HAPPENINGS IN BELLEFONTE

Local Events Briefly Told in a Few Lines

PERSONALS, SOCIAL EVENTS

What has Transpired During the Past Week -Movements of our People-What the Local Scribe Saw Worthy of Mention-A Week's Local News in a Few Words.

-Trout fishing season opens on next Friday 15th.

-Dr. J. M. Locke moved his office last week to Spring street.

-The prospects of a large crop of wheat never was more promising. -Snow for the past few days makes our farmers anxious about the fruit crop. -Weavers Insurance office was moved on Monday to the rooms formerly occupied by Dr. Lock.

-Runkle's green grocery store is in its that. new quarters on the diamond and is enjoying a flourishing trade.

-Mrs. Thos. Moore and Mrs. Clayton Brown left on Tuesday for a visit of several weeks in Philadelphia.

his home by his illness and he is quite hopeful of his ultimate recovery.

-A. J. Greist is frequently seen in town moving about by the use of crutches. He has a touch of rheumatism in his limbs.

-The weather bureau must have gotslightly twisted. This cold spell is a surprise.

-Mr. Samuel McCoy left for Lock Haven Tuesday afternoon where he has accepted a position in the bicycle store of Ino. Waite.

-The Methodists are talking of having an old fashioned district school in their church after Easter, for the benefit of the aid society.

-Joseph L. Montgomery is now boasting of the fine boy that recently became a permanent visitor. It is the proudest event of his life.

-Mrs. E. N. Crain, formerly Mrs. Kate Caldwell, of Bellefonte, died in Altoona last week, and the interment took place on Sunday afternoon.

-Dr. and Mrs. Thos. R. Hayes returned to Bellefonte last week after an extensive trip to California, Hot Springs, Ark., Atlantic City and Mifflinburg.

-On Thursday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock the Seniors of the High school will entertain the public with orations. All are cordially invited to be present.

-The Pennsylvania State College base ball team will open the season on Friday afternoon, April 8th, when the Syracuse

-Dr. Seibert and M. B. Garman will soon be able to occupy the new stables that have been built to take the place of Legal Intelligence Gathered from Variou those destroyed by fire.

-J. Fearon Mann has sold his dwelling house in Bellefonte to J. I. Harris. of Philadelphia. The Mann family will move to Lewistown at once.

-Anthony Toner had an accident at Reynoldsville, Pa. where he fell through a bridge and broke his leg. He was going to DuBois to secure employment. -Last Saturday Al Garman opened up his Empire House. The one wing of the building, especially the third floor and roof, were badly burned and the lower apartments soaked with water. The insurance adjusters have not yet made a settlement.

-J. Fearon Man returned on Tuesday evening from an extended trip through the Western states, in the interest of Henry Wampole & Co., Philadelphia. He found business good. Of course it was! the farmers who had good crops and neither Bryan or McKinley can cause

-Harry Grove, a young man who some years ago lived in Bellefonte and clerked for Peter Keichline, died at Somerset, Pa., of nervous prostration, and was burried on Tuesday at that -John Kline, Esq., is still confined to place. Harry Walkey, of this place, a cousin attended the funeral. -David Kelley arrived in Bellefonte Monday from Philadelphia. He has resigned his position in the mint and has accepted the position at A. G. Morris's kilns made vacant by Lester Sheffer, who goes to Easton, Pa., where he has acten the months of April and March cepted the position of superintendent of the Easton Lime & Lumber Co. Mr. Shaeffer left for that place on Tuesday and his family will tollow several weeks later.

-Ex-recorder W. Galer Morrison joined the "Benedicts" on Monday and now is in shape to laugh at a lot of his slowpokey bachlor friends about town. Mr. and Mrs. Morrison are now comfortably located in their home on Bishop street. We hope that even the turtle doves may not know such perpetual bliss as the future may have in store for them. A complete account of the wedding will be found in our "Roland Items" on another page. -Dr. Dubbs, who will conduct the Easter services at the Reformed church, occupies the chair of history and archæology in Franklin & Marshall College at Lancaster, Pa. He is one of the leading educators of the Reformed church, and as a historian he occupies a high rank, being a member of a number of the prominent historical societies of this country and of Europe. His early life was spent in the active ministry, and he has the reputation of being a fine public orator. During his stay in Bellefonte he will be the guest of Calvin M. Bower,
