

HAPPENINGS IN BELLEFONTE

Local Events Briefly Told in a Few Lines

PERSONALS, SOCIAL EVENTS

What has Transpired During the Past Week—Movements of our People—What the Local Scribe Saw Worthy of Mention—A Week's Local News in a Few Words.

—Mr. M. A. Rishel has been appointed as Superintendent of the tracks on the C. R. R. of Pa.

—Mrs. J. L. Spangler, of Bellefonte, is now visiting in Philadelphia, where she expects to remain until May 1st.

—The Garman House office is being repapered this week and fitted up in fine style by Messrs Durst & Eckenroth.

—The Knickerbocker bakery, at this place, formerly owned by B. C. Achenbach, has been closed by the sheriff.

—Mrs. W. F. Reeder is getting along nicely in Philadelphia and hope is entertained that she can return home before long.

—Boyd Cowher, of Fillmore, has started a restaurant in the store room on Spring street, next to Schofield's harness store.

—Mr. Chas. Sellers, of Oak Hall, passed through town on Wednesday on his way to Pittsburg where his parents moved recently.

—Edward Roan and family have gone to Punxsutawney where he has secured employment in the large iron furnace, at that place.

—Philip Beezer moved his meat market on Monday from the Brockerhoff Block, to the Benner Building, just around the corner, where he will have more commodious quarters.

—One day last week Wm. Barnes, electrician, had a narrow escape while on a high pole. It fell and by throwing himself from it as it dropped he avoided being crushed. It was a close call.

—Last week two smart chaps canvassed Millheim boro and sold several bushel of old water-soaked peas to the unsuspecting citizens for fresh green peas from Florida. They left the town soon after.

—Quite a number of pure silver dollars, counterfeit stamps of the Louisiana mint are in circulation. They pass all the tests for the standard silver dollar, only the minting is a little indistinct.

—Harry Condo, who is his father's chief assistant in the store at Millheim, spent a few days among his former acquaintances in town the past week. Harry is developing into a stalwart young man.

—Clyde Sheffer, the baker, who has been with B. C. Achenbach for the past four or five years, has purchased the bakery of the late Ephraim Wian, of Lewistown. It is an old stand and a good opening. Andy Toner will go with him to drive the wagon and assist him in the shop.

—Mr. Roy Bossuet, one of Bellefonte's best and most studious young men, left last week for Harrisburg where he has accepted a good position in the car shops at that place. If Roy is successful and his position is satisfactory to him he will return to Bellefonte and take his mother and sister along back with him.

—The Ladies Aid Society of the U. B. church, Bellefonte, cordially invite the public to be present at their anniversary in the church, Thursday evening, March 24th. A program consisting of singing, select reading, recitations, and speaking by visiting ministers, after which the ladies will serve lunch in the chapel.

—L. C. Wetzel, the bicycle man, has opened the completest bicycle store to be found in the Reynolds building. He has a great variety of wheels for sale, rent or exchange. All kinds of bicycle supplies, and is equipped for all kinds of repair work. He can sell you a new wheel as low as $25. Better ones on up to $75.

—J. S. Waite & Co., the enterprising dealers in farm implements at this place, have an advertisement in this issue giving a list of the leading farm implements they handle—anything from a first-class plow to a high grade traction engine. Parties expecting to purchase new machinery will do the prudent thing by consulting these gentlemen.

—Charles Hassinger, an employee at Morris' lime stone quarries, met with a peculiar accident last Saturday. A small stone struck him on the side of the neck, near the juglar vein and rendered him unconscious for a short time. It seemed to distress him very much and became ill from the effects of it. Under ordinary circumstances little attention would have been paid, but it struck a vital point.

—Last Thursday evening Hon. J. P. Gephart was suddenly taken ill while in the Prothonotary's office, and would have fallen to the floor had he not attracted the attention of Recorder J. C. Harper. He was taken at once to his home on Allegheny street and medical attendance summoned. It was found that he was suffering from a slight paralytic stroke. He was confined to his bed most of the time since and his condition is improving and it is expected that he will be able to be about again ere long. For several days prior to his illness it was visible that his health was not as good as usual.

—James Reed and James Bailey, two young lads about town, were put in jail during the past week for stealing brass from the Bush estate.

—Mrs. Susan Wilkenson moved on Tuesday to Harrisburg. Her children, Alta and William, have secured good positions in that city.

—Rev. Dr. W. A. Stephens, pastor of the Methodist church of this place, left on Tuesday to attend the Methodist conference which is convening at Danville, this week.

—Rev. Dr. Conklin, a distinguished minister of New York City, will fill the pulpit of the Presbyterian church on Sunday next, both morning and evening. A good sermon can be expected.

—Bellefonte is to be the place of meeting for the State Teachers' association this year, and July 5, 6 and 7 are the dates on which the county seat will be invaded by the army of pedagogues.

—Ollie Campbell has been transferred from Clearfield to Bellefonte as manager of the telephone exchange here to succeed Mr. Woomey, who goes to Scranton, Pa., exchange. Among the young ladies at the exchange we have heard no definite rumors of any of them securing new situations, although several are under consideration.

—Mart Garman received his car load of Illinois horses on Monday and has them quartered at Keller's hotel until his stable on Howard street is completed. They are a fine selection of drivers, most being pacers with good records. Horse fever is growing contagious among our sports since their arrival. Horse talk is all the go in the lively stable parlors.

—On Tuesday evening after a very successful revival meeting held at the Evangelical church, the members gathered at the home of Mr. John Roundtree and then went across to Rev. Gooding's in a body and tendered him a royal reception on his return to them from conference. About one hundred members and friends of the congregation were present.

—Benj. Gentzel returned last Saturday from a trip to Illinois where he had gone to purchase a car load of select farm horses, but he came back without having invested. Horses in that country have advanced rapidly in price recently owing to the foreign demand. Farmers in the east have paid little attention in the past few years to horse raising, on account of the very low prices, and now there seems to be a stronger demand than usual.

—Al Garman has been manager of the Bellefonte Opera House since it was built six years ago. During that time he has had some of the best attractions on the road and some that were not so good, but that was not his fault. The rule of the theatre going people has been, to give the good shows the small houses. In closing his management of the opera house he offers two of the best attractions on the road—Jas. Murphy in "Shaughn Rue," March 25th, and the World-famous Bros. Byrne, in "8 Bells," for Wednesday, March 30. If you want an evening's enjoyment go and see both of these attractions, as they come highly recommended.

A STRANGE STORY.

A remarkable occurrence had its culmination in this county last Thursday, the facts of which have just reached here.

Twenty five years ago Isaac Wrye, a wealthy farmer of Halfmoon township, came to Bellefonte to transact business. When he left two of his sons, Darius and Harry, aged 18 and 16 respectively, were at work in the potato field. When the father returned home the two sons were gone and a general search was instituted, but they could not be found.

Five years after the youngest, Harry, as suddenly reappeared. He had been out in the far west, but could give no information of his brother Darius. Two years ago his father died, and his brothers and sisters, some of whom were born after he left home, have grown up and married.

Last Thursday a bronzed and bearded man drove up to the farm house and inquired for Isaac Wrye, and was informed that he was dead, but that his widow lived there. The man went in and introduced himself as the long-lost Darius, and the man of now 43 years of age had little trouble in proving his identity.

Through his information it developed that Darius, in all this time, had never been further away than Millfin county, where he went when he ran away, and where he had remained ever since; first working as a farm hand and saving his money, finally purchasing a farm for himself, and now being a successful farmer of that country with a wife and family. And in all this time, though separated by only 100 miles, neither one had heard from one of the other and Darius had no knowledge of his father's death until his home-coming last week.

An Early Spring.

The mild and pleasant weather of the past week has set the farmers at work plowing and preparing the ground for spring crops. Garden making has been commenced and some farmers are reported to have planted potatoes. A number of trees have commenced to bud and the blue birds and robins are chirping. This also is the season when lovers sigh and become ill at heart.

—THE CENTRE DEMOCRAT and weekly Pittsburg Post, one year for $1.50.

CALLED DOWN AGAIN.

Last week the editor of this paper got a first-class calling down, by the following in the Gazette:

BELLEFONTE, PA., March 9, '98. ED. GAZETTE.—In last week's issue of the Centre Democrat the editor of that paper takes the opportunity of jumping on our President and calling him a "wriggler," an "old woman" and having no backbone in our present trouble with Spain. He seems quite full of patriotism now, but would his patriotism stand the test should we have war with Spain, and would he be one of the first to offer his services to the country? Why does he not take a reef in his vertebrae and show some of his backbone by trying to put a stop to some of our nuisances right here in our own town, such as the congregating in front of the Centre Democrat office every night there is an entertainment in the opera house of a gang of loafers who use language that compels respectable people to remain away from there, or at least have to put up with this nuisance if they do go. The same can be said of the gang loafing in front of the Brockerhoff House every night, swearing and blackguarding, even in the presence of the brave (?) and efficient police. Why does he not show his backbone by publishing such nuisances and coming down on our officials who are lacking in not enforcing our ordinances. Backbone is a different thing when it is in the opposition party, but when it comes to exhibiting it where it will serve the public, as newspapers should, then there is a decided deficiency of that article. Any paper that will be instrumental in breaking up the rowdism, as it exists in our own town, will have the thanks and support of all good citizens. Perhaps his backbone is worn out trying to acquit his friend and fellow politician, boss, Cornely.

The above is a centre shot—hits the nails squarely on the head. True, we prefer running a newspaper to dodging Spanish bullets and yellow fever; but if the country's flag demands support the cowards will not all be found in newspaper offices. Some will be among those who write anonymous communications—afraid to endorse their sentiments over their own signatures. That might be prudent, though, as some signatures materially detract from a meritorious sentiment.

An anonymous correspondent is a bushwacker, a guerilla; may more like a footpad who, under the cloak of darkness, waylays his prey and plunges a treacherous assassin's dagger at a foe whom he will not face. Now, Mr. "X," we admire your sentiment, but your anonymous style we despise.

In regard to local nuisances, and especially about the opera house, this office has been greatly annoyed. Frequently appeals have been made to the officers to have it abated, with little consequence. Now, if Mr. "X" has a remnant of courage and even a trace of backbone let him come forward in person. Together we will first jump our Chief of Police and his assistant for this dereliction of duty; next we will give manager Garman a piece of our mind on how to run a decent opera house. From there we will go gunning for Chief Burgess Naginye and comb the kinks out of his curly hair for not compelling the police to abate such nuisances. Next we will go before council and file complaint and ask their cooperation. That is what we will do, if Mr. "X" has the courage and backbone to come forward and assist. Should these efforts fail, we would carry a petition about town and could get hundreds of signatures to it asking the Burgess, the police force and the town council to resign for their incompetency.

Lecture at Lemont.

In the Presbyterian church, at Lemont, Pa., Friday evening, March 18, 1898, Prof. Francis H. Green, of West Chester, Pa., has been secured to deliver his celebrated lecture: "The Three Queries," Prof. Green was one of the leading instructors at the County Institute held in Bellefonte, Dec. 1897, and made many friends while there. His addresses and lectures were very instructive and much appreciated by all who heard him; he is a fluent and pleasing speaker and never fails to entertain and instruct his audience.

The teachers and others who heard Prof. Green speak very highly of him and are glad to have the opportunity of hearing him again. Doors open at 7 o'clock. Lecture begins at 8 o'clock. Proceeds for the benefit of the church. Admission 25 cents.

A Dirty Cave.

During the past week David Baughman, of Walker township, was arrested and released on habeas corpus hearing, on charge of making a felonious assault upon a 14-years-old step daughter. The girl gave directly the opposite testimony at the hearing from that made in the information.

Since then Sampson Wolf and Minnie Harpster, of same section, were arrested for keeping disorderly house. A great deal of immorality seems to prevail among some of these parties and an effort will be made to get rid of them.

A Cuban Prisoner of War.

On Thursday night, March 24th, Ona Melton, who was one of the "Competitor" prisoners and served eighteen months in a Spanish prison on the island of Cuba, is coming here to lecture on that war-torn land. His lecture will be illustrated by fine lime light pictures of scenes of the rebellion and will doubtless prove highly interesting.

It will be remembered the crew of the United States merchant vessel "Competitor" were seized by the Spaniards and thrown into prison for having aided the insurgents with supplies.

MY AWFUL DAD.

The Romola Grammar school will play "My Awful Dad," a comedy in three acts, on Wednesday evening March 30th, 1898. Also "The Spelling Skewl," which is a splendid production by the younger pupils and "An Old Time Teacher." Both are well spoken of as the best kind of a treat. Admission will be 5 and 10 cents. Doors open at 7.15, performance to begin at 8 o'clock. The proceeds will be used in purchasing a school library. C. V. DELONG, Teacher.

Laugh and Grow Fat.

The Bros. Byrne with a superior company will present the new "8 Bells" at Garman's Opera House on Wednesday evening, March 30th. If the old adage "Laugh and grow fat" counts for anything, it will be safe to predict that any one who has the pleasure to witness this performance, will increase in avoirdupois from the rise of the curtain unto its final fall, the spirit of mirth and fun prevails, calling forth prolonged laughter.

"Eight Bells" is a nautical production constructed on a scale differing in many ways from the average farce comedy, and it is refreshing to know that the art of genuine fun making on the stage, when pantomime, gymnastics and humor, coupled with novel scenic effects abound, is not a thing of the past. The Bros. Byrne of course, are a "whole show" in themselves; they are assisted by a capable company who help to make the play a complete success. The revolving ship scene, and the trick wagon are features worthy of special mention.

Mrs. Clara C. Hoffman.

Mrs. C. Hoffman will lecture in the Court House next Friday evening commencing at 7.30. Subject: "The Problems that Face Us." The lecture will be free to all and a crowded house should greet her.

Shaeffer's Art Studio.

Sending a Smile Perhaps there are faces far away that we like to see smile again. Faces that, just to look upon, would bring back a world of happiest memories. If you only have a good photograph of that friend it would help would it not? Perhaps there are friends of yours whom your photograph would make just as happy—happy if you'd send it now—glad to have it perhaps in the future when you may be far away. The cost is but little to please a dozen friends.

called Grain-O. It is a delicious, appetizing, nourishing food drink to take the place of coffee. Sold by all grocers and liked by all who have used it because when properly prepared it tastes like the finest coffee but is free from all its injurious properties. Grain-O aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. It is not a stimulant but a health builder, and children, as well as adults, can drink it with great benefit. Costs about 1/4 as much as coffee. 15 and 25c. No. 12

PLEASANT GAP.

Pleasant Gap expects to have a Normal this summer.

Mr. A. J. Swartz, has been suffering with a bealed hand.

The sweet song of the Blue bird has been heard this spring.

Mr. George Johnson was a caller in this place Saturday evening.

Miss Martha Miller is at present stopping with friends in Bellefonte.

Jennie says she had a lovely time the other evening. Of course Lemont was down.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Seitz, of Youngstown, Ohio, are visiting at the home of Mr. Wheelby.

Jerry Gill says he is sorry he poured out the contents of the bottle that he found, one day last week.

We don't know why Pleasant Gap don't have any weddings with so many marriageable ladies and men. The men are all old enough. For example there is our friend Jessie, but Jessie says he will get married as soon as some one will have him; good for Jess.

A young man from Bellefonte had the misfortune to collide with Mr. Gill one day last week. The consequence was that the young man's partner was thrown out of the buggy and the horse made every effort to run away. No damage was done, although the fellow lost his hat and also some glass ware, and yet, Daisy enjoyed the ride.

MOVINGS.—In the line of moving there will be quite a number. Charles Rimmer will move from the Miller farm to the Rollen farm, near Fillmore. Henry Walters will move from the Wm. Bilger farm to that vacated by Mr. Rimmer. Mr. Bilger will move on his own farm. Mr. Shaeffer will move from the Kauffman farm to Pennsvalley, and Mr. Ben Yearick will move from the Valentine farm, to the Kauffman farm. Mr. Albert Smetzer will move on his farm which he purchased recently from Judge Gordan. Mr. Frank Gettic, will move from the Gordan farm to that of Mrs. Hoy's, in Bald Eagle. Mr. John Garbrick expects to try farming on his own hook, on the Keller farm near Centre Hall. Mr. Nathan Dale will have sale of both farming implements and household goods, and will make his future home with his father. As yet it is not decided who will farm the Dale farm.

REBERSBURG NO. 2.

Dubs Stover, son of Rev. Stover, is seriously ill with a cold.

Our people are taking advantage of the public sales in our vicinity.

Charles Snyder, and his wife, of Millheim, were a short time in our burg on Sunday.

Rev. Stover will stay another conference year with us. We are glad to have him among our burg people.

Our young folks are very jolly because school is over; but it will only be for a few weeks then summer school will open.

Miss Lilla Sholl, who had just returned from New York, left again for Nippenose where she expects to remain a while.

Albert Steininger and his wife were at his grand-father's funeral, George Bierly on Monday which took place, at Hubbersburg.

We are afraid that the robin, which is already heard among the tree tops singing her old tune, is a little early to start in with the warm season.

Oh Monday morning Cyrus Erhard was taken by sudden sickness again. Mr. Erhard was just about over his spell of about six weeks ago, and now he is again seriously ill.

Wm. Bierly, Jr., is busily engaged in making the foundation for his new house at the west end of our burg. Zehi is is recht Bill, schmize der hoot inse eck und bring de grup-hock binner-rubm.

Mr. James Corman, our worthy supervisor, has already made note of the mud holes which need repairing in our burg and the surrounding country. No doubt Mr. Corman will show the people how to cut a hill down instead of merely trying.

AARONSBURG.

Rev. Browns have taken a trip to Union county.

William Maize, of Illinois, is paying his parents and sisters a visit.

Simon King, of Shicksinn, spent a few days with his aged mother.

J. C. Meyer and wife, of Bellefonte, Sunday with friends in the burg.

Wesley Adams, of Millfinburg, payed Thos. Halls a pleasant visit one day last week.

Editor Harter and wife, of Bellefonte, Sunday at the residence of Lewis Mensch.

On last Tuesday evening Mrs. William Guiseite presented her husband with twin girls. Both mother and babies are doing well.

The temperance lecture, given in the M. E. church on Monday evening, by Mr. Irvin, of Williamsport, was highly appreciated by the majority of his hearers.

Frank Holloway, of Illinois, has brought a car load of fine horses to town. He expects to have sale of them on next Monday, at Millheim. As Frank was born and raised here his many old friends are glad to see him again.
