ROMOLA.

Prof. H. P. Robb spent last week in Altoona, at the home of Rev. Lewis Robb.

Misses Alta Robb and Edith Wensel spent Saturday at the Academy, in Bellefonte.

Miss Mammie DeLong spent the last two weeks with friends in Howard and Beech Creek.

A number of our young folks attended Children's Day services, in Howard and Eagleville, on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Rufus Johnson, of Beech Creek, is spending this week in Romola, at the home of her father, Mr. D. B. DeLong.

Messrs. I. A. and C. T. Packer spent last Sunday in Mt. Eagle. They attended the festival in that place on Saturday evening, and report a very pleasant time.

Mr. Edgar Bechtel, of Blanchard, accompanied by John Robb, of this place, attended the big sale of town horses, at Millheim. Edgar purchased one of the finest horses in the lot.

Some of our young Americans had a boxing-match on their way home from Sunday school. They were badly used in the fracas, and we hope they will not try it again. "As the boy is, so is the man."

A. A. Pletcher, of Nittany, was in our midst last Friday. Mr. Pletcher is a candidate for the nomination of Prothonotary. He is an able man for the office, and his many friends in this section are interested in his honest plea for the nomination.

The Romola school library is completed to the extent of the money raised. We have twenty-five volumes of first class literature, and those who were interested in the noble work can borrow books by calling at the home of C. V. DeLong. They will be taken to the school-house as soon as the next term begins.

DEATH.—We are sad to note the death of another of our venerable citizens, Mr. Jacob Confer, of Romola. The angel of death laid hold on him on Wednesday, June 1st, 1898, at 7:13 p. m. Mr. Confer had been suffering with an ugly cancer, on the inside of the right cheek, for about a year. The last few weeks his affliction was indescribable, for more than ten days the only nourishment of any kind taken, was but two or three swallowings of water. He endured his suffering without the slightest murmur. Grandfather was born Nov. 10, 1817, thus at the time of his death he was 80 years, 6 months and 21 days old. There are left to mourn his loss, one brother, John, of Romola; one sister, Mrs. Pauline Haines, of Howard Twp.; seven children, whose names and addresses are as follows: Thos. Confer, of Beech Creek; Mrs. Gane Grant, of Karthaus; Mrs. Fannie Rorbaugh, of Beech Creek; Mrs. Mary Heickel, of Romola; Mrs. Nancy DeLong, of Winterburn; Mrs. Prudence Counsel, of Glen Hazel; David R., of Romola. Also thirty-six grandchildren, and fifteen great-grandchildren. Interment was made in the Christian cemetery, his pastor, Rev. M. S. Blair, officiating. The text was the 4th verse of the 23rd Psalm. "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me." This passage was very suitable for the occasion, as brother Confer was a consistent Christian, always attending church when it was in his power to come. He was a very inoffensive man, and it is safe to say he never harmed anyone, but was always found with a willing hand, being ready at all times to do his duty. His help-mate in life, Mrs. Mollie Confer, died about four years ago. They made their home for a number of years with their son David, of this place. The many friends and relatives have our most sincere sympathy, and we trust comfort will be found in the following stanza:

"He is sleeping, sweetly sleeping, Can you wish to wake him soon? When no trace of care or sorrow Ere can mark his peaceful brow? Would you wake him from that slumber, Call him from that rest with God? Rack on earth to travel with you In the path your feet have trod? Oh, methinks not. Though 'tis lonely, Bow and kiss the chastening rod. Saying, as I would will it, 'Tis as thou hast, O my God!"

BUFFALO, N. Y.—Gents.—From my personal knowledge, gained in observing the effect of your Shiloh's Cure in cases of advanced Consumption, I am prepared to say it is the most remarkable remedy that has ever been brought to my attention. It has certainly saved many from Consumption. Sold by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte, Pa.

MILESBERG.

Miss Annie Adams is visiting at State College.

Miss Bouse, of Tyrone, visited Miss Henrietta Wright, recently.

Miss Clara Jones and Miss Edith Kellerman had a pleasant visit in Bellefonte recently.

William Baird spent Sunday and Memorial day in Tyrone, also attended the races at the park.

First honors have been donated to Miss Henrietta Wright, one of the graduates of Bellefonte High school.

The Children's Day services will be held in the M. E. City hall at 10 p. m. next Sunday. All are invited.

Mr. E. A. Hall and lady friend, of Osceola, returned home on Sunday, after a brief visit to his sister, Mrs. John Miles.

Toner Hugg was victorious in the bicycle race, at Tyrone, on Decoration day, capturing the third prize, it being a $2.50 fountain pen.

The Junior Epworth League festival, held on Saturday night, was a success and proceeds amounted to $14.07. Thanks to the public for their patronage.

Mrs. Elijah Kellerman wished to return her sincere thanks to the person or persons who dressed and strewed her husband's grave with the beautiful white flowers.

James Noll lost a large hog on Sunday afternoon. At noon it was alright, in the evening at feeding time he found it dead. Do not know cause of death. Age not known. No near relatives were at the interment.

The fire company of this place, has taken a wise step, and are drilling and becoming acquainted with military tactics. They do splendidly. They want to be in readiness for the emergency, when Uncle Sam calls.

Miss Nannie Crain and Edward Cullin were married on Wednesday the 1st, by Rev. Geo. E. King. Eighty invited guests were present. Some very handsome and valuable presents were given. They left on the evening train for Portage, their future home.

One of the lady guests that attended the late wedding wished to give the bride a present, but was very particular, in her choice. Her mother, thinking to help her out of her dilemma, suggested to take a daily kitten. This did not satisfy, so she started for a store and purchased, a gift that was most too heavy to carry. Being acquainted with the driver she requested him to deliver it by wagon. It required some assistance to do so. When loaded started in high glee to the wedding.

THE FORLORN WIDOWERS.—What unpleasantness it is to a couple, who have been intimate loving friends, to part, like a thief in the night, for one to carry off the prize. Mr. Widower become more active in the future and do not let your expectations make you miserable. Come, pick up courage, and pick your flint. Try again, begin in a newness of spirit, with a stronger determination; do not wait so long before you pop the question. You must remember "a faint heart never won a fair lady"

LINDEN HALL.

Arthur Lee was seen in our village Friday last.

Miss Worth, of Glen Iron, visited her friend, Miss Lulu Loneberger last week.

Ross Campbell, of Rock Springs, spent several days in this vicinity with friends.

Harry Miller, of Coburn, was up over Sunday to see his cousin, who has improved somewhat since his last visit.

Mr. Williams was hunting up his republican friends last week—an agreeable man, but he will not be in it in November.

Mrs. J. H. Ross and sister spent Thursday and Friday of last week, with Miss Alka Musser, over at Milroy, and returned home Saturday.

Miss Anna Musser and Miss Heberling, two charming young ladies of Pine Grove, spent the day visiting J. H. Ross, last Wednesday.

Among the members of the I. O. O. F., who took in the picnic Monday, were J. Carper, A. Zeigler, Adam Blayer, Wm. Ramond and John Wibley.

E. C. Campbell and wife and Miss Shaffer were the ones from this place who attended Miss Maggie Bailey's wedding last Wednesday and reported lively to eat and lots of fun.

We felt rather sorry for our friend John L., but trust he will share better a week later as we will try and have or not have well John you just come around and no doubt it will be all right as it was before.

Wm. Raymond and David Snyder caught so trout each, May 30th, and visited Pat Garity. They say Pat can entertain anyone from a blacksmith to the president of the United States. If they go once surely they will go again.

Shiloh's Consumption Cure cures where other fail. It is the leading Cough Cure, and no home should be without it. Pleasant to use and goes right to the spot. Sold by Krumrine Bros., Bellefonte.
