ROMOLA RUMBLINGS.

Why has Mr. Wilber Hall quit coming to our town?

Wm. Brickley returned to Potter county, on Monday.

Mrs. Lydia Jones, of Beech Creek, spent last week in Romola.

Mr. Philip Confer lost one of his best horses one day last week.

Mr. Davis Frain, of Walker, was a caller in our town on Monday.

Messrs Charles and Frank Daley spent last Sunday at Hunter Run.

Mr. J. D. Brickley and wife spent Sunday at the home of Frederick Robb.

Ben Singer spent last week in Bellefonte. He reports a very pleasant time.

Mrs. Wilson Boon is at this writing quite ill with typhoid fever. We hope she will speedily recover.

Mrs. K. D. Packer is at present visiting in Williamsport, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kimple.

Miss Mable Pletcher, one of Howard's most fascinating young ladies, is at present visiting at the home of H. S. DeLong.

We are at a loss to know why R. C. Daley has not been to Williamsport lately. Clarence thinks Miss T. is the loveliest "pebble" on the beach.

The hunting party, in which W. Robb and sons were principal factors, captured a large deer last week. It was the largest brought from the mountains this season.

Miss Gertrude Gardner, of Pine Glenn, spent last week in this place, as the guest of Miss Mame DeLong. Miss Gardner is a fine young lady and we hope to see her with us again.

Solomon Confer killed a 25 pound turkey, a few days ago. Mitchell Weaver and brother Harvey brought down two last Friday, but they were not so large as the one killed by Mr. Confer.

COST ONLY $1.00.—A year's subscription to this paper, for some friend, would be an appropriate X-mas gift, and cost but $1.00 when paid in advance. It would furnish them with all the news from this section regularly.

The Owen Concert Co., finished a term of singing school on last Wednesday evening with a grand concert. Their stay, among our people here, will always be remembered with pleasure and a desire to have them come back.

Geo. Bright, who is high in eighty years, had a cataract removed from his eye, a week ago, and at this writing is doing well. Dr. Swangle, of Philadelphia; Dr. Bright, of Rebersburg; Dr. Vanvalza, of Spring Mills, Dr. C. S. Musser, and his family were present when it was removed.

Educate Your Hovets With Cascares. Candy Cathartic, cure constipation forever. 10c. 25c. If C. C. C. fail, druggists refund money.

AARONSBURG.

Miss Annie Lambert, of Spring Mills, Sunday under the parental roof.

The Hoy Bros., of Jacksonville, were the welcome guests of W. H. Philip's.

Miss Bertha Lane, of Tyrone, is paying a visit to her parents, Noah Leitells.

Fred Grouse, of Holsopple, is the welcome guest of his parents and other friends.

Mrs. Frances Forster and daughter Marie, are visiting friends at Harrisburg, Carlisle and other places.

H. C. Yordy and family, of Shamokin, are paying their annual visit to Mrs. Yordy's parents, H. K. Summers.

Miss Dora Adams, of Millinburg, arrived in time to partake of a sumptuous dinner at her Uncle Tom Hulls.

Some fine porkers have been slaughtered in the burg. D. H. Rote killed two that weighed 908, B. F. Stover one, weighed 575.

Turb Kreamer, of Bellefonte, is carrying a few days at the residence of A. S. Stover's, while down here he had his butchering done.

Geo. Keister ordered three thousand five hundred peach trees, of Mr. Smith, of Juniata county, to plant on the Daniel Stover farm which he bought.

Edwin Wolf, teacher of the intermediate school, and Fred Fehl were over to Wolf's Store to help the former's parents butcher on Saturday. Of course one of our fair damsels missed Edwin very much.

Mrs. Clymer Stover had a telegram announcing the death of her brother in Pittsburg. She took the first train and got there in time for the funeral. Mrs. Stover has the sympathy of the entire community.

COST ONLY $1.00.—A year's subscription to this paper, for some friend, would be an appropriate X-mas gift, and cost but $1.00 when paid in advance. It would furnish them with all the news from this section regularly.

According to latest reports, Mr. Grimm expects to go to Mexico, in a short time, to study the "Silver Sentiment."

He, of course, expects to return again in a short time and take his usual place in the post office.

A report was circulated last week that Clyde Smith, formerly of this place, but now of Centre Hall, had been killed by being run over by a freight train. Thos. Wolf, in order to show his gratitude, went and investigated the matter and found to his delight that it was incorrect.

Mr. Bloom Shaffer, the champion gunner, hunter, cross-shot and snap-shot of this community, won fresh laurels by shooting Mr. Grimm's porkers. As he has the best record for hunting of anybody in this community, (remember this record was not made for an empty show, but for the good of his stomach,) we will now, with no prejudice whatever, assign to him the championship, belt, which he is capable of maintaining.

A SWELL AFFAIR.—We will endeavor to give some of the details of the party that took place on last Thursday evening, about two miles west of town, in honor of J. B. and C. C. The invitations were sent out in the fore part of the week in 20 different languages. Some came on bicycles, because they had no other way, and some who didn't come at all made up their minds to stay away. Refreshments were served, and two by two they marched in the dining hall, there were young men and old men, and girls that were no men at all, single men and double men, and men who had no glasses on. In a very short time the front rooms and nush rooms were packed to suffocation. When everyone was seated, Cloyd, as manager said, "rise up and give us each a cake." We then looked at the bill of fare, there was pigs head, gold-fish, mocking-birds and ostriches; blue-fish, green-fish, fish-hooks and partridges; fish-balls, snow-balls and cartridges. Then we ate and ate till we could hardly stir about; ketchup and hurry up, sweet-kron and sour-kron; dressed beef and naked beef, and beef with all its dresses on, beefsteaks and mistakes were down on the bill of fare; roast-ribs and spare ribs and ribs that we couldn't spare; rein-deer, snow-deer and deer me! and antelope. And the girls ate so much mellow the boys said they can't elope. Fried liver, baked liver and Carter's little liver pills, and other articles to numerous to mention. For dessert we had tooth picks and ice picks, and washed them all down with a big piece of shaving soap. We ate everything that was on the bill of fare, then we danced to the music furnished by the McCoferty. Some danced jig-steps, door-steps, quick-steps, slow-steps and high land flings. After all was over Cloyd told us to join hands and sing the good old chorus, "After the Ball."

WELL PUG, how is it about the fish crane? Are you going to get'em mounted? Don't know, Mr. Green, the color does't suit me, it is a little too black for nice. De fish crane am a wild animal.

COST ONLY $1.00.—A year's subscription to this paper, for some friend, would be an appropriate X-mas gift, and cost but $1.00 when paid in advance. It would furnish them with all the news from this section regularly.

Some time ago the Millheim hunting party was to Slate Ridge. While on their way to the camp, two of the experts saw a deer lying along the path. First they thought it was dead, or very sick. Dr. Barney wanted to feel its pulse, and it ran away. Good bye, John—de Hersh, is a wild animal.

Hunting for turkeys is all the go. Some are hustling them off the coppers, while others are hustling them off the root with clubs. Some time ago one was hustled off the root for Mr. Mover. Look out boys! He is laying low with a shot gun. It don't matter a D—, how old he was, you got the turkey.

The Homeliest Man in Bellefonte as well as the handsomest, and others are invited to call on any druggist and get a free trial bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs, a remedy that is guaranteed to cure and relieve all chronic and acute coughs, asthma, bronchitis and consumption. COBURN CULLINGS.

Theodore Hosterman and wife were seen in this town on Friday.

Andrew Rishel has received very handsome picture frames to sell, this week.

Miss Katie Garthoff made a few days visit at this place, left for her home, in Bellefonte.

P. S. Bingham and wife, of Poe Mills, Sunday at this place as a guest of James E. Harter and J. F. Garthoff.

The Young People's meeting at this place is well attended. It is a worthy society, and all should join.

Rev. Wolf, of Aaronsburg, conducted communion services in the Lutheran church, at this place, last Sunday forenoon.

Rev. J. Lohr, of Millheim, preached in the Evangelical church Sunday evening. He is an able speaker and has gained many friends at this place.

Rev. Brown, of Aaronsburg, preached to a good congregation Sunday afternoon. The sermon was very edifying and was attentively listened to.

There were many applicants for tank driver at Coburn, for the Atlantic Refining company. It seems that John Stonebraker will be the successful one that will knock the persimmon.

Merchaunt W. C. Krader made a business trip to Farmers Mills, the other day. Charles Kaler went to Fishers Ferry, last Friday, to visit a few days at that place.

Rev. Lohr has made a rule not to preach on Saturday evening, during his protracted meetings, this winter.

Charles Wolf and Harris Stover, of Feidler, two lively young men, attended protracted meeting in this town on Sunday evening. Come again.

Little Boy.

Coughs that kill are not distinguished by any mark or sign from coughs that fail to be fatal. Any cough neglected, may sap the strength and undermine the health until recovery is impossible. All coughs lead to lung trouble, if not stopped. Dr. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral Cures Coughs. "My little daughter was taken with a distressing cough, which for three years defied all the remedies I tried. At length on the urgent recommendation of a friend, I began to give her Dr. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. After using one bottle I found to my great surprise that she was improving. Three bottles completely cured her."—J. A. GRAY, Trav. Salesman Wrought Iron Range Co., St. Louis, Mo. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral Is put up in half size bottles at half price . . . 50 cents
