HAPPENINGS IN CENTRE CO

What Our Army of Alert Correspondents See and Observe Worthy of Note—The Local Happenings of Every Community Will be Gladly Published—Send the News, We will Publish it.

KREAMERVILLE.

Lloyd Walker will move to Rebersburg this spring.

Some of our boys, of this place, intend leaving for the West soon.

Wm. Brindle was home over Sunday. He expects to stay at Penn Hall this summer.

The old Veterans, of this place, turned out pretty well at the Soldier's dinner, in Harter's hall, on Saturday.

Advice to young ladies—Never get someone else to write a letter for you, it may result in a mistake.

We notice that Rebersburg has two correspondents for the Democrat. Glad you have arisen from your slumber.

W. H. Zeigler, solicitor for the Democrat, was through here last week looking to the interest of the paper, and reports having had abundant success.

Charles Graunley has given up his job of booting for his father at the hotel, in Rebersburg, and will locate at No. 43 Main street, Kreamerville, Pa.

W. H. Lettlich has the agency for the Keim wall paper, the best made for the price. He is a painter and paper-hanger by trade, and therefore fills the requirements of the people.

Carpet rag parties are all the go now, but it seems the masculine gender get no invitations to attend them. It is a secret society for the feminine class. Taffy and pop corn are the chief articles of diet.

The Methodists had communion services on Sunday last. The Rev. will have but one sermon to preach at this place for the closing conference year. His last discourse will be on March 6th.

H. A. Detweiler, the head of the primary school, gave an entertainment on Tuesday. It was a well gotten up affair and the children must be praised for so well rendering the pieces on the programme.

Valentine day is past, and we wonder whether anyone got one of those beautiful photographs? What is a valentine? A valentine is something dreaded by ladies, for it conveys the idea of the sender to the receiver. Not in words, but in tones that speak louder than words.

A POINTER.—It would be to the interest of some of our citizens not to talk so much about things that they have no reason to concern themselves about. They will bark up the tree sometime and receive answers they may not fancy. Moral—It pays anyone to mind their own business.

A few of the so called society belles, of Rebersburg, displayed quite a lot of what we term "lack of common sense" on the evening of the entertainment. We just wish to give them this advice, namely that they were in the house of God and we would suggest that they be more careful after this, or they might be sorry for their conduct. We know who you are, and if this shoe fits you, put it on.

No-To-Bac for Fifty Cents. Guaranteed tobacco habit cure, makes weak men strong, blood pure. 50c. 25. All druggists.

SPRING MILLS.

The snow that fell Sunday night, came to make lots of mud.

Chas. E. Royer has purchased the Grove property on the hill.

The popular landlord, D. H. Ruhl, had a very sick horse last week.

The election passed off quietly, and the democrats elected their entire ticket.

Daniel Heckman left last Monday for Ohio, where he expects to spend the Summer.

There is some talk that C. T. Corman will buy out A. Moyer's store, by first of the month.

Rev. Brown preached his last sermon last Sunday evening, before conference, which will be held at Danville.

Our teachers attended institute at Millheim, last Saturday. They were well pleased with the program that was carried out.

The planning mill industry is a certainty by one party, or the other. Why not have two planning mills and make our town boom. There would be work for both.

We are reliably informed that J. D. Long, our obliging postmaster, offers his residence for sale, and contemplates building a new residence; location not known.

Mrs. Samuel Krape, after lingering for several weeks with consumption, died on last Saturday; was buried at the Heckman chapel on Tuesday. Rev. Wolf, Rev. Isenberg, Rev. Brown and Rev. Faus officiated. Age 39 years.

John Weaver returned from Washington, where he had been for several days, attending to some business in the way of a patent. Mr. Weaver spent some time on the model, but we have not learned what it is to be, but we wish him success.

Our town will be improved during the coming summer. Building and repairing will begin early during the month of April. Mr. Jerry Snavely purchased Adam Neese's property, and Mr. Snavely will greatly improve same, for his future residence.

The latest in way of new building is that of J. D. Long and C. P. Long being erected on corner, near Grange hall. Building will be 40 x 60, three-stories high. First floor will be planned for business place, and offices. Second floor residence, third floor for lodge rooms. The structure is to be a frame building.

Everybody Says So.

Cascareta Candy Cathartic, the most wonderful medical discovery of the age, pleasant and refreshing to the taste, acts gently and positively on kidneys, liver and bowels, clearing the entire system, dispels colic, cures headache, fever, habitual constipation and biliousness. Please buy and try a box of C. C. C. 10-day; 10, 25, 50 cents. Hold and guaranteed to cure by all druggists.

REBERSBURG.

We consider street lamps very beneficial, but would suggest that they should be used when occasion calls for it.

Nathaniel Bowersox, of Wolfs Store, was in our town on Saturday, and it is reported that he has cancer on one of his hands.

The houses in our town have all been rented, and not enough for all the families. More houses should be erected on some of the vacant lots.

Mr. Charles Mumma, telegraph operator, P. R. R. of McClure, Snyder county, has been visiting his parents, and will leave for his home on Tuesday.

On Tuesday, Elmer Wolfe met with an accident, while sawing shingle blocks, his hand was badly sawed. Dr. Bright was summoned and dressed the hand in a first class manner.

Rumor has it that there will be a wedding in the near future, and, dear reader, by the time you will peruse these lines, "Davy" of Wolfs Store will also have left the single band.

The soldiers held their annual banquet in the I. O. O. F. Hall, on Saturday, and, considering the weather, they had a very good attendance. The Stover Orchestra furnished the music; all report a good time and plenty to eat.

REBERSBURG NO. 2.

Hello! Here comes the Bell Telephone. Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Small attended a banquet in Bellefonte, during the week.

Mr. Chas. Mumma is staying under the parental roof, since the death of his wife.

Our prominent and able Prof. Hosterman will open a spring term of school in about six weeks.

Mrs. Wise, who was the guest of her sister Mrs. J. P. Frank for the last week, departed for her home in Harrisburg, Monday.

We are glad to state that George Krumrine has had his eye sight restored, since a recent operation performed by Dr. Koser of Williamsport.

Prof. H. E. Bierly writes from his Virginia home, that words are inadequate to express his thorough appreciation of Southern life. His many friends here wish him continued success in his professorship at Va. College.

To Cure Constipation Forever. Take Cascareta Candy Cathartic. 10c or 25c. If C. C. C. fail to cure, druggists refund money.

LOCUST GROVE.

C. P. Long's lumber job is just about closed up. He will take out a few tooth-picks yet.

The wheat crop is not promising to be what it was last year. We think that prosperity struck it.

A certain man in our town keeps his girl home from school, just because the boys get a chance to talk with her.

One of our young men is going over to Brushvalley to see his best girl, and he never comes back till Monday evening. How is it Robert?

We believe that we have an excellent supervisor this year, because he knows just how the roads are from Beaver dam down to the line of Penn. Hope it will be fixed this summer, or somebody will get into trouble about it.

NITTANY.

Mrs. Mary Dorman and daughter are visiting friends in Hubersburg.

Mr. N. A. Yearick visited a friend of his in Hubersburg, a couple of days last week.

Mr. Henry Mowery and wife, of Fishing Creek, visited Mr. N. C. Shaffer on Sunday.

Mr. A. C. Young and J. W. Tolbert, of Mingo, visited friends here over Sunday. Come again guests.

The Winkelman Brothers are busy getting out lumber this winter, to build a couple stables in the spring.

Miss Ella Tate has returned home after spending several months in Kansas and Louisiana visiting her many friends.

Next Sunday afternoon will be Rev. E. W. Koonz's last sermon in the new United Evangelical church, for this conference year.

Mr. Samuel Butler, of Walker, was seen on our streets on Sunday. Sam is one of those good jolly fellows, and we are always glad to have him in our midst.

Our band has engaged Mr. Wm. Florey, of Pleasant Gap, for several weeks, as their instructor. They expect to get some very fine music, and have it prepared for the summer.

Mr. Rolley Hockman, teacher of the grammar school at Clintondale, and Mr. E. B. Winkelman our lustling fence agent, went to Millheim on Saturday, returning on Sunday. Their buggy top looked as though they had tried to make a sleigh out of it where the snow was drifted along the road.

NITTANY NO. 2.

Uncle Chas. received a letter from Brother Rock, who reports getting along nicely.

Some of our young folks attended the convention, at Lamar, and report a very nice time.

A couple girls from the east end of the county were up helping Clem to make taffy last week.

The band is getting a teacher next week, and that will prevent Joe from making his trip to Loganton.

Elwood and Rollie took a flying trip across the mountain to see their many friends, accompanied by Mr. Dexter.

Some of our young people visit the "pigs ears," and get loaded quite frequently. Boys, you want to watch that you don't get caught.

Some people are very lucky in having two girls, at the same time, and not knowing which to take. He leaves on the midnight express for Millheim.

On Friday night thieves visited the premises of Joe Emerick and stole two hams. The country is better off without such people and they should be severely punished.

Educate Your Bowels With Cascareta. Candy Cathartic, cure constipation forever. 10c. 25c. If C. C. C. fail, druggists refund money.

The Homeliest Man In

Bellefonte as well as the handsomest, and others are invited to call on any druggist and get a free trial bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs, a remedy that is guaranteed to cure and relieve all chronic and acute coughs, asthma, bronchitis and consumption. Price 25 and 50 cents.

MINGOVILLE.

Mrs. Losh, mother of Wm. Losh, is sick at this writing.

Jo. Zimmerman went to Altoona to pay his family a visit on Saturday.

Mrs. Swartz is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. L. Walkey. She is looking hale and hearty, for a woman of her age.

J. L. Walkey's sale went off very nicely, and everything brought about all it was worth. It amounted to between $300 and $400.

Mr. Guiser got his spring wagon remodeled and newly painted. It has the appearance of a new one. His son Frank, of Snydertown, did the work.

Mr. Christ Swartz, of Bellefonte, is down taking care of Mrs. Swartz's father Mr. Bierly. He has improved since last writing, but is not out of danger.

Harry Smith has returned home from Curwensville, where he had been working in a brick yard. He says wages are too low for the amount of work they want. More tariff reform needed.

Harvey Workman met with a painful accident one day last week at his father's saw mill. He was running the edger and got his finger fast between the revolving saw and a plank, and before the saw could be stopped it had torn and burned the flesh off, clear to the bone. It is getting along nicely at this writing.

Changes in renters this spring are as follows; J. L. Walkey will move to Hubersburg, and Wm. Emerick, of Jackson, will occupy the same. Jo. Corman leaves the Corman farm, not known where he will locate. Mr. Snook, of Millheim, will move in. Noah Brown will leave the Gramley farm and go to Wm. Miller's farm above Bellefonte. Mr. Swartz, of Pennsylvania, will move in.

Henry Dinkle, of Lock Haven, is visiting relatives in this section the past week. He is hearty and smart on his feet, for a man of his age and one of the remarkable things is that he is now nearly 87 years old, and can read and write without glasses. He is a democrat and never was absent from an election, no matter how small. He was always there to poll his vote. He was elected judge of election of the Fourth Ward of Lock Haven, this spring.

MINGOVILLE NO. 2.

This cold spell will make ice for the farmers.

The time is coming when the people who live on rented farms will have to move.

Here is a question for anybody to answer: What makes a black slate pencil write white?

Thomas Fulton is building quite a large store room on a small lot he bought from Judge Gordon.

The saw mill of J. White and J. Workman is getting along quite nicely in sawing. It keeps the Zimmerman Brothers busy.

Educate Your Bowels With Cascareta. Candy Cathartic, cure constipation forever. 10c. 25c. If C. C. C. fail, druggists refund money.

FROM SNOW SHOÉ

SQUIRE EISELE AND THE SWEDS.—On Sunday, February 13th, while Squire Eiselle was enjoying a siesta, there was a rap at the kitchen door. The squire, supposing that some of his neighbors were seeking admittance for a few points on the "Sunday school lesson," proceeded to the door, where he expected to find one of his two principal clients—Lawrence Redding or Johnny Brown. Upon opening the door, to his great surprise, in stepped a native of the Scandinavian peninsula, saluting him with the popular cry "give me to eat." Seeing that his Swedish caller was broad of shoulder, as well as strong of limb, very politely motioned to a chair, while he would endeavor to prepare such a repast as would alleviate the stranger's hunger. After "Swedy man" had fared sumptuously of the viands and drained his fifth cup of coffee, wiped the crumbs from his chin, pulled down his vest and taking a seat near the stove, then came the fun. The squire could not make the honorable guest understand to take his departure. He seemed more inclined to take the squire by the neck. Now our worthy squire is not a passionate man, but this raised his ire. Cutting across lots he begged the assistance of Matthew Conway, Manning Casselberry and H. Witheright, champions of Snow Shoe township, feather-weight, middle-weight and heavy-weight. But before he returned with the kind gentlemen who came to his assistance, the Swede had turned his face towards the setting sun, caused by the manly request of his son Johnny, who opened the door and, pointing towards the western hills, bid him depart in peace.

The squire was very much chagrined at finding, on his return, nothing to provoke him, but his smiling wife and laughing children. The joke was then on the squire, who cautions of alien elements, the would-be-extermiators of alien elements, to sing "mum" concerning the above affair. The joke is out and the squire has now purchased Jim Haines, gun, known as "Gentle Annie," and swears vengeance on all traveling men known as "Weary Willies".

HOWARD.

B. Weber was in Washington, D. C., this week attending to business.

Mr. John M. Wagner made a business trip to Bellefonte on Thursday.

Mrs. Lydia A. Havens, of Harrisburg, is visiting her sisters, Mrs. Reuben Lucas and Mrs. W. H. Long.

Mr. E. D. Dietz's family which has been very poorly with scarlet fever, is improving at this writing.

Saturday was pay day at the Jenkins Iron Tool Co., works. Quite a number of the boys received a nice, snug amount for their month's work.

Mrs. J. K. Boaney, of Mt. Eagle, was buried on Sunday. She was found dead in bed on Wednesday morning; neuralgia of the heart causing her death.

Mr. W. H. Long is putting a new roller process for making flour in his mill, and when it is completed he will have one of the latest improved roller mills in the county.

Last Tuesday was election day and everybody turned out to vote. The republican ticket was elected with the exception of justice of the peace, S. F. Kline, who was elected on the democratic ticket.

The box social held at the Syracuse House, on last Wednesday evening, was a success in every respect, some sixty persons were present. The social was held for the benefit of the Catholic church. The amount realized was about $9. It was one of the largest of the season.

—Business being dull, and in order to keep all hands busy, Shaeffer's studio will make one-half dozen fine cabinet photos for 99 cents, regular price $2.00.

ROMOLA RIPPLINGS.

Mr. Thos. Miller made a business trip to Gorton Heights, last week.

Jacob Welch and lady friend attended the concert, at Eagleville, on last Friday night.

Mr. Thos. McCloskey is at home, after an absence of eleven weeks, in Sullivan county.

Samuel Lucas and lady friend, Miss Kines, were seen on our streets on Sunday evening.

J. O. Miller made a flying trip home, last 13th. Orvis still has some attraction up the creek.

Miss Mabel Pletcher, one of Howard's belles, was a pleasant caller in our town on Saturday night.

Mr. Nathaniel Yearick, the Jacksonville merchant, was a companion of Rev. Runkle last Sunday.

Miss Mable Singer spent last week in Bellefonte, as the guest of her brother, Wm. J. Singer, Esq.

Mr. R. C. Daley's contumacious was conspicuous in our town for a few days last week. Clarence was home to cast his ballot.

Jacob Bechdel is engaged in the lumber business at present. He anticipates making some improvements on his house next summer.

Clayton Poorman is at this writing quite ill with brain fever. It is hoped, under the careful attention of Dr. L. R. Hensly, he will soon recover.

Miss Carrie DeLong has returned home; after paying a two-week's visit to friends in Lovelife and Stormstown. She reports a very pleasant trip.

Miss Mary Leathers, of Clarion county, is visiting friends at this place. Miss Leathers is a fine young lady and we are certainly glad to have her with us.

It is predicted that Rufus Johnson has made his last trip to Roma as a single man, i. e., he will bring the preacher the next time he comes. Boys, scour up your cow bells, and get ready for an old time serenade.

Mr. Jacob Welsh and father had quite an accident on Monday, the 14th, while coming down the road past the home of J. S. DeLong, the team became unmanageable and ran for a short distance, when the occupants were upset and seriously hurt, the buggy also being badly demolished. The elder gentleman was badly cut about the head and face, besides receiving several other painful wounds. Jacob came out with a badly sprained wrist and a few slight bruises. We are glad the result was not more serious than reported.

The subject of this sketch, Mrs. Wm. Mann, of Roma, was highly honored on February 12th, upon receiving a handsome bouquet of grasses and flowers, from her niece, Miss Mary Leach, of Germany. It was sent as a token of friendship, being gathered from the meadows of Mrs. Mann's native home, in Wurtemberg. Part of the flowers were artificial, being the work of Miss. Losch. Mrs. Mann not only appreciates the bouquet on account of its intrinsic value, but for the happy dreams of the past, when she was yet a young maiden playing in the vine-clad fields of her native country. Mrs. Mann has numerous presents which have been sent to her by friends across the seas, and friendly visits to her from those by whom she is so kindly remembered. The writer can assure you that Mrs. Mann highly appreciates these presents.
