Some of the boys are swearing vengeauce on the cuss that writes the Boalsburg Items. Boys, don't blame the innocent.

NOTICE :- Any person wanting dogs, call on Dudy. One spaniel, one hound, one pug, and a long-eared shepherd for sale cheap.

Some of the boys were a little hot on the collar for being hit last week-others for being missed, so we will not say anything this week.

Mr. Frank McFarlan had a sled load down to Mr. Geo. Boals last Friday evening. There seems to be some attraction down that way for Frank.

John says that he and Dutch Bill can't agree well enough to travel together, as Bill wants to fight too often. John, you shouldn't have upset with him.

Boalsburg should have a masical convention, this winter. Somehow no one seems to take hold of it. There seems to be enough in favor of a convention.

Not more than one year ago, Dudee and Saten thought they would have a rabbit chase, one Sunday morning and were successful. After dressing their game and hanging it up, they of course tried for more. Then someone stole the first one. Question : who stole the rabbit i

KREAMERVILLE ITEMS.

Hurrah for Hanna ! What do the poor republicans have to say?

News is rather scarce this week, may be we can do better next week.

George Mensch was seen on our streets on Sunday. He is the leading livery-man, of Millheim.

Sign painting seems to be the leading work in this town now, the work being done by Mr. Chapman.

Quite a few of our people were repre-sented at the protracted meeting, at Wolfs Store, Sunday evening.

Miss Gertrude Styers returned home on Saturday, from Penn Hall, where she had been spending a few weeks.

We hear that the people of Penn Hall do not fancy the Brush valley style of having parties, especially not like the one held there recently. There was too much spooning about it.

Everybody Says So.

A Peerless Liniment.

As a pain destroyer and cure for rheumatism, Salvation Oil is the peer of all liniments. Mr. WEL. H. Brown, proprietor of Striebinger House, Cleveland, O., writes: "I suffered from rheumatism for twelve years and my last attack kept me in bed, unable to walk. I used Salvation Oil and soon was up and about. As a pain destroyer this liniment has no equal." Salvation Oil is sold everywhere for 25 cents. Try it and be convinced.

HUBLERSBURG.

The warm weather of the last few days has spoiled the sleighing.

Some of our farmers have put away a supply of ice for the summer. A. C. Grove, of Bellefonte, was the guest of Julia Brown, on Tuesday. Some of our young people are attend-ing the musical convention at Jacksonville, this week. Wm. Decker is hauling stone and lum-ber for his new house and barn which he expects to put up next summer.

Mrs. Mary Markle has been on the sick list for the last few days. Hope she may soon be able to be around again. Frank Carner bought the Clevenstine property at the west end of our town last week. The consideration, we believe, is $800.

Mrs. Vonada would like to know what become of her buckwheat cakes. Jake and Ammon say they were good, so they must know something about them.

Messrs Stover and Brumgart, of Wolfs Store, and the Misses Spangler and Bletz, of Tylersville, were the guests of Wm. H. Minnick's on Sunday. Cal. wasn't "left" this time.
