THE BIG WHEAT DEALS.

Great Investment.

BOTH SEEM TO BE SATISFIED.

The Chicago Post, However, Declares by the Speculation - Young Letter Declares He Will Sell at a Profit.

Chicago, Dec. 22 .- "A mere incident, I assure you. We are now practically out of the whole matter. We have a little wheat yet to deliver; the necessary bushels are ready for delivery when the proper time approaches for outstanding contracts, and there is an end of the affair in so far as we are concerned." Thus, with characteristic terseness, does P. D. Armour define his position in these, the closing days of one of the biggest wheat deals that has marked the history of the board of trade. Joseph Leiter, his youthful opponent, is just as calm and confident in his expressions as the big provision

"Mr. Armour sold wheat," he declares, "and I bought of him. That is all. There was no battle. It was a common, almost elementary business transaction I shall sell the wheat which I have purchased when the need of the foreign market demands it. I shall sell at a profit, and that's the closing chapter of my part of the story."

These statements, coming from the principals in the December wheat deal, have caused much comment in board of trade circles. Will Joseph Leiter make a profit on the round 4,000,000 bushels of real wheat which he has placed in his hands by the provision man, is now the question.

The report is going the rounds that the whole affair was productive of results indicating a big Armour-Leiter combine. In many minds this rumor was given credence. The manipulation of the local market by Leiter agents pulling the wires from the Liverpoo end was recited over and over. This Idea, however, is ridiculed by the majority of traders.

Some members of the board say that Leiter has secured 5,000,000 bushels of the cereal. Others place the figure as high as 15,000,000, while the more conservative are willing to admit that half the latter amount is nearer the correct estimate. Mr. Leiter asserts that just as much of this will go abroad as the foreign markets call for, if "they pay him his price."

"Some folks on the board think can't transport grain eastward by rall without a loss, do they?" said Mr. Leiter. "Well, possibly they can't, but I'm willing to play out my end of the game along my own lines, and I may differ with these prophets consider-

The Post prints the following concerning the present situation in the December wheat deal: "Dec. 31, "settling day" on the board of trade, will witness the culmination of the gigantic Leiter-Armour deadlock. The trade will not be surprised then to learn that Armour will lose a clear $1,000,000 on the December deal. True, he has performed the marvelous feat of bringing 6,000,000 bushels of high grade cash wheat to this city, in defiance of all settled rules of commerce, but that act may result in nothing more substantial than glory. It is a growing belief on 'change that Mr. Armour had to pay dearly for bringing the big volume of wheat to this city, and that his short selling will cost him about 18 or 20 cents a bushel."

London, Dec. 22 .- A dispatch from Berlin says: The Cologne Gazette maintains the accuracy of its statement that the Russian occupation of Port Arthur was connected with the visit there of the British warship Daphne about a week ago.
