COURT NOTES.

On Wednesday Judge Love handed down his decree in the case of Rose Lyon vs. Gustave Lyon. At the November term of court Rose Lyon received a verdict of $5375 against Gustave Lyon for alienating the affections of her husband, Moyer Lyon, and causing their separation. In January, argument was made for a new trial. The decision of the court is for the plaintiff to accept $4000 within thirty days or a new trial will be granted.

In the case of the First National Bank of Bellefonte vs. supervisors of Halfmoon township. The court directed judgement to be entered in the amount of $108.

On Tuesday Judge R. W. Archbald, of Scranton, presided at a special court for the purpose of hearing a suit in equity, between the executors of A. C. Moore, and Louisa Bush, ex-trix of D. G. Bush, to compel her to pay a certain large judgment obtained against the estate in the United States circuit court, W. D. Penna. The contention of the defendants is, that Louisa Bush is the owner of the property in her own right, by virtue of a sheriff sale to Jacob Tome in 1857, and afterwards conveyed to Louisa Bush. The property in contention is the Bush House, McClain Block, Spring street residences, etc.

The hotel liquor license of A. L. Nearhood, at Rebersburg, was granted on Wednesday. The other license applications were continued, but will be disposed of in a few days.

Laugh and Grow Fat.

The Bros. Byrne with a superior company will present the new "8 Bells" at Garman's Opera House on Wednesday evening, March 30th.

If the old adage "Laugh and grow fat" counts for anything, it will be safe to predict that any one who has the pleasure to witness this performance, will increase in avoirdupois from the rise of the curtain unto its final fall, the spirit of mirth and fun prevails, calling forth prolonged laughter.

"Eight Bells" is a nautical production constructed on a scale differing in many ways from the average farce comedy, and it is refreshing to know that the art of genuine fun making on the stage, when pantomime, gymnastics and humor, coupled with novel scenic effects abound, is not a thing of the past. The Bros. Byrne of course, are a "whole show" in themselves; they are assisted by a capable company who help to make the play a complete success. The revolving ship scene, and the trick wagon are features worthy of special mention.

McClure's Will.

The late J. Harvey McClure, by his will dated Feb. 10, 1896, gave to Mrs. Kate McClure, wife of his son, William M. McClure, all his household goods and effects; his stone house on Bishop street during her life, after her death the property is to go to her children; the use, rents of frame house on Logan street during the life of Charles, after his death the same to go to James L. McClure; of his frame and stone house on Spring street he gives the income to Charles McClure during his lifetime, at his death the property to go to his heirs, and if there be no heirs the same to go to the heirs of Mrs. Kate McClure. To his son, James L. McClure, he gives his three-story brick house on Bishop street and makes him executor of his will.

MORE CHICKEN THIEVES.

On Wednesday a large delegation, of State College and vicinity, were in Bellefonte to attend a hearing before Justice Keichline, eight boys from that borough had been arrested as part of the gang, who had been stealing turkeys and chickens in that vicinity. The evidence produced revealed the fact that for months these boys had been making wholesale raids on poultry and selling same to a huckster. Six were bound over to court and two were released. Thus far eight boys are implicated and held for court and several more arrests will be made Thursday or Friday.

We hope that those exchanges who may copy this article will not be misled to say that these boys were students at the Pennsylvania State College. They were from the town and not connected with the institution.

John Dunlap's Misfortune

This week John Dunlap, the constable, found it his unpleasant duty to make a levy upon the household effects of a family in the North Ward on account of unpaid rent. He did his work as directed and seized everything in sight, except an old billy goat, that he deemed totally worthless. The following night the man loaded up his household effects and with his family disappeared. The only thing left behind was the goat and this was found in Constable Dunlap's back yard tied to a plum tree. That was the only thing left for the landlord's rent claim.

John found some consolation in reporting that at least he had a goat, but to his surprise when he came back some one had stolen the stinking old goat too.

Pensions.

The following pensions have lately been granted through the agency of W. H. Musser, of Bellefonte: Increase - John T. Tate, Bellefonte; Geo. Meiss, Bellefonte; Anthony Gatens, Bellefonte.

New pensions - David H. Weaver, Pine Grove Mills; Reimbursement and arrears - to John Mills, Runville, Pa., on Robert Mills, Dec'd.

Centre Count's Deepest Well.

A few days ago the drilling of the deepest well in this county was completed, for Frank McCoy at the Lambert bank, near Scotia, it gets nearer China than any. Its depth is 760 feet, where an abundant flow of water was struck for washing ore. It is hard water; no rock was encountered, the drill working upon sand and ore beds.

To cure a cough or cold in one day. Take Krumrine's Compound Syrup of tar. Money refunded if it fails to cure.

FOSTER'S WEATHER FORECAST.

What He Has to Tell Us About the Coming Weather.

My last bulletin gave forecasts of the storm wave to cross the continent from 18th to 22nd, and the next will reach the Pacific coast about the 23rd, cross the west of Rockies country by close of 24th, great central valleys 25th to 27th, eastern states 28th.

A warm wave will cross the west of Rockies country about 23rd, great central valleys 25th, eastern states 27th. A cool wave will cross the west of Rockies country about the 26th, great central valleys 28th, eastern states 30.

Temperature of the week ending March 26 will average above east, and below west of the Rocky mountain ridge.

Rainfall for the same period will be above in northern, below in southern states, and about normal west of the Rockies.

Severe and dangerous storms are expected during the passage of the storm disturbance described in this bulletin, that is while the low is crossing the continent from the far west on 23rd to the far east on 28th. Preceding this storm wave a hot wave may be looked for, and being about the opening of spring in the northern states, this hot wave will lead many to believe that planting time has come. Better not lean too heavily on that belief, for it might prove a treacherous staff.

There are some indications that a great inversion of temperatures will occur in the northern states about March 23. I have not been able to fully determine this matter, but as it will only be eight days to the first of April, I would advise all who may contemplate work with which a sudden fall of temperature would materially interfere to wait.

Preachers at Work.

We are informed upon good authority that some hogs are already invading the trout streams and taking fish therefrom. For the benefit of those who know of these violations we publish the following Act of June 11, 1885:

"Be it enacted, etc., that it shall be unlawful for any person to catch, kill, expose to sale or have in possession, after the same has been caught or killed, any speckled trout, save only from the 15th day of April to the 15th day of July, under a penalty of ten dollars for each trout so killed or had in possession."

The following act relating to streams set apart for the propagation of fish, (Sec. 21, Act of June 3rd, 1878), may also be of interest:

Any person trespassing on any lands, for the purpose of taking fish from any private pond, stream, or spring, after public notice on the part of the owner or occupant thereof, such notice being posted adjacent to such pond, stream, or spring, shall be deemed guilty of trespass, and in addition to damages recoverable by law shall be liable to the owner, lessee or occupant, in a penalty of one hundred dollars for every such offense: Provided however, This section shall apply only to such ponds, streams or springs as shall be used or improved by the owners or lessees for the propagation of fish or game fish.

The Centre Democrat will give a special reward of $5 for the party who furnishes the information and secures the conviction of parties guilty of violating the trout law.

Decrease in Anthracite Coal.

Statistics show that in this state during 1897, as compared with 1896, there was a decrease in the production of anthracite coal of over a million tons, while the output of the bituminous coal increased nearly four and one-half millions of tons, and the output of coke nearly two millions of tons. Are our hard coal mines playing out, or is the increasing popularity of coke accountable for this report?

Colored Home Talent Entertainment.

The colored people of Bellefonte are now practicing for a home talent entertainment to be given here sometime in April. It will be for the benefit of the A. M. E. church and should be well patronized.

With perfect propriety may we call that excellent remedy, Salvation Oil, a timely friend. This liniment rapidly cures rheumatism, neuralgia and pains, when other remedies fail. Mr. Jno. M. Hall, Ashland, Va., writes: "I suffered with rheumatism in the ankle and the muscles connected therewith. Salvation Oil at once relieved the soreness, reduced the swelling, and cured the pain. No other liniment that I ever used did me so much good."

Shaefler's Art Studio.

Sending a Smile Perhaps there to a Friend. Faces far away that we like to see smile again. Faces that, just to look upon, would bring back a world of happiest memories. If you only have a good photograph of that friend it would help would it not? Perhaps there are friends of yours whom your photograph would make just as happy - happy if you'd send it now - glad to have it perhaps in the future when you may be far away. The cost is but little to please a dozen friends. The pose, the expression, the smile, we shall take pains to catch at its very best - just as though we were the friend to be delighted by receiving Shaefler's Art Studio.
