SPRING MILLS.

Last Saturday was a busy day for our merchants. Samuel Brown and Mr Dunlap made a business trip to Bellefonte. They had pretty good success.

Sleighting was pretty good last Sunday, and those who had any kind of a sleigh, or sled made good use of it. Allison Bros shipped twenty car loads of wheat in the last couple of weeks. The farmers are taking advantage of the 93cts. for their wheat.

Wm. B. Krape spent a couple of days at Harrisburg. Billy, are you looking for a snap. "Our Dan" should not forget you.

Confers, of Millheim, expect to move the planing mills to this town, next spring. Our townsman Calvin Ring, expect to start a planing mill soon.

Eddie Erb and Walter Rhone, of State College, spent Sunday in town. There must be some attraction among the fair sex. Boys, we still have a few girls left.

Ask some of our young damsels if they were ever locked out of a hotel parlor, at Millheim. Well, girls of your age, at that time of night, you should all have been at home in bed.

Allison Bros' sawyer, Wm. Gramley, while fixing something at the saw mill in motion, almost got his thumb sawed off at the palm of his hand. Must not monkey with the buzz saw.

The Democratic caucus was held at Penn Hall. There were 193 votes polled—the largest vote that was ever polled in Gregg township, and the best men selected for the different offices.

BADLY INJURED.—Peter Honckman, while on his way to town in a three seated cutter, in crossing a ditch he upset. The horses took fright and ran away. Mr. Hauckman being dragged a few rods, had several ribs and his arm broken. The rest escaped uninjured.

A surprise party left here last week one eve. They landed at Charley Grimm's, near Madisonburg, where they were royally entertained for a couple of hours. The party were as follows: Mr. Wm. Musser, wife and daughter; John Shook and wife; A. J. Shook and wife; W. H. Smith and wife; Miss May Smith, Miss Little Richardson, Frank Hettinger. Frank, you will soon get a reputation for being a ladies' man.

MILESBURG.

The dying ember, Dec-ember. A pair of suspenders—the hangman and his assistant.

John Shields and wife of Houston, spent a few days in our burg recently. For the theft of that forbidden fruit Eve should have been tried in the appellate court.

Clayton Poorman and family were recent visitors to his mother Mrs. George Taylor, also to C. H. Elise and family.

Alvan Smith is a happy man, his wife presented him with a young daughter on Saturday morning, January 22nd. It is their first child.

Astronomers can tell to a second when the next eclipse of the sun will take place, but the greatest scientist cannot come within two hours of the actual starting time of a little sugar coated bilious pill.

Rev. Hiney announces his intention to have the Evangelical church, at Unionville, dedicated on Sunday February 6th, also stated that Bishop W. M. Stanford, of Harrisburg, will officiate. All are invited to be in attendance to give a helping hand.

AN OPERATION.—James Hewes, better known as James Heverly, Jr., of this place, now of Burnham, came home to have an operation performed for appendicitis. Dr. H. S. Braucht, of this place, and Dr. Hayes of Bellefonte, Newton, of State College, and Musser, of Aaronsburg were present. Dr. Hayes did the surgical work; the patient stood the operation exceedingly well. The patient died on Thursday afternoon between 3 and 4 o'clock, and was buried on Sunday, in the Messiah cemetery.

Mrs. Reuben moved up from her former home at Williamsport, to the home of her husband, at this place, on Friday.

The musical, in the Christian Chapel, on last Friday evening, was a grand affair. Some excellent singing and choice music was heard.

The protracted meeting, of the Evangelicals, across the creek, is a success. Forty seekers are reported and the church is filled every night.

Miss Maggie and Agnes Kane, of Axemann, who had been visiting at Mr. Sunday's, of this place, the past few weeks returned home on Saturday.

Since you all want to know the cause of that broad smile on John Beck's face, I will tell you. It was the arrival of a bright little daughter at his house on Saturday.

POTTERS MILLS.

Rev. Faus closed his protracted meeting last week.

Miss Sadie Faust is on the sick list. She has congestion of the lungs.

Mrs. Sadie Messenger, of Joliet, is visiting her many friends of this place.

One of our young ladies always sings "There is only one boy in this world for me."

The Ladies Aid Society meets every Wednesday night, in the church for business meeting, and one hour for praise services. Everybody is invited to come and take part.

The members of the Evangelical church were glad to have their old pastor with them on Sunday, after being sick for quite awhile with lagrippe. We hope he will soon be strong and able to work again.

The chicken and waffle supper and entertainment was well attended on Saturday. Everybody seemed to enjoy themselves. The ladies wish to thank the people through these columns for their belgian patronage, and especially Mr. Williams, for entertaining the people with his graphophone.

KREAMERVILLE ITEMS.

C. H. Bierly will erect a new house on his farm this spring.

J. W. O. Housman, our boss carpenter, is attending court this week.

Lewis Trump and wife, of Nippance valley, were seen on our streets one day this week.

Your correspondent has been silent a few weeks, but here we come with a little budget of news.

Miss Gertrude Styers spent a few days with friends in Nittany valley and Lock Haven, last week.

Most of those that have not their winter wood at home yet, are busy as nailers, since the last snow fell.

Our merchant, G. W. Kreamer, is disposing of his entire stock of merchandise, by selling at cost. George has some other end in view; may be we could tell now, but will not at present.

If no one in our neighboring town of Rebersburg, has the audacity to correspond for the best paper in the county, namely The Centre Democrat, we will be obliged to mix their meal with ours. Some one in Rebersburg take courage and send in the news. I am sure the good publisher will not refuse it.

The protracted meeting in the United Evangelical church, at Rebersburg, is still in progress. So far only two penitents have come forward, it certainly cannot be the fault of pastor Stover that no greater success has been reached, for he is doing his utmost in trying to make the truth plain and practical.

COBURN BUDGET.

Good for book agents—use two or three days.

John Hoffa, Jr., and wife visited friends at Lewisburg over Sunday.

James A. Koonsey is in Bellefonte this week, serving as a juror.
