

HAPPENINGS IN BELLEFONTE

Local Events Briefly Told in a Few Lines

PERSONALS, SOCIAL EVENTS

What has Transpired During the Past Week—Movements of our People—What the Local Scribe Saw Worthy of Mention—A Week's Local News in a Few Words.

Remember Guy Brothers Minstrels on Friday evening at the opera house.

James S. Carson, of Bellefonte, has been granted a restoration and increase of pension, $4 to $6.

Mr. John Sourbeck is home from Brooklyn and is very much pleased with the restaurant venture in that city.

The new steel cells at the jail are now completed and Joshua Folk's term as night watchman at $2 per day is over.

Ed C. Rowe expects to retire from the furniture business in the Spring. He has concluded to give up business for a while.

On Monday morning an infant son of Mr. James E. Solt died at their home on Logan street of pneumonia. It was four months old.

The Asaph Concert Company will be at the Methodist church this Thursday evening. These celebrated negro singers will be worth hearing.

The county commissioners are busily engaged in distributing the supplies this week, for next Tuesday's election. It requires considerable time and attention.

Perry C. Steele, Sr., of Axe Mann, is lying very ill with hernia. Mr. Steele is over 83 years old and his extreme old age makes his recovery very doubtful.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company has begun an action against the Valentine Iron Company to recover on a promissory note for $4652, due January 1st.

Dr. Colfelt will lecture in the Presbyterian church, on "Assyrian Discoveries," Friday evening February 25th. Proceeds for the benefit of the Mite society.

On Sunday the Inquirer contained the portrait of our young burgess, F. E. Naginye. No doubt that he is one of the handsomest in the state—your treat.

On Sunday and Monday sleighing got very thin on the roads leading into Bellefonte. In many parts of the country, roads are drifted shut and almost impassable.

Mr. Andy Knicely the young baker, who succeeded Mr. Achenbach, left last week for Shamokin, Pa., where he will engage in business and some think will also get married.

Guy Brothers Minstrels will be at the opera house on Friday evening. Good singing, dancing and specialties. A good time and lots of fun. Guy Brothers are merry-makers.

Ex-Commissioner Geo. L. Goodhart was in town Tuesday and paid us a short call. He is looking heartier now than when in office. He thinks farm life agrees much better with him.

Walter Garrity, who is making his home with his cousin, Pat Garrity, at the famous hunting and fishing resort across the Seven mountains, occasionally comes out to town, as he did this week to see his friends.

Mr. George Brandon, now located at Carlisle and conducting the leading hotel in that town, visited Bellefonte last week. He came to see Mrs. Brandon and the daughter, who had been visiting former friends at this place.

The members of Co. B, 5th Reg., N. G. P. of this place will hold a Military Ball in the armory at this place, on Thursday evening February 17th. Good music will be supplied and a good time may be expected, by all who will attend.

George T. Bush, Bellefonte's enthusiastic wheelman, left on Monday morning for St. Louis to attend the National Assembly League of American Wheelmen. Mr. Bush always took a live interest in wheeling matters and is popular in the association.

Wm. Furst, of Philadelphia, Miss Herman, of Carlisle, and Miss Sheantz, of Williamsport, are guests at the residence of Ex-Judge A. O. Furst. Mr. John Furst and bride, of Williamsport, also paid a short visit to his parents, and were pleasantly entertained, on Saturday evening.

Because the Daily News came out last Thursday containing several columns of articles denouncing McKinley and the gold standard, it does not mean that they have flopped. Somebody about the establishment got twisted and these selections were put in by mistake. When the error was detected a new edition was printed and the others recalled.

Landlord D. C. Keller was on the sick list several days of last week, but is able to be about again attending to business. He was troubled with a bealing on his side. His son John R. is also on the sick list with a bealing on his face. Miss Mame, his daughter, has not been enjoying the best of health either. In fact all of the family were "under the weather" except Mrs. Keller for a while.

Morris Trone is slowly improving from his attack of typhoid fever.

Guy Brothers Minstrels are good entertainers. Will be at the opera house on Friday evening.

Mr. Chas. P. Hewes and family expect to move from Bellefonte to Erie about the first week in March.

Butcher Lyon's horse was frightened at the Pa. station on Monday, and got away, breaking his delivery wagon.

The funeral of Lewis Flack will take place this Thursday afternoon, from his home, at Verona, near the furnace.

An oyster supper will be served by the ladies of the Catholic church, at the home of Mr. Finegan, on Thursday evening.

Next week the appeal of James Cornely, convicted of setting fire to the Army building, will be heard before the Superior Court at Williamsport. The result is anxiously awaited.

The County Commissioners are holding the assessment appeals over the county at present, and have many questions to answer in regard to the reason for raising the county tax rate from 3 to 3 1/2 mills.

Shepp Achenbach, of Lock Haven, spent Sunday in Bellefonte. It is not correct that he came up for the purpose of taking charge of his uncle's bakery at this place—he is looking after another biscuit.

Mr. J. H. Reifsnyder, of Millheim, is now in Florida, enjoying the trip very much. The climate pleased him and the temperature was only 68 degrees. He wrote from Jacksonville and will continue his journey further South.

Mr. S. P. Hockman, of Spring Mills, was in town on Wednesday and reports that while he recently had a bad runaway in a sleigh he had no bones broken, as had been reported at first. He was considerably bruised, and still can feel the effects of the trip.

Postmaster Wm. S. Close, of Oak Hall, was in town on Wednesday. He has handled the mails at that point for the past eleven years and seems as though he would be continued indefinitely. He is an old soldier bearing many wounds and is deserving of this consideration.

The correspondents to the city dailies, from this place, have been doing good work the past few weeks. Centre county seems to have furnished more freaks and sensations than the balance of the state. The boys are making good money selling "gold bricks" to the big papers.

Mr. J. N. Dinges, the druggist, of Boalsburg, was in town on Wednesday. He is anxious to retire from business and will sell his establishment at that point. We presume he has made his stake and can live handsomely on his income. Here is a good opening for a druggist.

Services at the Reformed church of Bellefonte in the morning, and at Zion, in the afternoon. Rev. Dr. Eisenburg will conduct the services. Election for pastor will be had in connection with these services. Mr. Thomas Levan Bickle, of Reading, Pa., is the candidate submitted.

Miss May, daughter of Wm. H. Taylor, of this place, has gone to New York to accept a position in a cafe operated by Sourbeck & Yeager, of this place. Miss Taylor will be cashier in one department. Miss Mammie Sourbeck, of this place, is filling a similar position in the same place.

John Powell, of Lock Haven Glass factory, has made the discovery, through the aid of divining rod, that a great vein of natural gas exists under that city. It has been suspected for some time that something of the kind existed under that town. Bellefonte boys always come back from that town more or less disturbed.

J. C. Weaver, Robert Irvin and Harris Heyman, of the Y. M. C. A., conducted the services in the United Evangelical church, on Sunday, in the absence of the pastor, Rev. C. H. Gooding, who was taking part in the dedicatory ceremonies of the United Evangelical at Unionville. A series of meetings are now in progress at the church at this place.

D. F. Fortney, Esq., is attending the Pa. State Association of School Directors convention, in session at Harrisburg on Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Mr. Fortney will address the convention on "Are the school teachers selected with regard to their competency and efficiency?" He knows something about that point and will be sure to interest and instruct them.

The Daily News is trying to put in some heavy work on the Bellefonte post office fight, and is plugging at the Editor of the Gazette, the past few issues. The best of feeling seems to prevail between these political "ink slingers." Of course the News is anxious and solicitous for Editor Harter's success, (nit.) Such things are natural. While all this fun is going on the democrats can sit back and smile quite heartily.

George A. Walker, one of Tyrone's prosperous grocery men, was in Bellefonte over Sunday, as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ham Otto. Mr. Walker was at one time a hustling green groceryman at Bellefonte, and was located at the old corner of the Centre county bank building. The remarkable part about his visit is that it was his first trip to Bellefonte in the past seventeen years and was engaged in business at that place since. He found many changes and improvements about our town.

A Horse Bazaar.

Mr. M. B. Garman has a venture on foot that will interest horsemen in this vicinity. He purchased a plot of ground sometime ago on east Howard street, on the edge of the Boro limits, that contains about an acre. On this he will erect a building 32x96 feet and one story in height, for stabling horses. The design was made by Robert Cole and contractors are now making estimates on building the same.

The building will hold about fifty horses. It is Mr. Garman's intention to purchase horses by car load lots and bring them to Bellefonte where they will be kept for sale, and exchange. Drivers, coach horses, track horses, in fact all kinds will be kept in stock.

Mr. Garman takes an interest in horse flesh and should be able to make this venture a success. The contract for putting up the building was awarded to Samuel Gault.

Coasting Accident.

Last Friday evening Mac, a son of Wm. C. Heinle, while coasting on Bishop street, was struck by a sled and badly injured, about the knee. He is confined to his bed and will not be able to be about for some time.

The sled became unmanageable and ran into a telephone pole. Harry Bell was guiding the sled and the collision rendered him unconscious. Miss Lillie Smith sustained a badly sprained ankle.

Coasting has been quite good this season and this is the first accident of any account.

Fine Entertainment.

The entertainment held by the K. L. C. E., in the Evangelical church last Thursday evening, was quite a success and netted a nice little sum, which we understand goes towards paying the pastor's salary. The program consisted of choruses, trios, quartets, solos, assisted by the orchestra, and of declamations and dialogues. The young people certainly are deserving considerable credit for the able manner in which they took their several parts.

Dr. Colfelt to Lecture Here.

Dr. Lawrence M. Colfelt, so well and pleasantly known in Bellefonte, will lecture in the Presbyterian church on Friday evening, February 25th, for the benefit of the Ladies' Mite society of the church.

The subject of Dr. Colfelt's lecture will be "Assyrian Discoveries" and there is little need of our assurance that it will prove a delightful, as well as beneficial, entertainment. The price of admission will be 35cts.

Ransom's Entertainers.

Monday evening "Ransom's Entertainers" will be at Garman's Opera House. The program will contain the following specialties:—Elmer P. Ransom, magician; Elton S. Cornell, Soprano; Dora Harmon, mandolin soloist; Fred Hansell, world's champion whistler. This is the most unique entertainment of the course, overflowing with mirth, music, magic and mystery. Reserve seat sale opens Saturday Feb. 12; prices 25 and 50 cents.

For Rent—Several desirable houses for small families, at reduced rent. Apply to A. M. Hoover.

MILLSBURG.

Mrs. Blanche Stewart, of Altoona, was a recent guest at the home of Alton Sawyer and wife. Mrs. Ambrose Swartz, an esteemed lady of our community, has recovered after being ill for sometime. Roland Leathers and family, of Mt. Eagle, spent Wednesday of last week with Wm. B. Miles and wife. Prof. J. A. Sager's two charming sisters and their families were guests of J. C. McClosky and wife, Mr. Sager's boarding place. Call again, ladies.

Jesse Hidge and wife, of Blanchard, were the welcome guests of James C. McClosky and wife on last Friday and Saturday. They also visited other relatives in this place and before returning home they expect to visit in Marsh Creek. Melvin, our Daniel Webster of Central City, when called upon by Prof. I. A. Zeigler to make a speech declined. A few moments later he thought of his girl and made the remark: "I wish I had gone to see the lass who was looking for me."

The Central City grammar school received a treat from their teacher, J. A. Sager, on Saturday last, in making a visit to the Roland school, taught by I. A. Zeigler, who entertained the visitors so courteously that they desire to make another visit before the sleighing is gone. All were pleased with their ride and visit and report having had a very enjoyable time. On Friday evening, January 28th, the W. R. C. No. 3, of Post 261, met in their hall for the purpose of holding their annual installation. The officers were installed by Mrs. Sara E. Shultz, of Lock Haven, after which the meeting was turned over to Comrade J. C. Jones for the evening. He made some very encouraging remarks for which the members of the corps return thanks. The installing officer was the next to make some interesting remarks which were highly appreciated. Recitations were given by Misses Jane Stonerode, Minnie Gray, Stella Frances and Josie Kohlbeker, May and Annie Shultz, Lillian Crossman and Joe Grassmyer. The song, "A Merry Sunbeam," was sung by Misses Stella Frances and Josie Kohlbeker and was quite a success. The girls were dressed—one in red, one in white and one in blue and kept time with tambourines trimmed with red, white and blue ribbons. The song, "Please Find Kate," was nicely rendered by Misses D. K. DeCamp, Mary Shecker, Jew-Mand Smith and Mary Shecker. Owing to the absence of one of their musicians part of the musical programme was omitted. Mrs. Shultz sang "Where Are the Boys of the Old Brigade?" and "When I am Big I Want to be a Soldier." The chairman then called upon the officers to make speeches—Mrs. Crossmyer, Mrs. McMullen and Mrs. McCollum responding. The rest of the ladies substituted the phonograph so kindly tendered for the occasion by our young friend, Toner Hugg, which was very much appreciated by all. The visiting members from State College who favored them with their presence were Mrs. Showalter, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Herman, Mrs. Coryl, Mrs. Weaver, Mrs. McCollum, Mrs. Alexander and Messrs. Weaver and Moore. They were very much pleased and are cordially invited to come again. Short talks were delivered by all the members, and several lengthy rays were added to the fire by our friend, Capt. C. P. Stonerode, and thus ended a very delightful session of a camp fire of the Women's Relief Corps of Post 261.

Mr. Henry Resides, of Filmore, visited friends at this place. Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Korman made a business trip to Bellefonte. Miss Carrie Waddle, of Filmore, is visiting at the home of P. Dale. Miss Ida Glasgow, of the Loop, visited at the home of Mr. Nelson Kline. Mr. Charles Stamm and wife visited friends at Pine Grove Mills, last week. Mr. Aaron Wellers, of Julian, is visiting his uncle Joseph Stone, of this place. Mrs. Edward Sellers has returned home after visiting friends at Lewisport.

Since your former correspondent left our town, I will try to do justice to your paper. Mr. John Resides, of Sandy Ridge, visited his sister Mrs. Wm. Sellers last Saturday. Quite a jolly sled load of young people, of Boalsburg, spent Tuesday night at C. J. Stammers. A sled load of young people from Bellefonte spent Friday evening at the home of Thos. Gramley. Mr. David Gingerich, of Kippie, has taken possession of the roller mills. Now for good bread, as Dave is a good miller. Mr. Wm. Sellers had an operation performed last week by Dr. L. E. Kidder which was very successful. He is getting along nicely.

Persistent Coughs

A cough which seems to hang on in spite of all the remedies which you have applied certainly needs energetic and sensible treatment. For twenty-five years that standard preparation of cod-liver oil, has proved its effectiveness in curing the trying affections of the throat and lungs, and this is the reason why the cod-liver oil, partially digested, strengthens and vitalizes the whole system; the hypophosphites act as a tonic to the mind and nerves, and the glycerine soothes and heals the irritation. Can you think of any combination so effective as this?

Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion. See that the man and fish are on the wrapper. 50c and $1.00, all druggists. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York.

ARE NECESSARY

In bad weather. To do without them is to defy consequences, and that's neither wise nor prudent. Our storm shoes are an absolute protection to the feet, and those who wear them can smile at the down-pour, knowing that they're safe from harm. The cost is nothing compared with the benefit they confer. One pair will repay you the amount of the purchase money many times over. Don't neglect the advantage of storm-shoe protection, but be always prepared. Ice creepers for on rubber, a great success—have been tried and found to do the work.
