A HORRIBLE DEATH.

On Friday afternoon a horrible accident occurred at Milesburg, which resulted in the death of Mr. Wm. H. Wagner, who was the operator of the steam flouring mill at that place.

At about 4.30 in the afternoon Harry Wagner, who was in the mill office which is close to the engine room, heard a noise, and thinking something was wrong in that department hastened out. He first saw blood on the wall and floor and found his father's hat on the floor, and a body in the swiftly revolving flywheel. The engine was quickly shut down and to his horror found the helpless body of his father there. The head was crushed in and most of the bones

The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon, from the residence on Pike street, in Milesburg. Interment was made in the Union cemetry at this place, and was very largely attended. The deceased was about 50 years of age, and was a son of the late John M. Wagner, of that place, who for many years conducting a prosperous milling business at the same point. He is survived by his widow whose maiden name was Miss Ellen Shope and by the following children:-Harry, Sadie, Vergie, Frank,

Wilbur, Edith and John. One brother and six sisters also survive him namely:-John M. Wagner, Mrs. Lew Wallace, Mrs. James Weaver, Miss Ellie Wagner, all of Milesburg; Mrs. Frank Weaver, of State College, Mrs. John Keichline and Mrs. Peter Keichline, of Bellefonte.

Able Bodied Men Wanted.

H. D. Loveland, of Lamar, who is authorized to enlist a company for the war with Spain, writes as follows: Please say in reference to the provisional company which I desire to enlist that I want able bodied men from 18 to 35. Any one desiring to be enrolled should send me a postal card or letter stating age and postoffice address, and say whether married or unmarried. Address, H.D.Loveland, Lamar, Pa.

A Circus Coming.

On May roth Ringling Bros. big circus will visit Bellefonte and a great day in town may be expected. The agent who was here on Wednesday says they have 58 cars. It is a western circus and this is its first trip through the East.

THE NEW SPRING HATS.

Well they are remarkable indeed. Anything that is new, an inovation or a de-Spring Mills parture, is what the milliners want, because it necessitates a purchase, as nothing of the kind can be relegated from the old band-box assortment. This new hat is one that is of large expanse, covers a large amount of territory, and consequently requires a great deal of decoration and fancy "fixins" all of which are considered an expensive luxury.

They are beautifully decorated with quet that delights the eye and paralyzes a healthy bank account.

NOT FOR EVERYTHING.

But if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble you will find Swamp-Root just the remedy you need. People are not apt to get anxious about their health soon enough. If you are "not quite well" or "half sick" have you ever thought that your kidneys may be the cause of your sickness?

It is easy to tell by setting aside your urine for twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is evidence of kidney Arthur.
