The exercises begin at 2 o'clock. -Very few chaps about Bellefonte were able to eat any venison this season. Few were killed and the game could not be sold without violating a law with a severe penalty. -Mrs. Samuel Sheffer and her sister Mrs. McClelland, of Denver, Colorado, returned to Bellefonte Tuesday. Mrs. Sheffer has been in Pittsburg and other western cities visiting. -If you miss the lectures of Sam Jones or Eli Perkins, at Institute next week, it will be your mistake, when you have the chance to hear men of known ability and fame. -Miss Lotta Speiglemeyer left yesterday for Williamsport, where she will visit friends for several weeks, after which she will go to Philadelphia to spend Christmas. -The dedication of the new Christian chapel at Howard, which was to have taken place on the 12th of December, has been postponed until the 19th of December. -Capt. W. F. Reeber, of Philadelphia, is quite ill with nervous neuralgia and is in a hospital, in that city, for treatment. Mr. Reeber formerly was our court reporter. -Alfred Baun, of Bellefonte, is seriously thinking of removing to Altoona, Pa., to engage in the livery business. His stables will be in the Cohen building, between the Eagle and Sherman Houses. -Prof. W. A. Goodwin, former organist of the Episcopal church, now at Hoosick Fall, N. Y., will accept in the St. Timothy church in Philadelphia. He was selected from twelve, who were applicants for that position. -One of the finest productions of the season will be Faust, at the opera house on Saturday evening. Morrison is a well known actor and it is a privilege to see him in Bellefonte. This is a play with a valuable moral connected. -Harry Schreyer, formerly of Bellefonte, recently disposed of his grocery establishment in Chicago and he and his wife have since gone to Philadelphia. While in Chicago they did not enjoy the best of health and that was the principal reason for making the change. -Mrs. Isaac Maitland and her father Mr. Daniel Garman, left Tuesday afternoon for Mrs. Maitland's home in Williamsport. While in Bellefonte Mrs. Maitland has had quite a siege of typhoid fever, but is well enough to return home.

-Colevill band will give a dance, on Friday evening. -Miss Manne, daughter of landlord D. C. Keller, is quite ill. -If there is a good bit of red paint about this issue, it don't imply that we are on the war path. -Montgomery & Co. announce a large reduction in price of goods. That will be an inducement for holiday shoppers. -In making your holiday purchases don't forget the Philadelphia Branch. They have an endless variety of desirable goods for holiday gifts. -Presents for men and boys at the Philadelphia Branch. See their announcement on page 7. -A festival and oyster supper will be held at the new Buffalo Run Presbyterian church, next Saturday evening. Come one and all and help along a good cause. -Mrs. Bridget Laughlin, an aged and highly respected widow, of Bellefonte, died on Saturday, after a brief illness. She was born in Ireland, but for forty-five years has resided in Bellefonte. She was aged about 79 years. -Dr. R. L. Gearhart, of Bellefonte, preached in the Reformed church at Lock Haven, on Sunday, and was highly complimented by the papers upon his sermons. -The Bellefonte school board will enforce the compulsory school attendance act more rigidly in the future. Police-man Montgomery has been appointed to keep a close lookout for children not attending school. -John Dubbs, the obliging express agent at Huntingdon, is at home in this place laid up with a smashed finger. A heavy casting fell on it, and the doctor in Huntingdon thought it would have to be amputated, but his doctor here thinks it can be saved. -Rev. Thomas Levan Bickle, of Reading, will preach at the Reformed church, in Bellefonte, on Sunday morning and evening, and expects to remain here until after the holidays. Rev. Bickle comes from Reading, Pa., and is considered one of the foremost young ministers of the church. -On Saturday our foot ball enthusiasts witnessed a game on the glass-works meadow between Phillipsburg and the Academy. It was raining but that made no difference with them, the game had to be played. It resulted in a victory for the Academy by a score of 8 to 0. Reuben Mull, of the Phillipsburg team, sustained a sprained ankle. A Song For Autumn. How dear to hearts is the old yellow pumpkin, when orchards are barren for stuffing for pies; when peaches and apples have both been a failure, and berries of no kind have greeted our eyes. How fondly we turn to the fruit of the cornfield—the fruit that our children are taught to despise—the old yellow pumpkin, the mud-covered pumpkin, the big-bellied pumpkin that makes such good pies. -Harrisburg News. Married. Mr. John R. Keller and Miss Rebecca Wallace were married Tuesday Dec. 7, 1897, in Altoona, Pa., at the parsonage of Trinity Reformed church by the pastor, Rev. Lewis Robb. Mr. Keller is the son of Landlord Keller, proprietor of the Haag house Bellefonte, and the bride is one of Ohio's fair daughters, coming from Jackson, O. The bride and groom arrived in Bellefonte on Tuesday evening. They have our best wishes. New Jurymen. On Monday Jury Commissioners Jos. J. Hoy and John Decker met for the purpose of selecting a list of about six hundred new names to be placed in the jury wheel. These are put in to take the place of those drawn out during the past year and others who have removed or died. Persons desiring to have their names inserted should address either of the jury commissioners, to that effect, at once. Too Sharp For Him. The Loganton Journal says two girls were stopped on the pike last week by the toll gate keeper who demanded toll. They asked how much it was and were informed that for a man and horse it was eight cents. They curiously replied "We are two girls and a mare—gip Jennie," and away they went. For Institute. The performance given in the opera house on last Thursday evening, was so satisfactory that manager Garman secured them for a return date, on Thursday, Dec. 16, of institute week. This will give the teachers an elegant opportunity to see a first class attraction. An Invitation. Teachers, and others attending the Institute next week are invited to come to the Centre Democrat office and make it their head quarter for writing letters, and any other business they may want to attend to. They will find plenty of stationery etc., free for their use. At Lutheran Church. Next Sunday Rev. H. C. Halloway, D. D., of Harrisburg, Pa., will conduct services in the Lutheran church at this place. Sunday school at 9.30 a. m. and Christian Endeavor at 6 p. m.

Harry Sanders, a young colored man of this place was killed at Williamsport, on Saturday. The Williamsport News of Saturday gives the following facts about his death: Harry Sanders, a colored man giving his residence as Bellefonte, jumped from the midnight Pennsylvania train as it was approaching the upper station from the west early this morning, and fell in such a manner that one of his feet got under the wheels. The foot was crushed. He was found soon afterwards lying in the vicinity of Fifth avenue. The unfortunate fellow was made as comfortable as possible, and a stretcher was secured. With the assistance of several railroaders, Patrolman Keeler and Roundsman Steiger carried Sanders to the hospital. About 10:30 o'clock this morning, Sanders suddenly died. No operation had been performed and the hospital attendants and physicians are completely at a loss to account for the sudden death. It is believed, however, that a clot of blood formed in one of the arteries leading from the heart. The remains were brought to Bellefonte on Monday. Interment on Tuesday. Foust Coming. Morrison's Company of players will produce the magnificent spectacular production "Foust" at the opera house Saturday Dec. 11. It is difficult to speak of this big spectacular drama with its multifarious features without appearing to be extravagant in the use of adjectives of praise. The proportions of the play are stupendous. Goethe's story is told with singularly effectiveness and in a dramatic manner. The opportunities for the introduction of gorgeous spectacular effects are grasped with mastery skill and rare invention and originality, and it is safe to say that such succession of beautiful pictures, calcium and electrical effects have never before been seen in this city. The cast is one of excellence. A New Aspirant. It is reported that a new aspirant has entered the ring and will make an effort to be Bellefonte's new republican postmaster, in the person of the venerable Robert Valentine. He is a life long republican, and for many years was the principal operator of the Valentine Iron Furnaces at this place. Owing to the failure of the Valentine Furnace Company, and being entirely out of business, he tendered would accept the position, if tendered him. Of course there are others—with a push. He Has Klondike Gold. W. H. Hile, of DuBois, who recently returned from the Klondike gold fields, has presented Deputy Attorney General W. F. Reeder, of Bellefonte, with a bag of gold nuggets and gold dust. One nugget is worth eighty-eight dollars. Will Be Interred at Tyrone. H. M. Myers died at Atlanta, Ga., last Saturday, and his remains will be interred at Tyrone, Wednesday afternoon. The wife of the deceased is a daughter of General John Irvin Gregg, of Centre county. She is well known in this county. The cause of her husband's death could not be learned. The Centre Democrat and the Cincinnati Inquirer for $1.50 a year.

A THIEF CAUGHT. On Saturday morning, Constable David Chambers, and officer Alfred Lucas arrested Charles Linn, in Bellefonte, on the charge of stealing a shirt, cuff buttons and studs from James Burns and $65 in money from Edward Burns, both of Snow Shoe. He was given a hearing before Justice Keichline, where he admitted to taking the articles, but denied stealing the money. He was committed to jail. Young Linn had been boarding, rather staying, at the Burns home and slept in the same room with Edward. About 2 a. m. Saturday morning he left the house quietly. The next morning the above goods were missing. Upon inquiry it was learned that Linn was seen running down the road and the officers traced him to Snow Shoe Intersection where he inquired about trains for Tyrone. From there he came to Bellefonte and was arrested at the home of Chas. Brown. The young man was slightly intoxicated at the time, and made a show of having money. While he was in Snow Shoe he was "busted." He had seen Ed Burn's money, the day previous. The man was searched at the jail but only 25 cents were found in his possession. Mrs. Solt Dead. Mrs. Mary Solt died at her home on West Logan street, on Friday evening, at ten o'clock. Mrs. Solt's maiden name was Mary Gates. She was born in Ferguson township in Centre Co., the 9th day of October 1826, making her age 71 years, 1 month and 24 days. She leaves to mourn her loss, four sons and one daughter, namely David P., James E., Conrad F., Cyrus F., Catharine A. She leaves four brothers and three sisters. The funeral took place Sunday morning. Interment in the Reformed church cemetery at Boalsburg. Lost a Deer. Mr. Benjamin Gentzel, of Spring township, started a deer park, on his farm, several years ago and had six fine animals in the enclosure. They have been quite an attraction and visitors came miles to see the creatures. Last Monday, when Mr. Gentzel went to the park, he was dismayed to find one of his finest does dead. It evidently had been killed by a ferocious buck, for it was completely disembowled and gored. To avoid another such event he at once de-horned the animal that killed its mate. B. C. R. R. Trains. January 3rd, 1898 the Bellefonte Central R. R. Co. will reduce their train service during the winter months from six to four trains daily. Trains will leave Bellefonte for State College, Pine Grove Mills and intermediate points at 6:30 a. m. and 1:45 p. m.; returning will leave Pine Grove Mills at 7:30 a. m. and 3:10 p. m.; State College at 8:15 a. m. and 3:30 p. m., connecting at Bellefonte with P. R. R. trains. Scalp Bounty. For some time the county commissioners have had more or less trouble in their office in the payment of bounty on scalps of wild animals. It is not an uncommon thing to find orders raised. Hereafter no orders will be cashed by them unless the number of scalps is plainly marked in figures and the number also completely spelled out. This would prevent future frauds. A Big Blast. A few days ago a blast was put off at Limestone ridge in Lycoming county that threw out enough stone to keep the lime kilns in operation for a year. There were twenty-six kegs of powder in the blast. They must have small lime kilns in that section. Death of a Sugar Valley Lady. Catharine Esterline, wife of Samuel Esterline, near Greengrove, died on Wednesday 1st. She is survived by her husband, three sons and two daughters. Funeral took place Friday morning at her late home at Greengrove. Interment in Lutheran cemetery. WANTED—10,000 bushels of hand-picked apples at John Sourbeek's, No. 167 High St., Bellefonte, Pa. BAD ACCIDENT. This Thursday morning a bad accident occurred near Gerberich & Hale's mill. John Barnes, of Pleasant Gap, a young lad was driving a milk wagon, and was crossing the Penna. R. R. at the mill, when the Snow Shoe train was backing up from the round house to the station. Young Barnes did not see the train, being in an enclosed wagon. The result was it struck the horse and threw it about thirty feet. The horse was killed, the wagon smashed and the young man escaped with a few bruises. Little Trixie, the favorite will play, a return engagement, Thursday Dec. 16th, at the opera house, as an attraction for the teachers while attending institute. It is excellent. NOT ALWAYS UNDERSTOOD. A fact often overlooked, or not always understood, is that women suffer as much from distressing kidney and bladder troubles as the men. The womb is situated back of and very close to the bladder, and for that reason any distress, disease or inconvenience manifested in the kidneys, by mistake, attributed to female weakness or womb trouble of some sort. The error is easily made and may be as easily avoided by setting urine aside for twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling is evidence that your kidneys and bladder need doctoring. If you have pain or dull aching in the back, pass water too frequently, or scanty supply, with smarting or burning,—these are also convincing proofs of kidney trouble. If you have doctored without benefit, try Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy. The mild and the extraordinary effect will surprise you. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures. If you take a medicine you should take the best. At druggists fifty cents and one dollar. You may have a sample bottle and pamphlet, both sent free by mail. Mention and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee the genuineness of this offer. Clothes Pin Industry. An order for sixteen carloads of clothes pins has been received by the Condorsport clothes pin factory. This will require 80,000 feet of beech logs.
