

THE RACKET

No. 9 and 11 Crider's Exchange, Bellefonte, Pa.

I nearly got my hair pulled last week because I spoke in my "ad" of the China Annex, Shoe and Kitchen departments. The different department clerks are just a little bit jealous, and each wants to have the best. They are all good, and that makes a good store, U kno.

The Domestic Department man says: Why don't U tell 'em about the big piles of muslin I have—cheaper than ever, and that 10-4 Sheeting for 12 1-2c., the biggest bargain ever shown in Bellefonte, and Table Linens too, etc., etc—all prices.

Sadie says, what's the matter with my department? It's chock full of bargains in embroideries, Prints, Gingham—Entire new line Ladies' Shirt Waists and Wrappers, etc.

Maud says—Talk of Goods. I have the "Gold Medal" Blacks, new Botany Mills Specialties, and the Lining department is full to over flow.

Eva says, Notions, Corsets and Hosiery. Mine is easily the best department—Will U decide?

G. R. Spigelmyer.

Prices

Printed in the papers do not tell the whole Story.

Our Prices

represent the most your money can buy.

Our Men's Spring Suits

at $7.50

Must be seen to be appreciated. The superior merits of our Suits to others at $7.50 are first the Fabric Because it will be just as we represent it to be—all wool.

Tailoring Because the "vitals" (the insides) are tailored with as much care and thought as the outside.

Style Because they are just as the standard of Spring '09 dictates.

Fit Because we take as much pains as the best Merchant Tailor to measure you perfectly.

Will others do as much. Can they do as much.

Montgomery & Co., Progressive Clothiers.

WALL PAPER.

Mr. Frank Packer, of Newberry, transacted business in our town recently.

Miss Mabel Pletcher, of Howard, is at present paying a visit among friends in this community.

We wonder if Sammy Lucas found any arbutus. If he didn't, some one else did. How is it, Sammy?

Misses Emma Kunes and Crissie Bumgardner, of Blanchard, were recent visitors among friends and relatives, in this place.

The Reformed church had communion last Sunday morning. Rev. Runkle preached an elaborate sermon to a large congregation.

Mr. H. S. DeLong spent Sunday in Beech Creek, at the home of his sister Mrs. Lydia Jones. He returned to Renovo on Monday.

The exhibition, by the Romola Grammar school, on March 30th, was a success in every way. They realized a profit of $5.75 above expenses.

We are sorry to note the loss of Mr. R. A. Poorman's valuable horse. It was an unpleasant surprise to him when he found it was safe in another man's barn.

Mr. C. T. Packer spent Sunday evening in Howard, with his best girl. It was a long time since he had been over, and almost forgetting where she lived, Mr. C. F. Robb showed him the way.

The Christian S. S. elected new officers on Sunday morning. Mr. Wm. Miller, superintendent and J. D. Brickley, assistant.

Miss M. E. Wensel, secretary, Carrie DeLong, treasurer and Effie Wensel and Merrill Brickley, librarians.

MOVINGS:—The following movings took place in this vicinity on or before April 1st.—Wm. Confer, from Bellefonte, moved into his own house in Romola. Wilson Boon set up house-keeping in the Joseph DeHass house. Wm. Wensel moved into his house near the school-house, and the vacated one, owned by W. I. Harvey, is now occupied by Wm. Gussalis, of Beech Creek. Ira Packer moved to Yarnell. Wm. Fry now occupies the Weaver house at the foot of the mountain. Jas. McCloskey moved into the Pletcher house in Slatbown. John A. Mann now resides in Peale. Mrs. Mann, who spent the winter at the home of her son-in-law, Wm. Quay, moved to her old home, up Marsh Creek. Chas. Weaver moved into his new house along the divide. Ed Welsh lives with his father and expects to do the farming this summer. Joseph Heichel who was recently married started to house-keeping in D. R. Confer's house.

ROLAND.

John Columbine is again pop. A big boy arrived at his place, week before last.

John Bryan wears a big smile. A big baby girl arrived at his home, Saturday a week.

The Misses Martha and Kate Parker, of Jersey Shore, visited at the home of J. M. Parker, their brother, this week.

Orlanda Bryan and Andrew Barger have returned home from Loggan where they were disappointed in getting work.

Samuel Bathurst returned home, Friday night, from Reynoldton where he expected to get work, but was a few days too late.

Mr. J. B. Archey, who occupied the W. F. Reynolds farm, about one mile from this place, moved Friday last to the farm occupied by Mr. Bittner, owned by Wm. Leathers, of Howard. Mr. Samuel Gertig moved, Friday, also, to the farm vacated by Mr. J. B. Archey.

Mrs. T. F. Van Scoyoc visited at her sisters, Mrs. J. B. Curtin, Monday and Tuesday. While here she attended the wedding of Miss Parker, of this place, and W. Gaylor Morrison, of Bellefonte, which event took place Monday evening, at 6 o'clock.

WEDDING AT ROLAND.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Parker, was the scene of a very pretty wedding ceremony Monday evening, April 4, in which their daughter Mabel M. Parker and W. Gaylor Morrison, of Bellefonte, were the parties interested.

The guests began to arrive at 5 o'clock and continued until the appointed hour, when the guests retired to the parlor where the groom was already in waiting. In a few moments the bridal party appeared consisting of Miss Kathryn Parker, sister of bride, and Miss Velta Williams, cousin of the groom leading; they were followed immediately by the bride, escorted by her father who retired when they faced Rev. A. P. Wharton, of Howard, who stepped forward and in a very graceful manner pronounced the impressive marriage ceremony. Congratulations then followed by the bridal party and guests. The bride was handsomely attired in light brown poplin, trimmed with light brown silk and satin ribbon. On this important occasion the groom never appeared to better advantage and bore himself with graceful dignity.

Miss Kathryn Parker and Miss Williams, the attendants of the bride, were attired, the former in green trimmed in cream colored silk, and the latter in blue trimmed in cream colored silk. After the ceremony they all retired to the dining rooms where elegant refreshments were served. The Curtin cornet band appeared later and rendered some choice music, after which calisthumpians also appeared and lent some variety to the scene. After the serenade, which lasted until 10 o'clock, Mr. and Mrs. Morrison and part of the bridal party drove to Mr. Morrison's home, on Bishop street which had been prepared for their reception.

The writer, with many friends over the county, join in extending the heartiest congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Morrison upon their nuptials.

MILESBURG.

In law nothing is certain but the expense.

Howard Craig, of Tyrone, visited his parents recently.

Every man is a volume if you know how to read him.

T. F. Adams, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday in the burg.

Life is not so short but that there is always time for courtesy.

Miss Edith Berry, of Beech Creek, is a guest of her aunt, Mrs. John C. Wagner.

Jacob Folmer, of Corper settlement, was a guest of his brother, Joseph, of this place.

Rev. Samuel Creighton, of Mackeyville, spent Sunday with Charles Eise and family; also preached morning and evening in the Methodist church.

Summer school in Central City will open Monday, April 11. Those desiring to pursue special branches will be at liberty to do so. J. A. Sager, teacher.

The Junior Epworth League will give an entertainment the night before Easter, April 9th. All are invited to come. The league has pledged itself for $50 for the new church and must have help to raise the amount. Five and ten cents admission.

Three years ago Rev. George E. King arrived in Milesburg to look after the welfare of this and the Unionville Methodist charge. He was a stranger among us. His winning ways and sociability with all won the hearts of his flock and community. During his stay of three years he was successful in building a handsome church costing $6,700. The members of his flock quietly started a petition to the presiding elder, Dr. Monroe, for his return from conference. A reception was held in the old M. E. church on Saturday night, the 26th of March, where a large audience, composed of members of his flock and many who were not members, assembled. Charles Eise made the welcome speech, responded to by Rev. King. Col. F. Weaver was called upon to make a few remarks, after which L. T. Eddy was called upon to say a few words. His speech was of the silent type and yet created lots of laughter. Afterward all were invited to partake of the refreshments. Some were spent in social conversation. It is useless to say that the hour for departure came entirely too soon and everybody left with the feeling that it was good to have been there.

No-To-Bac for Fifty Cents. Guaranteed tobacco habit cure, makes weak men strong, blood pure. 50c. All druggists.

AARONSBURG.

Mrs. W. H. Phillips is visiting her aged parents in Freeburg.

Mrs. Adam Bright, of Topeka, Kans., is the guest of Geo. Brights.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Stover, of Woodward, Sundayed at Newton Stover's.

Our tax collector, C. A. Weaver, took a business trip to Bellefonte, on Monday.

Noah Cronmiller, of Bellefonte, is spending a few days with friends in town.

Miss Annie Lambert has gone to Beech Creek, where she expects to spend the summer.

Miss Cordilia Acker is spending a few days of her vacation with friends, in Millifinburg.

Mrs. Charles has been to Coburn for the past few days assisting her sister in getting ready to move.

Mr. Jno. C. Stover and wife spent the greater part of last week at Bellefonte, as the guests of E. E. Ardrey's.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Smull, of Rebersburg, are spending part of their honeymoon with the former's parents.

Frank Hiltway is starting for his home in Brownstown, Wis., this week. He is taking Arthur Burd along to assist him in farming.

Mr. and Mrs. Heckman, of Loganton, and Mrs. Jamison and children, of Lock Haven, tarried a few days with the Kline sisters.

Wilmer Stover sold his house and lot to D. H. Kote. Wilmer expects to build a house south of town on a lot formerly owned by Geo. M. Stover. He expects to have the same up ready to move in until the 1st of May.

Edwin R. Wolfe, teacher of the intermediate school, has left for his home at Wolf's Store. This is his third term for the same school and it is earnestly hoped by his scholars to have him back when the next winter term opens again. Of the 53 pupils he had enrolled, Blanche Weaver and Homer Auman were the only ones that did not miss a day of school.

For $1.50.—You can get two weekly newspapers for a year—"The Centre Democrat" and either the "Pittsburg Post" or the "Cincinnati Enquirer." Our claim is to furnish the Most News for the Least Money.

SNOW SHOE.

March weather in April.

Rev. T. J. Fleming transacted business at Bellefonte, on Saturday.

Mr. J. A. Kelley is improving his residence by putting new window shutters on his house.

The people were surprised on Thursday morning by seeing two inches of snow on the ground.

Mrs. Beightol and Miss Annie Lucas intend having a summer school in the school building, at this place.

A Hungarian woman died at Gorton Heights, last week. The remains were buried in the Catholic cemetery at this place.

Samuel Dixon, the undertaker of this place, went to Driftwood to look after his interest in a large farm near that place.

George Loy, of Pine Glenn, passed through this city on his way to Spring Mills, where he is going to attend Prof. Wolf's summer normal.

Mr. R. W. Holmes has closed his school at Fountain and returned to his home near Eagleville. "Dick" intends locating in Philadelphia in the near future.

Miss Minnie McGowan and Miss Maud Rankin went to the Central State Normal School Lock Haven, where they are going to take a three month course at that institution.

We hear from good authority that there was a fish commission appointed for Snow Shoe. It is very much needed and will put an end to all fishing out of season. If the parties are caught it will put more money in the treasury.

Two young men from this place went to a festival at Moshannon. After they had taken their girls home and returned to their horse and buggy they found much to their dismay that some terminally boys had cut their harness.

Chas. Zindle's cow had its leg broken in the stable by some unknown cause. It is thought that in getting up the cow twisted its leg and in some way broke it. He had just purchased it from Wm. Poorman, two weeks before the accident.

Mr. Herbert Walker, the hustling clerk of R. J. Haynes, has given up his position as head clerk in the store. He will locate in Jersey Shore where he has secured a position with the Beech Creek R. R. Co. He left for that place on Saturday evening.

Charles Watson was forced to give up his interest in Watson & Casher's coal mines, owing to impaired health. Chas. intends going into the roofing and painting business, which will be better for his health. Kelley Bros. bought his share in the business and it will be operated by Wm. Chasher and the Kelley Bros.

The public school closed on the 29th, with the following program: Select reading, by Helen Livio, Louisa Burns, Effie and Edith Budgeger, Thomas McLaughlin, Clarence Lucas, and Ray Gililand; recitations by Lizzie Quick and Lena Healey. An oration on "The Down Fall of Nations" was given by Augustus Keck.

Mr. A. C. Thompson, principal of the schools at this place the past three years, returned to his home at Stormstown on Thursday. The people are sorry to see him go, but we shall like to see him back next winter. The schools of this place have made great progress under his supervision, and the directors cannot find many better teachers than he.

MOVING.—The following changes have or will take place in the near future. We are very glad to say that none of our neighbors are going to move out of town. Alfred Thompson moved from Moshannon Avenue to the Gussalis property on Fourth street. West Shope moved into the building vacated by Alfred Thompson. Mrs. Holt will move in the same building with W. Shope. Leo Hopton will move into the house vacated by Mrs. Holt. Robert Haddock moved his barber shop into Baddinger's brick building on Ore street. Harry Eckenroth moved into Baddinger's brick building.

The examination for the County Superintendent's diplomas, as finishing the common school branches, was held in the Grammar room at this place on the 26th. Mr. A. C. Thompson, of this place, Mr. H. Miller, of Moshannon, and Miss Rhoda Bows, of Pine Glenn, were appointed to act as examiners. Out of a class of 10, the following 7 passed with credit to the examiners and the County Superintendent, and were immediately rewarded with diplomas: Snow Shoe: Aug. S. Keck, Eliza Barr, Nellie Millard, Flora and Mary Penney, Moshannon: Miss Maud Rankin, Pine Glenn: Bertha Zimmerman. By the above statement there will be found only one young man which shows a very poor outlook for the boys. If the young men of this town and vicinity do not wake-up and get a little more energy, ambition and get-up in them the young ladies will take their place in the future.

For $1.50.—You can get two weekly newspapers for a year—"The Centre Democrat" and either the "Pittsburg Post" or the "Cincinnati Enquirer." Our claim is to furnish the Most News for the Least Money.

HUBLERSBURG.

Mrs. William Kinzer, a pleasant lady of Lancaster, is visiting at the home of her brother, Mr. E. L. Bergstresser.

Miss Alice Bergstresser, who for six weeks has been visiting in and about New York, is now at the home of Dr. McKee, of New York City.

Dr. J. L. Walkey, eye specialist, has removed from his farm above Hublersburg to the house of J. H. McCauley just vacated by D. A. Detrick.

Mr. Norman McClain, who was employed on the farm of Morris Furey, of near Bellefonte, had a bad cut in the right foot which will disable him for sometime to come.

Miss Josephine Bergstresser, a pleasant young lady of Renovo, is visiting at the home of her uncle, E. L. Bergstresser, of this place. Come again Josephine, we are glad to see you.

A mouth battle took place on the first of April between two of our residents, which was the outcome of one refusing to vacate the house rented by his opponent, his plea being on the ground that he was not warned out so he still holds the fort. The man that got left had to move in with an obliging, friendly neighbor.

Modern Pills.

The day of powerful drastic pills is past and everyone who is troubled with torpidity of the liver, constipation, headache or indigestion may well be thankful that it is. Every modern family medicine chest should contain a supply of Hood's Pills, the modern cathartic. While gentle and mild in action, they are thoroughly efficient and cure biliousness, indigestion, sick-headache and other troubles due to a deranged condition of the stomach, liver or bowels.

What is Scott's Emulsion?

It is a strengthening food and tonic, remarkable in its flesh-forming properties. It contains Cod-Liver Oil emulsified or partially digested, combined with the well-known and highly prized Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda, so that their potency is materially increased.

What Will it Do?

It will arrest loss of flesh and restore to a normal condition the infant, the child and the adult. It will enrich the blood of the anemic; will stop the cough, heal the irritation of the throat and lungs, and cure incipient consumption. We make this statement because the experience of twenty-five years has proven it in tens of thousands of cases. Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion, 50c. and $1.00, all druggists.
