Mrs. R. F. Evey has laid in quite a stock of Fourth of July goods. He handles nothing but the very best, so any person wanting the worth of their money call around and see Rob. You may not know him, but if you see a fellow looking bald headed that is the man.

On last Sunday evening the Y. M. C. A. boys from Bellefonte were out here and conducted a meeting in the Methodist church. The building was packed full and enough outside to fill it another time. The Y. M. C. A. boys meetings are something of interest and every person turns out.

The Evangelicals, at this place, had quite an interesting Childrens Day exercise, on Sunday morning last. The recitations were exceedingly well rendered and the singing was very good. The church was filled up before time for opening the exercises, and still they came in from all directions.

ROMOLA RUMBLINGS.

Mr. David Wensel spent last Sunday in our town.

Chas. Daley spent last Sunday at Hunter Run.

Clayton Brickley, of Nittany, was seen in our midst last Monday.

Miss Carrie DeLong made a brief visit to Bellefonte last Tuesday.

Prof. Geo. D. Robb spent last Sunday with his parents in Romola.

Mrs. Amos Shenck, of Jacksonville, visited last week in this vicinity.

Mr. John Poorman and wife, of Marsh Creek, visited last week at Joseph Poorman's in this place.

Miss Mary Ferringer and Allen McKibben of Parvin, Clinton Co., spent Sunday in our midst.

Mrs. D. E. Robb, of Instanter, Elk Co., is spending the summer in this place, at the home of her father-in-law, Mr. Fred K. Robb.

Prof. A. C. Thomson, of Philipsburg, made a business trip to Curtin township last Friday. Mr. Thomson is still in the school text-book business.

Our enterprising black smith W. R. Welch is just completing a new barn. Mr. Welch is one of our able school board and takes an interest in education.

Prof. H. P. Robb attended the Commencement at the Lock Haven Normal this week. Mr. Robb is a graduate of that institution, having been a member of the class '93.

Miss Ella Brickley is at home at present, after an absence of several months in Bellefonte. Her sister Mrs. Maggie Carrier and children, of Brookville, Jefferson county, are also at home on a visit.

Mr. R. C. Daley returned to Romola last Friday, after an absence of about three months. Mr. Daley made his headquarters at Reading taking orders for paint. He is a hustler and knows how to take advantage of "McKinley Prosperity". Clarence says business is on the increase in Reading, which can be proven by a tooth-pick factory beginning operation.

NITTANY ITEMS.

Mrs. William Webner is improving slowly at this writing.

Miss Esta Smith, of Millheim, spent last week with friends here.

Some of our farmers are busy making hay, which is a very good crop.

Mr. A. A. Fletcher made quite an improvement, by painting his yard fence.

Our enterprising blacksmith, Mr. N. C. Shaffer, of this place, is kept very busy at present.

We had quite a refreshing rain last week which made everything look nice and green.

Miss Ida McCaleb has returned to Birmingham where she has been living for some time.

Mrs. H. K. Allison and Miss Minnie Winkleman went to Lock Haven on a visit last week.

Mr. George Young and son, of Mingo-ville, was on our streets one evening last week. Come again.

Mr. Noah and Edward Yearick came home from the woods last week. Ed is very sick at present.

Miss Mable Colby, of Lock Haven, was visiting her aunt Mrs. Rachel Rossman, of this place, last week.

Miss Maud Saltzman has returned home, having visited the Misses Lilly and Jessie McCaleb, of this place.

The band was out one evening last week, three horses became frightened which caused a great excitement for a while.

The editor evidently overlooked the item last week making mention of Miss Dora Shoppe's excellent recitation at our Children's day exercises.

Rev. W. K. Diehl and family came home last week from a four weeks vacation. Some of his members had quite a nice reception for him on his return.

CITIZEN.

HOWARD HAPPENINGS.

Hay making is in full blast this week.

Cherries are ripening slowly and will be plenty.

Lionel Walker fell into the water, while fishing the other day.

Mr. John Baney has just recovered from a sickness of chickenpox.

The people are making preparation to attend the picnic, at Hecla Park, on Saturday the 3rd.

The stove mill has run all the material through on hand, and are ready to fill all orders sent in.

The two beautiful pug dogs, owned by James Lucas, turned mad the other day and had to be shot.

A company of gypsies passed through town on Sunday afternoon. They were traveling eastward.

Alph McCallian went home the other evening from playing ball, with his jaw swelled. He says the ball hit him.

The Y. P. S. C. E. social was well attended on Friday night. The proceeds amounted to ten dollars and some cents.

The brick for the new church were unloaded on Saturday, for the new church. It is expected to be completed by September.

The Howard base ball team were somewhat disappointed on Saturday. They sent several challenges out for a game, but they were all engaged for that time. Give them a challenge.

SPRING MILLS MENTION.

Jeff Heckman, in Georgesvalley, drives one of the finest horses in that section.

Quite a number expect to go to Hecla picnic, next Saturday, for a day's outing.

Our ball team promises to put up a good game next Saturday, at this place, with Rebersburg.

The farmers are busy in the hay fields. It is an unusually large crop. Prices will be low.

C. P. Long and wife spent one day at Hecla Park, attending the Masonic picnic. Reported a good time.

R. G. Kenley lost a fine horse. That makes six or seven horses in the short time that he handled horses.

Wilbur Wagner and wife, of Martha, visited his sister, Mrs. W. H. Smith, also bought his whole outfit of furniture of Smith Bros.

T. B. Jamison is erecting a new porch which will add greatly to his house. Who will be the next. There is room for improvements along that row.

Dr. Allison and son, of Northumberland, spent a few days with his father and many friends. He reports things in that section somewhat quiet.

Frank Snyder and Scott McMatry came home from Cambria co., to spend the fourth with their families. They are engaged in a lumber job, in Cambria county.

BOV.

No-To-Bac for Fifty Cents. Guaranteed tobacco habit cure, makes weak men strong, blood pure. 50c. B. All druggists.

PA. FURNACE.

Our farmers are busily engaged in making hay.

Guy Hillard lost a valuable cow last week, on the railroad.

Wallace Wertz captured nine skunks last week. That is doing a wholesale business.

W. J. Meyers has finished the extension for D. H. Kustenbauder, and it is an improvement to his home.

The Mattern reunion, at Warriors Mark, proved an enjoyable gathering. The attendance was large.

John Bottorf was able to be at the picnic, and greeted his many friends. He has been an invalid for some time.

The picnic at Pine Grove Mills was well attended. Dancing and boating were the principal enjoyments of the day. Benziene was quite plenty, also, and caused many weak knees.

Alfred Barr, of Gatesburg, had a painful accident while cutting paperwood. A stroke of the axe cut off one of his toes and partly severed another. He is getting along nicely from his injuries.

Last Saturday W. Turman crawled under a car to seek shelter from a storm. The wind moved the car and the wheels passed over one of his legs crushing it so badly that amputation may be necessary.

LINDEN HALL.

The farmers are all busy making hay.

Mr. Musser, of Altoona, has been visiting at J. H. Ross' of this place.

The "Jack of Diamonds" has been on the sick list for a few days. Sorry for you, Jack.

Miss Lizzie Poorman, of Oak Hall station, was visiting among friends here last week.

Mrs. J. W. Keller has been improving her property, by digging a new sistent and building a new porch.

Prosperity is coming this way. The L. & T. R. R. will add another man on each section, on the first of July, and also work ten hours instead of nine.

Mr. Frank Tharp left this section on the L. & T. railroad and accepted a permanent position on the tram road as foreman for the Linden Hall Lumber company. We wish you success, Frank.

Reduced Rates Fourth of July.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company announces that for the benefit of persons desiring to take advantage of the National Holiday on the Fourth of July, it will sell excursion tickets between all stations on its line east of and including Pittsburg and Erie; except that tickets will not be sold to or from points north or east of Philadelphia nor to and from points north of the line Harrisburg to Erie. These tickets will be sold and will be good going on July 2, 3, 4, and 5, and will be good to return until July 6, 1897, inclusive.

FOR WOMEN ONLY..

The bargain counter has attractions for women—it is different with the men.

The women prefer the largest assortment to select from, hence they go to the stores to buy—they come to our store because we have everything they want in our line—churns, creamers and other dairy fixtures, including the best house in the market, Sewing Machines, Washing Machines, etc., in great variety.

REFRIGERATORS

Some men prefer to buy goods delivered and patronize the traveling fakir, by whom they are often taken in.

Who ever heard of a woman taken in by a fakir? The men who do not read advertisements monopolize this privilege.

The women read the advertisements and are always on the lookout for the BEST BARGAINS.

The best thing for men to do, those who do not read advertisements, is to authorize their wives and daughters to purchase all the needful articles and they will save money.

When the mothers and daughters want anything in our line, they come to us to buy, for the reason, that they always know where they can purchase the best bargains. We have a free exhibition every working day in the week of everything for the Farm and Garden to which everybody is cordially invited, at our store on High street, Bellefonte, Pa.

McCalmont & Co.

BEEZER'S MEAT MARKET

ALLEGHENY ST., BELLEFONTE.

We keep none but the best quality of Beef, Pork, Mutton, etc. All kinds of smoked meat, sliced ham, pork sausage, etc. If you want a nice juicy steak go to PHILIP BEEZER.

SUMMER CLOTHING At a Sweeping Reduction STRAW HATS: Prices Are Cut In Two Bargains of the Season. PHILAD. BRANCH, S. LEWIN, Manager, BELLEFOTE, PENN'A.

B. & B. YOU'LL BE SURPRISED when you get samples of the wash goods at 8, 10, 12 1-2, 15, and 20c, and note how pretty they are in style and colorings. Look them over carefully—compare them—test them thoroughly—find out how good they are—then see if you aren't surprised at the prices—styles for shirt waists, dresses, and for children's wear.

Of all Throat Disease Terrors In a family none are abhorred more than that of Diphtheria. The only speedy and positive preventative is THOMPSON'S DIPHTHERIA CURE.

Which cures as absolutely as it is cured according to instructions. This is a broad assertion but made without the least fear of contradiction, as those who have used it in their family freely testify.

Embroidered linen batistes 20c—linen color grounds, colored stripes and dots. American dimities, 6 1-4 to 12 1-2c. Zephyr ginghams, 20c kinds, 32 inches wide, 12 1-2c.

And more other kinds nice wash goods than you'd ever expect any large store's collection to contain. Write also for samples of new wash silks at 25 and 35c.

BOGGS & BUHL ALLEGHENY, PA.

PATENTS C.A. SNOW & CO. OPP. PATENT OFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

Don't Tobacco Spit and Smoke Your Life Away. To quit tobacco easily and forever, be magnetic, full of life, nerve and vigor, take No-To-Bac, the wonder-worker, that makes weak men strong. All druggists, 50c or $1. Cure guaranteed. Booklet and sample free. Address: Sterling Remedy Co., Chicago or New York.