

HAPPENINGS IN BELLEFONTE

Local Events Briefly Told in a Few Lines

PERSONALS, SOCIAL EVENTS

What has Transpired During the Past Week—Movements of our People—What the Local Scribe Saw Worthy of Mention—A Week's Local News in a Few Words.

—Mrs. Edward Meese died on Sunday at Coleville, aged about 80 years.

—Carpenters are preparing the corner room on the diamond, for Runkles confectionery and fruit stand.

—The streets in Bellefonte are dusty, while out in the country snow banks and deep mud make the roads almost impassable.

—Robt. McCalmont, manager of the extensive lime stone operations of McCalmont & Co., at this place, has been on the sick list.

—Miss Blanche Long left on Monday for Altoona, where she has secured a position in one of the large dry goods establishments.

—J. Malcolm Laurie, the laundryman, will sail for Scotland on the 9th of April. He goes to visit friends whom he has not seen for 14 years.

—Mr. James Shirk secured a position at Punxsutawney and left for that place on Tuesday. He secured a position in the iron works, at that place.

—Fountain W. Crider, of this place, was recently appointed a trustee of the state insane hospital at Danville, vice Wilson M. Gearhart, deceased.

—The chicken and waffle supper, at the Hasting's residence on Saturday evening, was liberally patronized. Over two hundred persons were there.

—A number of decided improvements have been made upon the interior of the Racket store during the past week that adds to the appearance of the room.

—Mr. Michael Conley secured a position as superintendent on the railroad operations near Gallitzin in which T. A. Shoemaker is one of the contractors.

—Mrs. Mary Snyder recently had a large tumor removed while a patient in the John Hopkins hospital, Baltimore, and has returned to her home at Snow Shoe Intersection.

—Miss Annie McBride, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis, is resting well and gradually improving so that her recovery is assured by the attending physicians.

—On Friday evening a number of our people went to State College to witness a game of basket ball with Cornell University, in the Armory. The home team proved far superior and won easily by a score of 27 to 6.

—Samuel Williams, the veteran house painter and decorator, has an advertisement in this issue in reference to wall paper that is appropriate for the season. Wall papers are down in price—lower than ever known.

—Cal Green is running a 5-cent shave shop down town, and announces that he is doing this "on account of hard times." A five-cent shave and a ten-cent hair cut is a slaughter in prices. Cal is another fellow who appreciates prosperity.

—Mr. Henry Zeigler and son Irvin, of Linden Hall, paid our office a pleasant visit on Saturday. They report the new United Evangelical church, at that place, about completed and will be dedicated on next Sunday the 20th of March.

—According to the Lock Haven Democrat Mr. Wm. Goodhart, of Millheim, has been in that community trying to interest the public in the construction of an independent telephone system from Lock Haven to Bellefonte, State College and other points.

—The report that Web. Kerstetter intends to discontinue the bakery business, in Bellefonte, is a mistake. He will continue at the same old stand on Bishop street where the best bread, cakes, ice cream and confectionery will always be found. He has a good business established and would not think of leaving Bellefonte.

—Mr. M. P. Bock, the lumberman, who has had extensive lumber operations at Gorton Heights, in Snow Shoe township for several years past, was in town on Monday and announced that he expected to move to New Ringold, Schuylkill county this spring, where he will operate a large shoe factory, recently purchased by him.

—In our last issue we failed to note the recent event at the home of commissioner's clerk Nelson Robb. The only thing about it we don't like is that the youngster will have a vote at twenty-one and will likely fall in the same political error of his "dad," who will give him the same training as he grows to manhood.

—On Monday Justice Keichline had the honor of officiating at the jail, in performing a marriage ceremony. The happy groom came from his gloomy cell and met the bride in the sheriff's office where the ceremony was performed, before a few invited guests. It had a peculiar effect on the present Deputy. We would not be a bit surprised in hearing that our friend Jackson would soon go and do likewise. Like some others, he has been procrastinating long enough.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ellis L. Orvis left Friday for Pittsburg where they visited friends.

—Mr. Henry Kline, a snapper at the glass works, had his wrist badly cut on Monday while at work.

—Mrs. J. W. Morris, nee Miss Charlotte Emmel of this place, now of Montanna, is visiting friends in Bellefonte.

—Mr. John Ward, of Stormstown, paid us a pleasant call on Monday and advanced the date of his paper another year.

—Messrs Lewis Stover and John A. Long, of Madisonburg, transacted business in town on Saturday and paid our office a short visit.

—Mrs. I. C. Reed, of Clearfield, Pa., visited friends in this section during the past week. They formerly were residents of this county.

—According to advertisement the Racket Store is now owned by Ralph Spiglemeyer, who purchased the interest his brother Shem, last week.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Gephart expect to move their household goods to Loganton, Pa., which place they will make their residence for a time at least.

—Don't send any more "Resolutions of Respect" to the Centre Democrat. We will not publish them unless paid at the rate of penny-a-word. Our space is valuable.

—On Thursday evening 3rd, Miss Ammerman, who has been at one of the large hospitals in Philadelphia, was brought home. While there she had an operation performed for some stomach trouble.

—C. C. Bell, of south Thomas street, will move to Huntingdon in order to have his family nearer his new work as instructor in brick laying and masonry at the reformatory. They will leave Bellefonte on the 14th inst.

—Miss Laura Cherry left last week for Shamokin, where she has accepted an excellent position in a large dry goods store in that city. Her brother Samuel accepted an excellent position in one of the large express offices in the same city.

—Messrs Wm. Harshbarger and C. S. Bitner, both of Potters Mills, passed through Bellefonte enroute for Illinois, where they expect to secure employment during the summer. Mr. Harshbarger is going to Freeport and Mr. Bitner to Wilton Centre.

—M. B. Garman's new horse bazaar will be almost completed by the close of the coming week. It will be a large building, with room for about a hundred horses. It is proposed to establish a horse market at this place, and handle fine stock only.

—Many of our correspondents delay sending in their communications until Wednesday. At least some of them do not reach here by that time and often, for want of time they must be omitted. Try and mail all correspondents by Monday, if possible.

—John H. Woomey, who has been a citizen of Millheim for some years, moved his family this week to Bellefonte, where he is employed by McCalmont & Co. They were good neighbors and good citizens, and our people were loth to see them go. What is Millheim's loss will be Bellefonte's gain. May success follow them is the wish of our people.—Millheim Journal.

—John A. Daley, "the tall sycamore" from Marsh Creek, was in town on Saturday and from appearances we would say that he has a political bee buzzing in his crown. John is a politician by nature and no doubt will be in the "push" for something. As he does not call to see us, no definite information can be given; but it would be a pleasure to push him along during the coming campaign.

—On Monday evening Benjamin Gentzel, of Spring township, left for Lasalle, county, Ill., where he will buy a car load of fine work horses. When he left he was uncertain as to when he would return. One thing is sure he will not come until he finds exactly what he wants in the line of horses. He will announce later by bills and through this paper when the same will be offered for public sale.

—One day last week a woman, who lives in Lock Haven, followed her husband to Philipsburg and found him parading the streets with a young lady, formerly of Bellefonte. A cowhiding scene followed and the wife drove the Miss away. Then she took her hubby by the arm and marched him toward the depot and they started by next train for home. As the train was pulling out of Bellefonte the wayward husband jumped off and deserted his wife. If you want to know their names, find out.

—The well known Christopher McKinley, a gentleman of leisure, boarded the train on Saturday evening for Salt Lake City, Utah, where he expects to make his future home with relatives. Before leaving he made a call on most of his friends about town and they heartily responded. Everybody seemed to be delighted with his intentions and wished him a safe journey, and hoped that he would be pleased with his new home in that Mormon country. Christ. will be greatly missed in Bellefonte—about election time; but what is our loss, is others gain.

—Editor Tuten is in Philadelphia this week on business.

—Potter Haines, of Snow Shoe, is one of the recent pensioners, at $6 per month.

—C. M. Bower, Esq., is attending to legal business in Lock Haven this week.

—W. Harrison Walker, Esq., was to Altoona, on Tuesday in quest of some of B. & L. Associations.

—Jacob Meese was arrested on Wednesday for stealing brass from the Bush estate and was taken to jail. More will follow.

—John Shrom, a graduate of the school ship Saratoga, left on Wednesday for New York and will accept a position on the Monitor "Terror."

—Dr. L. M. Colfelt, of the State college, has been received back into the Philadelphia Presbytery by a big majority and will be called to resume his old charge in that city, which he left on account of sympathy with the rather unorthodox views of Dr. Briggs. This is the same church Dr. Furby was pastor of not long since.

—On Tuesday evening Mr. Charles Eckenroth and Mrs. E. Kerlin, of Roopsburg, were married at the Lutheran parsonage by Dr. Holloway. From there they went to the groom's residence on Howard street, and were extended a reception by their many friends and members of Gregg Post. The Undine band serenaded them during the evening.

—J. Harvey McClure, one of Bellefonte's oldest citizens, died suddenly this Thursday morning at about 3 o'clock. He had not been ill previous to his retiring. Mr. McClure was 78 years of age and a saddler by trade. Two of his sons James I. and Wm., are following the same business in our town. The interment will take place Saturday morning. Mr. McClure was a member of the Methodist church.

Installation Services. On Sunday the attendance at the Lutheran church was large, the occasion being the installation services of their newly elected pastor Dr. H. C. Holloway, of Harrisburg. At the morning services, Dr. J. R. Dimm, president of the Susquehanna University, at Selingsgrove, Pa., delivered the charge to the pastor in which he outlined his duties and responsibilities. He was followed by Rev. L. C. McConnell, of Millifield, Pa., in which he reminded the congregation of their relations to the pastor and the duties devolving upon them. Both discourses were able, and instructive and appropriate for the occasion. The exercises were assisted by a choir that had some choice selections for the occasion.

In the evening memorial services were held upon the death of Rev. David A. Day, a missionary to Africa. Addresses were made by Rev. McConnell, Dr. Dimm and the pastor Dr. Holloway.

Little Kay's Eye Improving. Little Kay Dunkle, who a short time ago cut his eye with a pen-knife while opening a knot in his baby brother's shoe string, is now running about and as active as ever, suffering but little inconvenience on account of the injured optic. It is very likely that the little fellow's vision will be what is scientifically termed "divided" for some time, but in the end he may recover his sight unimpaired.—Tyronce Times.

The above is a son of Jno. A. Dunkle, formerly of Bellefonte, but now of Tyronce, where he is engaged as a contractor and bridge builder.

He Scored One. A smart duck dropped into this office the other day and interrupted the editor by the remark: "Say, Kurtz! Why is your nose like the Bellefonte Episcopal church?" Too much for us to guess, couldn't see any similarity and gave it up, when he replied: "It is above a gas house." He left quick, while the rest of the office broke their sides laughing at our expense.

Cooper Shop. A. G. Morris is building a large cooper shop at his kilns in Armors Gap. The building will be 30x100 feet. Quite a number of men will be given employment and will turn out 30 barrels a day. The barrels will be used to ship lime in. Heretofore they have been buying them from the stores but it seems they were not able to furnish enough.—Bellefonte News.

Scalp Bounty. During the month of February, 1898, the County Commissioners paid bounty on 27 wild cats, 71 foxes and 24 minks, and paid for 45 affidavits, amounting to a total sum of $148.25. For the month of January previous they paid out for scalps $146.25. On the first day of March they paid one person $75 for wild cat scalps.

After Horses. Last Saturday Mr. William Larimer and M. B. Garman left for Richmond, Indiana, where Mr. Garman will purchase a carload of the finest bred western horses. They expect to be back about the last of this week with about eighteen head.

Cruelty to Animals.

Last Friday constable Wm. J. Butler arrested Frank Devitori, an Italian fruit vendor at this place, for cruelty to animals. One day last week the Italian started on horseback for Lock Haven. When he got a short distance below Howard, Pa., he tied the animal to a tree in the woods, and jumped a freight train. The animal remained there in the cold storm for over two days without any food or shelter. The man was arrested and after agreeing to pay about $15 costs and take better care of the animal he was released. He only paid $7.50 for the horse in the first place.

Many of the foreigners imagine that the possession of any live animal gives them the privilege of doing with them as they chose, no matter whether it is cruel or not.
