NITTANY ITEMS.

The potato crop is not what it should be.
The peach and apple crop is plenty in our vicinity.

Mr. Joseph Eumrick went to Loganston last week, one evening.
Miss Grace Beck lead Christian Endeavor, on Sunday evening.

Prosperity has not struck our town yet. We hope it will come around soon.

Mr. Samuel Cole and family, of Zion, visited their many friends here over Sunday.

Campmeeting is being held at Loganston. Some of our wheelmen expect to take it in.

Mrs. H. Kate Allison and her sister, Mrs. W. T. Kuecht, spent last week at Eagles Mere.

Rev. W. K. Diehl preached his harvest home sermon, on Sunday morning, to a large crowd.

Miss Pearl Henry, of Mackeyville, visited Miss Lilly McCaleb, on Sunday. Come again Pearl.

The farmers are busy plowing and thrashing their crops, which are very large through here.

Miss Belle Shaffer and Miss Lilly Beck are at present visiting Dr. Adams, of Montgomery.

Mrs. Charles Robb has returned home from a visit with friends in Bellefonte and Milesburg.

Mrs. Agnes Shenefelt, of Birmingham, has returned home, having visited friends here for several weeks.

Miss Marion Rothrock, of Lock Haven, and two Misses Lees, of Renovo, visited friends here last week.

Mrs. Hattie Winkelman and son, of Mackeyville, are visiting the Misses Winkelmans, of this place.

Mr. Herbert Pines, of Lewisburg, visited his many friends here over Sunday. He is an expert wheelman.

Blackberries are pretty plenty on the mountains. The people are carrying them home by the buckets-full every day.

Miss Grace McCintick, of Lamar, was in our town one evening last week. We are always glad to see you, Grace. Come again.

Mr. Harry McCaleb has returned home from the woods, where he has been working. He expects to go back again in a week or so.

Mr. Ben Singer, of Marsh Creek, was in our town last week. He has been working in the woods this summer. We are always glad to see you, Ben.

Mr. Horace Winkelman is giving one of his houses a coat of paint which will improve the looks very much. You should give him a trial at painting.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker and five children, and Miss Lomax and her niece, from Philadelphia, are spending part of the summer, boarding with Mrs. Alice Robb.

Rev. Winters preached a very able sermon, on Sunday morning, and evening at the chapple. He expects to be with us again next Sunday. Let everybody turn out.

The festival, held here last week, was a grand success. The evening being beautiful, every body seemed to enjoy themselves very much. The exact amount has not been mentioned yet. It will be given next week.

Mr. S. W. Showers has in his yard a wonderful flower, called Night Blooming Series, as it blooms only at night. It attracts large crowds in the evening to watch it bloom. The flower opens between 9 and 12 o'clock. It is a beautiful flower.

Mr. Frank, the carriage maker of Millheim, is a first class workman. You should give him a trial as he can make a new buggy out of an old one. We have a sample of his work right in our town. If you don't believe it go and see Mr. A. A. Pletcher's buggy, he can tell you all about it.

WEDDING: At six o'clock, on Wednesday evening August 18th, at the home of the bride, Prof. E. A. McKibben, from Mackeyville, was happily married to Miss Jessie McCaleb, the charming daughter of Mr. S. R. McCaleb, of Nittany, Pa. Miss Lilly McCaleb, sister of the bride and Miss Mary McKibben, sister of the groom, acted as brides maids, Master Eugene McCaleb as page. Miss Mary Eldred, of Mackeyville, beautifully rendered the wedding march. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. S. Long, pastor of the Christian church, of Lock Haven. The parlor was tastefully decorated, the bride presented a handsome appearance, being attired in white organdy. After congratulations, refreshments were served. The happy couple were then accompanied to the eight o'clock train by a large number of friends. They boarded the train amidst showers of rice, for an extended tour through eastern cities. Nearly a hundred guests were in attendance. The presents were numerous and useful. Prof. McKibben is principal of the schools at Saloua, where they will probably make their future home. We wish Mr. and Mrs. McKibben a happy prosperous life.

PINE GROVE ITEMS.

Grandmother Sausaman, who has been quite ill for some time, is improving slowly.

Jessie Piper spent a few days visiting his parents at Alexandria, Huntingdon county, Pa., recently.

Pine Grove Mills—Keller, I. N. Krebs, C. Hartwick, P. Kepler, I. H. Heberling, J. J. Krebs, S. Bailey, J. B. Gross, C. Weaver, Jr.

QUITE SAD:—Moris Shull is lamenting the loss of a fine bicycle. It appears that he sold the wheel to a certain young man, the name of which we will not give at this time. Promised to pay for it the next day, but strange to say, neither the wheel nor buyer have yet returned. We presume they are both off for the Klondyke.

AT BUFFALO:—Among those who are taking in the sights at Buffalo, from this place, are as follows: A. G. Archey, W. H. Fry, Stewart Bailey, N. T. Krebs, M. E. Heberling, Fred Meyers, Edward Meyers, John W. Fry, John Snyder, J. Homan, Gorden Harper and James Ward. We bespeak for them all a very pleasant time.

AN ACCIDENT:—Master Charley Meyers, a few days ago, met with what might have been a much more serious accident. While riding a colt after the cows, through some cause the colt became frightened, throwing him off, his feet became entangled in the reins and was dragged for a considerable distance back to the barn. Fortunately Charley was not injured beyond a badly skinned nose and a few other slight bruises.

A game of ball between The Crescents, of Tyrone and Pine Grove team furnished amusement the remainder of the afternoon. Resulting in a score of 14 to 10, in favor of the Pine Grove boys. The ball team of Pine Grove hereby extends their hearty thanks to the boys of Baileyville, for the kindness that was shown them, but say that the next time they play ball there it must be with a team that is not afflicted with the terrible malady (chronic kickers). The names of the players were as follows: Tyrone—Smith, C. B. Closson, 2b; Batesman, ss; R. Closson, 3b; Myers, lf; Plummer, p; Crofford, 1b; Brooks cf; Ray, rf.

BIG PICNIC:—The picnic held at Baileyville, under the auspices of the P. O. S. of A., was a grand success, there being upwards of 1500 people present. All the amusements that were billed, came off in fine style, precisely at 1.30 p. m. The fantastic parade, headed by the calathumpian drum corps, made its appearance and furnished amusement sufficient to last the average individual a month. The principal feature of the parade was a realistic representation of the ridiculous appearance of women on wheels. Next was the bicycle race between Wm. Wertz, of Spruce Creek, Jas. Ward, of Pine Grove and Ross Gilford, Altoona. Wm. Wertz received first honors with Jas. Ward second, by half a wheel length.

SUDDEN DEATH:—The people of the community were much shocked to hear of the sudden death of Mrs. Walker, of Fairbrook, Sunday morning 22nd. Mrs. Walker had been suffering from dysentery for some time, but no serious results were entertained until a few hours before her death. She leaves to mourn her loss three daughters and four sons: Miss Clara and Levi, at home; Mrs. Myers, of Virginia; Mrs. Hettlinger, of Boalsburg; ex. sheriff Miles W. of Bellefonte; Stine, of Stormstown. The deceased was a consistent member of the Methodist church, at Fairbrook, at which place interment took place on Tuesday at 1.30 p. m. The deceased was between 70 and 80 years of age. We extend to the bereaved family our sincere sympathy.

WALKER NOTES.

Mr. Josiah Hoy expects a large peach crop.

Miss Lizzie Hite, one of Pittsburg's fair maidens, spent a week at this place as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Hite.

Mrs. Jennie Hoy, of near this place, returned home on Tuesday, of last week, after spending three weeks at South Chester.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman, of Philadelphia, are visiting at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Holmes, Sr., of this place.

Miss Emma Hoy, of near this place, and James J. Vonada, were united in wedlock on Thursday, August 12th, by Rev. Runkle in the presence of a large number of friends. The boys who are always on the alert for such occasions rendered them a serenade in the evening. The writer of this wishes them many years of prosperity and happiness.

DEATH:—Merl Edgar Shamp departed this life August 20, 1897; he was born September 2, 1895; youngest child of James and Rachel Shamp of this place. Dysentery was the cause of his death. Funeral took place the following Sunday afternoon, at 10 o'clock. Interment was made in the Evangelical cemetery at this place. Rev. Sechrist preached the sermon in the Evangelical church.

Albert, youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Russell, at this place, died August 10th. Funeral took place the following Friday afternoon, in the advent church, four miles North of Milesburg. Interment in the cemetery at that place; he was aged 1 year, 7 month, 23 days. Rev. Zeigler of that place conducted the services.

"This lovely bud, so young and fair called hence by early doom. Just came to show how sweet a flower in Paradise would bloom."

The funeral of Mrs. David Sayers, occurred at this place, on Wednesday August 18th at 11 o'clock a. m., from her father's residence, Mr. D. K. Miller, of Lock Haven. The funeral services were held in the Reformed church at this place by Rev. Derr, of Lock Haven, assisted by Rev. Runkle, of Hubsburg. Deceased was aged 90 years, was a member of the Reformed church at this place for a number of years. Cancer was the cause of her death. She resided at this place until the death of her husband, which occurred over a year ago, when she went to Lock Haven to live with her parents. She was a bright young woman, her genial disposition won her many friends, who will miss her much. The remains were taken to the Evangelical cemetery, where she was laid to rest beside her husband. No children survive her. To the parents and friends in their bereavement we extend our heartfelt sympathy.

MINGOVILLE SHORTS.

The corn crop looks very promising, also the potato crop.

Picnics are numerous at the park. There were five during last week.

Curt Johnston and family, of Bellefonte, Sundayed at Joseph Dunkle's.

We had a very heavy rain here on Monday night. It was a welcome visitor.

Some of the farmers have threshed their seed and report a good yield of wheat.

Charles Ogden and sister, of Clearfield, are visiting at their grandmother's, Mrs. Varrell.

Mrs. Edward Evers was very sick, but is now much improved, by the aid of Dr. McCormick.

M. Zong returned on Saturday from a two week's trip in the eastern counties. He reports times very dull.

P. H. Zong is busy getting a stock of bushel baskets made for the farmers this fall. They are of the very best quality and well made.

The overseers, Guiser and Gentzel, took a trip to Lewistown to look after the township's interest. They always watch such matters up closely.

The picnic held by the Sunday school, in Zimmerman's grove, on Saturday, was well attended by the school and community and all had a very enjoyable time.

Mrs. Sarah Hinds, formerly of this place, but now of Lock Haven, is spending a couple of weeks with her son, Samuel, on the old homestead, at the mountain.

Henry Dunkle, of Lock Haven, spent a few days with his son, J. P. Dunkle. He will be 80 years old on the 29th day of September and is as smart on his feet as many at sixty years.

Bergstesser, the photographer, of Hubsburg, took a picture on the day of the Business Mens Picnic, of which kind he has never taken any in his many years of experience. It was four generations, all males, and all the oldest of the families: Henry Dunkle, father; J. F. Dunkle, son; D. M. Dunkle, grandson; Henry Dunkle, great-grandson.

REBERSBURG RUMBLINGS.

Mr. Joseph Bierly traded horses, last week.

Our schools will open on the 20 of September.

Mrs. H. H. Miller is again very sick, seems there can be no relief.

What will be next? Colored camp is broken up. What will some of our people do.

Mr. Withers, of the Bloomsburg Normal, is enjoying the hospitality of Jos. K. Moyer's home.

Mr. Erastes Burkett and Mr. Ed Jordan, of Chicago, are visiting relatives and friends in town and vicinity at present.

Several of our townsmen are taking in the encampment, at Buffalo, this week. Others are going to Williams Grove later in the week.

The "Colored Campmeeting" was rather largely attended on Sunday, but, the campmeeting, at Booneville, somewhat drew the crowd that way.

Willis Weber, on the committee for camp, seems to have important business in Venango county at present. No doubt some of the others of the committee would like to be out there too.

BASE BALL:—The base ball game, on Saturday afternoon resulted as follows: Rebersburg—Battles 1, Reigler 1, Tilbury 2, Weber 1, Krape 1, Weber 1, Zeigler 2, Webster 0, Hosterman 0—9 runs. Spring Mills—Ross 0, McCormick 1, Thomas 1, Rhule 1, Beatty 2, Bartley 2, Hosterman 2, Gettig 3, Runkle 1—13 runs. There was considerable wrangling. It seems some of the Spring Mills boys had too much in their noses. Had not the constable been on the grounds there undoubtedly would have been some "knock outs." Our boys should practice more, or not play with other teams. The writer does not want to find fault with our boys playing because they did well, considering the practice. After the game the umpire's decision was 9 to 0 in favor of Rebersburg, owing to the fact that they played only seven innings, instead of 9. According to rules nothing stops the game but rain or darkness. The captains say they decided to play only seven innings, but that does not suffice. The umpire must also agree. Therefore the game stands 9 to 0 in favor of Rebersburg.

SOBER ITEMS.

L. P. got his ice dam complete, but no water in it yet.

The dance at this place, was well attended on Saturday eve.

Confer Bro's are making good progress on their new top buggy. Boys don't get discouraged.

A number of our people were to Jacob Weinard's sale, on Saturday last. Benj. bought a lantern and washing machine.

Mrs. Lydia Frank, of Aaronsburg, accompanied by another lady, were the guests of Samuel Wolfe who was confined with heart disease, but is slowly improving.

SURPRISE PARTY: On last Saturday, Aug. 21., a surprise party was made for Daniel West, residing about two miles south west of this place. The party was for the support of the above, who had a paralytic stroke about four years ago, and was confined and disabled from work ever since. For his support his relatives and many friends resolved to show their respect in this way. Cakes of all description and many delicious fruits were brought by the people, so as to set a wonderful feast before the aged man, thinking that this might be the last feast that he would enjoy in this world. Also a large number of presents were received by Mr. and Mrs. Breou, for which they returned many thanks. Oh their departure there were tears shed by a number of the guests and especially by Mr. and Mrs. Breou, knowing that this would be the last time they would meet in such a joyful crowd. Let this be followed by some of the other people who are deserving of such respectable honor, before they are called away. A corps does not enjoy the feast prepared by the people on the day of their burial.

COBURN CULLINGS.

L. P. Corman made a business trip to Bellefonte on Monday.

As the weather proves fair, farmers are plowing at present.

J. F. Garthoff is transacting business, at Bellefonte, this week.

Mrs. Emma Vonada and daughter are spending a few days at Rebersburg.

Isaac Smith and wife, of Farmers Mills, spent last Sunday with Henry Kling.

A number of our citizens left on Sunday morning for campmeeting, at Rebersburg.

Henry Beachie and family, of Millinburg, are visiting at this place, as the guest of Samuel Evert.

The best paper in the county is THE CENTRE DEMOCRAT. Invest a dollar and keep posted. Don't borrow your neighbor's.

A. B. Meyer, and his charming young wife, arrived home Monday evening from Atlantic City. Tammie, Kitsel mich met.

Mr. James Harter and wife, and Mr. J. F. Garthoff, returned home Saturday evening's train, after visiting friends at Poe Mills.

What has become of our No. 2 correspondent of this place? Is he taking a Rip Van Winkle nap, or has he gone to the new gold fields?

Next Saturday our three Sunday schools will have a picnic in J. W. Kerstetter's grove. Give the young and old folks a day of enjoyment.

LINDEN HALL.

Rufus Lee, of Potter's bank, was visiting in our town over Sunday.

Miss Bell Brown, of Boalsburg, Sundayed, with Miss Jennie Weibly.

Mr. and Mrs. Alf Lee and daughter, of Boalsburg, spent Sunday at this place.

The bushmeeting which was held in the grove near the mill dam was quite largely attended.

Miss Lizzie Poorman, of Oak Hall, was the guest of Mrs. Wm. Raymond, of this place, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Myer and daughter, Miss Vernie, of Centre Hall, were the guests of Mr. Ed Myer and family over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gabe. Buchner nee, Mary Huss, of Philadelphia, formerly of this place, spent the past week at the home of John Weibly.

Last Friday evening the fire at State College raised quite an excitement here, as it was supposed to be but a short distance from this place.

WOODWARD NOTES.

Dr. Clark, of Iowa, is visiting friends in this section.

C. M. B. Huss, of Spring Mills, was the guest of N. W. Eby's over Sunday.

James Mowery had the misfortune of breaking his leg, while with his father was hauling logs.

C. W. Hosterman and family occupied a tent at the campmeeting, held near Loganston over Sunday. W. M. Ketter, John Fultz and Guy Vonada also enjoyed the pleasure of tenting.

A very quiet wedding occurred at the residence of James Weaver, on last Thursday morning, when Miss Tammie was joined in holy wedlock with Mr. Oscar Meyer. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. J. Lohr. The couple left for Atlantic City, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Orndorf.

MANY THINK!

when the Creator said to woman, "In sorrow shalt thou bring forth children," that a curse was pronounced against the human race, but the joy felt by every Mother when she first presses to her heart her babe, proves the contrary. Danger and suffering lurk in the pathway of the Expectant Mother, and should be avoided, that she may reach the hour when the hope of her heart is to be realized, in full vigor and strength.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

so relaxes the system and assists Nature, that the necessary change takes place without Nausea, Headache, Nervous or Gloomy Foreboding of danger, and the trying hour is robbed of its pain and suffering, as so many happy mothers have experienced. Nothing but "Mother's Friend" does this. Don't be deceived or persuaded to use anything else.

"Mother's Friend" is the greatest remedy ever put on the market, and all our customers praise it highly.—W. H. KING & CO., Whitewright, Tex. Of druggists at $1.00, or sent by express on receipt of price. Write for book containing valuable information for all Mothers, mailed free. The Bradford Regulator Co., Atlanta, Ga.
