

HAPPENINGS IN BELLEFONTE

Local Events Briefly Told in a Few Lines

PERSONALS, SOCIAL EVENTS

What has Transpired During the Past Week—Movements of our People—What the Local Scribe Saw Worthy of Mention—A Week's Local News in a Few Words.

—The Knights of the Golden Eagle instituted a new castle at Milesburg, on Friday.

—Miss Eleanor Mitchell has returned home after spending the winter in Philadelphia.

—The engagement of Mr. Jacob Gross and Miss Margaret Curry was recently announced.

—Mr. Frank Kerns, the laundryman, of Sunbury, spent several days of the past week in Bellefonte.

—Mrs. Thomas and daughter, Mary, who spent the past winter in Philadelphia, have returned home for the summer.

—Mr. John Braucht and son, of Coburn, paid us a pleasant call on Tuesday and renewed their subscription for another year.

—On Sunday the communion services will be held in the Methodist Episcopal church and Dr. D. S. Monroe will preach in the evening.

—Messrs J. K. Hosterman and C. P. Weaver, of Wolfs Store, who are attending court this week, paid our office a brief visit on Monday.

—Among the marriages in Thursday's Philadelphia Press the names of Harry A. Jackson and Miss Nellie Whitaker of this place appeared.

—Charles K. McCafferty, of the 1st National Bank of Bradford, and his brother Lewis, both well known here, are seriously ill with typhoid fever.

—Dale Musser, son of W. H. Musser of this place, enlisted last Friday on the auxiliary cruiser San Francisco now being fitted out in Brooklyn navy yard.

—The horse sale at Keller's hotel, on Saturday, was largely attended. Many parties came all the way from Millfin county to invest. The horses brought a fair price.

—On Monday Sheriff Cronister and D. C. Keller made a trip to the Huntingdon Reformatory, where they took several of the boys who were before the last session of court.

—The lumber is on hand for repairing the Brown corner, which was almost entirely destroyed by fire several years ago. The dilapidated ruins should have been fixed up long ago.

—Numerous telephone people were in town during the past week to furnish supplies for the company recently organized here. It looks as though this company means business.

—Miss Edna Strunk, daughter of John Strunk, of Howard, who met with an accident last summer, thereby losing her right arm, is now a student in the Loydville orphan-school.

—James Hamilton, who probably is one of the oldest citizens in this section, and now in the 95th year, has been in declining health of late and at present his condition is considered critical.

—It is stated that Miss Newbaker, of Philadelphia, will take charge of the large pipe organ in the Bellefonte Presbyterian church. Miss Newbaker has had considerable experience in this line.

—If you come to the show next week don't fail to call around and see the editor. He may be quite curious in regard to your health, and especially should the label show that you are arrears on subscription.

—The ladies of the Presbyterian church are holding a series of very successful entertainments. Arrangements are completed for giving the old fashioned "district school" about the first of July. It promises to be a very interesting affair.

—Miss Lizzie Allen and Miss Jennie Morgan left for Washington, D. C., this week to tender their services as trained nurses and accompany the army to Cuba. These young ladies truly are deserving of the highest praise for such a heroic sacrifice.

—Robert F. Hunter, who is a member of Gen. Snowden's staff, left on Thursday for Mt. Gretna to join the National Guards. Mr. Hunter expects to be home anyhow for the coming Democratic Convention to look after his fences as a candidate for the prothonotaryship.

—Dr. H. C. Holloway delivered an interesting sermon in the Lutheran church on Sunday evening. It was on "God in American affairs" and was of historical interest showing the part that Spain has taken in establishing her rule in portions of the country, by the bloody sword. The discourse was timely and appropriate.

—During the forty hours devotion, in the Catholic church, from 8 p. m. Sunday to Tuesday evening, the following priests assisted Father McArdle:—Rev. J. J. Gormalay, of Renova; Rev. Francis McCarthy, of Lock Haven; Rev. James Saas, of Lock Haven; Rev. John Codori, of Lewistown, and Rev. Thomas Fleming, of Snow Shoe.

—Mrs. W. L. Dagget is visiting friends in Tioga county this week.

—Robert Barnhart had a finger smashed while coupling cars at Centre Hall.

—Mrs. W. F. Reeder arrived home the past week and is again enjoying good health.

—Ringling Bro's. Show will be in Bellefonte May 10th. It will be a large attraction.

—Have you noticed that wheat is now worth over a dollar. We predicted dollar wheat last winter.

—Curb market will start on Saturday morning May 7th. So says Tom Shaughency, and he knows.

—Miss Mamie Morgan returned home from Woodland, Saturday, after a few week's visit in that place.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. Murray Andrews arrived home this past week from Philadelphia, and will spend the summer in Bellefonte.

—Harry Jackson and wife returned on Tuesday from their wedding trip. They have taken rooms in the Haupt building, near the depot.

—Do we know Allen Rote, of Lock Haven? Well, I guess yes, he calls around quite often to pay his respects to one of our office girls. Call again Al.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Laughington, of Woodland, Pa., spent Sunday and Monday in Bellefonte as the guests of the McGee sisters, on East Logan St.

—Mr. J. T. Roundtree, the groceryman, is slowly recovering from a serious spell of sickness. Mr. Fred Musser attended to his business during his illness.

—George Eberhart, a corporal in Company B and now at Mt. Gretna, has received the news no doubt by this time that a bright boy came to his house on Sunday morning.

—On Friday evening a number of Bellefonte Eagles drove to Milesburg to attend the organization of a new castle at that point. Many representatives from other castles from about the county were in attendance and an elaborate banquet followed.

—Robert Montgomery and James Dolan had a close call on Saturday while painting at W. B. Rankin's residence. They were on a scaffold about 40 feet high when it gave away. The boys saved themselves by catching at a window as they were falling.

—Mingles' shoe store has a bit of novel enterprise. A handsome arm chair with foot rests has been placed in the store where all patrons can have their shoes polished free of charge. Edward Utz has charge of this department and does things up in first-class style.

—Wm. A. Stone, the man whom Quay wants to be the next Governor, will be in Bellefonte next Thursday evening. Every republican who has a Quay collar around his neck, every republican who believes in corruption, legislative debauchery, the wholesale purchase of votes, will be in attendance.

—The mercantile appraisalment appears in this issue. It was made this year by Harry Simler, of Philipsburg. There has been an unusual demand for advertising space the past month and much has been refused as the legal notices take much space, and infringe on our customary reading space. This will only be for a few issues.

—Theodore P. Rynder, of Erie, Pa., formerly of this county, attended the Populist State Convention in Williamsport last week and bagged the nomination for Secretary of Internal Affairs. While on his way home he paid friends in Bellefonte a short visit. Mr. Rynder is a born politician and cuts quite a conspicuous figure in these gatherings.

—Last Thursday morning when Mr. John Garbrack opened his store at Coleville he found a large hole burned in the floor and the room badly smoked. Investigation showed that during the night a spitoon, containing saw dust, caught fire and burned the floor away and then smoldered out. It was a piece of good luck, for had it gained headway other buildings would have been destroyed.

—On Sunday two parties brought the Sunday papers from Lock Haven. Some misunderstanding occurred and Chas. Cruse's agency was given the business. Mr. Baum concluded that as he had carried the papers during all the rough weather and when there was little demand, that it was unfair to have the business taken from him when it was becoming profitable. He secured his usual supply and on Sunday arrived from Lock Haven at 11 a. m., selling out in a short time every sheet. He was on time and supplied the market. He desires us to say that he will furnish the papers same as heretofore, and earlier than anyone else can.

—On Friday evening three young men were given a hearing before Justice Keichline, charged with tearing down flags and bunting used in decorating buildings. The boys admitted to a portion of the charge, after paying a fine of $6 they were released. This should be a timely warning to others not to celebrate too freely at night. It don't pay to become too enthusiastic over your love of country, by imbibing fire-water, because you are liable to do many things that you afterwards may regret. Hereafter the boys that this patriotic spell attacks should go away, far out in the country, where they can yell, scream to their heart's delight and no one will raise a talk about it.

—Strawberries of a fine quality are now in the market.

—Chas. E. Dorworth, of Harrisburg, arrived in Bellefonte, Wednesday evening, on the 8:32 train, where he will spend a day or so with his parents and friends.

—H. S. Achenbach, who has been with B. C. Achenbach, left for Philadelphia, where he will visit friends for a few weeks, when he will leave for his home in Kansas.

—Miss Ella Lucas and Miss Sadie Brower, who have just finished their trades of dress-making at the Misses Pearls, will be ready for all kind of work beginning April 15. Rooms over Lyon's store, Bellefonte.

Experimenting With Chestnuts.

C. K. Sober, of Lewisburg, is starting a chestnut orchard on his farm, near Shamokin. He is grafting some choice varieties on native young trees, the tract adjoining the mountain side. He already has about one hundred acres prepared. Last year he began on a tract of some thirty acres. The trees are about a rod apart. He expects returns in three years each tree likely to yield about a peck from the start. There are one or two large chestnut orchards in the state, started the same way, and are said to be excellent investments. Mr. Sober's experiment will be watched with considerable interest, though it is an assured success.

The College Debate.

The intercollegiate debate between Dickinson and the Pennsylvania State College was held in the College chapel Friday evening. The question was, Resolved: "That the United States Government should establish a National University." State took the affirmative and Dickinson the negative. States orators were Andrews, '98; Carpenter, '99; and Ruschlander, 1900. The judges were Attorney-General McCormick, of Williamsport; Prof. Learned, of the University of Pennsylvania; and Prof. Lee, of Cornell. After due deliberation the decision was in favor of Dickinson.

Flag Raising.

A patriotic demonstration will take place at Fairvalley school, Eckley's school house, in Benner township, on Saturday afternoon. The people of that vicinity have arranged for the raising of a flag-pole from which "Old Glory" will proudly float, in honor of the members of Company B, who recently left Bellefonte to answer the call of Governor Hastings for defenders in the present clash with Spain. Addresses will be made by Rev. Allen Rhen and D. P. Fortney, Esq. Everybody is cordially invited to be present.

They're Patriotic.

Mackeyville has a volunteer company and the following officers have been elected: Captain, Hugh C. Hayes, son of the late Lieutenant Hayes; first lieutenant, Millard Brownlee; second lieutenant, Robert Bartley. Thirty-five names are enrolled. Many of the men have the regulation guns, while others have improvised weapons, sawed out of boards. The men drill every opportunity they get.

Taken to Hospital.

Mr. Henry Comei, of Milesburg, left on Tuesday for Philadelphia to enter Pennsylvania hospital for the purpose of having his eyes operated upon. He has been blind for the last year or more, caused by erysipelas. He was at the hospital six months ago but was only partially operated upon, the eyes not being in proper condition at the time.

AT COUNCIL MEETING.

Wm. C. Heinle, Esq., appeared and presented a claim for damages for Miss Maggie Miles, daughter of Ex-treasurer John Q. Miles. Christmas eve the young lady fell on the pavement in front of D. Garmans, breaking her wrist. The amount asked was $75. By this accident the doctor bills amounted to over $25. The matter was referred to the street committee.

The Central Commercial Telephone Company was given the privilege to erect poles in the borough limits and establish a system.

Many nuisances were reported and minor business transacted.

The council ordered the Burgess to extend thanks to the fire departments of Lock Haven and Tyrone for their willingness to come to our assistance at recent fire and to offer to pay any expense which they might have incurred.

The following parties have refused to sign water contracts: St. John's Episcopal church, F. W. Crider, Jenkins & Lingle, First National Bank, Wm. Storm, Peter Mendis and McCalmont & Co. The water committee was ordered to cut off their water supply without further notice.

Bills to the amount of $661.42 were approved.

He Drank Witch Hazel.

The Lock Haven Democrat tells an interesting story about a former Bellefonte lad:—A few days ago while Mrs. Furst Krider, of Blanchard, was in this city on a shopping errand, her husband was seized with cramp, to relieve which he drank witch hazel. He soon after fell on the floor in convulsions and when he arose he was completely off his mental base. He procured a gun and began shooting through doors and windows at supposed Spaniards. He left a babe lying on the table while he took the gun and a hatchet and dragged one of the little children with him to the nearest farm house, terrorizing the neighbors generally. He became rational the next day.

We have often seen lads display the very same symptoms, but never knew that witch hazel caused it. If this becomes known this article will become a popular beverage.

Inconvenient for Some.

The departure of the National Guards to Mt. Gretna inconvenienced many of our people. Boyd A. Musser had to leave his post as an instructor in the Bellefonte High School and Supt. Eiters is looking after the work. Dr. R. G. Hayes, the surgeon, has left his practice in the hands of Dr. Seibring. Captain Taylor, the borough tax collector, has J. K. Johnston, Esq., to fill his place. Lieut. Jackson has no one yet to take his position in the bank. Then there is N. B. Spangler, Esq., candidate for the democratic nomination for District Attorney—he can't get anyone to take his place but says he will be home to put up a stiff fight at the Democratic Convention. Many other members were considerably inconvenienced by the call, but they did the best they could and went without a murmur, knowing it to be their duty.

Death of Hugh Glenn.

Friday morning, Mr. Hugh Glenn, an old and highly respected citizen of Bellefonte, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Jane Brown.

Mr. Glenn had been suffering for over a year from kidney trouble. He was born in County Antrim, Ireland, June 21st 1827 and was aged 70 years, 10 months and 8 days. In 1846 he came to this country.

The deceased is survived by one brother and two sisters, namely, Mr. Robert Glenn and Mrs. Nancy Bowers, of Buffalo Run, and Mrs. Jane Brown, of Bellefonte. His wife whose maiden name was Clark preceded him to the grave 10 years ago. He leaves no children. Funeral will take place Sunday afternoon.

Store Robbed.

On Sunday morning Peter Keichline found that his store, formerly the Chas. Rine stand, across the race, near the Bush House was looted during the night. An entrance was gained by breaking the glass in the window and releasing the latch on the inside. About $20 worth of cigars and tobacco were taken. The officers have some idea as to who might have been guilty of this act, but no arrests have been made thus far. This was a bold act and it is a wonder that they were not captured or discovered, as the store is located on a prominent thoroughfare of our town.

Death of Mrs. Charles Geheret.

Sunday afternoon about 4 o'clock Mrs. Charles Geheret died at her home on South Potter street. She had been ill since the first of January with kidney trouble. The deceased was born at Harrisburg, July 31, 1871, and was therefore 26 years, 10 months and 1 day old at time of her death. She had been married about ten years and is survived by a husband and one son, Earle. The funeral took place Wednesday afternoon.

On His Way Home.

Reuben Lane, the one legged tramp from Barnesboro, Cambria county, who "hoofed" it to Kansas to marry a rich widow, but got left on account of not being built according to specifications furnished, has left the Topeka hospital Friday for his Cambria county home. He expects to walk the entire distance.

EMERGENCY COMPANY.

The following is a copy of the list of volunteers who have given their names to H. C. Quigley as willing to join an emergency company at this place:

Capt. Hugh S. Taylor, in a letter sent from Mt. Gretna to Mr. Quigley, announces that when Company B is mustered in the regular army about twenty members will be dropped from the present roster on account of physical disability and such as may not desire to go. For that reason he will want at least thirty or forty more men to bring up the full quota of his company to at least eighty men. The limit is not more than one hundred. It is quite likely that at least about thirty will be selected from Mr. Quigley's list to proceed to Mt. Gretna about the latter part of this week.

Different Kinds of Kisses.

Someone with plenty of time on his hands has conceived the idea of hunting through the works of all the well-known English and American novelists for the purpose of gathering all the adjectives with which they qualify the word kiss. The result of his labor is that kisses can be as follows: Cold, warm, icy, burning, chilly, cool, loving, indifferent, balsamic, fragrant, blissful, passionate, aromatic, with tears bedewed, long, soft, hasty, intoxicating, dissembling, delicious, pious, tender, beguiling, hearty, distracted, frantic, fresh as the morning, breathing fire, divine, satanic, glad, sad, superficial, quiet, loud, fond, heavenly, execrable, devouring, ominous, fervent, parching, nervous, soulless, stupefying, slight, careless, anxious, painful, sweet, refreshing, embarrassed, shy, mute, ravishing, holy, sacred, firm, trembling, electrifying, ecstatic, hurried, faithless, narcotic, feverish, immoderate, sisterly, brotherly, and parasitical. The task seemed interminable and he gave up at this stage.

Consumption

Will SCOTT'S EMULSION cure consumption? Yes and no. Will it cure every case? No. What cases will it cure then? Those in their earlier stages, especially in young people. We make no exaggerated claims, but we have positive evidence that the early use of

of Cod-liver oil with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda in these cases results in a positive cure to a large number. In advanced cases, however, where a cure is impossible, this well-known remedy should be relied upon to prolong life surprisingly.
