DISTINGUISHED DEAD.

Editor Charles A. Dana Succumbs After Several Months' Illness.

G. M. PULLMAN'S SUDDEN DEATH.

The Eminent Parlor Car Manufacturer Retired in His Usual Health, and in the Early Morning Lapsed Into Final Unconsciousness

New York, Oct. 18 .-- Charles A. Dana, editor of the New York Sun, died at his home in Glen Cove, L. I., at 1:20 o'clock yesterday afternoon

Mr. Dana's death had been expected for several hours, and his family and physicians were at his bedside when the end came. His condition had been such for several months that the members of his family had kept themselves in constant readiness to go to his bedside at any moment. On Saturday morning he had a relapse, and it was apparent that recovery was impossible. Several times, however, he rallied, but toward night he began to sink. During the night there were feeble rallies, but they did not last long. Yesterday morning it was seen that the end was but a few hours off, and his attendants remained almost constantly at his bedside. The end came quietly,

The extreme heat of Saturday and Friday had much to do with hastening the end.

The cause of Mr. Dana's death was cirrhosis of the liver. On June 9 he was at his office apparently strong and healthy. The next day he was taken ill, and he never afterward visited New York.

Mr. Dana was born at Hinsdale, N. H., on Aug. 8, 1819, and when 16 years old entered Harvard college, but was compelled to leave college in his junior year, owing to an affection of the eyes. Soon afterward he went to Buffalo and entered a mercantile house, but soon gave this up and ontered the socialistic community known as Meadow Brook Farm, at Roxbury, Mass., among his associates being Nathaniel Hawthorne. Margaret Fuller, George Ripley and George William Curtis. Deciding the the physician arrived. He died soon after. The cause of his death was angina pectoris. The death of Mr. Pullman, besides leaving a vacancy in the Pullman car directorate, also causes a similar con-dition of affairs in the board of directors of the Chicago Telephone company.

He was represented on the New York Biscuit and Diamond Match boards by his son-in-law, Frank Louden.

body servant and sent for a physician,

It is believed in stock exchange cir-cles that Horace Porter will succeed Mr. Pullman as president of the Pullman Palace Car company.

Mr. Pullman's fortune is variously estimated at from $12,000,000 to $30,000,-

George Mortimer Pullman was born in Chautauqua county, New York, March 3, 1837, educated in the common schools, and while at school was taught the art and mystery of cabinet making by his elder brother. He worked at his trade and did chores in a country ing of a 32-caliber revolver, of which store for a time, and when 23 years old two chambers had been fired, at the went into the business of moving and bottom of the chimney. The pistol was raising houses. In 1859 he settled in thrown into the chimney through a Chicago at the same business, and a stove hole in the room in the third few years later invented the palace story, which had been occupied by car, which has given him worldwide Shaw. The police also claim to have Pullman.

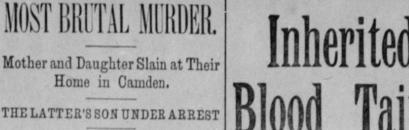

Death of Admiral Worden. Washington, Oct. 19.-Admiral John L. Worden, retired, died in this city yesterday. He commanded the Monitor during its engagement with the Merrimac in Hampton Roads during the late war. In 1836 he was retired with the full rank and pay of an admiral, the only instance of the kind. He also received the thanks of congress for his gallantry during the war. Pneumonia was the immediate cause of Admiral Worden's death. He was 80 Admiral Worden's death. He was 80 with friends of the family who were years of age, and up to last Saturday there to attend the double funeral. It was in very good health. Then the dis-ease from which he died developed from a cold.

Brutal Treatment of an Englishman May Cause, Complications.

London, Oct. 20 .- The Daily Chronicle this morning, commenting upon the death in Cuba last week of W. Hughes, correspondent of Black and White, of ren to half carry the staggering young London, who is said to have starved to death in the streets of Havana after the death room he collapsed completely having been maltreated and robbed by a party of Spanish guerillas, says: "If the story of his death is true fresh execration of Spanish action will arise. and the British government may have something to say."

Hughes was found dead on the Prado, Havana, last Thursday night. He had recently visited Pinar del Rio with a pass from the military governor. It is said that while there a party of Spanish guerillas, in broad daylight and in the presence of Spanish officers, assaulted him and robbed him of everything he had except his clothes. Charged With Killing the Women Who Had Just Nursed Him Through a Typhold Fever Illness-Declares His Innocence Over Their Dead Bodies.

Camden, N. J., Oct. 16 .- Eli Shaw was taken into custody by the police officials yesterday afternoon and formally charged with the murder of his mother Mrs. Sarah Shaw, and grandmother

Mrs. Emma Zane, which occurred in this city Tuesday morning. The newly discovered evidence included the findfame. In 1880 he founded the town of discovered bloodprints on the floor of Shaw's room and on his night shhirt. Prosecutor Jenkins says the motive was to secure his grandmother's little prop erty. When arrested Shaw was entertaining his sweetheart, Miss Neilson whom he was to have married today.

Camden, N. J., Oct. 18 .- Ell Shaw, th young man who is charged with kill ing his mother and grandmother juy after they had nursed him through a slege of typhold fever, was on Saturday taken from his cell to his late home where lay the dead bodies of his alleged victims. The room was crowded has not been the fate of many to witness a more harrowing or dramatic scene. Distressing as it was, it had no effect in wringing a confession from the prisoner, as was expected, but although it materially contributed to the wrech of his nervous system, it only strength eacd his declaration that the blood of his mother and grandmother was not upon his hands.

It was necessary for the two police man into the house. When Ell entered and it required the efforts of both th policemen to keep him on his feet. "My God! My God!" he cried. "Oh. God knows I wouldn't harm a hair of their heads. What have I done that they should accuse me of such a horrible crime! How, how could I do such a thing as they accuse me of when you were both so good and kind to me?" Turning to the bier of his mother the dramatic climax was reached. 'Speak! oh, speak to me, mother!" he solbed "Tell them that I am innocent! Oh, my Gcd! I am innocent! I am innocent: Muttering these protestations the

After the war he and others established a daily paper in Chicago, but he soon sold out his interest the paper and returned to New York, where a sufficient sum was subscribed to buy for him the New York Sun, with which paper he was connected to the day of his death.

Mr. Dana was nearly 50 years of age before he began, of his own experience. to know the luxury of wealth. When he went to The Tribune as managing editor his salary was $12 a week, and he was 45 years of age before he had received more than $50 a week. The royalties on his book of household poetry and upon Appleton's cyclopedia brought three minutes duration. The Swiss govhim a larger income than that, although this money came to him mostly after he became editor of The Sun. In his latter years Mr. Dana received $50,-000 a year from The Sun and handsome dividends upon the stock, a majority of which he controlled.

GEORGE M. PULLMAN'S DEATH. The Well Known Inventor a Victim of Angina Pectoris.

Chicago, Oct. 20 .- George M. Pullman died suddenly of heart disease at 5 o'clock yesterday morning in his magnificent brown stone home at the corner of Prairie avenue and Eighteenth street, where he has resided for many years.

Mr. Pullman retired Monday evening apparently in his ordinary health, and there was no indication of his demise. or indeed any premonition even of illness.

Mr. Pullman was at his office in the Pullman building up to 5 o'clock Monday afternoon attending to business. Nothing unusual was noticed in his appearance. Mrs. Pullman was not at home when her husband passed away, she being absent in New York. She was apprised of the death of her husband, and at once left for Chicago, arriving here today, accompanied by her two sons, George and Sanger.

While seemingly in good nealth, Mr. Pullman had been complaining during the last three or four days of the hot spell and feeling rather uncomfortable. At 4.30 yesterday morning he called his

The cost of telephones is $80 a year in Paris and $40 to $60 elsewhere in France, and each subscriber contributes towards obtaining connection with the system. In Switzerland the charge is $8 per year and one cent for each conversation of to the position of Eli Shaw. The friends ernment operates the telephones.

The Manhattan Island Tunnel,

New York, Oct. 19 .- The plan for building a railroad tunnel from Brooklyn to Jersey City under Manhattan Island is progressing. The plans for the scheme contemplate a tunnel ranging in depth from 3 to 130 feet from the Flatbush railroad station, under the East and North rivers, to Jersey City. The tunnel is to be 22 feet 8 inches wide, and 501/2 feet high. It will contain a double track railroad, which is to be operated by electricity. The tunnel will also be lighted by electricity

Morgan on Annexation.

San Francisco, Oct. 20 .- Senator Morgan and his daughters and F. M. Hatch, the new minister from Hawaii, were among the passengers who arrived from Honolulu on the steamship Belgic yesterday. Senator Morgan was more than ever enthusiastic on the subject of annexation, and intimated that Hawaii may become a part of this country before the close of the coming year. He says the annexation of the islands is absolutely indispensable.

The police are now scouring Camden five chambered revolver with which the murder is said to have been committed was purchased. Shaw denies that burden of proof that it did now rests setback. Miss Nellson, Shaw's fiancee will soon come into possession of $7,000. of which Shaw is well aware. It is also known that Shaw had no pressing need of money.

Camden, N. J., Oct. 20 .- There has been a revulsion of feeling in regard of the accused man are beginning to make their influence felt, and it is a fact that they have men working upon two clews which may develop important evidence that will lead to other arrests. Attention is called to the fact that a number of people were permitted to ransack the house after the murders, any one of whom might have manufactured evidence against Eli. The chief of police was told of these things and he admitted that the public prosecutor had weakened his case by allowing these people to remain in the house Coroner Lippincott openly expresses the opinion that Shaw is not the murderer.

Shaw has been formally committed by Justice Stackhouse for the alleged killing of his mother and grandmother. He was at once conveyed to the county jail at Sixth and Federal streets. The formal complaint was made by Chief of Police Dodd.
