

THE STRIKE GROWING.

More Men Join the Ranks of the Idle Miners.

PREDICTION OF A GOVERNOR

West Virginia's Chief Magistrate Thinks the Trouble Will Be Speedily Settled by Arbitration - Debs and Sovereign Willing to Take a Hand.

Pittsburg, July 14.—There is a lull in the miners strike in this district attributable to the fact that nearly every mine in the district is idle. To keep up the enthusiasm and prevent the strikers from becoming lukewarm in the cause, however, the officials have arranged for a series of meetings in different sections every day. Three meetings were held Monday at Barning, Fayette City and West Newton, and at each place resolutions were adopted not to return to work until the officials gave the order.

Yesterday a large meeting was held at Snowden, on the Wheeling division, and the men were unanimous in their determination to stand firm for the 62 cent rate. The miners on this division fear that the company will soon begin evicting them from their houses, and intimate that if this is attempted there will be trouble.

News reached the miners' headquarters yesterday afternoon that the diggers in the Cannel, Warner and Morgan mines, Beaver county, had thrown down their picks and joined the strike. The three pits employ about 300 men. The strike has also spread to Mercer county. Five mines are idle in that region. The men struck for an advance of ten cents per ton. An effort was made yesterday to resume work at the Eagle mine at Monongahela city. It is a co-operative concern, but the sentiment of the majority of the stockholders was against resumption, and it was decided to keep the pit closed until the strike was settled. A delegation from Brownsville says the knob, Beaumont, Empire and Albany mines have closed down, and the miners with a determination to remain out until the question of wages is satisfactorily settled.

Governor Atkinson, of West Virginia, accompanied by his wife and a number of state officials, spent the day in Pittsburg, en route to Canada, where they will attend the convention of the Epworth League. Concerning the miners' strike he said:

"The coal strike is not affecting West Virginia very much, and I do not believe the main body of our miners will go out. I do not anticipate any trouble whatsoever from the strike in our state, and believe the trouble all over the country will be speedily settled by arbitration."

There is a bare possibility that the joint arbitration conference may yet lead to the termination of the miners' strike on the basis of the true and uniform agreement proposed by President DeArmitt, of the New York and Cleveland Coal Gas company, last year, but which failed for the reason that the 97 per cent. of the operators in this district required by DeArmitt could not be secured. Two sessions of the arbitration board were held yesterday, representatives from the states of Pennsylvania, Ohio, West Virginia, Indiana and Illinois being present. At the afternoon session President DeArmitt appeared before the board and told of the conditions which exist from his point of view. He recited the history of the miners' struggles for better conditions. He told of the great uniformity of movement in 1895-96, which failed of its purpose.

It has developed that a number of the operators have been quietly planning a coup which is expected to bring dynamite to the mines. It is the intention to at once equip the mines with machines and do away with a great many diggers. When the mines are ready to start, miners will be imported and put to work under heavy guard, and the premises barricaded. With the co-operation of the other operators, J. A. Beldier, of the Webster Gas Coal company, located on the Monongahela river, will take the initiative. The operators claim this plan becomes necessary because the West Virginia people are gobbling all of their contracts. It goes without saying that the diggers will resort to every possible means to prevent the carrying out of the proposed scheme. The Stickle Hollow tragedy of 1894, when seven striking miners were killed, is likely to be repeated soon.

SOVEREIGN AND DEBS

Both Willing to Take a Hand in the Miners' Strike.

Columbus, O., July 14.—When asked in reference to the proposed action of the officials of the Wheeling and Lake Erie railroad in enjoining the miners from interfering with the operation of their mines President Hatchford said: "If it is lawful for men to cease work and strike against insufficient wages to support them we have violated no law; if it is not lawful we plead guilty. We do not fear to advise men to strike so long as they do so along lawful lines, and therefore we have no fear of the proposed injunction."

President Hatchford said he was confident of bringing out the West Virginia miners. A telegram was received from Grand Master Workman Sovereign, of the Knights of Labor, offering his personal services. Eugene V. Debs will arrive here today to consult with President Hatchford.

A special from Belleaire, O., says: The miners in Schick's mines, on the Baltimore and Ohio road, were yesterday persuaded to stop work, and with the closing of these mines all the miners in eastern Ohio are closed.

Hot at a Spanish Bull Fight.

Barcelona, July 13.—At Sunday's bull fight a riot took place, growing out of an altercation by the management in the announced order of proceedings. The enraged spectators threw sticks, benches and everything portable into the arena, the bull fighters fled in dismay and the gendarmes were compelled to interfere. After some one had fired a revolver the police cleared the ring. Several gendarmes and spectators were seriously injured. The rioters tried to burn the bull ring. Many arrests have been made.

LIGHTNING STRIKES SOLDIERS.

One Killed and Many Injured at New York's Militia Camp.

Pleasantville, N. Y., July 13.—Lightning struck the state militia camp here yesterday afternoon, selecting the Y. M. C. A. tent as its object. One man was killed and many others were badly hurt. The storm was a terrific one, and a great number of the men gathered in the Y. M. C. A. tent, which was commodious and occupied generally by those who had reading or letter writing to do. Suddenly there was a blinding flash of lightning, and in a moment the tent was down and in flames. A general alarm was sounded, and the guardsmen and ambulance corps came at double quick.

Almost every man who had been under the canvas was shocked by the lightning. Corporal J. J. McDonald, Company A, Twenty-second regiment, New York, was dead. Half a dozen of the men were unconscious. The body of Corporal McDonald was the first taken from the mass of ruins. The surgeons worked over it for an hour or more, but their efforts were fruitless. Those who were knocked unconscious were revived, some of them with great difficulty, and one or two of the men are still in a serious condition.

Corporal McDonald lived with his mother in New York, and was 22 years old. He was to have been married next Saturday evening, upon the return of the regiment from camp.

Fatal Tenement Fire. Jersey City, July 14.—Two children were suffocated to death in a burning tenement house in this city yesterday. Their parents are both so badly injured that they may not survive, and a girl of 13 years was probably fatally burned. A policeman sustained burns and inhaled smoke in such quantity that he may die. The fire broke out about 3 o'clock, in the baker shop of Edward Mansur. So filled with smoke were the apartments and halls above the bakery that it was difficult to breathe, but the policemen remained at their posts and succeeded in rescuing many women and children, whom they passed out of windows to firemen on the fire ladders. The dead are Edward Zeigler, 8 months old, and his 12-year-old sister, William Zeigler, father of the child, was driven insane and jumped from a second story window, receiving fatal injuries. His wife also jumped, and may die. Sadie Campbell, 12 years old, was fatally burned.

Refugees From a Cuban Camp. Kingston, Jamaica, July 14.—Twelve Cubans, the last survivors of an insurgent camp in the province of Camaguey, reached Rio Nuevo, a little port on the north side of the island, a few days ago, in an open boat. They were in a terrible condition of exhaustion, as they had been 70 hours in making the passage. The little craft, which had been constructed in the camp, had for their departure, was found to leak in several places, and owing to the high winds and the heavy seas the refugees were compelled to take turns at balling her in order to keep from being swamped. Again and again they were on the verge of destruction, the waves washing over the boat and filling her to the very thwart. It is supposed by the authorities here that some of the names given are fictitious, and that among the party are several important revolutionary leaders who have business in New York, and who are travelling incognito.

Cashier Metkell Arrested. Easton, Pa., July 14.—John B. Metkell, the cashier of the South Bethlehem National bank, who on May 25 absconded, taking with him $10,000 in cash, was arrested Monday at Hot Springs, Ark., through the efforts of County Detective Johnson, of Easton. Metkell and Willis Hoch, the teller, had been stealing for a long time, and when the bank examiner turned up in May they decided to leave at once. Metkell went to the vault and took $10,000. He drove to Catawissa and took a train for the west. Hoch was to have taken the same train, and stole $5,200 in cash. He missed the train, and then broke down and confessed. Altogether Metkell has, it is said, defaulted to the amount of some $30,000. Detective Johnson left here this morning to bring the fugitive east.

A CRIMINAL ROMANCE

Revealed in the Hearing of Alleged Costa Rican Counterfeiters.

FREDERICA MORA'S AMBITION.

He Was to Become President of the Republic Had the Revolution Succeeded, and Would Then Redeem the Alleged Counterfeit Notes.

New York, July 13.—Mrs. Eugenia Reinman was the star witness yesterday when the examination of the four alleged Costa Rican counterfeiters, Louis Hausman, Mrs. Betsy Chevin, Frederica Mora and Herman Dohn, was resumed before United States Commissioner Shields. Mrs. Reinman is also under arrest as one of the counterfeiters, and has turned state's evidence. Yesterday she told all she knew about the alleged counterfeiting of $1,000,000 worth of notes of the Bank of Costa Rica, at San Jose, to assist a revolution to overthrow President Zeledon and the government of Costa Rica. Mora was to be the new president of Costa Rica in the event of the success of the revolution.

Mrs. Reinman said that on March 2 last, Ricardo De Requesens, who owns the Spanish American printing establishment in this city, and who is also under arrest as one of the counterfeiters, went to her room just prior to his departure for New Orleans, on his way to Costa Rica. He had a satchel which she found it packed with 100 pesos notes of the Bank of Costa Rica. The notes were similar to the alleged counterfeit notes which are in the possession of the district attorney. De Requesens said that his mother-in-law, Mrs. Betsy Chevin, had packed it at her home in Long Island City. Afterward, Mrs. Reinman said, she went with De Requesens to his printing place, he carrying the satchel. Mora, Hausman and several other men were there.

"I felt bad about De Requesens going away," said the witness, "and I told Mora that if he was sending De Requesens to his death, Mora told me if I thought that way I ought to go with him to Costa Rica. I asked Mora if he knew what was in the valise, and he pretended that he did not know. Mora accompanied De Requesens and myself to the Pennsylvania station. Then De Requesens took the train for New Orleans. Mora carried the satchel to the station. The next day Mora insisted that I should follow De Requesens to New Orleans, and I did so, meeting De Requesens at the St. Charles hotel in that city. De Requesens had the satchel in his room all the time. Before I left New York Mora gave me a letter, which I handed to De Requesens at New Orleans."

Mrs. Reinman then told of the trip to San Jose, Costa Rica, where they remained two weeks. She and De Requesens then returned to this city. She then continued: "Mora called on De Requesens and myself the next day. I told him about the arrest of Jose Campo on the steamer at Port Limon, Costa Rica, and he exclaimed: 'My God, the government must have got the bill of lading for the sofa.' He referred to the sofa which contained the $500,000 worth of counterfeit Costa Rican bank notes. De Requesens told me of the sofa and its contents when we were together in New Orleans and showed me the bill of lading. De Requesens and Mora had a quarrel, and Mora said that De Requesens had spoiled the game. He said that everything would have been all right if he had carried out his original plan and sent the money to Costa Rica in a piano. Mora was much put out, and said that the revolution was a failure. On May 10 he advised De Requesens and his foreman, Hausman, to leave the city, as he feared they would be arrested."

On cross examination she stated that De Requesens told her that he had made the counterfeit notes for Mora's political business, and that Mora would redeem them when he became president of Costa Rica. When she saw the money in the satchel she was surprised that the two men, who owed her a great deal of money, should have so many bank notes in their possession. She had been supporting De Requesens and Mora for a long time.

Chief Hazen, of the secret service, said today that young Dehn had confessed to him that after the arrest of De Requesens and Mrs. Reinman he became frightened and threw the lithograph stones from which the notes were printed into the North river, near the Pennsylvania ferry slip. The stones were eight in number, and weighed 75 or 80 pounds. Chief Hazen said that he had two divers at work looking for the stones, and that he expected to find them shortly.

Real Tragedy on the Stage. Atlanta, Ga., July 14.—In a play presented by colored amateurs in Pittsburgh, a suburb of this city, Monday night John Singleton acted a part in which he was supposed to be shot dead by his rival, impersonated by Gary Brown. The scene was carried out faithfully, and aroused loud applause, which was turned into lamentation when it was discovered that Singleton was really dead. The pistol Brown used, which was supposed to be loaded with blank cartridges, carried a real bullet instead.

Will Keep Out Mexican Cattle. El Paso, Tex., July 14.—The duty imposed by the new tariff on imported cattle will have a prohibitory effect as far as Mexico is concerned. During the last 24 months in the neighborhood of 500,000 head of cattle have been imported into this country from Mexico, paying to this government about $750,000. The duty on Mexican cattle under the new tariff will range from $4 to $5 per head, while the old duty averaged $1.50 per head.

Dr. Swallow's Charges Renewed. Harrisburg, July 14.—Rev. Dr. S. C. Swallow issues an address declaring that "the evidence submitted to the legislative committee on the origin of the capital fire, showing that it was of incendiary origin, was suppressed by the committee. Strong circumstantial evidence is now in our possession pointing toward the guilty parties. For more direct evidence, that will convict of the crime, we herewith offer $1,000 reward."

Beware Of the Knife.

Mr. Lincoln Nelson, of Marshfield, Mo., writes: "For six years I have been a sufferer from a scrofulous affection of the glands of my neck, and all efforts of physicians—Washington, D. C., Springfield, Ill., and St. Louis failed to reduce the enlargement. After six months' constant treatment here, my physician urged me to submit to a removal of the gland. At this critical moment a friend recommended S.S.S., and laying aside a deep-rooted prejudice against all patent medicines, I began its use. Before I had used one bottle the enlargement began to disappear, and now it is entirely gone, though I am not through with my second bottle yet. Had I only used your S.S.S. long ago, I would have escaped years of misery and saved over $50."

This experience is like that of all who suffer with deep-seated blood troubles. The doctors can do no good, and even their resorts to the knife prove either fruitless or fatal. S.S.S. is the only real blood remedy; it gets at the root of the disease and forces it out permanently. S.S.S. (guaranteed purely vegetable) is a blood remedy for real blood troubles; it cures the most obstinate cases of Scrofula, Eczema, Cancer, Rheumatism, etc., which other so-called blood remedies fail to touch. S.S.S. gets at the root of the disease and forces it out permanently. Valuable books will be sent free to any address by the Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.
