

THE RACKET

This "Brownie" is a rainbow chaser. He has heard the story of the "Pot of Gold" at the end of it and is going on a fool's errand to find it. He is like the fellow that has read some of the advertisements...

Some of our forenoon farmers are done husking corn. The assessor has been around and made the fall assessment. Squirrels are reported to be plenty this year, along the mountain.

North Window—Boy's Suits and Nobby Caps. Prices talk out loud. Brooms—Broom Corn is higher, but a big lot of Brooms bought before the advance...

AIKEN'S STORE.

LEMONS.

Some of our forenoon farmers are done husking corn. The assessor has been around and made the fall assessment.

Mr. John Lambert and wife, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with Henry Eiters. Harry Eckenroth and Jennie Noll, both of Pleasant Gap, spent Sunday at Mr. Hermanns.

Mr. Frank Mayes was over at Julian, the beginning of the week, putting up some granite work.

Miss Stella Zerby, one of Millheim's pleasant young ladies, was in our town on Sunday evening.

Rev. Black held communion services in the Reformed church, at Houserville, on Sunday morning, last.

George Scholl, of near Houserville, was to Pittsburgh and bought some cattle, which he intends to feed.

Miss Verdie Bathgate is home for a short time from Williamsport, where she is attending a business college.

Mr. Cota, the Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in Bellefonte, was in town on Monday evening. He has a Bible class here.

Next Tuesday will be election day, and every democrat should make it a point to be out.

SCHOOL REPORT. The following is a report of school in College township, for month ending Oct. 22nd.

Mr. John Hess and wife, of Fiedler, visited A. J. Stover, on Sunday.

K. H. Stover, of Williamsport, was in town transacting business on Monday.

Miss Alma Vonada, of Rebersburg, was home on Sunday to visit her parents.

Mr. Scott Burd, of Bellwood, made a pleasant visit over Sunday, at this place.

Prof. Ed. Wolf and lady, of Aaronsburg, visited friends at this place, on Sunday.

Peter Kesler and wife, of Rebersburg, were guests of John Garthoff on Sunday afternoon.

We are informed of a new store to start up in our town next Spring.

Daniel Hosterman and wife made a pleasant visit in town on Sunday, as the guest of James Harter.

Mr. Wm. Hosterman, of Bucyrus, Ohio, arrived home last week to visit his parents and spend the winter.

John Stonebraker's child which had been very sick the last few days, died Monday night. The remains were laid to rest in the Aaronsburg cemetery, on Wednesday afternoon.

Merchant W. C. Krader received a fine lot of millinery goods the other day and has also secured the service of Miss Shoemaker, of Lewistown, to wait on his customers.

This week apples will be trump at Zion. Mr. Hoy, of Habersburg, will load a car of cider apples.

Rev. Lambert preached a very able sermon on Sunday afternoon, in the Reformed church, at that place.

Mr. Diehl, of Howard, will fill a car or two of winter apples and Mr. Woomey, of Bellefonte, will also load a car of winter apples.

Mrs. J. G. Royer is improving her property by giving the house and barn a good painting.

Next Tuesday is election and we would like to see every democrat at the polls. It is very important to come out and vote, as our State Treasury needs some good honest man to take care of our money.

Wm. Clevestine had eight hundred bushels of hand-picked winter apples. Billy is a staunch democrat and don't believe that the Dingley bill, Mark Hanna or McKinley had anything to do with the quantity or quality of his apples.

HOWARD HAPPENINGS.

Mr. Claud Moore was home over Sunday. Mr. R. P. Long was to Bellefonte on Monday.

Joseph Diehl loaded another car of apples on last Friday. Mrs. Sude Knoll is visiting friends at Clearfield, at this writing.

Mr. Joseph Diehl made a business trip to Bellefonte on Thursday. Miss Nellie Burns has just returned from a short visit to Milton.

Miss Wilson, of Walker, was a guest of Wm. Moyer's, the past week. Messrs. Wm. and E. C. Deitz made a business trip to Bellefonte on Monday.

Mr. Stewart, of Tyrone, was a guest of Wm. Thomas on Tuesday and Wednesday. Mr. Wm. Castard, the enterprising paper hanger, of Lamar, was in our town on Tuesday.

Mr. McClintic, of Centre Hall, representing the Tyrone Candy Co., was in our town on Wednesday. The burglars are getting very bold in this place.

Mr. Albert Irvin, of Walker, was over in our town on Tuesday and gave the man an order for a fine suit of clothes. Mr. Samuel Loder, the enterprising huckster of Flemington, took dinner with his brother, Wm. Loder, of this place, on Friday.

Mr. Wm. Mayes was to Port Matilda, Unionville and Martha on Monday and Tuesday looking up his trade in that section.

Wm. Mayes went to Houserville on Thursday to help his father, Mr. J. B. Mayes, to put up some granite work at Port Matilda.

Mr. Rob Cook has just completed rebuilding the barn, or rather remodeling the old barn on his farm, about one mile west of this place.

The members of the Evangelical church had a jolly good time on last Friday evening by gathering at the home of Rev. Sechrist.

Mr. W. H. Long, of this place, and Mr. John M. Long, of Tyrone, was attending court at Lock Haven, the past week. There appears to be a suit in court between Clinton Co. and the Pike Co., of which John M. Long is president and manager.

Mr. Edward Packer, an old resident of Boggs township, residing about four miles northwest of Curtins, had the misfortune while unloading a barrel of cider from his wagon one day last week, to have his left hand lacerated and torn to such an extent that when brought to Dr. McEntire's office for surgical treatment, the Doctor found it necessary to amputate the second finger.

The finger was badly torn and required a number of stitches in its treatment. He is reported to be getting along alright.

The record of the last legislature is enough to make many a republican hesitate on election day.

ZION EVENTS.

Mr. Clayton Kauffman, who is teaching at Penn's Cave, spent Sunday with his parents. Mrs. Mary Robb, of Nittany, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cole.

Mr. Harry Johnson and his lady friend of Salona, Sundayed with friends in this place. Call again. Miss Minnie Showers, at present, is visiting friends at Buffalo Run.

Mr. Abner Noll and family, of Pleasant Gap, spent Sunday at the home of Samuel Decker, also Miss Minnie Twitmyer.

We are glad to note Mr. William Vonada, who had been sick for several weeks with typhoid fever, is able to be around again.

Last Saturday evening a surprise party was held at the home of Mr. Edwin Gehpart, in honor of his son Elmer. They all report a very pleasant time, especially when the taffy was brought around.

LITTLE BOV.

WOODWARD ITEMS. The pheasant and the squirrel! Where are they? If the squirrel does not come down, Window goes up—the tree.

Apples are not abundant, but nevertheless there are some for sale. The protracted meeting in the United Evangelical church, is still in progress.

By all accounts, the chestnut crop, in this section, was very limited this season. The friends of Mrs. Ketter had a surprise party for her last Thursday evening.

Messrs. Weber, Stover and Meyer, of Rebersburg, visited S. M. Weber's on Sunday. Mrs. Samuel Motz, who has been very sick for some time, is at this writing somewhat better. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Vote for J. J. Hoy for Jury Commissioner and J. H. Wetzel for County Surveyor. They are Bryan democrats.

SOBER ITEMS.

Lewis Rote sports the dandy horse, at present. He is a prize winner. Mrs. Samuel Gong was visiting friends in this place over Sunday.

It seems strange that Jerry don't appear in this place, since Cora left. Mrs. Emory Cupps was visiting her parents J. B. Musser and left for Sugar valley, on Tuesday.

J. P. Wolfe wasn't a bit surprised when he received a message that he is again father of a little girl, which appeared last week one day. D. D. Smith, of this place, died at his home on Friday morning, about three o'clock. He was buried on Sunday, in the Heckman cemetery. Rev. Brown officiated.

STATE COLLEGE NOTES.

Miss Nellie O. Patterson is visiting friends in Harrisburg. Mr. Jno. W. Stuart having resigned as street commissioner, Mr. T. Wilson Way was elected as his successor.

Mrs. S. M. Sankey, of Philipsburg, is visiting at the Garner homestead, for a few days. Miss Mary Denniston has commenced her Kindergarten for this year, occupying a room in the Everts home, on Pugh street.

Mr. Lawrence Bell visited hereabouts on Sunday. His many friends were glad to see him after an absence of several years. The school term opened on Monday with a large attendance.

The teachers are Mr. L. W. Musser, principal; Mr. J. L. Holmes, Miss A. Dorworth and Miss K. Hoy. The road view, of which E. R. Chambers was master, has awarded the Pike Co. $100 damages, for the part of the pike within the borough limits.

SCHOOL REPORT. The following is a report of the Eagle Forge school, Roland, Pa., for the first month ending Oct. 22nd, 1897.

Whole number in attendance during month male 24, female 36, total 60. Average attendance during the month male 20, female 30, total 50.

Those not missing a day during the month are: Harvey Barnhart, Vincent Sharp, Edward Glenn, Beddie Williams, Robert Barnhart, Clody Bathurst, William Neff, Kathryn Parker, Bula Bryan, Helen Bryan, Mary Prince, Katie Glenn, Katharine Curtin, Lila Barnhart, Helen Jacobs, Mary Shultz, Nora Shultz, Katie Bathurst, Lottie Bathurst, Virgie Bryan, Bessie Bathurst. The visitors during the month were Mr. Pheasant, J. Larimer Curtin, Miss Bessie Bowers.

Parents who are interested in school should manifest their interest by seeing that their children are at school at 9 o'clock the opening hour. Parents and citizens, and all such who are interested in school work, are invited to visit the school.

THE Philadelphia "Record" is right in declaring that a vote for any but the Democratic candidates is a vote for the Republican machine. The one and only chance of redeeming the treasury of the state from Republican machine control is in Democratic success.

A Great Surprise Is In Store. For those who will go to-day and get a package of GRAIN-O. It takes the place of coffee at about 1/4 the cost. It is a food drink, full of health, and can be given to the children as well as the adult with great benefit.

It is made of pure grains and looks and tastes like the finest grades of Mocha or Java coffee. It satisfies everyone. A cup of Grain-O is better for the system than a tonic, because its benefit is permanent. What coffee breaks down Grain-O builds up. Ask your grocer for Grain-O. 15c. and 25c.

THE FASHIONS.... Bag-net canvas is a loose weave having large printed leaf outlines in white upon colored grounds, or with knots in bright hues introduced here and there among the meshes.

Some of the striped canvas fabrics resemble chevrons in many instances the stripes are white the grounds being colored. A white plaided border distinguishes still another style of canvas. Very fine poplins and other corded fabrics are diversified by checks and stripes.

Drap de Lyon, which has a finely twilled surface and a diagonal back, and drap d'été belong to the family of plain materials. Green and violet are mingled on a Panama hat which strongly brings out the effect of this color union.

The crown is banded twice with strings of violets and a third band is applied along the upturned edge of the broad brim. Cream lace is tucked in the brim and green moré taffeta ribbon is twisted about the crown, violets being bunched at the right side. At the left are loops of ribbon and three shaded violet tips. A bow is fixed under the brim at the back.

Crêpe de Chine, plain and embossed with small self-colored flowers, is being restored to favor. The new grenadines are very fine and the variety is large. Brocaded or moré stripes are woven alternately with grenadine stripes of the armure or sewing-silk kind.

One sample shows large meshes like checks in navy-blue with white printed floral sprays. Linen gingham with gold tinsel threads wrought in stripes, plaids and checks are novel and dressy. Silk stripes are also woven in linens.

Gaines are always fashionable. They are shown plain and with stripes of various widths and colors. A white satin-striped gazette will develop a charming gown. Plain gray gazette may be made over a silk lining to match for an elderly wearer or over a colored lining for a youthful woman.—From The Delineator.

PRESIDENTIAL FADS.

Our National Executives Have All Had Their Hobbies. Every president since the time of Washington has had some particular pet amusement.

As every one knows, George Washington was a great sportsman. His greatest pleasure was in following the hounds, mounted on a tiptop hunter. He was an athlete in his youth and his love of outdoor life continued to the day of his death.

When he was president, his chief diversion was horseback riding. He was fond of dancing, too, and regularly attended the assemblies in the long room in the City Tavern at Alexandria, says the Washington Post.

Thomas Jefferson sought relief from the cares of state in his love for music. He was a clever performer on the violin and whiled away many hours sawing away on his beloved fiddle. He had a taste for mechanical inventions, too, and some of his happiest moments were those spent in trying to evolve some labor saving device.

President Tyler had a deep and abiding love for the good American game of poker. Surrounded by a few chums, he spent many pleasant evenings drawing to bobtail flushes, filling against four aces and hoisting the full houses, bluffing on deuces, bucking ante. The stakes were invariably small, but history says that he was a bad loser.

Andrew Jackson was passionately fond of cockfighting, and when he left the Hermitage to run the nation at Washington he brought with him two of his finest fighting cocks. These he matched against the gamest roosters in the surrounding country, but the Tennessee article made but a feeble showing against the Virginia breed.

President Jackson brought on several other pairs, but his birds invariably met defeat, and in this respect he said that his administration was a lamentable failure.

President W. H. Harrison was not much of an epicure, but he had a great fancy for doing the marketing for the family. Every morning he would trudge to the market place with a basket on his arm and return an hour later carrying 40 or 50 pounds of produce.

General Grant was fond of fast driving, and he had some notable trotters in his stables during his two terms. In the evening he would play Boston with some of his army chums. He cared little for riding and was rarely seen on horseback in Washington.—Atlanta Constitution.
