CORRESPONDENTS DEPARTMENT The News Gathered From Various Sections HAPPENINGS IN CENTRE CO What Our Army of Alert Correspondents See and Observe Worthy of Note—The Local Happenings of Every Community Will be Gladly Published—Send the News, We will Publish it.	The few sultry days, we had last week, reminded a person of spring. The "Erdman escapade" caused quite an excitement in the Esber camp, here. I. B. Snowers and wife were visiting friends at Hublersburg a few days last week. Miss Martha Goodhart, of Centre Hall, was visiting in our section a few days last week. Fred Carter was on the sick list, a few days last week, but is convalescing at this writing. I. B. Showers bought a lot of John Stoner and contemplates building a	Some changes will take place in the moving line this spring. Mr. Perry Steel is slowly recovering at this writing, of a severe illness. Mr. and Mrs. George Kaup spent Sun- day at the home of Reuben Kaup. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hile spent Sunday at the home of Elias Breon. Frank Beck, of Jacksonville, spent a few days at the home of Reuben Breon. Miss Lottie White, of Milesburg, is visiting at the home of Newton Steele. A few of our young ladies visited the Breon school house on Friday afternoon. Mr. John Tate is all smiles since Sun-	Services in the United Ev. church, next Sunday, at 10 o'clock a.m. Last Monday was Valentine day, and some of our people were greatly disap- pointed. The election passed off very quietly at this place, and all seem to be satisfied with the result. Many of our people are down with a bad cold. No wonder, last week was a splendid time to catch it. Mr. John B. Stover and sister Elsie were visiting at Tusseyville, last week. They report having had a pleasant time.	She hair from falling, and makes it grow, is because
